Weigh it for Yourself

Which side are you on? Weigh the question for yourself—and do it NOW OR NEVER. Is the assurance that the baleful influences of the saloon will not throw about your son, your daughter, or your father, or brother, worth anything to you? If so, act now!

The General Assembly will soon convene. Shall it repeal the County Local Option Law? If the people of Indiana who believe in this law will co-operate the Law Can Be Saved.

A great movement is on foot to show the General Assembly, with monster petitions, with mass meetings and in other ways, that the people of Indiana want this law retained. The movement, if properly supported, will save the law. If this cause is dear to you,

Miss Edith Clark is on the sick list. Babcock & Hopkins have put in a new gasoline engine to run the elevator.

Mrs. Ora Turner is visiting her brother, Isaac Parcel and wife, for a few days. They intend to move near St. Louis.

No Right to Starve.

You have no right to starve. "I eat three meals a day," you say. True, but you don't digest them, and you're thin and weak. You need electric Bitters to strengthen your stomach, aid digestion and assimilation, improve appetite. They'll work wonders for you. 50c at A. F. Long's.

Accidents will happen, but the best regulated families keep Dr. Thomas' Eucletic Oil for such emergencies. It subdues the pain and heals the hurts.

FAIR OAKS.

Isaac Thomas is here on business this week.

F. R. Erwin is having an addition built to his barn.

Bruce Moffit, of near Lisbon, N. D., is here visiting relatives.

Cottage prayer meeting at Al. Hellsell's Wednesday evening.

Pawn Casey gave a party Monday evening to several small boys and girls to introduce her sister's children, who have just arrived from the southern part of the state.

End Winter's Troubles.

To many, winter is a season of trouble. The frost bitten toes and fingers, chapped hands and lips, chilblains, cold sores, red and rough skins, prove this. But such troubles fly before Bucklen's Arnica Salve. A trial convinces. Greatest healer of burns, boils, piles, cuts, sores, eczema and sprains. Only 25c at A. F. Long's.

NEWLAND.

Born, Monday, Dec. 5th, to Mr. and Mrs. Jess Nuss, a daughter, it being their fifth child.

Presbyterian Ladies' Bazaar

December 16th and 17th.

The Presbyterian ladies' annual bazaar will be held Friday and Saturday, December 16th and 17th, in Mrs. Purcupille's millinery store. Many useful and ornamental articles will be on sale. On Saturday a market will be run in connection with the bazaar. Home made candies will be on sale and lunch will be served.

The ladies will also have on sale "Shino," a chemical floor mop that absorbs the dust and polishes the surface. The Shino is sold for less money and gives better results than other mops. The price is 50 cents.

Annual Election of Officers.

The annual election of the board of directors of the Commercial Club, will take place Wednesday evening, December 14, 1910, at the club rooms, over Roth Bros., at which time 9 directors will be chosen for the ensuing year. D. M. WORLAND, President.
