HOUSEHOLD CARES.

Tax the Women of Rensselaer the Same as Elsewhere.

Hard to attend to household duties With a constantly aching back.

A woman should not have a bad back.

And she wouldn't if the kidneys were well.

Doan's Kidney Pills make well kidneys

Here is a Rensselaer woman who indorses this claim:

Mrs. Larkin Potts, Clark and Washington Sts., Rensselaer, Ind., Says: "I was weak and nervous and had but little strength and ambition. I rested poorly and was subject to severe headaches and pains across my loins. I could hardly attend to my housework at times and I always felt tired and worn out. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from Fendig's drug store, gave me relief at once and before I had used them long all my aches and pains disappeared. I am grateful to Doan's Kidney Pills for what they have done for me."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

COLLEGEVILLE.

The census man enumerated the local inhabitants Tuesday. Only a few counts of the last census were there, but the increase will not be outdone by many college towns.

All things are rounding up for the dedication. This week will see the chapel ready. Besides Bishops Alving and Koudelka, and Gov. Marshall, other church and state dignitaries have accepted the invitation and will be present. Through the columns of the Republican the college faculty extends the invitation to the local citizens to attend the celebrations, the play, Scandebeg, on Monday evening, and the dedication, Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock, the speaking and the ball game in the afternoon.

On May 7th the varsity invaded DePaul's territory and defeated the Chicagoans in an exciting game, in spite of the drizzling rain that fell continually, by the score of 6 to 1. Hasser was in his usual good form and allowed the Chicago boys only two hits, and struck out 14 men in seven innings. The varsity displayed remarkable activity in the game and only for Berg-hoff's error, would have scored a shut-out game. All had on their batting feathers, Hasser and Retinger stinging two-baggers against the fence of the small lot. Grathwohl held Hasser's speedy shoots with ease. DePaul had in stock their usual supply of excuses, but as these were on cold storage from former years, they had no effect on the Hoosier players. Rain ended the game in the eighth.

The score: R H E
St. Joseph's 2-0-1-1-2-0-0-0-6-7-3
DePaul 1-0-0-0-0-0-0-0-1-2-4
DePaul will play its return game at the college on Tuesday afternoon, May 17th.

Scandebeg, the drama to be rendered in the college hall Monday evening, May 16th, is a dramatized event of the early 15th century. It treats of the fights between the Turks and the Christians in eastern Europe, in old Albania on the shores of the Adriatic. Scandebeg's youth was spent at the Ottoman Court as a hostage. After his release the Turks again strove to annex Albania to their empire, and Scandebeg, having been made commander of his countrymen, opposed these cruel plans in bloody wars, and was able to maintain, by continued fighting, the independence of his principality.

The drama graphically presents the crowded events of the last few months of this Christian warrior's career. There are treasors, plots and counter-plots against him and his son who will succeed him on the throne. Manesa, Scandebeg's first general, turns traitor or in the most dangerous fight, but his peridy is detected by a half-witted gypsy, and proper deserts are meted out to the apostate. While the traitor is busily seeking to destroy his own home, his youthful daughter, who is the betrothed of Scandebeg's son and successor, dies bravely in defence of her fatherland, that her proud sire seeks to deliver into the abject slavery of the Mohammedans. The play ends with the battle in which Scandebeg utterly defeats his country's and his own enemies, though the fruits of that victory are never his, but his son's, John Castriota. The hero expires in the tableau as the curtain falls.

And from present indications the local curtain has not fallen on many better plays than will be witnessed next Monday evening. True, the plot is not deep, but every line carries in its words, its own intense interest and action. The costumes and the stage settings are superb. But superlatives after all, are better after than before; to come and see it will cause no regrets. It is a drama given by amateurs in true professional style. Curtain rises at 8 P. M., Monday, May 16th. Admission 25 cents.

Dental Notice.

On account of the Indiana State Dental Association, which meets in Indianapolis next week, Dr. Myer wishes to announce to his patrons and the public that his office will be closed May 16th to 24th, inclusive.

The joint conference of miners and operators of the coal mines of Indiana, south of the Baltimore and Ohio South-western railroad arranged a new wage contract and the eighteen closed mines will be opened at once. The men are to receive 25 per cent of the difference in wages and a similar increase each year until they receive the same wages as the men north. The present scale north is $2.25 a day, while the men south receive $1.67.

DOWN WITH THE BOTTOMS OF STRAWBERRY BOXES.

"Man on the Corner" in Delphi Journal Kicks on Giving So Much Air Room Under the Box.

We are glad to see "the man on the corner" back on the job in the first column of the first page of the Delphi Journal. He goes after the short measurement strawberry box in the following terms this week:

I bought a box of strawberries recently.

Did I say a box?

Yes, I said a box.

Well, I meant a box, minus what was not part of a box.

The bottom of the box was where the shoulders of the box should have been.

And there were no strawberries below the bottom.

I bought the box for a quart.

Half of what I bought was cold air—on the other side of the bottom.

I distinctly remember when boxes commenced wearing their bottoms up from their sides. At first it was a trifle, the next season it was a little more distinct, and a little more the next, and so on until today a fellow cannot tell whether the bottom is the top or the top is the bottom.

One thing is certain, if the bottom of the box continues to go up, I shall insist on my box of strawberries being filled from the other side. I am willing to divide my box even with cold air, but I certainly shall kick when the unoccupied apartment contains more square inches of atmosphere than the occupied does of strawberries.

The officials down in Washington went after the distillers with a short stick when it was discovered that the whiskey bottles that pretended to be quarts were not quarts. These bottles were all discarded and the full quart bottle resumed the throne. Many of my friends will recall how their whiskey bottles retroverted as it were—turned in at the bottom to such an extent that there was almost as much of the outside of the bottle on the inside as there was on the outside.

In other words my friends were defrauded of a certain per cent of their quart of whiskey.

And the government came to their rescue. And the fellow who sells whiskey and is short on his quart bottle is soaked with a fine.

But not so with strawberries. There are some people who prefer strawberries to whiskey and for such I speak.

I demand that the bottom of the box be lowered.

At the present time the strawberry box is a cheat and a swindle and a fraud and the ultimate consumer is getting it in the neck. I do not know who is to blame, whether it is Cannon, or Aldrich, or Governor Marshall, or Senator McCarty, or Mayor Robinson, or Sheriff Blue, or Commissioner Engle, but on behalf of the ultimate consumer, I send up my "holler."

"Down with the bottom of the strawberry box."

Through Dry Territory.

To be allowed only two drinks in a journey of 222 miles and requiring at least six hours, is somewhat of a hardship on a man who is in the habit of taking his occasional nip, but this is the condition on the main line of the Grand Trunk railway. On the entire line of the road through Michigan, from the Indiana state line in Cass county, to Port Huron, there are but two counties that have the right to sell liquor—St. Clair and Kalamazoo. No liquor is sold on the buffet cars as they pass through dry territory.

FAIR OAKS.

Bart Crawford and family visited at John Casey's Sunday.

Chas. Manderville and Roy Gundy both spent Sunday at home.

Jack Umphress and Wayne Call are working in the country near Mt. Ayr.

Mrs. Chas. Brohard spent several days this week with Grandma Brohard. Mr. and Mrs. Steele, from east of town, visited with Mrs. John Cooper Sunday.

Mrs. Kilgore and daughter Florence, of Plainfield, Ill., are visiting relatives here this week.

Several men were at work on the gravel road Tuesday cleaning it off and making walks, etc.

Cloyd Clifton, Fred Call and Cordia Umphress, who are all working near Lowell, were home over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker, of Gifford, and Mrs. Joseph Kight, of Thayer, spent Sunday here with Isaac Kight and family.

The house near the school house belonging to Mat Karr and occupied by Sharp Hanley was burned to the ground with all its contents Saturday morning.

Matt Carr's three boys, who have been working near Morocco at the saw mill, have been having a siege of the chicken pox, but are reported to be getting along very well.

The preaching service which was to have been held here Sunday afternoon was postponed until Monday night, owing to the fact that the preacher was unable to get here in time Sunday.

The tent or tabernacle meeting will commence next Sunday morning about 10 o'clock, May 15th. It is not often we get to attend a meeting of this kind so near home and we extend a cordial invitation to all to come and take part.

Not many people in Fair Oaks have succeeded in getting a glimpse of the comet, but some three or four report seeing it dimly. This cloudy weather is not very favorable for "star gazing," or comet gazing either, for that matter.

Michigan Farm Lands.

If you want good land at the right prices, you can get it in the Swigart Tract of clover and fruit lands—the best in Michigan—but you must act now. One of the best opportunities remaining today to buy good land at the right prices within the reach of the man of moderate means is in the Swigart Tract, where some of the finest clover and fruit land in the state of Michigan can be bought for a limited time, for $10, $12, $15 and $18 per acre on terms as low as $10 to $25 down and $5 to $10 per month on 40 acres.

It is a fair, square, liberal proposition that gives the working man a chance to get a home.

Call or write for information about the advantages to buyers now. Chas. J. Dean, local representative for these lands, Rensselaer, Indiana.

NASAL CATARRH.

Henry L. Britton Says It Is Easy to Get Rid of.

"My head, nose and glands leading to my eyes and nose were stopped up and swollen, I tried several so-called catarrh cures, but Hyomei, used thoroughly did the curing. There is nothing too good to say in favor of Hyomei. It cured my nasal catarrh."

Henry J. Britton, Frost St., Eaton Rapids, Mich.

Hyomei (pronounced High-o-me) cures catarrh, because it gets where the germs are, and destroys them. It is made of Australian eucalyptus, mixed with other healing antiseptics.

When breathed over the irritated and inflamed membrane, it gives relief in two minutes.

Used regularly for a few weeks it will build up and heal the germ infested membrane and drive out catarrh.

If you own a small Hyomei pocket inhaler, you can get a bottle of Hyomei at druggists everywhere, or at B. F. Fendig's for only 50 cents. If you do not own a Hyomei inhaler, ask for a complete outfit, the price is $1.00. It is guaranteed to cure catarrh, coughs, colds, croup or sore throat or money back.

Monroe county is to lead the state in milk testing. At a meeting of the county council Wednesday an appropriation was voted at the request of Dr. Fletcher M. Gardner, county health officer, for the equipment of a complete milk testing laboratory, the first, it is said, in any county in Indiana. The county council also appropriated a sum to employ a milk inspector.
