

You Serve Good Health With Bonano

It agrees with your household—big folks, baby folks and all. A bracing, pure-food fruit drink; warming, palate-tempting, energy-building. It's the drink to do big things on. Puts you on your mettle—gives you stamina, and stick.

It supports nobly—a prop that does not palsy; a stimulant that does not sap. BONANO is not a "near" coffee, but a wholesome table drink in a class of its own, with its own flavor, its own spicy odor, its own full, satisfying "body."

Try BONANO a week or two. You will like it better and better every day as you feel your health improve, your nerves get firm, your brain grow clear, your digestion become right—when you learn what it is to work like a giant and sleep like a baby.

BONANO can easily be made to suit each individual taste by boiling it more or less or using a larger or smaller quantity than directions call for. You can easily find the way you like it best.

BONANO is just the appetizing goodness of fully matured, tropic-ripened bananas—the choicest that grow—dried, roasted, granulated—served as a golden brown, aromatic beverage. No adulteration, no artificial coloring or flavor.

Your doctor will tell you that bananas are high in food value, that they are easily and quickly digested by the weakest stomach without over-taxing, that they help in assimilation and digestion and are mildly corrective, that they contain or develop no poisons; and thus BONANO is pure and wholesome and can be given in perfect safety to an unweaned babe.

For Insomnia: Those who are unable to sleep find that a before-retiring cup of BONANO promptly induces restful, refreshing slumber.

BONANO is an economical drink, too. It goes twice as far as coffee. It requires little sugar because of the fruit-sweet it contains. A 25-cent can of BONANO makes 75 cups of the best hot drink you ever tasted.

WILD ANIMAL ACTORS.

Marvelous Brute Artists With The Hagenbeck-Wallace Shows.

The remarkable and complete collection of trained wild animal actors, comprising the most important specimens of zoology, assembled in the wild beasts performances which form an imposing part of the Hagenbeck-Wallace Shows, which exhibit here July 30, has never been equaled in the history of the world. No corner of the globe has been considered too remote to make this collection the most unique on earth.

Chief among these wonderful creatures is a hybrid lion-tiger, a magnificent animal of feline grace and terrible power, with all the peculiarities of both lion and tiger, but wearing the tiger's stripes upon the lion's skin. One of the most important groups is composed of two lions, three Bengal tigers, two India leopards, two pumas, two enormous Polar bears, four Great Dane dogs and the singular hybrid lion-tiger. Here, too, we are confronted with the incredible spectacle of six different species and the aforementioned remarkable mixture of two of them, each naturally the instinctive, implacable foe of the others, and some of them hitherto considered by the best masters of zoology as wholly untamable, performing together in a colossal steel girt arena, which absolutely insures the safety of the public, their bearing toward the trainer and one another being as amiable and considerate as characterizes the intercourse of an assemblage of human beings at a social function.

Imperceptibly directed by a single trainer and of seemingly happy accord and eager unity, these formerly dreaded kings and queens of the seething jungle, the howling wilderness and the remote, inaccessible frozen wilds of the Poles build their skyscraping pyramids, balance with a skill rivaling that of the human acrobat upon barrels, play rollicking games of see-saw; with courteous consideration for the luxurious comfort of their master, form soft living couches of themselves and invite his confidence by opening their terrible, blood-red mouths for the temporary insertion of his trusting head. It would require pages to tell in advance all the startling novelties introduced in the Hagenbeck-Wallace Shows, which, besides the many trained wild animal features, is a circus vastly superior to any organization now traveling.

G. F. MEYERS.

The Ft. Wayne News refers to the "abject Mr. Kern" and declares that when Mr. Kern, "in the hope of placating men he formerly denounced proceeds from anathema to eulogy, he inspires only the contempt of his fellow citizens." Some of Mr. Kern's friends may say these are hard words. But thoughtful citizens will admit they are true. "Kern's tribute to Shively at French Lick, considered in relation to his charges concerning the manner of Shively's election, brands Kern as a man to whom no form of stultification is too mean, too abject or too servile, if only it holds out the hope of material reward." And yet with all his praise for Shively, Kern did not retract those bribery charges. He merely promised to be "temperate" in his language in the future. Think of "temperate" language in discussing the purchase of votes!

Yens Didn't Like North Dakota Even a Little Bit.

Yens Anderson, of Hammond, formerly of Rensselaer, and a brother of Otto and A. C. Anderson, recently made a trip to North Dakota, to visit his brothers. A. C. has lived there for some years and has prospered, but Otto just went there this last spring and struck it in a bad season. Yens says that Otto will be back to Rensselaer before winter. Of his visit and impression of that section of North Dakota, Yens is given the following write-up in the Hammond News:

Yens Anderson, leverman in the Hohman street interlocking tower reached home last night after a thirteen day vacation.

The vacation was spent in northern North Dakota, and according to the local man, he found conditions such in that section, that he was ready to return almost as soon as he reached there, but the irregular service offered by the railroads prevented him from getting out.

In that section he says, not a drop of rain has fallen since March, and the crops are practically failures.

The high cost of living is very much in evidence too, and Yens warns friends who are thinking of a trip to that part. "It costs twenty-five cents for a shave to equip themselves with safety razors, and fifty cents for a haircut in northern North Dakota shops" is his warning.

Oranges are seventy-five cents per dozen and provisions of all kinds are much higher than they are here.

A MISSISSIPPI ENTHUSIAST

Mrs. Lena Gresham, of Clinton, Miss., Has a Few Facts to Tell Our Readers About Cardui.

Clinton, Miss.—"Thanks to Cardui," writes Mrs. Lena Gresham, of this place, "I have been greatly relieved."

"I suffered for three years from female inflammation, and had taken medicine from four different physicians without much benefit."

"I have received more benefit from seven bottles of Cardui, than from all the physicians."

Just try Cardui. That's all we ask. It speaks for itself. It has helped so many thousands, it must be able to help you.

Trying Cardui won't hurt you. It is safe, harmless, gentle in action, and purely vegetable.

If you are weak, tired, down and out, try Cardui.

If you are sick, miserable, and suffer from womanly pains, like headache, backache, dragging feelings; pains in side, arms, legs, etc.—try Cardui.

It is the medicine for all women. It is the tonic for you.

INDIGESTION GOES.

B. F. Fendig Sells Best Prescription On Earth on the Money Back Plan.

Almost everybody knows that sick headache, nervousness and dizziness, are caused by a disordered stomach. Upset stomach and indigestion happen just because the food you eat does not digest—but lies in the stomach and ferments or turns sour.

You can stop fermentation and stomach distress in five minutes by using Mi-o-na stomach tablets, a prescription that has done more to cure indigestion and put the stomach in fine condition than all the specialists on earth.

A large 50 cent box of Mi-o-na stomach tablets is all you need to get quick and lasting relief.

Mrs. Altie Etson, of 93 Dun Road, Battle Creek, Mich., used MI-O-NA and within two months was in as good health as ever, and has a good stomach and eats everything she likes, she attributes her present health to the use of MI-O-NA.

If you have heartburn, belching of gas, heaviness or any stomach trouble no matter how chronic, try Mi-o-na stomach tablets on money back plan. Sold by druggists everywhere and by B. F. Fendig, who guarantees them.

Any skin itching is a temper-tester. The more you scratch the more it itches. Doan's Ointment cures piles, eczema—any skin itching. At all drug stores.

"I have been somewhat costive, but Doan's Regulents gave just the results desired. They act mildly and regulate the bowels perfectly."—George E. Krause, 306 Walnut Ave., Altoona, Pa.
