LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

John Bruner made a business trip to Valparaiso today.

W. H. Myers was down from Parr on business over night.

The great Cushwa Jersey Ice Cream on sale at Fate's Ice Cream Parlors.

When you can't find it elsewhere, Fendig's Exclusive Shoe Store has it.

John Webber is putting up a monument for W. H. Mackey at the grave of Mrs. Julius Hass at Fair Oaks today.

G. L. Parks, of Milroy township, went this morning for a short visit with his brother, Peter Parks, in Valparaiso.

Father Sylvester Hartman, of St. Joseph's College, left this morning for a week's vacation, which he expects to spend at West Baden.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Barton returned to Woodland, Ill., today after a visit with her father, William Garland and family, southeast of town.

We have relieved many tired, aching feet. We want to relieve more. Bring them to us. Fendig's Exclusive Shoe Store, Opera House Block.

Mrs. Peter Giver, of Wabash, and Mrs. Rufus Giver and baby, of Hammond, came today for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wiltshire.

Misses Jeanette and Agnes Stewart, of Chalmers, and Misses Mabel and Gertrude Duryea, of Lafayette, are the guests of Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Parrett.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Harmon, Mrs. H. W. Kinlinger and daughters, Inez and Helen, and Miss Marjorie Loughbridge are spending the day at Cedar Lake.

Mrs. F. H. Hemphill and little son went to Chicago this morning to meet the doctor's mother, Mrs. R. C. Hemphill, who is returning from a visit since May 4th with relatives in Kansas and Missouri.

Mrs. Mary E. Lowe left this morning for Wisconsin, where she will remain at her large farm for about a month. Although the farm is in Wisconsin, Mrs. Lowe will get her mail across the line at Koss, Mich.

My loan company is still making farm loans at 5 per cent. If you are going to need a loan make application now, as some other companies are already refusing to loan. John A. Dunlap, I. O. O. F. Bldg.

F. W. Powers, of Lafayette, owner of a lot of Jasper county land located along the Kankakee river, has been visiting his possessions the past few days and stopped here for a short time today. He is in for the drainage of the Kankakee.

Charlie Harmon came up from Terre Haute yesterday to remain over Sunday with his wife and daughter. Mrs. Harmon will remain here for another week. Charlie is the manager for the Pillsbury company at Terre Haute and is well pleased with his new field.

The Overland automobile company of Indiana and Ohio is planning an increase of the capital stock of the company from $2,800,000 to $6,000,000 and the consolidation of the business. It is likely that if the merger is formed that the company will be taken from Indianapolis to Toledo.

On account of the scarcity of peaches in Michigan we will have to use the southwestern peaches this year. I have bought direct from Texas a carload of Texas Elberta peaches, the finest peaches grown. We will have the car on track some time next week, at $1.75 and $2.00 a bushel. This will be your only chance to obtain fancy peaches at a low price. Leave orders now.

JOHN EGER.

Mr. and Mrs. John Eger were in Chicago Friday.

The Monon will run another 75c excursion to Chicago Sunday, July 17th.

All kinds of footwear for all kinds of people at Fendig's Exclusive Shoe Store.

T. J. Honan came over from Delphi this morning for a visit with his cousin E. P. Honan.

This is the day of the big Marshall Field picnic at Cedar Lake. Ninety-five coaches from Chicago were sent down in ten special trains, and more than ten thousand people are said to be at the lake.

E. K. Koons and A. J. Landis, of near Parr, made a business trip to Monticello today. Mr. Koons came to Jasper county from near Logansport and says his crops are the best this year he has ever raised any place.

Tell the people of Rensselaer and Jasper county what you have—what you want—what you are offering for sale, rent or exchange. Get quick action by telling them through the Republican Classified column.

Don't worry, the Fat Dinner Man will always have some cooking done for the hungry and thirsty. You can always eat warm meals when you visit greater Rensselaer and the Fat Dinner Man.

Albert Fendig, of Brunswick, Ga., arrived here Friday evening from Detroit, Mich., where he has been as a delegate to the Elks national convention. His visit will be quite short and he will start for his southern home Sunday.

George Hurley arrived home Thursday from Winnebago, Minn., where he has been ditching since April. His son Hugh and James Overton remained there and are working in the harvest fields, earning $2.50 a day. George expects to return there about Sept. 1st and work during the fall. He has had a good season for ditching and reports everything prosperous in southern Minnesota, with fine crops of oats, barley and wheat and a good outlook for corn.

The first advertising car of the Wallace-Hegenbeck circus arrived in Rensselaer on the milk train this morning and was sidetracked. A half dozen rigs met the car at the station and were employed to take the bill posters to nearby towns. J. H. S. Ellis has enough bill boards in Rensselaer to take care of the local billing, and he also had enough in Monticello, where the car was halted Friday. Some twenty-five bill posters accompanied the car and they will spread paste and bills over every bare spot in town. The circus will be two weeks from today, Saturday, July 30th.

GALLION-TAKEN TO OHIO BY CONSTABLE H. BLUMBI.

Game Warden Must Answer Charge of Child Desertion When He Reaches His Former Home.

Albert M. Gallion, the game warden, was arrested Friday evening by Sheriff Shiner on the charge of child desertion preferred by Gallion's wife in Miami county, Ohio, and for which Governor Marshall had granted a requisition. On Saturday morning Constable H. Blumbi, of Troy, Ohio, arrived in Rensselaer and took Gallion in charge and on the 10:55 train started with him to Logansport, where Gallion was to be given an opportunity to see relatives before being taken back to Ohio. Gallion spent Friday night in the county jail.

Mr. Blumbi, the constable, is a little Dutchman, who as constable and deputy sheriff of his home county has built up a state wide reputation. He was discussed recently in an editorial in a Dayton, Ohio, newspaper and credited with being one of the best officers in the state of Ohio.

He stated while here that there is no punishment in the state of Ohio for wife desertion, but the punishment for child desertion is very severe. He said that he knew nothing about the charges against Gallion but that if he is guilty he will have to make some arrangements to support the child.

Gallion talked to a reporter for the Republican and stated that he was thoroughly justified in his own conscience for having left his wife five years ago, and that he would not live with her and does not believe any self-respecting man would. He stated that he is entirely willing to return to Ohio and face the charge and will not fight the requisition.

Gallion is not suffering much from the shot wounds inflicted by Haynes. Several of the shot are still in his anatomy and the physician says will do no harm. The only visible wound is where the shot went into his right cheek. Gallion almost ruined a suit of clothes while going through a fence after Haynes. He was caught in the bars and the back of his coat rattled. He outfitted himself with a new suit while here. A telegram from Logansport, Gallion's home, in the Indianapolis Star, states that relatives of Gallion in that city say that they will see him through the Ohio trouble. They say that his marriage in Ohio was under duress and that he has never lived with his wife and never intends to. A Rensselaer party, who knew Gallion in Logansport, states that he is deserving of considerable sympathy. He will be tried immediately upon his return to Ohio.

James Donley, the other game warden, left on the morning train for his home in Kouts. He stated that nothing more would be done for the present about the apprehension of Haynes. Chief Deputy Fleming, of Ft. Wayne, stated that he regarded the work of Gallion and Donley as a little coarse, and it was on his recommendation that they gave up the case here. There is no doubt that Haynes has gone away and it is probable that he will move his family away. Should he come back it is likely that he will have to face the charge of shipping game from the state.

"Ready to Shoot" Kokomo Officer Held on Charge of Murder.

Oscar Welty, of Kokomo, is held in the jail of that city for the murder of a negro named Edwards. Welty was a constable. He has been in trouble frequently owing to his readiness to shoot. He held an exalted opinion of himself and labored under the impression that an officer has a license to shoot and kill whenever he takes a notion. The killing of Edwards was entirely unprovoked and white people are just as highly incensed as are the colored people at the crime. Welty stands a fine chance of serving the remainder of his days in the penitentiary as a result of his faulty belief that an officer has a right to shoot whenever a citizen objects to his action. The officer who murders is no better than any other person who murders and as soon as one demonstrates that he is too fresh with his firearms he should have them and his commission taken away from him. Possibly this applies to game wardens also.

Infant of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. McKay Dies at Fair Oaks.

The 15-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. McKay, of Fair Oaks, died Friday night of cholera infantum. The funeral will be held at Fair Oaks Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

And From Now On Prices Are To Be Lower.

In the opinion of J. Ogden Armour, the great Chicago packer, this country will never see hogs reach 10 cents per pound again. The high prices of the past year are due largely to the diminished production of hogs, but this high price in turn has induced breeders to increase their herds, and the promise of a bountiful crop of corn will make cheaper feed. Armour thinks the right price of hogs to be from 8 to 9 cents per pound, but there are many thousands of laborers who will not agree with him on these figures. There is money in 8 cent hogs even when corn is 50 cents.

Program Recalls Annual Commencement of 1894.

On Thursday evening, May 24th, 1894, the commencement exercises of the Rensselaer high school were held. It was the twelfth class to graduate. Recently among some old samples in the Republican office a program of these exercises was found. The class consisted of seven who read the following.

Compulsory Education, Oren F. Parker.
Territorial Growth of the United States, Marion L. Spittler, Jr.
The Coming Nation, Ray D. Thompson.
Literature and the Age, Benhart Fendig.
Importance of Good Roads, Jesse M. Coen.
George Washington Childs, Florence Neal.
Class History, Jos. H. Marshall.
The music for the commencement was furnished by the Rensselaer string orchestra.

All of the '94 class are living, we believe. Oren Parker and Benhart Fendig are Rensselaer merchants. R. D. Thompson is the city treasurer and a local practicing lawyer; Marion L. Spittler is a prominent young lawyer and business man of Oklahoma City; Jesse M. Coen is employed in the McClurg store in Chicago; Joseph Marshall is in California and Florence Neal, the only girl in the class is now the wife of a dentist named Jenkins, and lives in Canada. Her father recently died and an account of the death was published in this paper.

W. G. Voliva May Get Control of Zion City.

Wilbur Glenn Voliva, overseer of Zion City, Ill., protege and later opponent of John Alexander Dowie, religious leader, was placed in position to eventually secure absolute control of Zion City and its industries by a federal court order today.

This resulted when Judge Kenesaw M. Landis accepted the bid of a Chicago real estate firm for the assets of the Dowie estate. Guy D. Thomas, receiver of the estate, was ordered to dispose of it to the realty company for $700,000. Under a previous contract the realty firm will transfer the estate to Voliva for $900,000. Of this sum Voliva paid $50,000 at the time the contract was drawn up and will be allowed eight years in which to pay the balance of $850,000.

This action practically brings to an end a fight that has been waged for control of Zion City for several years. In bitter opposition to Voliva was the Zion City Investors' Association, composed chiefly of Zionites. Members of the association wanted the Dowie estate held in trust for a long period of years to secure profits on increased land values.

YOU CAN MAKE MORE MONEY BY WRITING A WANT AD

Than Kipling WOULD BE PAID FOR A POEM.

You may not be at all "literary," but still be able to make money as a writer. If you have a business of your own you can make it prosperous by writing convincing advertising of it. If you are not in business, you can still earn money by writing and publishing your classified ads in this paper. This chance is open to anyone, anytime—and it often happens that a want ad brings more to the writer than Kipling would be paid for a poem.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Partly cloudy tonight and Sunday; cooler in north portion tonight.

Lawyers in Monon Ditch Case Accused of Many Delays.

Winamac Republican: The Monon ditch case is proceeding at a rate that will insure its being completed within two or three years. Judge Steis has put a stop to many of the practices which meant delay, and it now looks as if the matter would shortly be in shape so that it can be settled in a few weeks.

The judge has ruled that but three witnesses shall be heard on each side and both sides are now getting their important witnesses who know the facts, and leaving at home their neighbors and friends who are willing to testify for good fellowship's sake.

The Kinzie B. Clark remonstrance is disposed of. Mr. Clark contended the proposed improvement would not benefit him, and asked that he be relieved from his assessment of $975. The court reduced the assessment $120, leaving it $855.

The hearing of the evidence on the Ed Shedrow remonstrance was completed Wednesday and the Adam Learsch remonstrance was taken up and is now being heard.

Taft Carries Out His Conservation Policy

President Taft withdrew four millions of acres of coal lands in different states of the west bringing the total of coal land withdrawals made by him up to the enormous total of 71,518,588 acres. Something like half of this amount are new withdrawals.

The areas covered are as follows: Arizona, 161,280; Colorado, 6,191,161; Montana, 20,208,865; New Mexico, 2,844,279; North Dakota, 17,828,182; Oregon, 192,562; South Dakota, 2,870,287; Utah, 5,814,287; Washington, 2,207,967; Wyoming, 13,099,718 acres. The total appraised value on these lands is $449,876.08 as compared with $170,063,766 which would be the minimum price that formerly obtained in the disposal of government coal lands.
