A HELPING HAND.

Is Gladly Extended by a Rensselaer Citizen.

There are many enthusiastic citizens in Rensselaer prepared to tell their experience for the public good. Testimony from such a source is the best of evidence, and will prove a "helping hand" to scores of readers. Read the following statement:

Charles Malchow, Harvey street, Rensselaer, Ind., says: "Kidney complaint and backache kept me in misery for years. The attacks came on so frequently that it seemed as if I were never free from pain. The small of my back was the part most affected, but often the pain extended through my shoulders and even into my neck. The kidney secretions annoyed me by their irregularity in passage and proved that my kidneys were at fault. Years ago I learned about Doan's Kidney Pills and on getting a supply at Fendig's Drug Store, I began their use. After taking a few doses, I knew that I had at last found the remedy I needed. My kidneys were strengthened and the pains in my back were disposed of. I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills since then when having similar attacks and I have never failed to get prompt and lasting relief. This remedy lives up to all the claims made for it."

Popular Young Lady Becomes Bride of Travelling Salesman.

At 4:30 o'clock Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wright, on River street, occurred the marriage of his sister, Miss Florence Wright, to Mr. Victor Hugo Hancock, of Kansas City. Only immediate relatives of the bride and Miss Fern Starr, witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. J. C. Parrett, of the First Presbyterian church. The ring ceremony was used and Master Willis Wright, nephew of the bride, carried the ring.

Miss Wright was one of the most popular young ladies in Rensselaer, where she has lived all of her life except that part spent in college and in teaching school. In this avocation she has been very successful, and for the past two years she has taught manual training at the Winona technical school. Mr. Hancock's home is in Kansas City, where he is a traveling salesman. Mr. and Mrs. Hancock took the 6:02 train for Chicago and from there will leave for Kansas City, where they will make their future home.

About twenty young men in uniform are encamped on the college campus at St. Joseph's. It is expected that several more will arrive from Chicago this evening. A baseball game will be played with the religious students Sunday afternoon and the camp will break that evening.

The organization is military and daily drills are held.

WALLACE-HAGENBECK CIRCUS IS COMING TO RENSSELAER.

First Menagerie and Circus Since Same Show Visited Our City on August 23rd, Three Years Ago.

The big circus is coming. The Wallace-Hagenbeck show, one of the biggest on the road and popular in Rensselaer, will be here on Saturday, July 30th, and exhibit in the east end of the baseball park.

H. L. Massey, the advance agent, arrived here Wednesday and was piloted about the town by former mayor, J. H. S. Ellis. He decided that Rensselaer was the place to draw a big crowd and learning that there had been no show here since the visit of his own circus on August 23rd, 1907, he decided that the people in Rensselaer and hereabouts would be sufficiently circus hungry to turn out in great numbers. Mr. Massey states that the Wallace-Hagenbeck show is bigger and better than ever before and is drawing great throngs and delighting them. It is not the same old circus, the kind that when you have seen one, you have seen them all, but during the past three years numerous new features have been added and now the circus is practically all new since the last visit.

The first advertising car and crew will be here Saturday and will spread bills and posters all over Rensselaer and all up and down the line from Monon to Lowell. Another car will follow and bills will be posted at Remington, Wolcott, Goodland and other points.

The show will be in Monticello the day before it comes to Rensselaer and will go from here to Hammond.

Former Resident Recalls Both Gen. Milroy and His Father.

Balaton, Minn., July 12, 1910. Editor Republican:

In sending you money for another year for the Republican, I also enclose $1.00 for the Milroy monument fund. Crops are fine here, and while we are very much in love with our adopted state, we still have a very warm place in our hearts for our old Indiana home, and in sending you this small contribution for the monument fund, I send it partly for the old times I have heard my mother tell about, when she was a little girl, and lived neighbors to General Milroy's father, who was also a general (in the Mexican war, I think) and who used to take Indians to and from their reservations to Washington, making Delphi their camping place, sometimes for weeks at a time. Also the old general's son, John, brother to Gen. Milroy, married my mother's cousin, a Miss Stansel. My mother as a very small girl, lived in Delphi, when the M. E. people worshipped in a log church.

Hen Lays Egg In Buggy While Enroute to Town.

Valparaiso Messenger—John Donahue, who resides a mile and a quarter northwest of town, has a hen that knows enough to lay her eggs where they will be discovered and also ready to haul to market without any handling. Frequently she has laid an egg in the back end of a buggy box and several times she has been found in the buggy as some member of the family was driving to town. The horse and buggy were brought to town, and when they arrived here the hen was discovered in the back end of the buggy box. Upon lifting her out a freshly laid egg was found in the bottom of the buggy. Without a doubt the egg was laid while the vehicle was in motion. No attempt has been made to educate the hen; she appears to be naturally so progressive that she wants to improve on the old fashioned methods of her species.
