

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Strawberries are selling in the market at New Albany.

The Ordinance for the better government of the market, was handed to us too late for our issue this morning, but will appear to-morrow.

We did not issue our evening paper, on yesterday, from the fact that the wires were down in all directions, and we received no dispatches.

James S. Reed & Son, dealers in dry goods, have removed their store from Merom to Sullivan. They have purchased a large stock, and have one of the finest stores in the country. The citizens of Sullivan can find no better place to trade than at their store.

One car load of sick and wounded Federal soldiers, passed this place yesterday on their way to their homes. Also there were five seamen prisoners, captured at Pittsburg landing, on their way to a military prison. The latter were in charge of the Sheriff of Vanderburg county.

Many of the sick soldiers who arrived at the hospital in this city a few days since, have received furloughs and been sent home. They are much pleased with the manner in which they are attended here, and represent themselves as comfortable in every respect.

It is said one pound of green copperas dissolved in one quart of water, will effectually concentrate and destroy the foulest smells. For sick rooms, it may be placed under the beds in anything that will hold water, and thus render hospitals, and other places for the sick, free from unpleasant smell.

Strawberries.—On yesterday, John W. Garwood presented us with some of the finest strawberries we have seen for many years. They were very large and ripe, and known as the Hovey and Washington strawberry. He informs us that he has three acres in cultivation, and will be in the market early morning, with them, and will sell them at the lowest prices. Mr. Garwood has taken great pains in the cultivation of his strawberries, raspberries, etc., and we are glad to recommend our citizens to make purchases of him.

We learn that the majority for Mr. Abshuler, at the special election on Thursday, was 221. Some of the Bright Democrats circulated the most malicious slanders against him for the purpose of accomplishing his defeat. They charged him with being a mutineer, and avowed their purpose of making the next race with a mutineer as their candidate. Such conduct on the part of his opponents, however, rather assisted him than otherwise. Their meanness and injustice toward him recoiled upon themselves with triple force.

HOSPITAL STORIES.—The Sanitary Committee hereby acknowledge the receipt of the following liberal and patriotic donations from the citizens of Rosedale, Park county, Ind., for the use of the Hospital of this city:

- 1 bbl Superfine Flour.
- 1 doz. Chickens.
- 1 bbl Superior Dried Apples.
- 6 Large Cans of Beans.
- 5 " " " " " "
- 1 Lot Bandages and Towels.
- 1 Pair Socks.
- Two Dollars Cash.

L. G. WARREN, Pres. of Terre Haute, May 20, 1862.

An old Soldier Gone to his Rest.—STEWART CROSBY BURNETT, well known to our older citizens, died yesterday, at the house of his son Linas, in this city, in the 67th year of his age. The funeral will take place from the Methodist Church, this afternoon, at three o'clock.

Mr. Burnett was a native of Essex County, New Jersey. In June 1814, he enlisted for the war, in the first Regiment of the United States Army. Peace was made the following year, and it was his fortune to have been detailed as one of a Company of twenty-five to fire the National salute, from Castle William near New York, in honor of that occasion.

The period of his enlistment having expired, he returned to his trade, that of a Tanner and Currier; about which time he was married to Miss Hannah Cress, at Greenfield, Saratoga County, New York.

In 1841 he moved to Canada, and in the spring of 1850, he started on an exploring tour through the Western country, visiting Pittsburgh, Shawneetown and St. Louis, and back through Vincennes, Terre Haute, Fort Wayne and Fort Meigs to Saint David's, his original place of embarkation. During the return trip, at the crossing of Wild Cat above what is now Lafayette, himself and companions four in number, were surrounded by Indians of the Miami tribe, and robbed of every thing they possessed.

Mr. Burnett lost one hundred and eighty dollars of United States currency.

On the second day of May, 1851, Mr. Burnett, wife and child, Anthony Cress, Thomas Lyons and Edward Stocking, left London, on the river Thames, Upper Canada, in a pirogue made by himself and Mr. Lyons, of white pine, which was their only conveyance to Terre Haute. Their route was up the Maumee river to where the waters of the Maumee and Wabash divide. They there hauled their pirogue across the land, to Little River, a tributary of the Wabash, and from thence down to Terre Haute, where they arrived safely, June 14th, 1851.

Mr. Burnett first settled in Outer Creek township, then removed to Navas, where he has since resided, respected by his neighbors and fellow citizens, holding the office of magistrate among them for many years. He had been suffering with dropsy for the last eighteen months. Death approached him slowly; he knew that he could not last long, yet he never murmured, but he was resigned and hopeful to the last, and the only regret that he expressed, was that he could not live to see this rebellion entirely crushed out, and peace once more restored to his unhappy country.

When the final change came, he was entirely free from pain, and said: "Like one who gathers the draperies of his couch around him, and lies down to pleasant dreams." J.

ATTENTION, UNION RIFLES!—You are hereby ordered to meet at your Armory this day, at 8 1/2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of attending the funeral of Stephen G. Burnett. By order of M. D. TOPPING, Capt. JOHN C. McFEE, O. S.

The Nashville Union is authorized to offer a reward of one hundred dollars to any secessionist in Nashville who will sell one thousand dollars U. S. Treasury Notes at fifty per cent. discount, and buy one thousand dollars Confederate Scrip for fifty cents on the dollar.

A correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial writing from one of the camps near Corinth relates the following anecdote: "Show city, Lord, oh, Lord, forgive, let a repentant sinner live." He had scarcely uttered the last word of this line, when a private soldier in his congregation—an old man and a zealous Christian—earnestly cried out: "No Lord, you least they lay down their arms." While the clergyman was offering the concluding prayer a rifle shot was heard as if from our pickets, a mile beyond. The report of the gun was immediately followed by an exclamation from the same venerable Minister: "Lord, if that's a Union shot, send the bullet straight, as if it hit, hit a tree with it, Lord."

The Indianapolis Journal says: Some do not understand why it is that Indiana has two regiments of one year men just retiring from service. The following retrospective glance at their history will explain it.

The first requisition for troops under the proclamation of the President of April 15th, 1861, called for but six regiments from this State, and they were for three months—Early in May last, in anticipation of troubles upon our Southern borders, the Legislature passed an act authorizing the raising of six regiments of State troops for one year. Under the provisions of this law, the 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th and 17th regiments were organized and officered. Soon after, a call was made by the President for four regiments to serve the United States for three years, and Governor Morton turned over the 13th, 14th, 15th, and 17th regiments to Uncle Sam. They were organized in June last, left Indiana soon after, and on arriving in Western Virginia formed Gen. Reynolds' Brigade. The 13th and 16th remained in the State service until the 23d of July, when they were transferred, by a special arrangement, to the United States service for the balance of their unexpired time—nine or ten months.

Both regiments went to the Potomac, and were attached to Gen. Abercrombie's Brigade, in Gen. Banks' Division. Afterwards the 12th was assigned to Gen. Shields' Division. These regiments will probably arrive at home this week, and we hope they may meet with a cordial reception by the citizens of the different localities from which they volunteered.

The following are their officers:

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

DISPATCHES BY THE WESTERN UNION LINE.

Night Dispatches.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, May 21.—The steamer Haze, from New Orleans, N. C., arrived in three days from sea. She brings no news.

FROM McCLINTON.

McCLINTON, Va., May 21.—The pickets of the enemy were driven across the bottom bridge yesterday by the troops advancing in that direction. The rebels attempted to turn the post by the use of their artillery, but failed. Our batteries opened, shelling the woods on each side of the bridge.

The advance, under Gen. Stoeneman, reached Newbridge yesterday, within eight miles of Richmond, but found no enemy in force this side of the Chickahominy, which, at that point, is a small creek. The country in that locality, is in a good state of cultivation.

Six pieces of artillery were found posted on the opposite bank, but his purpose not being to bring on an engagement, he retired one mile from the bridge and encamped. During the day, while driving in the enemy's outposts, he had one man killed and three wounded.

The whole army moved this morning early, with the intention of making a lengthy march. What roads they took, it is not necessary to state, but the headquarters of Gen. McClellan to-night, will be within a short distance of Richmond, in front of which city, it is supposed to be encamped the main body of the rebel army.

If they intend to give the Union forces battle, which is almost universally acknowledged to be the case, the hour is drawing near at hand when they have an opportunity.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—Voluntaries despatches are received from the Gulf to-day, which relate principally to the details of the recent movements connected with the capture of New Orleans.

The vessels of the fleet have been judiciously distributed under Commander Lee, going up as far as Vicksburg, for purposes which it would be improper to state. It appears from the documents that Commodore Farragut carried out his instructions to the letter, and was ably and cheerfully sustained by all under his command.

Our forces occupying Pensacola, the Mayor promised that the citizens would behave themselves peacefully.

The rebels had evacuated the place on hearing that our steamers, the day before, were going to run into Mobile bay, and that the squadron and mortar fleet would soon follow.

Commander Porter left Ship Island on the 7th with the steamer belonging to the mortar fleet and the Schem, for Mobile Bar, for the purpose of fixing a place for the mortar vessels to lie, and plant bouys for the ships to run in by when they should arrive.

Great excitement seemed to exist within the forts at the progress of the fleet.

There was reason to believe that Fort Gaines was evacuated and that the troops there were leaving to reinforce Fort Morgan.

FROM MISSOURI.

ROLLA, May 20.—A train of seventeen wagons laden with Government stores which left here on Monday, was overtaken to-day when about twenty miles out on the Springfield Road, by a band of rebel guerrillas, who burned the wagons and contents and carried off all the mules eighty six in number.
