Dual Monarchy, Under Orders of Emperor William, Concentrates Great Army on Drina.

VON KLUCK AGAIN DEFEATED IN ATTACKS AGAINST ALLIES

Vienna Reports That Jaroslau, Lost to Russia Several Weeks Ago, Has Been Retaken By Troops.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—10:40 a.m.—There is hope in London today that the anniversary of the battle of Jena, in which the French gained a victory over the Prussians and Saxons just 103 years ago today, may be celebrated along both battle fronts by events recalling this great and decisive struggle, but whatever the outcome only the briefest reports are received of what is now transpiring in France and in Russian Poland.

The latest French official communication declares there is nothing to report except a notable advance in the region of Berry-au-Bac.

Vienna reports that Austrian offensive continues successful north and south of Przemysl and that Jaroslau, an important fortress taken by Russia several weeks ago, has been reoccupied by the Austrians. A dispatch received here from Nish, Servia, relates that acting on the instructions of the German general staff, Austria has concentrated on the banks of the Drina the greatest army yet sent against Servia in a final and supreme effort to crush that country. Fierce skirmishes already have been reported between outposts and a big battle is said to be imminent.

Gen. Von Kluck Foiled.

Near home news of the military operations is more meager than in the eastern arena. Stubborn fighting is reported at (name deleted) and it is claimed that all efforts of Gen. Von Kluck to smash the allies' left have been repulsed. General Von Kluck is the commander of the German right wing.

SEVERE RHEUMATIC PAINS DISAPPEAR

Rheumatism depends on an acid which flows in the blood, affecting the muscles and joints, producing inflammation, stiffness and pain. This acid gets into the blood through some defect in the body processes, and remains there because the liver, kidneys and skin are too torpid to carry it off. Hood's Sarsaparilla, the old-time blood tonic, is successful in the treatment of rheumatism. It acts directly with purifying effect, on the blood, and through the blood on the liver, kidneys and skin, which it stimulates, and at the same time it improves the digestion.

Berlin announcement, recently sunk a Russian cruiser at a point distant two days steaming from their base and a great German squadron flying the flag of Prince Henry of Prussia is today reported cruising about the Aland Islands.

The ferment over the question of neutrality of the countries of southeastern Europe is increasing everywhere. An exception is found in the case of Italy, where discussion has been checked while the country awaits news from the sick bed of its foreign ministers.

The famous cruisers Goeben and Breslau are again a source of contention with Turkey on account of the report that they have passed into the Black sea and are today near the spot where a Russian fleet was reported to be cruising not long ago.

In England the controversy over the sending of naval reserves into Antwerp is confined to the press and the public, the authorities having made no report to criticism that the reserves were sent too late and in inadequate numbers.

FALL OF ANTWERP IS ANNOUNCED IN BERLIN

People Fill Streets, But No Formal Demonstration is Made—Kaiser Telephones Empress.

BERLIN, Oct. 14.—(By wireless to Sayville, L. I.)—The news from Antwerp was received last evening. No extra editions of the papers announced the fall of the Belgian town, but the fact became generally known before a late hour and the streets were filled with people carrying flags. There was no formal demonstration, however, but a great deal of satisfaction over the achievement of the German armies was everywhere apparent. It is commonly believed here that the army now will be able to soon force the French lines. Emperor William personally telephoned the news of the fall of Antwerp to the empress.

It is officially stated that the bomb thrown by British airmen at the Zeppelin hangar at Dusseldorf caused little damage. The roof of the shed shows an insignificant hole.

King Albert, of Belgium, in order to avoid useless bloodshed, is said here to have intended to surrender Antwerp, but was prevented by the British, who led the defense before the garrison withdrew. The British, it is said, destroyed 32 merchant steamers and 22 German Rhine river vessels lying in the harbor at Antwerp. This act is described here as a wanton destruction justified by no military measure in the inter-defense.

The following matter has been given to the press from official sources:

"An official telegraphic agency of Petrograd admits that the Russians suffered great losses in men and guns during the fighting of September with Austria-Hungary.

"The German press consider the fall of Antwerp a British defeat as the British spurred the reluctant Belgians to continue the resistance. During the bombardment of the city special flags were hoisted on buildings of artistic and historical value at the suggestion of the Germans."

CHASED BY WAR VESSEL.

Dutch Steamer Tells of Run From British to Port.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—Officers of the Dutch steamer Prinz Willem V., which arrived today from the West Indies, reported that the vessel had been chased by a British cruiser while off Asbury Park. Two German citizens were aboard the steamer. When the British cruiser approached the steamer was headed in short. She ran within the three mile limit. The war vessel then turned and steamed out to sea.

GERMANY ASSEMBLES HUGE ZEPPELIN FLEET

Believed to Plan Raid on England in Conjunction with Great Guns Now Being Built.

War Letter of the A. P.

AMSTERDAM, Sept. 30.—Reports are current in Berlin that the Krupps have completed some enormously heavy guns of a calibre and range never before attempted and that a large fleet of Zeppelins, according to some reports numbering eighty or more, is being collected near Kiel, awaiting a favorable opportunity to sail for England, according to the statements of a British newspaper man who has just returned from Berlin to Amsterdam. Artillery officers assured this correspondent that the new Krupp guns have a range of about twenty-five miles and probably are destined for use at some channel port in event the Germans secure a foothold there.

He also says the aeroplane factories in Germany are working day and night supplying machines and that 200 aviators are qualifying for military service every week.

"The English are more hated than either the French or Russians," he said. "The Germans would rather capture one Englishman than twenty of the others. In Germany, England is blamed for it, rightly or wrongly. She is accused of being at the bottom of this war. Neither officers nor men of the German army seem to have much regard for the British army as a fighting machine, but they freely admire the pluck of the British officers and the rapid range-finding abilities of British artillery."

More German Soldiers.

"Judging from what I saw in Berlin that city at this moment holds another five or six army corps of able-bodied young men attached either to the first or second reserve or to the landstrum. The same proportionately may be said of all the other German cities. Everywhere I was struck by the boundless enthusiasm for war. It is true that all the news is subjected to a severe censorship, and therefore the people who do not know other than that they are winning all along the line. Some more sober minds in Germany admit that they will get hard knocks some time and somewhere, but they have no doubt Germany will win. The prevalent opinion is that in view of the amount of German blood spilled in Belgium, that country inevitably will cease to exist except as a part of the German empire. Holland is regarded as a negligible quantity and it is taken for granted that the low countries will, of their own accord, become one of the German bantustans.

Food Plentiful.

"While it is true that there have been many commercial failures, in spite of this fact business is going on as usual, and in Berlin there are no unemployed crowding the streets. Food is cheap and plentiful and it is asserted there is a sufficient stock on hand for at least three years. So far as I can judge Germany is far from being 'on the knee' and we will need every available man to down an enemy who is so determined and whose enthusiasm borders on fanaticism."

An American resident of Berlin who also has just arrived in Amsterdam says it is impossible for the people in Germany to estimate the total German casualties. The lists published in Berlin give the losses of the Prussian army only, while the losses of the Bavarians, the Saxons and the Wurtembergers are published only in those kingdoms.

FRENCH PHYSICALLY STRONG.

Resistance to Fatigue Greater Than That of Germans.

BORDEAUX, Oct. 14—2:40 a.m.—The power and resistance to fatigue of the French soldier is six per cent greater than that of the German soldiers, declares Dr. Philip Tissie, an eminent physician, who made observations of 151 French and 256 German wounded in the Pau hospital. The observations were made with Pachons oscillometers which shows the effect of fatigue in the blood circulation.

The immense efforts which are demanded of the Germans greatly reduce their recuperative power, according to the doctor. Their blood, he says, is poisoned by fatigue to such an extent that when they die their bodies immediately decompose.

PROPOSES COTTON PURCHASE.

DEPOSITORS' RIGHTS UP.

Court to Decide Whether Losses Must Be Made Good.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—Whether depositors in state banks may resort to the courts to compel state officials in charge of depositors' guarantee funds to reimburse them for losses suffered by state bank failures depends upon the outcome of arguments today before the supreme court.

The specific cases presented to the court arose out of the failure of the Farmers and Mechanics bank at Sapulpa, Okla. The state banking board reimbursed the city of Sapulpa for losses sustained by it, but refused to reimburse certain corporation depositors and holders of deposit certificates.

WAR TAX ON PROPRIETARY MEDICINES IS ELIMINATED

Senate Committee Also Amends Revenue Bill As It Deals With Newspaper Shipments.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—Proposed taxation of proprietary medicines in the war revenue bill was ordered stricken out today by the democrats of the senate finance committee. Reports had come of general opposition throughout the country and Majority Leader Underwood and other members of the house ways and means committee had given notice that the house would not agree to a tax on "the poor man's medicine."

The committee also accepted an amendment to the proposed tax on shipment of newspapers. This would eliminate bills of lading in the shipment of newspapers and provide that all bundles included in a general package on a single train or other conveyance, should be regarded as one shipment. In lieu of bills of lading publishers would be required to issue on the fifteenth of each month a sworn statement of the number of such shipments made in the preceding month and attach to these statements stamps to the value of one cent for each shipment. Shipments of newspapers made within the county of publication would be exempted.

NINE PRISONERS ESCAPE.

Saw Way Out of Jail and Slide Down Rope of Blankets.

KANKAKEE, Ill., Oct. 14.—Nine prisoners sawed their way out of the county jail here last night, slid from an upper window on a rope of blankets and escaped. The delivery, it is said, was arranged by Charles Carney, suspected of being the leader in the diamond robbery at the home of Nellie Clark recently. The others were W. A. Norton, George L. Rickard, John Richards, Lawrence Sirion, John Kelly, George Loughran, Eugene Ware and Charles Robertson, all held under charges of robbery.

Four prisoners who refused to escape with the gang were threatened with death if they exposed the plot. They gave no sign until the last man had disappeared through the window, when Sheriff Dan Lee was notified by a series of yells. Posse was started at once in search of the fugitives.
