Dr. W. A. Baker, a Fowler veterinarian, was in Rensselaer a short time this morning. Himself and wife are spending a few days with the family of August Tigler, near Francesville.

John Knox came down from Chicago this morning and will remain here during the balance of the year. He will take up a course in advertising which offers a fine opportunity of success.

George M. Robinson and wife came from Connersville Saturday and will be in Rensselaer for an indefinite period, living with his mother, Mrs. G. M. Robinson, on River street. George has improved slightly in health since his last visit here but still has to use a cane to support himself while walking and his recovery is very slow.

The weatherman has forecasted rain for several days and clouds and thunder each evening have indicated showers, but Rensselaer and vicinity has had none for a week and then a very inadequate one. Other nearby towns report beneficial showers. We need a good all-day soaker for best results to corn and pastures.

Dan Lesh writes from Menominee, Wis., that they have had a good year there, with sufficient rain. Their grain was of a good quality and lots of it. They are well satisfied with their home there and will continue to keep acquainted with things in old Jasper county through the Semi-Weekly Republican, to which he renewed his subscription.

John W. Ullery, formerly of Brook, but for several years employed in the pension building in Washington, D. C., has been sick at his farm near Brook for almost two months, and for some time his case was regarded quite serious. He is now improved, however, and will probably recover, but he will not return to his work in Washington for a month or more.

Rev. J. Ford Rainier and wife and three children, of Indianapolis, arrived last evening in their Chalmers-Detroit auto for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Rainier. They picked up G. A. Rainier at Brookston and brought him as far as Remington for a short visit with his son, Dr. A. P. Rainier, who brought him here this morning to take the train for his home.

Mrs. J. A. Snyder and Mrs. Carrie D. Short attended a reunion of the Baughman family last Sunday at the home of their sister, Mrs. Frank Gardner, near Francesville. Sixty-three members of the family were present including U. M. Baughman, from Oklahoma City, and other relatives from Illinois and nearby Indiana towns. A pleasant day was spent. U. M. Baughman left today for his home in Oklahoma, and his wife and daughter, who have been in Colorado, left yesterday for their home.

The man in Rensselaer who is not now employed has no one to blame but himself, provided he is physically able to work. About twenty hands are at work at the new depot, including the sand and gravel haulers, and a similar number are working at the match factory. A half dozen are working at the M. E. church and a dozen or more on the alley paving jobs. With threshing taking up most of the time in the country, there is an era of hustle in Jasper county that should make a lazy man either go to work or move away.

Treasurer-elect A. A. Fell was over from Carpenter township Monday, looking over the treasurer's office a little to see what he could learn about it. It is understood that he has made a proposition to Treasurer Allman to remain as his deputy and it will be good news to Rensselaer people to have Mr. Allman give an affirmative reply. His ability as an officer and his high qualities of citizenship have popularized him not only in Rensselaer but throughout the county, and it is hoped that he will continue to make this city his home after his term of office expires, which will be December 31 of this year.

CRIPPLED MAN INJURED IN RUNAWAY THIS AFTERNOON.

Herman Hordeman, Already Badly Crippled, Suffered Dislocated Elbow and Cut on Scalp.

Herman Hordeman, who suffered the loss of his left arm in a corn shredder last fall, and who had previously lost part of his other hand had a runaway accident this Tuesday afternoon that bruised him up considerably and might easily have resulted seriously. He was in the wagon to which his team was hitched and was at the J. L. Brady elevator when the team became frightened and started south on Dayton street on a dead run. He struggled with them and was about to check them when the line through which the hook he used on his left arm, broke and the team was dashing at a lively speed when they reached Clark street, and turned west at the J. P. Hammond residence. The bed of the wagon was here thrown off and Herman went off with it. He struck on his head and a gash was cut on his forehead and it was feared he was seriously injured. He was taken to the home of W. S. Coen, near by, and a physician called. It was found that in addition to the gash on the head he had suffered a dislocation of the left elbow, that being the arm that was cut off at the wrist last fall. He was soon bandaged up and able to go out in search of his team, which had been caught without other damage, about half a mile west of town.

Young Men From Rensselaer Join the United States Army.

Several young men from Rensselaer have recently become imbued with a desire to join the regular army and have enlisted through the Lafayette recruiting station. All who have gone from here have been members of the local militia company and have taken so great a liking for military life that they want to try it as a regular occupation. Don P. Warren, Robert L. Anderson, Harry Hickman and Ellis L. Thomas will serve three years in the cavalry and will be sent from Lafayette to Columbus Barracks, Ohio, today, for preliminary training. They will probably spend part of their enlistment in Honolulu or the Philippines Islands.

Frank Wiseman made application to enlist but was turned down on account of his teeth. He expects to have these treated and then to make another effort to join. Scott Brannaman also made application but failed on the eyesight test.

District Schools of Jasper County to Open Sept. 11th.

Jasper county district schools will have an early start this year. At the meeting Monday of the county board of education all trustees present agreed to start the schools off on September 11th.

The absent trustees are May, of Carpenter; Lane, of Newton, and Kight, of Union. Trustee May has a little daughter that recently became afflicted with infantile paralysis, and the brother of Trustee Lane is said to be quite sick. Trustee Kight is not a very regular attendant at the monthly meetings.

The Jordan township Sunday school convention at Egypt school house Sunday was attended by about five hundred people. The crowd was larger and the interest greater than the annual convention held a year ago. The program was carried out largely as printed, with the exceptions caused by the absence of President Arthur Waymire, whose wife is very poorly, and of Vice-President Johnston, of Remington. The talks were interesting and instructive, and Rev. C. L. Harper, of Trinity M. E. church, Rensselaer, delivered an impromptu address on Sunday school work that was greatly enjoyed. The talks of O. H. McKay were also very much liked and very encouraging. The meeting on the whole was one of the best Sunday school gatherings ever held in Jordan township.

Russell Harmon was in town yesterday afternoon to have his injured nose dressed. He is recovering satisfactorily and it is thought will not be seriously disfigured as a result of the injury inflicted when Roscoe Zeigler hit him with a spade last Friday. His teeth are still loose and it is probable that he will lose at least two of them. His nose is healing up very nicely and there is no indication of infection.

HORSE SHOW COMMITTEE MEETING WARM RECEPTION.

Almost Every One Wants the Show and Is Willing to Help Make It a Great Big Success.

The soliciting committee for the horse show has met with splendid success and up to last night had secured pledges aggregating $700, and they are still at work. It not only takes money to make the mare go but it takes money to make the horse flesh of any kind go, and as this is our third annual show we want to make it go good and strong, and there is a generous response to the work of the committee. Several men not in business have put their names down for a dollar or two dollars or even more. They expect to get their money's worth by seeing the best horses ever assembled in the county and by enjoying the other events the committee hopes to make better than ever before.

It has about been decided to hold the show Sept. 2. to 23, being Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Some would sooner hold it a week later and some a week earlier, but the committee have about decided to hold it on the above days. The entertainment committee has nothing to report so far, but they are trying to get something that is new and that will bring a crowd and please them. President Worland prefers a good carnival company if one can be procured, and it is probable an effort will be made to get a company to come here for the week.

The suggestion has been made to the proper committee that a fantastic parade be given one or more evenings and possibly one forenoon. This could be pulled off at practically no cost to the horse show committee and would be a great hit and something never undertaken in this part of Indiana, if indeed here have been members of the local militia company and have taken so great a liking for military life that they want to try it as a regular occupation. They will use all the local players they can and just stock up enough to make the games interesting. This will be run separately from the show and an admission charged to the games to defray the expense of holding them. Good teams from nearby towns will be procured to play.

The advertising committee expects to make it known far and wide that Rensselaer will give a big horse show and it is believed that the biggest crowd yet gathered here will be brought in one or two days. The prevalence of automobiles makes it necessary to advertise at greater distances than heretofore and this show will be advertised for thirty miles around. Several auto owners will doubtless help to circulate advertising matter as soon as it is available.

It looks like a big show and all that is needed is the pulling together of all our people.

COL. I. C. B. SUMAN DEAD; COMMANDED NINTH REGIMENT.

Gallant Volunteer Under Whom Many Jasper Soldiers Served, Died Sunday Night in Valparaiso.

Col. I. C. B. Suman, of Valparaiso, passed away at his home shortly after midnight Sunday night. Heart trouble was the cause of death and he had been confined at his home for several days under the care of a physician.

Colonel Suman last visited Rensselaer during the encampment of the 9th Indiana regiment about five years ago. He was the last colonel of that regiment and was greatly admired by all of the boys who went out from Jasper county in the 9th regiment. To the surviving members of that gallant but fast disappearing band of patriots the news of his death will be received with much sorrow.

The following sketch of Colonel Suman's career is taken from the Valparaiso Vidette:

Col. I. C. B. Suman, one of Valparaiso's most distinguished and highly respected citizens, died at 12:15 this morning at his home on Laporte avenue. His last sickness was of about two weeks' duration, but he had been in failing health for the past two years. Valvular heart disease was the direct cause of his death, although his demise was probably hastened by his wounds received in the civil war, which gave him trouble for many years and became aggravated as his end approached.

Col. Suman was a native of Frederick county, Maryland, and was born Jan. 4, 1831. He was next to the youngest of a family of seven children born to Albert and Mary Suman, who were natives of the south and of English-German descent. Albert Suman served several years in the revolutionary war under General Marion. Col. Suman was reared in his native state, where he received a common school education.

In May, 1846, Col. Suman enlisted in the First U. S. Artillery for service in the Mexican war. He remained in the artillery about two years and was then transferred to the Second U. S. Dragoons and served in the U. S. army at that time five years. He participated under General Taylor in the engagements of Palo Alto, Monterey, Beuna Vista and all movements of Taylor's army after it crossed the Rio Grande river at Brownsville, Texas, until the capture of the city of Mexico.

At the close of the Mexican war the deceased returned to Maryland. His father had been a large slaveholder, but had failed in business and was in reduced circumstances, and young Suman was confronted with the necessity of making his own way in the world. As he cordially detested slavery, he determined to seek his fortunes in the free states, and so in the fall of 1852 started for the northwest on foot, with just $8 as the sum total of all our people.

Auto Speeding Case Postponed Until Friday—Witnesses Absent.

The case of the State of Indiana vs. Jamie Willis, which was venued from Marion township to Squire Bussell's court in Hanging Grove and set for trial Monday, has been postponed until Friday. Prosecutor Longwell came over from Brook Monday and with the state's witnesses went to the Bussell court, while defendant Willis, accompanied by his attorney, John A. Dunlap, and several witnesses, also went there. After arriving Mr. Dunlap explained that three of the defendant's witnesses were in Chicago and could not be here until Friday and prayed a continuance until that day. This was granted.

The decision was disappointing to a gang of threshers at the Bussell residence, who were expecting to be called as a jury in the case. It is thought probable that the defendant will take a change of venue from the court next Friday. If he does the case will probably be sent to Justice Gaffield, of Milroy township.

Prosecutor Longwell will be over Thursday to look after the state's side of the case alleging that Hugh Burns, of Demotte, was recently guilty of intoxication. He will remain over until Friday for the Willis case.

Howard Clark Pitched Great Game of Baseball Sunday.

Howard Clark, who is working at the U. S. Metal works in Hammond, pitched against the steel car shops baseball nine last Sunday and won a signal victory. The Hammond Times thus reports the game:

"The U. S. Metals shut out the Standard Steel Car Shops Sunday morning at Harrison park by a score of 6 to 0. Southpaw Clark, who twirled for the U. S., allowed only two hits and struck out eleven men and walked one."

It looks like Clark might have made good with the Wrens if he had been given a chance in the box.

Consumption Causes Death of Mrs. Lee Catt, of Greenfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Catt were notified Monday of the death at Greenfield of the wife of their son Lee. Mrs. Catt and son Edward left on the afternoon train Monday for that city to attend the funeral. Mrs. Catt was about 38 years of age and leaves a husband and three children and other relatives to mourn her death. Consumption was the cause of her death. Mrs. Whitsell Lewis, sister of the bereaved husband, has been at Greenfield for about two weeks, assisting in the care of the sick woman.
