

Baseball Curtain Falls After Successful Season

POST-SEASON SWAG GIVEN TO PLAYERS

Except for Banquets to Series' Heroes, 1914 Campaign Passes Into History.

"COMMISH" WINDS UP AFFAIRS

Feds Said to Have Interested Terreau, Fletcher and Burns— "Blowout" for Evers Tonight.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Except for a few echoes in the form of banquets to world's series heroes the 1914 baseball season passed into history Wednesday with the national commission's settlements with players, officials and club owners concerned in post-season activities. Owing to postponement on account of rain, a game remains to determine the city championship of Chicago. But Saturday representatives of the commission in that city have been instructed to effect a settlement for the triumvirate as quickly as possible. The national commission, at a meeting in the Waldorf Astoria hotel Wednesday, instructed Secretary John Bruce to draw checks necessary to square all accounts with those concerned in the world's series and the New York city championship series. Bruce mailed to Manager George Stallings in Boston a paper valued at $3,139.45, which is supposed to be shared equally by the members of the new world champion team. Representative Graham, who superintended New York's series, met Fred Merkle and Roger Peckinpaugh at the Giants' Fifth avenue building offices before noon and turned over checks of $9,537.91 and $6,588.61, respectively.

Graham departed for Philadelphia at 1 o'clock with a check for $18,750.00 which he was to turn over to Connie Mack at Shibe park, where the former world's champions assembled at 3 o'clock for the divis teaming. It was understood, though no official confirmation could be made, that Jimmy Walsh, of Philadelphia, and Pete Daly, of the New York, will share equally one portion of the latter's end of the world's series and the local games. This agreement was made at the time Mack traded Daly for Walsh.

Barnstorming Will Begin.
As soon as the Chicago series is terminated the 1914 season will be most officially wound up. Of course, there is the tour of the all-stars teams of the National and American leagues led by Frank Bancroft and Connie Mack, respectively, which will start from Chicago Saturday. And there will be no end of barnstorming in Cuba and elsewhere. But there are no concerns of the national commission. All but the Chicago clubs and the Boston teams have already disbanded. The citizens of the city of culture gave an elaborate banquet to the world's champions last night. Troy, N. Y., plans to honor Johnny Evers tonight and his most of his teammates. He promised the Trojan to go along to help him out. George Stallings will come to this city for a few days' visit to his plantation at Haddocks, Ga. By Saturday, then, the 1914 baseball season will be about as good as forgotten. An informal meeting of the national commission was held yesterday at the Waldorf Astoria, though none of the members would acknowledge that anything but routine was discussed. It is believed, however, that the activities of the Federal league came in for consideration. It was rumored about town today that Walter S. Ward, the business representative of the Brooklyn Feds, had interested three Giant players, Terreau, Fletcher and Barnes. This story President Harry Hempstead stoutly denied.

Both Presidents Ban Johnson and John K. Tener, of the American and National leagues, are inclined to brand the latest Federal enterprises as a dying effort to avoid the inevitable.

TOURISTS TO ASSEMBLE.

All-Star Clubs Open Barnstorming Trip At Milwaukee, Saturday.

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—Players who are to make up the all-star clubs of the American and National leagues will assemble here tomorrow for their post-season tour, which opens in Milwaukee on Saturday.

The American league club will be under the management of Connie Mack, leader of the Philadelphia Americans. Frank Bancroft, business manager of the Cincinnati Nationals, will have charge of the National league players.

After playing in principal cities of California, the clubs will sail for Honolulu on November 24 and return shortly after the first of the year.

FEW WELCOME MACKS, BACK FROM DISASTER

Only Handful of Fans Greet Fallen Champs on Return From Boston.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 15.—Only a handful of loyal baseball enthusiasts were at the railway station to greet the former world's champions when the latter arrived Wednesday from Boston, where they had lost their title to the Braves. There was a long line of disappointed ticket holders, however, at the department store where were sold the admissions for the third game that would have been played here had the Philadelphia team won a game in Boston.

More than $44,000 was refunded to the ticket holders. Many speculators purchased tickets at a premium up until the fourth inning of Tuesday's game, which cut into their profits on this series.

BRAVES GIVEN BANQUET.

Boston Fans Show Appreciation to Players for Their Achievement.

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 15.—The Braves' world's baseball champions, as a result of the sensational series with the Philadelphia Athletics, which closed here Tuesday, were given a banquet and reception last night by Mayor Curley. Praise for their achievement was sounded by various speakers, and most acknowledgment was made by Manager George T. Stallings and several players.

After the banquet many of the Braves left immediately for their home cities. They were each given checks Wednesday for $2,708.56 by a representative of the national commission as their share in the world series receipts. To most of them this meant about $5,000 for their season's work.

Many Braves found the season a big one financially, his income the past six months having been more than $10,000, including a bonus of $2,000 for his signature to a contract, $10,000, salary, a $3,000 bonus for finishing in first place and his world's series reception.

The winter will be spent quietly by most of the men. Several vaudeville troupes were at Fenway park Wednesday endeavoring to sign up some of the stars, but it is understood that none were successful.

"Rabbit" Maranville, who was on the stage last winter, may return this year. The manager, Stalling, said that the statement by Minister Pezet, of Peru, made at a dinner here that the Braves would tour South America, was a mistake, it was due, he thought, to the fact that some members of the Braves had been asked to play with the New York Giants on a proposed trip there.

Sox and Cubs Finish Today

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—A cold, drizzling rain which started five minutes before the game Wednesday caused the postponement of the seventh and probably the final game of the series for the city championship between the local clubs of the American and National leagues. The series remains tied at three and three.

CUB CATCHER ARRESTED.

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—Jimmy Archer, catcher for the Chicago National league baseball club, was arrested on a warrant charging assault, taken out by George E. Wolfson, a rug manufacturer, who says the ball player assaulted him at the close of Tuesday's city series game between the Cubs and White Sox.

Archer declares that Wolfson annoyed Mrs. Archer. Wilson denies the charge.

This picture of a house top within a few rods of Shibe park, Philadelphia, taken during one of the world's series games, shows that many of the dwellers in the city of brotherly love have thrifty instincts. Why help swell the already overcrowded coffers of the clubs, they argue, when they can see the game for nothing.

JACK DILLON PINCHED

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 15.—Jack Dillon, claimant of the middleweight championship, his manager, Sam Marburger, and his second, Robert Stalker, all of Indianapolis, were arrested here last night after a bout between Dillon and George "Knockout" Brown was stopped in the fourth round by Referee Eddie Randall, who declared the fighters were merely feigning.

Indiana Fit for Contest With Purple

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Oct. 15.—Sixty full minutes of scrimmage was given the Indiana squad Wednesday night when the time touchdown after touchdown was made against the freshman team. It was the longest workout of the season, and it was played every minute of the time, and as a result the crimson rooters now believe Indiana will have a good chance of dawning the Northwestern team Saturday.

Every man on the squad, including the thirteen injured at Chicago, was out. Whitaker, the stocky quarterback, played in the game, although he still limps from his wrenched knee. Frenzel, 185-pound guard, rejoined the squad.

Athletic Director Berndt said he had received a message from Evanston, asking that three hundred tickets be sent for use Saturday and that the purple crew would be accompanied by a special train load of rooters. The Northwestern band will come with the crew, and from broadcast indications the attendance should be large.

Ritchie to Box Dundee

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 15.—Willie Ritchie and Johnny Dundee were signed here today for a fight on the evening of October 25.

This will be Ritchie's first match since he was defeated as lightweight champion by Freddie Welsh, of England.

DEPAUW COACH DRIVES MEN.

Bogle Displaced With Methodists' Showing Against Franklin.

GREENCASTLE, Ind., Oct. 15.—As a result of the game with Franklin, in which the DePauw football team barely got away with a victory, Coach Bogle has been sending his men through the most strenuous practice of the season. This consists of workouts in the rudiments of the game and scrimmages in which the regulars are pitted against the scrubs and about four other players thrown in with the latter for good count.

The last endeavor to bring the two teams together in another post-season game was defeated Wednesday afternoon, when Captain John Evers, of the Braves, informed a Federal league agent that he would not consent to play.

The representative of the Federal league told Evers he could have, "before a ball was pitched," in the proposed series.

Evers Balks Federal League Efforts to Arrange "Outlaw" Series for Title

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 15.—Federal league efforts to get the world's champion Boston Braves to play a series with the Indianapolis Federals have come to naught.

The last endeavor to bring the two teams together in another post-season game was defeated Wednesday afternoon, when Captain John Evers, of the Braves, informed a Federal league agent that he would not consent to play.

The representative of the Federal league told Evers he could have, "before a ball was pitched," in the proposed series.

According to Evers' story, the agent told him that the money would be placed to his account immediately, providing Evers would get the balance of the Braves to play.

Evers' refusal to accept the offer, and with it about eight times as much money as he made as his share of the world's series purse, is based upon his desire, as he put it, "to be on the square with his employers." He said to the man who represented himself as the agent of the Federals:

"If you offered me $25,000 it would

WILEY HAS TRIO OF STARS ON SICK LIST

Barnes, Hoff and Foulkes Nursing Injuries, and Outlook for Coalmont Tussle Is Not Bright.

By R. A. Werneke.

It seems as though Mr. Jinx has taken a firm hold on the Wiley football squad and is doing his duty with a vengeance. Three of Coach Wann's right-hand men are on the hospital list and the squad has thinned down to a mere handful of hopefuls.

Barnes suffered a badly strained wrist and a broken finger in scrimmage with Rose Poly last night, while Hoff is laid up with a wrenched shoulder. Foulkes has a tenacious "charley horse" which has been troubling him for a week.

Coach Wann has suspended three men for failure to report for practice, and the outlook is rather serious, with the Coalmont game only two days off.

Wiley will probably use line plunger tactics in preference to the one style of play Saturday, as it is rumored that Coalmont's line is weak, especially on the left side. Anderson, fullback, has proven himself a "bear" on line plunges and much faith is put in this husky lad.

The Wiley line is also in good shape. The men held the Poly backs to few gains in last night's scrimmage and the southstars can be depended on to put a gay old scrap day after tomorrow.

C. MACK LAUDS BRAVES

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 15.—For the first time since the defeat of the Macks by the Braves, Connie Mack broke his silence today. "I have nothing to say about the work of my own players," said Mack. "The reason for this is that I do not want to detract one iota from the credit due to the Braves. They are deserving of all the praise in the world and anything I might say about my own team would be a reflection on theirs."

The lineups for the Yale game was announced today by Coach Harper as follows: Edwards, left end; Jones, left tackle; Keefe, left guard; Fitzgerald, center; Bachman, right guard; Lathrop, right tackle; Mills, right end; Connel, fullback; Eichenlaub, fullback; Pinnegan, left halfback; Kelleher or Pliska, right halfback.

In the signal practice Wednesday the men ran through the entire repertoire of plays in the smoothest fashion displayed so far this season.

Tough on Football Team.
MACKON, Ga., Oct. 15.—Thirty Mercer university students and three members of the faculty, including Prof. J. F. Sellers, dean of the faculty; Dr. Stray, dean of the school of pharmacy; and Coach Robbins, of the baseball team, became seriously ill here early today.

It is thought they are suffering with ptomaine poisoning from food served at dinner in the college dormitory last night. Nearly every member of the football team, which was to play Kings college today, is ill.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 15.—Wabash's hopes of defeating Rose Poly decisively were given a severe setback Wednesday when less than three men reported for practice.

The number of injuries that have developed since Saturday's game with the Quakers is alarming. Kistler, Turner, Capt. Rowe, Stonebreaker, Hurd, Coffin and Settles are out of the game.

The result would be that the rule is that a center after having been injured in the White Elephant game, will be laid up for a week.

BOSTON BATTERY ON STAGE.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Hank Gowdy, crowned king of pinch hitters, and Dick Rudolph, hailed by the fans as the greatest pitcher of modern times, will be pitted against one another in the miracle Boston Braves, will appear next week in a comedy act, entitled "Harpooning the White Elephant."

We Fused Them in the Nose," at Hammerstein's Victoria theater. It is rumored that their weekly stipend will be $2,000 each. Gowdy may sing.

CARTER NOT LIKELY TO PLAY AGAINST WABASH

Poly Captain Discovers Dislocated Elbow to Be Serious Affair—Engineers Determined.

By Hill.

In spite of the fact that Captain Joe Carter, of Rose, is still unable to don a suit and get into action with the rest of the squad, practice has continued with unabated zeal and the Poly men seem to be in excellent spirits. Carter expected to be in shape by Saturday, but he has discovered that a dislocated elbow is a more serious matter than he thought. If he enters the game with Wabash the chances are that, with his arm in bad condition, he will be put out of the game again and, this time, for perhaps more than a few days.

Coach Huebel is undecided at present whether to risk his best man in the coming game and take chances of disabling him, or to keep him out of the contest and save him for the remaining games on the schedule.

But one thing is certain—that is, if Rose is to have any sort of a chance at the secondary championship this year the Rose men will have to bring home the long end of the score in the Wabash scrap.

Perhaps, it appears, with the two severe beatings that the Engineers have already received this year, that Rose in line for state honors is no better than a joke, but taking into consideration the fact that the team was composed of new men, who were amazingly green, it was no wonder that the heavy Eastern Illinois bunch ran away with the score.

That the team has developed wonderfully was shown last Saturday, when the Engineers playing one of the best teams in the country, Notre Dame, put up such a display of fighting spirit and dogged determination as to win the admiring comment of the coach of the famous eleven.

Wabash is evidently expecting a hard fight and they will not be disappointed, although the odds are greatly with the weaker of the scrappers.

The fact that the Crawfordsville team mauled Earlham last week to the tune of 24-3 and did so with a lineup composed of subs and freshmen shows that the upstate institution has a team to be feared. In spite of the rumor that Wabash football hopes for this season were gloomy. The showing against Purdue the week previous was not bad.

The Rose-Wabash game last year, played on the Rose campus, resulted in a 6-6 tie. Wabash has practically the entire 1913 team this season, and in addition, a crowd of promising freshmen.

The question is—will Rose fighting spirit prevail or will the odds be too heavy?

Notre Dame Ready for Yale Clash

NOTRE DAME, Ind., Oct. 15.—Coach Harper drove his charges until it was too dark to see the ball in the last practice before the squad leaves for Yale. A drizzling rain fell throughout the practice. Twenty-three men compose the squad that left today at 10:20 over the Lake Shore.

The men who make the trip are: Capt. Jones, Keefe, Lathrop, Fitzgerald, Bachman, Ward, Sharp, Holmes, Yonkers, H. O'Donnell, Eichenlaub, Coffin, Berger, Pliska, Kelleher, Bergman, Pinnegan, Eichenlaub, Eichenlaub, Elward, Mills King and Bauman.

Beer a Factor in Japanese Progress

THE secret of the wonderful rise of the Japanese Empire from obscurity to a great world power is the remarkable ability of the little brown man to profit by the experiences of his American and European brethren.

A comparatively few years ago Japan was threatened with destruction from its own excesses. It was converting one-half its grain into "sake", a drink about one-half alcohol and maddening in its effect.

Japan "swore off". The government, recognizing the need of a temperance beverage to replace "sake", encouraged the importation of beer and erection of breweries. Beer has wrought a transformation. Today the Japanese are a sober people.

The keen agents of the Mikado, sent abroad in search of knowledge, were quick to discover that pure wholesome beer is the greatest single factor in true temperance.
