

OPEN SESSIONS OF CONVENTION

spending six months of the year previous.

Radical changes will have to be brought about in the general tax system of the state. The people's money must be spent for permanent improvements or the taxes will be too burdensome that no one can afford to own property.

I wish to extend to you a cordial welcome to our midst and extend every courtesy and privilege consistent with my duties in this respect. Anything that can be done by myself or my cabinet to add to the enjoyment of your visit, assure you will be done. I thank you.

Mayor Roberts was followed by President Spencer F. Ball, of the Terre Haute Chamber of Commerce, who welcomed the delegates on behalf of the organization.

Mr. Ball spoke as follows:

Inasmuch as the Terre Haute Chamber of Commerce has twice been honored by having its secretary-treasurer your secretary-treasurer we feel a particularly intimate relationship to your organization. Welcoming you here is merely a matter of courtesy, but in that, for I learn from Mr. Clifford, our club is unlike similar bodies in having all bills paid and money in the bank.

Terre Haute Chamber of Commerce is glad to be members of the Chamber of commerce of the United States and of Indiana Federated Commercial Clubs. It believes in united effort. Cities are in a war competition, but in a much larger sense we are so.

Chambers of commerce are no longer, as in the past, except in some benighted sections, interested solely in securing more selling and faster money. They are now interested in everything that tends to improve the conditions of all the people.

They no longer use most of their efforts to make their cities bigger, but are equally anxious to make them better.

They are no longer narrowly concerned within the city limits, but extend their help and sympathy toward towmship, county, state, nation, aye, to secure world prosperity.

Nothing is too small or too large for

the Terre Haute Chamber of Commerce

to take an active part in, provided only, the work is within the scope of a non-partisan organization.

We have organized drives, secured mining, trading, conventions and meetings of all kinds to Terre Haute, including, in co-operation with other local bodies, the international encampment of the National Guard.

We have helped to get one of the finest hotels in the state and the greatest plant for growing vegetables under the world.

Among the new factories we have secured recently is one that makes a machine to fill a rapidly increasing number of pay envelopes for our industry.

We are co-operating with the school heads for vocational education. In fact we work with all professions and all trades.

We are co-operating with the city and county administrations in the greatest program of paving streets and watering them.

NO REASON FOR IT

When Terre Haute Citizens Show a

Way.

There can be no reason why any reader of this who suffers the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the pains and dangers of kidney ills will fail to heed the words of a neighbor who has found relief. Read what a Terre Haute citizen says:

Mrs. Robert McFall, 1319 S. Eighth

St., Terre Haute, says: "For several years I suffered severely from rheumatic pains and other kidney disorders. I was often nervous and didn't sleep well. I had pains in my back and kidneys. I heard so much about Doan's Kidney Pills that I finally got a box at Baur's Drug Store. After I had taken one box I was so much relieved that I knew I had at last found a remedy I had needed so long. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me after everything else had failed and I was so pleased that I publicly recommended them. I consider it my duty to endorse them again, so that other kidney sufferers will know about my experience."

of Indianapolis, former minister to Austria, who will speak on "Personal Observations in Austria-Hungary." Mr. Harris will be followed by Theo. F. Thieme of Fort Wayne, president of the Wayne Knitting mills, who will take as his subject "Commercial Organizations; Their Interest in the New State Constitution." All of the members of the Terre Haute Chamber of Commerce are urged to attend this meeting, with their families and friends. Following the addresses there will be an informal "get acquainted" meeting and smoker, which will be a reception to the delegates by the members of the Terre Haute Chamber of Commerce.

Election of Officers.

The Friday morning session will be the last of the convention and will include the reports of the officers and committees, the election of officers, the selection of the city for the next convention and an address by John A. Lapp on "What Commercial Organization Can Do for Vocational Education."

The assembly room of the Terre Haute Chamber of Commerce is beautifully decorated with numbers of large potted palms and arrangements have been made for the seating of the delegates so that all will be well cared for.

The officers of the state organization are: C. C. Hanch of Indianapolis, president; L. J. Scheidt of Columbus, vice president; E. H. Clifford of Terre Haute, secretary-treasurer. These with A. G. Lundquist of Indiana Harbor and Theo. F. Thieme of Fort Wayne, compose the executive committee.

Among the early arrivals to register were C. L. Biederwolf, secretary of the Fort Wayne Commercial club; C. B. Williams, secretary of the Huntington Commercial association; Isaac Kane Parks, of the Mishawaka Chamber of Progress; M. W. Williams, secretary of the Commercial association of Crawfordsville; George A. Keeney and Fred D. Enslinger, of the Danville Commercial club; J. Frank Lindsey, secretary of the Kokomo Chamber of Commerce, and F. D. Miller, of the Kokomo Chamber of Commerce.

VETERANS OF SPANISH WAR TO INITIATE CLASS OCT. 20

Matter of Equipping Firing Squad With New Uniforms Also Will Be Disposed of.

Final arrangements have been made for the banquet and initiation of new members Tuesday evening, Oct. 20, by the Claude L. Herbert Camp No. 38, U. S. V. W. The proposition to equip the firing squad, which is regarded as the best drilled in the department of Indiana, with new uniforms will probably be decided at this meeting, and it is probable that the entire camp will be equipped with them also. Other business of importance will come before the camp. The local camp still retains the distinction of being the largest in Indiana, and is rapidly increasing in numbers, due to a persistent canvass for eligibles inaugurated by the commander, W. A. Hood. General orders issued from the office of Frank J. Walsh, department commander, names Percy N. Garrett of the local camp, and past department commander, as one of a number that will constitute the committee on legislation, and be subject to the call of the chairman during the current year. Copies of the American Standard, official national organ of the United Spanish War Veterans, just received, show a picture of the delegates to the national encampment in Louisville in September, taken in front of the Scottish Rite hall, in which members of the local camp are to be seen.

HARRY MONTGOMERY'S CASE. Developments in Appeal Case Before State Supreme Court.

County Clerk Joyce has received notice from Supreme Court Clerk France of the dismissal of the appeal of Harry S. Montgomery from the sentence imposed on him by Judge Fortune of $100 fine and thirty days in jail for contempt, which sentence was suspended, although Montgomery later appealed from it. In the opinion of attorneys the dismissal of the appeal will not require the payment of the fine, as the entire sentence was suspended when the appeal was taken.
