Several Terre Hauteans went to Sullivan Wednesday afternoon to attend the first in a series of companies given by Mrs. Harry Buff, who was Miss Helen Phillips, of this city, and Mrs. Will Leahy, at the home of Mrs. Leahy.

The guests were invited for 1 o'clock, when a recherche six-course luncheon was served at four tables, exquisitely appointed in white and yellow. Miss Ione Smith, who is the guest of Mrs. Hinkle Hays, of Sullivan, was the honor guest.

In the center of each table was a bowl filled with yellow ribbons and attached to the ribbons were the score cards, which were drawn and indicated the table and partner for the afternoon at auction, which followed the luncheon.

The place cards were in white and yellow, of chrysanthemum design. Two yellow loving cups were arranged on each table. The cups were adorned with daisies. The last course was a date pudding and on each pudding there was a lighted yellow taper. The favors were yellow boxes tied with yellow ribbons and filled with bonbons.

Among the guests were Miss Catherine Phillips, Mrs. Harry Jones, sisters of Mrs. Buff; Miss Nona Maier, of Terre Haute, and Mrs. Roy Moore, of Louisville, Ky.

The second in the series of companies to be given by Mrs. Buff and Mrs. Leahy will take place Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Leahy. A number of Terre Haute friends have been invited to be present. Miss Catherine Phillips, Mrs. H. M. Phillips and Mrs. Harry Jones will be among the guests.

Mrs. Frank Buckingham entertained Wednesday afternoon at her home on South Fifth street in honor of her husband's mother, Mrs. Laura J. Buckingham, who has been here for a three months' visit. Mrs. Buckingham leaves Monday for her home in San Francisco, Cal., taking the southern route, via New Orleans.

The guests were the former friends and neighbors of Mrs. Buckingham when she lived in Terre Haute, and the afternoon was spent in reminiscing. The delicious hot luncheon was served.

Mrs. Buckingham presented to each guest a string of rose beads which she made before leaving her home in California. Mrs. Buckingham brought with her twenty-seven strings of these beads which she made herself for her Terre Haute friends.

The guests were Mrs. Walter Buckingham and daughter, Miss Beulah; Mrs. Peter Best, Mrs. M. Penno, Mrs. C. J. Kantman, Mrs. J. M. Dillion, Mrs. George W. J. Hoffman, Mrs. A. J. Weinhardt, Mrs. C. M. Neely, Mrs. J. Dinkle, Mrs. Joseph Flaig, Miss Anna Dempsey, Miss Alice Dempsey and Mrs. Peter Miller.

Oscar Baur and son, Oscar, Jr., of Chicago, who sailed last Saturday from London, are expected to arrive Saturday in New York. Mr. Baur and family were spending the summer in Europe, and when the war was declared they were visiting in different places. Mrs. Baur and two children, and her sister, Mrs. Brandt, who had been in Antwerp for a visit, had returned to Paris, where they were to meet Mr. Baur, who was in the southern part of the country. Mrs. Baur was unable to get in communication with her husband, and at the suggestion of the American ambassador, she and family sailed at once for New York. Mr. Baur was obliged to remain in Europe until he could reach his son, Oscar, Jr., who was placed in school for the summer, and until he could procure passage for the states.

Members of the auxiliary to the B. of L. E. enjoyed a social session on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Otto Austermler on North Ninth street. The assisting hostesses were Mrs. Charles Sherwood, Mrs. F. H. Dalley and Mrs. Robert Henderson.

ONLY SIXTEEN, GIRL VERY SICK

Tells How She Was Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

New Orleans, La.—"I take pleasure in writing these lines to express my gratitude to you. I am only 16 years old and work in a tobacco factory. I have been a very sick girl but I have improved wonderfully since taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am now looking fine and feeling a thousand times better."

—Miss AMELIA JAQUILLARD, 3961 Tchoupitoulas St., New Orleans, La.

St. Clair, Pa.—"My mother was alarmed because I was troubled with suppression and had pains in my back and side, and severe headaches. I had pimples on my face, my complexion was sallow, my sleep was disturbed, I had nervous spells, was very tired and had no ambition. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has worked like a charm in my case and has regulated me. I worked in a mill among hundreds of girls and have recommended your medicine to many of them." —Miss ESTELLA MAGUIRE, 110 Thwing St., St. Clair, Pa.

There is nothing that teaches more than experience. Therefore, such letters from girls who have suffered and were restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound should be a lesson to others. The same remedy is within reach of all.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be read and answered by a doctor and held in strict confidence.

CHILD'S TONGUE BECOMES COATED IF CONSTIPATED

When Cross, Feverish and Sick Give "California Syrup of Figs."

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely.

A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels and the result is they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

A feature of the afternoon was the music program furnished by Mrs. C. V. Miller, Bernadine Zellar and Mrs. S. Daniels.

The prizes in the guessing contest were received by Mrs. Jacob Sach and Mrs. Will Kingery.

Following the program and contests luncheon was served to the thirty-five guests.
