

ASK POLICE TO HOLD MAN FOR REQUISITION

Authorities At Decatur, Ill., Say Fred Briggs Stole Pocketbook and Diamond There.

Chief Holler received instructions from the police department of Decatur, Ill., Wednesday morning to hold Fred Briggs, charged with stealing a diamond ring from Luke Riley, of Decatur, until he could be requisitioned. Briggs was arrested Saturday on Washburn street by Bicycleman Lloyd while trying to dispose of a diamond ring worth $220 for $60 at a pawn shop.

When searched at headquarters Briggs had a pocketbook with a union card in it with the name of Luke Riley, Decatur, Ill., on the back. He told several stories about the pocketbook. He first said he found the pocketbook in Terre Haute. Later he said that he found the pocketbook on the freight train that he came in to Terre Haute on. Finally Briggs admitted that he found the pocketbook in a saloon in Decatur and that the diamond was inside when he picked it up.

Detective Fedderson notified the police in Decatur and Wednesday morning they telegraphed that the pocketbook and the ring had been stolen last week from Luke Riley, the man whose name was on the card in Briggs' possession.

HUSBAND BOUGHT VINOL FOR WIFE

Mrs. Kerns Suffering from Nervous Breakdown Thought She Would Never Be Well Again, But Recovered.

So, Cumberland, Md.—"For a long time I suffered from a general nervous breakdown of the system, and thought I would never be strong again.

"My stomach troubled me so I could not eat, and sometimes I was so weak I was not able to do my housework. Finally my husband heard about Vinol and asked me to try it. After the first bottle I was greatly improved. I have now taken five bottles and it has done me a wonderful amount of good. I sleep soundly, am well and strong, and feel like a new woman and you may publish this for the benefit of every nervous, run-down man or woman who wants good health."

It is the combined action of the curative elements of the cod's livers, aided by the blood-making and strength-creating properties of tonic iron contained in Vinol which makes it so efficient in restoring health and strength to weak, nervous, overworked, run-down men and women.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that if it does not help you, it does not cost you anything.
