

Don't wait until it's too late for the necessary alterations; make your selection at once; avoid disappointment.

See the gowns in our new Sixth street windows; we will gladly take them out if you request.

The Most Sensational Display and Sale of Party Frocks

Ever Held in Terre Haute Begins Thursday. See Our Wabash and Sixth Street Windows

Women's and Misses' Gowns and Dancing Frocks

For the Hotel Deming Opening and for the Charity Ball—in Fact, Every Winter Function

We have gathered together for the approval of those who are interested in evening dresses for the Hotel Deming functions, to take place this month, what we think to be the widest assortment of colors, styles and materials to sell inexpensively, ever offered by any store. The collections include many styles made of imported materials, which cannot be duplicated owing to the conditions now prevailing abroad.

Beaded Robes—Embroidered Effects—Accordion Pleated Effects—Lace Overskirt—Chiffon—Georgette Crepes

There are gowns almost royal in their richness; gowns for the reception ball room or banquet—a wonderful array of truly artistic models for afternoon, club and semi-formal dancing parties. We want you to see them all. Prices range as follows

—frocks of pink, blue, flesh, etc.; others get $17.50 and $20; on sale Thursday

—frocks of crepe, chiffon, etc.; all high shades; worth $5.00 more; on sale Thursday

—individual styles, beaded trimmings, high colors; charming in their simplicity; on sale Thursday

—gowns of the highest character; every new style, material and color; worth to $35.00; Thursday

$15.00

$20.00

$25.00

$30.00

Dozens of others priced from $35 up to $100. The assemblage is distinguished for its exclusive models and its diversity of styles. Don't fail to see them.

FARMERS' FESTIVAL IN ROCKVILLE TOMORROW

Plans and Program Are Arranged for Three Days' Entertainment in Parke County.

By Special Correspondent.
ROCKVILLE, Ind., Oct. 14.—The Farmers' Festival will be on in Rockville for three days, beginning with Thursday and ending Saturday night. The program for Thursday begins at 10:30 a. m. with band selections; 11 a. m., Earl Dougherty, aviator; 1:30 p. m., merchants' parade led by the Bellmore band and Rockville artillery, including automobiles; 2:30, artillery exhibition drill; 3:50, aviator in flying machine around public square; 7:30 band concert and Silver Toned Quartet. Friday—Horse shoe day, 10:30 a. m., parade of horses and ponies in the show; 11 a. m., Earl Dougherty, 3:30 p. m., aviator in flying machine; 4:00 p. m., lecture, D. O. Thompson, of Lafayette, secretary state stallion registration board; 7:30 p. m., band concert and Silver Toned quartet. Saturday—10 a. m., band concert; 11 a. m., Earl Dougherty's fly around public square; 1:00 p. m., novelty races, wheel barrow, bicycle, sack, foot, potato, etc.; 2:30 p. m., daring automobile ride up court house steps; 3:00 p. m., lecture, T. A. Coleman of United States agriculture department, on "Needs of Present Day Agriculture"; 4:00 p. m., Earl Dougherty's air sail; 7:30 p. m., band concert and quartet. Chicken and agriculture displays will be a part of the festival, which takes place about the public square. Fred W. Leatherman is president of the festival, Howard L. Hancock, secretary, and George C. Miller, treasurer.

INSPECTORS NAMED.

Parke Commissioners List Officials to Serve At Election.

By Special Correspondent.
ROCKVILLE, Ind., Oct. 14.—Parke county commissioners have appointed the following election inspectors to serve during the November election: Washington township, Howard Clark, Lee Overman; Liberty, Sam Vanscoy, Levi Miller; Reserve, John Doan, George Featherstone, Hugh Montgomery; Wabash, J. M. Goshorn, W. E. Hawkins; Florida, Joseph O. Evans, George F. Laney, Jeff Ladson, Richard Cook; Racoon, Marion Miller, Isaac Wood, George E. Branson; Jackson, James Goodin, Sandford Summers; Union, J. Q. Lee, W. R. Seward; Greene, Charles Livengood, J. E. Wilkison; Penn, J. M. Coffin, N. J. Evans; Howard, John Roach; Adams, Frank Keni, W. B. Collings, Robert Davidson, James Anderson; Sugar Creek, Juel Delp.

Will Wed This Evening.

By Special Correspondent.
ROCKVILLE, Ind., Oct. 14.—At 8 o'clock Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Geabler will occur the marriage of their only daughter, Miss Clara, and Isaac A. Pickard, Jr., only son of Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Pickard. The ceremony will be said at 8 o'clock before a large company of relatives and friends.

YOUR HOUSE IS NOT REALLY ON THE MARKET
if it is not advertised in the for sale columns of The Tribune.

Local Y. M. C. A. Teams Start With 81 Points

As a result of the first day's work in the state-wide membership campaign being carried on by the Young Men's Christian association, the local association scored 81 points, each of the two teams securing three members, but the Lions are slightly in the lead, as they have collected $25.
The reports from Indianapolis received at the Y. M. C. A. Tuesday evening give the standing of the various cities in the state as follows:
Indianapolis 1087
Crawfordsville 588
South Bend 545
Auburn 480
Vincennes 478
Richmond 364
Evansville 350
New Albany 298
Michigan City 162
Brightwood (railroad) 145
Terre Haute 81
Lafayette 61

MAN'S SANITY IN DOUBT.

The case of Arthur Lyon, who has been held by the police for several days for stealing a bicycle from Otto Wittenberg's saloon, 823 North Sixth street, was given to the grand jury for investigation Wednesday. There is a question as to the sanity of Lyon.

CONCERT ATTRACTS CROWD.

The song and victrola recital in the victrola department of the Herz store Tuesday afternoon attracted an audience of nearly 500 persons, and many were unable to gain entrance. Because of the number of requests it is stated that the elaborate program probably will be repeated in the near future.

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF.

The Superior Court found for the plaintiff Tuesday in the case of William Ball against A. E. Elser. Ball sued Elser, a wholesale candy merchant, for work done for the Elser concern. Ball contended that he had not been paid.

Members and friends of Jacob Hoop post, G. A. R., West Terre Haute, are invited to attend the memorial services at the Congregational church next Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. F. M. Esterbrook is improving rapidly from a severe scalding of the face suffered Monday evening. Mrs. Esterbrook was carrying a pail of boiling water in the basement of her home at 615 North Center street when she tripped and splashed the water in her face.

Herman Prox, the retired capitalist, has returned from his country home on the west side of the river, and will spend the remainder of the winter in the city, where the lights are brighter.

POLICE COURT DOCKET.

Mack Faucett was fined $10 and given 30 days in jail for stealing a pair of shoes Wednesday morning in Police Court.

Mick Brown, who was released from jail Tuesday morning, was sent back again Wednesday morning for 10 days for intoxication.

Clement Grovig will be held until Thursday morning for trial. He is charged with detaining women on the street while he was drunk Tuesday.

CAMP GIVES SLUM SUPPER.

A slum supper will be given by the Claude L. Herbert camp No. 38, Spanish American War Veterans, next Tuesday night in its hall, Fifth street and Wabash avenue. Every sailor, soldier and marine who served in the Spanish American war and his friends are invited.

WEST TERRE HAUTE NOTES.

By Special Correspondent.

WEST TERRE HAUTE, Oct. 14.—The Jacob Hoopes post 155, G. A. R., will hold special memorial services at the Bethany Congregational church next Sunday afternoon, October 18, at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. William Rodgers, Mrs. F. M. Rogerson, Mrs. Charles Sinclair, Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Mattox attended the state W. C. T. U. convention at Brazil Monday.

C. R. McCoy, of Vincennes, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Little, of Lee avenue, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Lee Erwin, of South Sixth street, will entertain the W. C. T. U. meeting Thursday afternoon. At this meeting the annual election of officers will take place.

Mrs. Sarah Misner, of South Tenth street, is visiting her brother, William Farley, and family, of Terre Haute.

Mrs. William Hurst, of West Rigby avenue, was hostess Tuesday afternoon for the meeting of the Baptist ladies' aid society. Routine business was followed by a vocal duet by Misses Anna Ray and Hattie Cooper. Luncheon was served to twenty-five members and visitors.

Miss Maude LaVanne returned to her home in Linton Tuesday after a visit with Mrs. Lewis Breuzens, of South Seventh street.

John Hornbrook, of Westfield, Ill., and Mrs. Annie Wright, of Marshall, left for their homes Tuesday after a few days' visit with their sister, Mrs. J. M. Hurst, of North Seventh street.

Edward Kelly and son, Arnold, of South seventh street, returned Tuesday from a few days' stay at Trinity springs.

Mrs. Charles Stoddy, of Terre Haute, spent Tuesday with Mrs. Amos Gabbert, of South Seventh street.

The Baptist ladies' industrial society will hold an all-day quilting party at the church, corner Fifth and Poplar streets, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gillians, of South Seventh street, have as their guests Mr. Gillians' mother, Mrs. Nancy Gillians, of Hawesville, Ky., and his sister, Mrs. George W. Egan, of Evansville, Ind.

The degree staff of Tonawanda council No. 224, degree of Pocahontas, has been invited to do degree work at Indianapolis October 22.

Y. M. I. MEMORIAL DAY.

Sunday, November 1, Set Aside for Holy Communion and Mass.

National Y. M. I. memorial day will be observed by Good Will council, No. 277, Sunday, November 1, with mass for the dead members of the council and holy communion. Every council in the Atlantic jurisdiction will celebrate on that day.

The initiation of a large class of candidates scheduled for next Sunday has been postponed until Memorial day. The council has inaugurated a membership campaign with the slogan, "Get Busy and Boost."

A dance will be given Wednesday night at the club rooms, Sixth street and Wabash avenue. Music will be furnished by the Armstrong-Miller orchestra.

TWO HELD FOR MURDER.

Young Boy and Girl Said to Have Confessed in Writing.

CHICAGO, Oct. 14.—Miss Ruth McCullough, a 20 year old "snake charmer," and her companion, Clarence McCormick, 18 year old son of a Hedrick, Ia., farmer, were arrested here today charged with the recent murder of I. W. Mollatt, a wealthy farmer of Hedrick, and are said by the police to have confessed their guilt in writing. Mollatt, according to information received here at the time of the murder, was shot while in his automobile and his head crushed.

AUTO TIRES STOLEN.

Alvin Wittenberg reported the theft of three automobile tires from his garage, 1055 South Fifteenth street, Tuesday night. The lock on the door of the garage had been picked. Patrolman McCullough found three outer casings for automobile tires in the back yard of the residence of Ed Vaughn, 1447 Poplar street, but Wittenberg could not identify them.

Balmacaans --- Mackinaws

Have You Thought About Them?

You can be sure we have, in selecting the best and most complete assortment, in all the latest patterns and fabrics.

Balmacaans $10, $12.50, $15

Mackinaws $5, $7.50, $10

Boys' and Girls' Mackinaws $3.95, $4.95, $5.95

See Our $15 Suits for Men and Young Men

Look around town and see what you can get in $15 clothes: come here last if you want to, and we'll show you the best $15 suits in the city.

Tartans, Worsted, Blue Serges, in all the new models.

DEEP VEIN COAL

NO. 4 WHITE ASH

WHITE ASH, NO CLINKERS

WE GIVE SURETY COUPONS

DEEP VEIN COAL CO.

950 WABASH AVENUE — NEW PHONE 1099 — OLD PHONE 2334

During 1913

The sale of Coffee Decreased in this country nearly 15%

During 1913

The Sale of POSTUM Increased nearly 25%

"There's a Reason"