Edward, the 17-year-old son of John Burkholder, was drowned in the Wabash river at Peru Friday evening while bathing, and the 12-year-old son of Postmaster E. M. Reed, of Onward, was drowned in a gravel pit.

Unable to stand the strain of being on a jury which deliberated over the Hartford City "Hoss" case for forty hours, C. F. Rickett, of that city, has become insane and he will be taken to the asylum at Logansport. A son of the insane man recently lost an eye at Elwood and a daughter lost her life in a fall.

The appropriation for raising or removing the wreck of the battleship Maine from the harbor of Havana was increased by the house from $100,000 to $200,000 by an amendment to the deficiency bill. As appropriated this sum is "on account," so that additional sums, if necessary, may be provided for.

After all expenses were paid, the G. A. R. encampment committee had $2,278 left in the treasury as the result of the recent state reunion of veterans in Terre Haute. The finance committee took in $8,434, and the expenses were $6,176. The money will be transferred to the Memorial Hall Association fund.

Soaring to a height of 4,384½ feet, Walter Brookins, in a Wright Bi-plane, broke the world's record for altitude in the closing event Monday in the National aviation meet at the Indianapolis speedway. Brookins' achievement followed exhibition flights by several of the pupils of Orville and Wilbur Wright.

Mrs. Rebecca Ebersole, wife of a farmer near Goshen, was instantly killed Tuesday while hunting eggs in a haymow. She fell through an opening covered with fodder and her body was not discovered until several hours later. She apparently had struggled for some time following the fall, for the barn was covered with blood stains.

DEMOCRATS LOSE HOPE OF VICTORY

Republican Congress Gets Busy and Does Its Duty.

OPPOSITION NOW DISCREDITED

Built, as Usual, on Assumption That Majority Would Blunder—Passage of Statehood Railroad, Tariff Commission and Postal Savings Banks Bills Give People Cause For Gratification.

Washington, June 23.—Political writers and observers are agreed that Democratic chances for carrying the next national house of representatives have gone glimmering. The usual spring variety of Democratic hope has been noted this year. Self-constituted leaders of the Democratic party have talked a lot of Democratic party prospects for victory in 1910 in the congressional elections. But whatever reason there may have been for Democrats to build on has been frittered away during the present session by the Democrats themselves, and has been dissipated by the wise and progressive action of a united Republican majority.

President Taft has been assured not only that his progressive legislation is approved by the Republican rank and file, but he has been shown that his party in congress is determined to give him a Republican congressional majority for the last two years of his term, in order that he may be enabled to continue to carry out the Republican pledges of 1908, and put in law the Roosevelt policies.

One of the reliable and well-known Washington correspondents points out that the railroad bill has been signed, and that as finally passed this measure carried the united Republican support, and was opposed by Democrats only. The amended bill is a tremendous progress toward fair-dealing and adequate regulation. It will solve the problem of keeping rates within reason, and is destined to become one of the triumphant achievements of a hard-working administration. Under this law no freight rate can be changed until it has been discussed by all parties concerned.

It is suggested by all the writers for newspapers at Washington that the appropriation of $250,000 to empower the tariff commission to obtain tariff facts is a tremendous victory for the advocates of reasonable protection. President Taft has good reason to be well pleased with this and other important results recently attained by the joined forces of the Republican majority.

Senator Beveridge, who was called in by the president the other day and commissioned to make the fight for the Arizona and New Mexico statehood bill, is being congratulated because of the fact that the Beveridge bill has passed and has gone into law. Once more it has been proved that Indiana's senior senator is in excellent standing at the White House and that he is a potent factor in putting desirable legislation through.

Postal savings banks legislation is being completed with all speed, and an early adjournment of the congress will take place after a record of unusual achievements along progressive lines. Congressmen are preparing to finish up this week.

Attention is being called to the undeniable fact that the tariff bill passed at the special session is producing revenues in a most satisfactory manner. The law never has been attacked as a revenue-producer. There have been and are differences of opinion as to inequalities in schedules in the new tariff law. On this subject President Taft very frankly says the bill was the best he could get under the circumstances, and points to his tariff board, and to the money allowed for its use, pledging his administration to proceed diligently with the gathering of facts which shall enlighten congress as to what tariff schedule adjustments shall be made to perfect the law.

First of all it is promised that business shall not be disturbed by Democratic agitators until the facts are arrived at in a proper way. This is reassuring to all the people.

President Taft, through his tariff board and appropriation, which assures commercial confidence pending investigation, has gained the point sought by progressive debaters during the tariff arguments, namely: The assurance that there will be no reopening of the tariff uneasiness and industrial unrest without proper notice.

The progressives worked to produce a tariff bill as nearly equitable as possible, in order that it might stand a dozen years without causing agitation for a new law.

The new law, under the maximum and minimum clause, and with the tariff board active, can be adjusted, part by part and piece by piece, to the demands of fairness, and all this without congressional session or debate.

The Democrats of Pennsylvania propose to make a campaign on the slogan: "Honesty in Government." It is a pity the notorious misconduct of the Democratic legislature of 1909 makes it impossible for Indiana Democrats to adopt a similar slogan.

Is Mr. Kern's senatorial nomination to be considered in the nature of a price paid for Mr. Kern's silence?

Clinton L. Bader Now Sole Owner of Winamac Bridge Co.

Winamac Democrat.
A deal was completed a few days ago whereby C. L. Bader became the entire Winamac Bridge company, he taking over all of the stock or interest held by George and John Frain and M. M. Hathaway, who theretofore were members of the firm. Mr. Bader has leased the building and will continue business at the old stand. Of course, he is to go ahead with existing contracts, as well as those secured or to be secured since the deal. In addition to the big bridge over the river in the south edge of this county, he now has contracts for thirty or more smaller ones, a number of them in North Dakota, where the company built quite a bunch of bridges two or three years ago. These contracts require a lot of tons of material, which is beginning to arrive, and will be worked up and erected as rapidly as may be. George Frain will continue to do the lathe work at the factory, as he has done ever since the company began business.

Laporte is preparing for the entertainment of the annual convention of the Indiana Optical association, which will meet in that city in August.

The Gillett bill to permit Justice Moody, of the United States supreme court, to retire on full pay, on account of his long continued illness, was passed Monday by the house by unanimous consent.

The Richmond camp, Sons of Veterans, has petitioned the board of Wayne county commissioners to place a bronze statue of Oliver P. Morton, war governor of Indiana, in the court house yard at Richmond.

Spooning in the Ft. Wayne city parks must all be done before 10 p. m. This is in accordance with orders from the police department directing patrolmen to clear the parks of visitors at that hour. Action was taken at the request of residents who complained that love-lorn men and women were prone to linger in the parks until a late hour each night, and that their conduct was at times open to criticism.

BAD DREAMS.

Nightmare, Restlessness and Night-Sweats all Caused by Indigestion.

Half of the nervousness in the world, all of the disturbing dreams and nightmares can be ended in a few weeks by a simple, inexpensive treatment.

Upset stomach is the cause of nervousness and bad dreams. Your food is lying in your stomach undigested and fermenting; it is forming poisonous gasses which irritates the pneumogastric nerve that leads direct from the brain, and ends in a network of tiny branches running through the stomach.

It is also the irritation of this great pneumogastric nerve that causes headaches. Many times people have severe headaches and know they are caused by the stomach, but do not know in what manner.

If you are nervous, have dreams or nightmare, and do not sleep sound at night, get a 50 cent box of Mi-on-a stomach tablets and take one or two after or with meals. They relieve distressed stomach in 5 minutes. Sold by druggists everywhere and by B. F. Fendigt, who guarantees them to cure indigestion or money back.
