

CHURCHES DYNAMITED IN HEART OF GOTHAM

Police Believe Demented Person Placed Bombs in St. Patrick's and St. Alfonso's.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—From bits of iron picked up in both St. Patrick's cathedral and in the yard of St. Alfonso's rectory in East Broadway the police believed that the bombs exploded yesterday and early today at the two edifices were the work of the same person or persons.

That the bombs in the cathedral were placed there by a demented person was the opinion expressed by Mrs. Lavelle, who left the scene of the explosion a few minutes before it occurred. The explosion rendered a boy, kneeling in prayer thirty feet away, unconscious and tore a hole in the floor several feet wide, splintered nearby new doors and chipped the marble ceiling.

The bombs on the areaway at St. Alfonso's church exploded seven hours after the one at the cathedral, and slightly injured a priest. It is believed to have contained a higher charge of explosive from the fact that windows in the rectory and in nearby buildings were shattered or loosened so that they fell from their frames. The shock of both explosions was felt for several blocks from the two edifices. At both the cathedral and the rectory the downward force of the explosions added weight to the opinion of the police that both bombs contained dynamite.

The explosion at the cathedral will not cause any halt in the usual services. An hour after it occurred the doors of the edifice were open.

Between the explosion of the two bombs a man, who said he was Olaf Olsen, stationed himself at the entrance of Holy Trinity church, on West Eighty-second street, and began to deliver an anti-clerical speech and to shout objectionable remarks at persons entering and coming out of the church.

In common with several other churches last spring Saint Alfonso's on March 5 was visited by an army of unemployed under the leadership of Frank Tannenbaum. The men forced their way into the church and almost all of them were arrested.

Makes Face Young-- Tightens Love Ties

A fretful expression, a wrinkled face and a faded complexion, do more to drive the male members from home than is commonly supposed. It was one of the greatest difficulties to appear smiling, fresh and elegant when my dear ones were with me. But I have overcome all that. I have changed my mental attitude and now my self confidence to look cheerful. Due partly to this, partly to a remarkable treatment recommended by a friend, my appearance has so improved I look fifteen years younger.

A simple face lotion made by dissolving an ounce of powdered salsolite in a half-pint of witch hazel, proved a wonderful wrinkle-remover, still use this occasionally. To motivate me further I purchased an ounce of ordinary mercurized wax at my druggist's and before using this up, a marvelous transformation took place, plus wrinkles were like removing an unsightly mask, revealing a new face, a youthful complexion of distinctive delicacy, clear, white and velvety. I merely applied this wax like a cream, were rubbing, washing it off mornings. Ten days' treatment sufficed.—"Aurilla" in Clubwoman.

SAVE YOUR HAIR! IF FALLING OUT OR DANDRUFF--25 CENT DANDERINE

Ladies! Men! Here's the quickest, surest dandruff cure known.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf.

There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine to-night—now—anytime—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowiton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; in incomparable gloss and softness, and what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.

"A Fair Rebel," the Biograph-Klaw and Erlanger film version of the war play of that name, will be shown at the grand today and tomorrow with the following episode in the "Million Dollar Mystery" filling out the program. Lillian Gish has the leading feminine role in "A Fair Rebel." On Friday Thomas Algy will be there in the first of a series of feature films offered by the Shuberts in conjunction with William A. Brady. Another Brady film, "The Dollar Mark," is scheduled for Sunday.

Nan Halperin, the musical comedy star, will be the headliner on the week end bill at the Varieties opening Thursday afternoon. Others on the bill are the Jurgenson family, a popular comedy team; George Randall and company in the farce, "All on Account of a Title;" the three Burns sisters in songs and Lauglin's dogs.

Sousa and his band are heard in concert only, on Sousa concert tours, but are now heard on radio. There are only two instances in which John Philip Sousa led his band in parade. One instance was when Sousa and his band escorted the First regiment at Cleveland in the Union side when the regiment was departing for the Spanish-American war. The other instance was when Sousa led the unparaded DeMolay parade in New York. Grant's band in Washington square. The band proper consisted of one hundred Sousa bandmen, while the fifes and drums corps of thirty-five followed. Sousa and his band played during the intervals when the band did not play. The sale of seats for the Sousa concert at the Grand Saturday night is now on, by the way.

Cecilia Loftus is the star in "The City of Promise," the three-reel Warner feature film that will be shown at the Savoy tomorrow. It tells of the adventures of a stage-struck girl in New York. The eighth episode in "The Million Dollar Mystery" is being shown today.

Mary Pickford is the star in "The Peacock," a Vitagraph comedy, that will be shown at the Crescent today.

Two Vitagraph comedies and a number of short films will be shown at the Fountain today. Lillian Walker, James Morrison, Dorothy Keely and Audrey Berry are some of the featured players.

The Thanhouser drama, "The Diamond of Disaster," is the feature of today's program at the Orpheum. Next to the music of course. The Orpheum's music always "headlines."

The Al G. Field minstrels are now "away down south in Tennessee." A feature of this season's show is a reproduction of the first American minstrel entertainment and the changes since that time. There is also a moving picture burlesque. Bert Swor is still the leading comedian of the organization.

There are two actresses on the American stage who have no written contracts with their managers. One is Sophie Adler, by whom and Charles Frohman, who directs her tours, there never has been a pen scratch. The other is Mignon McGibeny, the little "dream girl" appearing with Joseph Santley in "When Dreams Come True," which will be seen at the Grand Thursday, October 22.

As Miss McGibeny is but eighteen years of age, she cannot sign her name to a contract. She has been in a court of law. Still, she wanted a contract, oh, so badly, when Philip Bartholomae engaged her for her present part in "When Dreams Come True." "She will be no good, my child," explained the manager. "You can hold me to a contract, but I cannot hold you," wouldn't be so mean," she answered, pettishly. And so there has been no contract.

OVERRULES CITY'S DEMURRER.

Defense in Haley Case Given Until Monday to Answer.

After spending Tuesday afternoon hearing arguments in the case of Patrolman Patrick Haley against the board of safety of the city of Terre Haute, Special Judge George O. Dix overruled the demurser of the city Wednesday morning in the Circuit Court. The demurser alleged that the complaint had not stated facts sufficient to give cause for action. Haley is asking for a permanent injunction to prevent his discharge.

The defense was given until Monday to file its answer.

Haley alleges that he was discharged from the police force for political reasons. George W. Wells, city attorney, is representing the board of safety in the action, and Haley is represented by the firm of Roach & Ballard.

WILL TRY TO RAISE MONEY.

People's Association of the World to Open Campaign Monday:

The committee of Hugh Morrow, John Kiely, M. Sullivan and George Huey, appointed by Terre Haute assembly No. 1, of the Order of the Peoples Association of the World, to try to make arrangements to raise money to help the association secure and fit up hall, will start next Monday, October 19. All people who are in favor of uplifting all suffering humanity, and giving good entertainments, lectures and friendly debates are expected to take a hand. The association will appreciate any liberal offering.

WIFE CHARGES DESERTION.

Nancy Bryant filed suit for divorce in the Circuit Court Wednesday morning, asking separation from Leroy Bryant, alleging that he had deserted her and had failed to provide for her for the past two years. She also asked for the custody of their minor child, Catherine A. Bryant, two years old.

SUFFRAGE LEADERS PLAN FOR COMING CONVENTION

Mrs. Minona S. Jones, Sent Out By National Suffrage Association, to Speak Here Saturday.

Preparations for the constitutional convention rally to be held at the Chamber of Commerce rooms Saturday evening at 8 o'clock are going forward rapidly. Mrs. Minona S. Jones, who will be the speaker on that occasion, is well known and is expected to prove a great attraction. She is sent out by the national suffrage organization.

The club rooms will be decorated with the suffrage colors, yellow and white, and every effort will be made to have them attractive. It is hoped that it will be possible to add several good musical numbers to the program.

Mrs. Jones is a political speaker, whose name is particularly well known in the west, where she campaigned for Wilson. An amusing story is told in connection with one of her speeches in a small town in a western non-suffrage state. She had been talking suffrage and when she paused for a breath, one of the men in the crowd said, "If you were my wife I would give you poison." Quicker as a flash came back the answer, "If I were your wife I would take it."

Mrs. Jones will arrive Saturday afternoon and will be the guest of Miss Elizabeth Cooper while in the city. At the close of the meeting Saturday night there will be a social session and everyone will have an opportunity to meet the speaker.

PAVE WAY FOR EVANGELISTS.

Advance Guard of Fife Bros. Co.
Reaches City.

Coming from Sheridan, Wyo., Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kuhn arrived Tuesday to make preparations for the campaign for religion of the Fife Bros. evangelists, to begin Oct. 21. The campaign will be conducted at the Central Christian church, but is under the auspices of all the Christian churches of the city. A chorus and orchestra of 200 will aid the meetings. The members of the evangelistic company are, the Rev. Clyde Lee Fife, Robert S. Fife, assistant evangelist; Mrs. Bess Fife Brooks, leader of woman's work; Nell Fife Kuhn, pianist, and Fred H. Kuhn, business manager.

Every member of the company plays a musical instrument. Besides a quartet they have orchestra, violin, cornet, trombone, marimba, xylophone, soprano, tenor, contralto and bass soloists.

STILWELL WINS VERDICT.

Attorney W. Stilwell on Oct. 7 argued a case in the supreme court of Ohio, in which, for the treasurer of Holmes county, O., he claimed and recovered judgment for back taxes in the lower court for $4,439, now amounting to over $5,000, and which the supreme court on appeal, as he now learns, has affirmed. The verdict is the largest claim of that kind which has come before the supreme court on appeal or error, and is secured by levy on real estate and bonds.

B WON BIBLE CLASS MEETS.

Members Are Entertained With Several Special Features.

The B Won Bible class monthly business meeting was held in the class room at the church, Seventeenth and Sycamore streets, last night. There was a large attendance, a fine report was given by the devotional committee.

It showed that the class has been doing some extra fine work in the past month. The class has held meetings at the Light House Mission, and has had representative at the Taylorville church and has conducted services at the church at East Glenn. After the business session Rev. Rogers gave several selections on the violin with piano accompaniment. The social committee had a surprise in store for the class
in the form of an address from Mr.
Wilson on "King Solomon's Temple," which proved a treat. After the address refreshments were served. Two new members were taken into the class at this meeting.

YOUR KIND OF HEADACHE

The headache which in addition to the pain, gives the impression of a tight band about the head, is caused by nervous exhaustion. It is a blessing in disguise because it gives warning that you are overdriving your supply of nervous energy. Unless you stop the mental fatigue and build up your nerves you will be fortunate if you escape nervous breakdown, some form of paralysis or other severe nervous disorder.

Rest is, of course, desirable, but not always possible and liable to be deferred. With sufficient rest the nerves will build themselves up. Falling in this, you need something that will build them up and sustain them while they are kept moderately at work. Dr.
Williams' Pink Pills are probably unequalled for this purpose. They build up the nerves in the only possible way,
by enriching the blood with the elements the nerves need. The treatment is one of nutrition of the nerve cells,
requiring a non-alcoholic tonic and Dr.
Williams' Pink Pills have proved useful in so many severe cases that every sufferer is justified in giving them a trial for any form of nervous debility. They contain no opiate or harmful drug.

A little book on Nervous Disorders
will be sent free on request by the Dr.
Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady,
N. Y. All druggists sell Dr. Williams'
Pink Pills.

Every member of the company plays
a musical instrument. Besides a quartet they have orchestra, violin, cornet, trombone, marimba, xylophone, soprano, tenor, contralto and bass soloists.

SWEATY AND SORE FEET

These annoying and embarrassing troubles can easily be overcome. Here is the quickest and surest remedy known. "Two tablespoonfuls of Calocide com-
