$22.00 suits this week at the Quality Shop for $16.50.

C. EARL DUVAL.

The monthly social by the M. E. Industrial Society will be held at Mrs. Elmer Gwin's Tuesday. Everybody invited.

Miss Mary Nagel returned to Chicago this morning after a visit of two weeks with her parents and other relatives here.

Attend the ice cream and cake social to be held at the Christian church Tuesday evening, June 14th. Benefit of the orchestra.

This is the closing week at St. Joseph's college and a number of visitors, largely parents and relatives of the students, are here to attend the closing events.

Be sure and buy your suit this week of us. It will cost you just what it costs us, so get busy.

C. EARL DUVAL.

Miss Virginia Kessler, of Morocco, who was the guest over Sunday of Mrs. Rice Porter, left this morning for Louisville, Ky., where she will visit for five or six weeks.

Theodore George returned to Chicago this morning after a short visit at home. He is studying the lines at Marshall Fields' wholesale house and will probably be assigned to Indiana territory.

The biggest thing yet, as you will have a chance to make $4.00 or $5.00 this week on a suit of clothes or a bill of furnishing goods, as everything this week goes at wholesale cost.

C. EARL DUVAL.

Peter Grieser and sister, Miss Emma, went to Metamora, Ill., this morning to attend the funeral of their grandmother, the mother of their mother, who died at the age of 62 years. Owing to the sickness of Joseph Grieser, his wife was unable to go to the funeral.

O. G. Maxwell bid in the May ditch Saturday, the lateral No. 2, going to M. B. Price, who had a lively set-to with Frank Babcock, of Carpenter township, which resulted good naturedly in Myrt bidding in the lateral, of which Mr. Babcock is superintendent of construction.

Attend the sale at Duval's Quality Shop this week. As everything this week goes at wholesale cost and gives you a chance to make $4.00 to $5.00 on a suit or a bill of shirts, underwear, socks, hats, fancy vests, and everything.

C. EARL DUVAL.

Saturday, Sunday and today have been the finest since March, and are calculated to take the yellow out of the corn and put a smile on the face of the corn farmer. Evidently we are now squared away for a spell of good weather, notwithstanding the gloomy prognostications of the various forecasters, Hicks, et al. The 36 hour cast is for clear weather.

Horace Scruby, of Longmont, Colo., champion of Colorado high schools in discus, hammer and shot put, visited in Rensselaer Thursday and Friday at the home of Dr. I. M. Washburn, being the guest of Mrs. J. W. Paxton and daughter. He was successful in winning the shot put in Chicago, and is therefore the high school world champion in that class. He is a fine all-around athlete and it is possible that Coach Stagg may secure him for football timber, his record in that game being very high class.

J. F. Irwin went to Wolcott today to look after his tile factory business.

Mrs. H. R. Kurrie returned to Chicago this morning after a short visit here.

Mrs. George Arnold, of Mt. Airy, went to Chicago today for a visit of a week.

Emmett LaRue arrived home yesterday from Colorado, where he has been for several months.

$18.00 suits this week at the Quality Shop for $13.50.

Mrs. E. V. Ransford and daughter Mabel went to Chicago this morning and will visit for the next two weeks at Hyde Park and Harvey.

Miss Lillian Burns, of Chicago, came this morning for a visit of about a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Burns, north of town.

Mrs. Louis Kornhoff and Miss Anna Hoppe returned to Burlington, Wis., this morning after a week's visit with the family of Werner Miller, north of town.

Mr. Hayner, expert piano tuner and repairer, will be in the city the 17th of June or as near that day as possible. Patronage respectfully solicited. Leave orders at Clarke, the Jeweler's.

Mrs. Michael Wagner and baby returned to Chicago this morning after a visit since Saturday with relatives. She was formerly Miss Tena Hildebrand, and is a daughter of Henry Hildebrand.

Miss Alice Ryan came down from Gillam township Sunday, bringing her cousin, Ada Robinson, home. She will be accompanied on the return by Luella, who will visit her uncle for several days.

Mrs. A. C. Merry went to Chicago this morning to visit her daughters, Misses Blanche and Jessie Merry. The former is attending Chicago University and the latter has a fine position as a doctor's secretary.

Mrs. O. H. McKay and children, Raymond and Harriott, left this morning for a visit of two weeks at Muncie and Windfall. Her health has been very poor and she is in hope that the trip will prove beneficial to her.

Last call for fancy dried fruit at a low price. For this week only. Fancy seeded raisins 5c a package. 4 pounds large or seeded raisins, 5 pounds good prunes or 3 pounds fancy evaporated peaches for 25c.

JOHN EGER.

The stone for the monument is being hauled today, the pedestals, which are the heaviest, having been hauled Saturday. Altogether there was about forty tons of the stone. The erection will proceed with as little delay as possible.

The Earle Reynolds house on Milroy avenue is nearly completed and will probably be finished the latter part of this week. The interior wood work is all new, being purchased of Barley, of Delphi, and is the best probably that ever came to Rensselaer. The house will be much finer than it ever was during the most palmy days of Tom McCoy.

Zern Wright, who recently took a course in undertaking and embalming in Chicago and followed his graduation there by taking the state examination, has just received his license from the state board. His grades were very excellent but Zern's modesty would not permit us to publish them, but suffice to say that the fact that the Wright family takes to the undertaking business like a duck does to water was again proven by the rating made by Zern. He will be associated with his cousin, W. J. Wright, and qualified to perform every feature of the business.

Hammond is aching for another checker game and wants Rensselaer to play them a ten-man match on June 25th. They are apt to be accommodated although probably with a smaller number of players, as five or six of the stalwarts have so completely outclassed the lesser lights as to put them entirely out of the running. Sam Stevens, who is now running the Schwabacker grain office at Monticello, was over Saturday and Sunday, having his brother Tom, of Bloomington, Ill., with him. There were some busy times with the Stevens brothers well at the top of the column.

HANGING GROVE.

Ezra Fix was up to his farm Thursday from Boswell.

F. W. Fisher, of Tefft, is here putting in some tile on his farm.

John Clapp came up from Lafayette Friday morning to visit his farms.

R. S. Drake and family attended the funeral of Jim Lowe at Bedford Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Williamson and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Miller.

Miss Bertha Cook went to Rensselaer Sunday to visit a few days with her brother, Harry.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Russell took supper with R. L. Drake and family Wednesday evening.

Word was received here Friday morning that Jim Lowe died at Monticello Thursday.

William S. Long, of near Lafayette, visited his sister, Mrs. C. W. Russell, a few hours Monday.

S. R. Nichols shipped a mixed car of hogs and cattle from McCoysburg Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Mary Parker and daughter, Blanche, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Will Murray Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Williams visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Foulks Friday night.

Miss Marie Snowberger, of Yeoman, spent last week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Jordan.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Wood, of Rensselaer, visited with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Phillips, Sunday.

J. H. Montz went to Onarga, Ill., Thursday, to be present at his son, Roy's graduation. While there he will visit a brother and other relatives.

Miss Rae Hanford has given up her position at Reed McCoy's store, on account of her mother's health. The latter was taken to a Chicago hospital Thursday.

Trustee Parker and the advisory board met at McCoysburg Tuesday to make the road levy. No change was made and it will be 30c, same as it has been for a number of years.

Dr. J. Hanson passed through McCoysburg Friday evening enroute to Monon in his Overland. He stopped a few minutes and demonstrated his car to the satisfaction of two or three prospective buyers.

Mrs. M. L. Ford lost a white silk scarf on her way home from McCoysburg Saturday, June 4th, somewhere between McCoysburg and the Simon Cook place. Anyone finding same will confer a favor by notifying Mrs. Ford.

Don't throw away your fertilizer sacks. Farmers can find a ready market for the empty sacks after they are washed and pressed at from 3½ to 5c each. J. J. Molitor took a large bunch of sacks to Rensselaer Saturday that he expected to bring him seven or eight dollars.

The jury on the famous Yarling murder trial at Tipton, had not returned a verdict yet Friday evening, and at that it seemed likely that the jury would be out over Sunday. There are a few people in this locality who know Yarling, and all say he is a vicious man, and express a desire that he be hung.

It is said that White county will build a stone road from the county line south of Albert Nitzsche's house, to connect with the Monon stone road south of Lee and that petition has been granted. This will be a glorious good move, and then Hanging Grove should get busy and build the stretch of road between Brook Snedeker's and the end of the proposed road in White county, thus affording a complete pike road between Rensselaer and Indianapolis. There is plenty of available rock near the road, making a very short haul either way.

Charley Blue is the latest to purchase a car. He did not get a Buick, nor a Cadillac, nor an Overland or Holladay. Didn't even buy a Brush, but his is some horseless carriage and not nearly so apt to be ditched as a lot of the well known makes. He never expects to be arrested for trying car is a lunch car, specially made for to exceed the speed limit either. The its owner by Jack Warner, and being the cleverest little kitchen we have ever seen. It is on four small wheels and can be pulled from place to place by its owner. Cars of this kind are very common in eastern cities and many of the owners have made good fortunes with them. Charley had his out for the first time Saturday night and again Sunday at the ball park. He sold out slick and clean at the ball park. It is a nice little business car and Charley will be found constantly in the future where there is the best chance for business.

Government Saves $675,000 in Fight with Cement Combine.

By resorting to a little commercial stratagem, the government has now completed the cement of the Roosevelt Dam in the Salt River valley of Arizona at a cost $675,000 less on this one item than was originally calculated. The secretary of the interior today gave orders to the reclamation service to close down the big cement mill at the dam site, and if this mill is sold for its intrinsic value of $150,000, the sum can be added to the $675,000, the entire $820,000 proving that the use of ordinary and legitimate business methods in all branches of the government could yearly save the $300,000,000 which Senator Aldrich believes is wasted.

The cement mill at Roosevelt—85 miles from Phoenix—was erected in April, 1905, after an interesting battle of wits between the officials of the reclamation service and the Cement Trust. It has in those years turned out 337,000 barrels, at a cost of about $2.90 a barrel, at a rate of 500 barrels a day.

When Chief Engineer Davis of the Roosevelt project was ready to advertise for bids on cement in 1905, he so informed the Department of the Interior. Only two firms responded, there having been a territorial distribution between the cement manufacturers, and the two who bid were allotted the entire Arizona-New Mexico district upon which to prey.

No easier quarry is there usually than the United States Government, so the lower of these two bids was $9 a barrel, upon the publication of which there was protest. B. A. Fowler, head of an association of farmers in the Salt River Valley which would eventually have to repay the government the actual cost of the Roosevelt dam, came to Washington to see if a lower price on cement could not be obtained.

The members of the Cement Trust were inflexible, however, and the government officials helpless, it seemed, until Fowler learned the value of publicity for a project which Chief Engineer Davis had thought out. This project he had communicated to Secretary Hitchcock, but that official feared the criticism which he knew would follow it.

One morning Fowler had an interview in a Washington paper. He remarked that the Salt River valley was full of the material from which cement is made. He saw no reason against a hundred reasons for the erection by the government of its own cement mill on the site of the dam. Cries of "socialism" and "paternalism" burst from the cement dealers at this suggestion, but the department was in the limelight and had to give the Fowler plan consideration. Then the cement dealers asked for another chance to bid. This time the lower figure was $4.85. Davis and Fowler contended that the government could turn out every barrel for three dollars.

At last Mr. Hitchcock yielded, and amid a storm of objections, political and otherwise, the mill was built. Six hundred Apache Indians, a remainder of Geronimo's band, were hired to puddle and do the bulk of the day labor. The scheme was also assailed as visionary and impossible. It was pointed out that the Apache, of all Indians in the Edda, was the most shiftless and unfit for work.

Now the cement work on the dam is finished; the government has thus far saved on cement alone $675,000; the type of government is still republican and socialism has not yet become regnant. The Apaches, under Louis Hill, of Detroit, a civil engineer, have proved remarkable fit and ambitious laborers, some of them earning as much as $4 a day. There has been no trouble with them; they have been found honest and careful always to pay back what they borrow from the fiscal agent. So the reclamation service feels that it has done its part in heeding the suggestion of Senator Aldrich.

Grocery Satisfaction

If your grocer pleases you in every particular, you have no cause for changing. Even WE can do no more than that.

But if you think some of making a shift, we would be glad to give you the best service of which we are capable.

Often and often we have turned now-and-again customers into steady patrons.

And we lose a surprising few of the really particular grocery buyers, who once become our customers.

NASAL CATARRH.

Henry L. Britton Says It is Easy to Get Rid of.

"My head, nose and glands leading to my eyes and nose were stopped up and swollen, I tried several so-called catarrh cures, but Hyomei, used thoroughly did the curing. There is nothing too good to say in favor of Hyomei. It cured my nasal catarrh."—Henry J. Britton, Frost St., Eaton Rapids, Mich.

Hyomei (pronounced High-o-me) cures catarrh, because it gets where the germs are, and destroys them. It is made of Australian eucalyptus, mixed with other healing antiseptics. When breathed over the irritated and inflamed membrane, it gives relief in two minutes.

Used regularly for a few weeks it will build up and heal the germ-infested membrane and drive out catarrh.

If you own a small Hyomei pocket inhaler, you can get a bottle of Hyomei at druggists everywhere, or at B. F. Fendig's for only 50 cents. If you do not own a Hyomei inhaler, ask for a complete outfit, the price is $1.00. It is guaranteed to cure catarrh, coughs, colds, croup or sore throat or money back.

UNION CENTER.

Fred Krueger visited home folks Saturday and Sunday.

C. E. Stibbe has been hauling quite a bit of wood to Fair Oaks.

The childrens' day exercises at Rosebud were well attended.

Oscar Stibbe worked for Fred Schultz a few days last week.

Delos McClannahan is reported to be having quite a time with the measles.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Griffith, of Kniman, visited home-folks and attended the barbecue at Parr.

Everyone is pleased to see a little warm weather and sunshine come. We certainly need it, as the corn is getting along slowly. The wheat and oats do not look quite so discouraging, although it is reported that there is a small fly doing considerable damage in the wheat.

All Day Basket Meeting at Rosebud Church Next Wednesday.

On Wednesday, June 15th, there will be an all day meeting at the Rosebud church. Rev. J. O. Ledbetter, president of the Indiana conference, will be present and preach at 11 o'clock, and Rev. Myres, of the M. E. church at Carmel, Ind., will preach at 2 o'clock. A baptismal service will follow. Everybody is invited to come and bring well filled baskets and have a good day in the service of God.
