The KITCHEN CUPBOARD

STUFFED BAKED POTATOES.

BAKING potatoes is one of the most wholesome ways of preparing them. There are many methods of serving them thus besides the simple, old fashioned one of bringing them to the table baked au naturel.

Among these methods may be mentioned the following:

Potatoes With Onions.

Stuffed Potatoes With Onions.—Take large, even sized potatoes and for each potato allow a tablespoonful of stale grated cheese, a teaspoonful of minced cold bacon and a teaspoonful each of chopped onion, parsley and drippings. Scrub the potatoes and bake them until they are soft inside. Cut one end off each and scoop out the interior with a small spoon. Mash this smoothly and mix it with the cheese, meat, parsley, onion, warmed drippings and seasoning. Refill the skins with this. Reheat until hot through and serve at once.

Spanish Potatoes.—Scrub and bake six medium sized potatoes, cut open lengthwise and take out the inside. Mash the potatoes with grated onion, a quarter of a teaspoonful of salt, a teaspoonful of butter and a cupful of cream or milk. Replace the mashed potato, dividing equally among the twelve shells. Place a slice of bacon on the top of each and brown in the oven.

Potatoes and Ham.

Stuffed Potatoes With Ham and Peppers.—Peel good sized potatoes and hollow out a space in each, leaving a canoe or boat shaped piece. Fill the hollows with a mixture of chopped ham, chopped hard boiled egg and chopped green peppers, seasoning to taste with salt, pepper and melted butter. Bake until the potatoes are done.

Stuffed Potatoes With Eggs.—Take six potatoes; put them in the oven without peeling. When done take out the insides, but preserve the shape of the potatoes. Put the insides of the potatoes in a basin and add one and a half ounces of butter and salt and pepper to taste. Mix together until light and add two well beaten whites of eggs and stir all together. Fill the potato skins with the paste, first rolling each piece in beaten yolk of egg; then bake in the oven. Serve as soon as the tops are well browned or in from ten to fifteen minutes.

W. M. Tillotson left this morning for his home at Covington after spending about three weeks with his sister, Mrs. Henry Doan, of Newton township. His son, C. W. Doan, who was on a three months' leave of absence, was visiting his aunt, Mrs. Doan, when the Mexican situation became grave in February, and was called to Leavenworth to accompany his regiment, the 19th U. S. Infantry, to Galveston. He is a first lieutenant in that regiment, having risen from the ranks.

Fancy white eating potatoes, 45c per bushel, beginning Saturday, March 29th, and lasting one week, in one bushel lots or more.

ROWLES & PARKER.

Mrs. Newt Humphrey left this morning for her home at Columbia City. She had remained here longer than she had expected owing to the fact that trains were not running so that she could get home. The usual route traveled in going to Columbia City is by Delphi and Logansport but there are no trains yet to Delphi and presumably not between Delphi and Logansport, so Mrs. Humphrey went to Englewood and thence to Columbia City over the Pennsylvania.

Why pay 60c for potatoes when you can get better ones for 45c per bushel in lots of 1 bushel or more. Rowles & Parker's, phone 95.

David Burns, who was a resident of Walker township prior to 25 years ago and who is a brother of James Burns, north of town, left this morning for his home in Washington, Iowa, and will go from there to Seattle, Wash., where he has a sawmill and where he expects to establish his home.

PERILS AMONG FALSE BRETHREN

St. Paul's Experiences Duplicate the Master's.

Jesus' Footstep Followers Wounded in the House of Their Friends—The Philosophy of the Matter—How to Receive Such Experiences—Why They Are Permitted—The Results They Serve—Special Perils Today.

(PASTOR RUSSELL)

Ottawa, Ont., March 28.—Pastor Russell, who since his last visit has many friends here, arrived again this morning. As usual, the largest auditorium was engaged for him. We report one of his addresses, from St. Paul's words: "Perils among false brethren." (2 Corinthians 11:26.) He said:

St. Paul was fully devoted to the Master and His cause. His faithfulness brought many trying experiences. He served Christ to such an extent that many counted him a fool. Those who opposed his teachings often raised a tumult and blamed him for it, in order to bring him into disrepute. Nevertheless, he rejoiced in all such experiences. None of these things moved him from faithfulness to his Master, whose servants he had persecuted before his eyes were opened. He recounts various perils from robbers, from Jews, from heathen, in the city, in the wilderness, on the sea. He winds up the list with the words of our text, "perils among false brethren."

The question arises, "Were these sufferings deserved?" Surely not! St. Paul was a noble character and bore the Message of God's grace in Christ. Then comes the question, "If his sufferings were not punishments, what were they?" We reply that, like the Master's, they were evidences of loyalty to God and of the darkness of the world, which led men to persecute him.

Darkness Hates the Light.

The Master declared that He stood for the principles of light, righteousness, truth; while Satan stands for darkness, blindness, superstition. All children of the light must be uncompromising in attitude toward wrong. Therefore the world hates them and says all manner of evil against them falsely. Yea, men will feel that they serve God when they slay the righteous, whether literally, as with Jesus and St. Paul, or by "shooting out arrows, even bitter words," the more popular present-day method.

But some will say, "Times have changed! Today our ministers are revered. No one thinks of persecuting them. All men speak well of them. Those not spoken well of today must in some way be unworthy."

How strange that we should forget! In Jesus' day did any traduce the chief priests and Pharisees? Were they not spoken of highly and reverenced? But the Master and His disciples were not popular. According to their own record they were styled "the filth and obscuring of the earth." The Master said that whoever persecuted them would feel that he did God service. As Jesus told some in His day, "Ye garnish the sepulchres of those whom your fathers slew, yet ye do their works."

So today many extol the Lord and the Apostles and denounce their persecutors, while similarly they persecute. The Master was a Jew. The Jews were His brethren according to the flesh. Yet they hated Him without a cause, persecuted Him and finally crucified Him. But St. Paul lived after Pentecost, and had Christian brethren, members of the Body of Christ. Jesus had none such. "Of the people there were none with Him."

St. Paul knew the bitterness of persecution from false brethren—the climax of all his perils. We may be sure that such experiences were most difficult to bear, for they came from brethren—the closest possible relationship—fellow-members of the body of Christ.

The Godly Suffer Persecution. All faithful followers of Jesus have persecutions. These come from every quarter; but none are more cruel than those from Christian brethren. Disputes between Christians have been very bitter. History demonstrates this fact. Heretic became the most obnoxious word in the dictionary. Nothing was too bad to do against a heretic.

Thank God for the advancement made in Christian sympathy! No longer can civilized people take pleasure in tortures, burnings, etc. The general sentiment no longer appreciates or tolerates physical torture. But who can dispute that mental torture is equally severe? In our day there are more refined ways of persecuting, torturing, etc., open to false brethren.

Evil-speaking, evil-slandering, slanders, ambiguous suggestions, etc., can be applied to the followers of Jesus today. All who take such a course are sharers with malefactors, even though they do not indulge in physical torture. What shall we say of the false brethren who do such things? Undoubtedly the Master still agrees with St. John's declaration, "Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life." (1 John 3:15.) Surely none with a murderous condition of heart could be suitable for joint-heirship with our Lord in His Kingdom!

Harve Robinson moved last week into the house with his grandmother, Mrs. E. L. Clark, while repairs are being made to the house he is to occupy on Weston street, the E. L. Clark property. Clifford Payne will occupy the house vacated by Mr. Robinson on Rutten street.

Emmet Hollingsworth left this morning for Wallingford, Conn., where he attends the Choate school. He spent the spring vacation at home. Miss Dorothy Hollingsworth, who attends Wellesley, near Boston, is expected home in a few days for her spring vacation.

Miss Nell Meyers left yesterday for Greencastle to resume school work at DePauw, after a visit that was extended because the flooded conditions prevented her earlier return. Miss Naomi Gregg, one of the Rensselaer teachers, also left for Greencastle to spend the vacation.

F. O. Churchill left this morning for Three Forks, Iowa, where he expects to remain the coming year and where he will probably work for Maines Bros. He was accompanied as far as Sioux City, Iowa, by John Worland, Earl Hemphill and Fred Daniels, who expect ultimately to go to Wyoming.

The Women's Home Missionary Society will meet at the home of Mrs. A. A. Fell Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. All those who have not sent in their mite box offering are requested to do so at this meeting. As we have special business to transact, all members are urged to be present.

Miss Alice Camerer, of Indianapolis, came this morning to visit Miss Ruth Ames. She had some difficulty reaching here, owing to the limited train service. After reaching Lafayette on the Big Four and transferring to West Lafayette, and taking an auto to Battle Ground, she found that she had arrived too late to get train No. 6, due here at 3:38. A later train brought her as far as Monon, where she remained over night, coming here on the milk train this morning.

Prof. Ira Coe and C. M. Sharp went to Chicago this morning. The former expects to return here in a few days, but Prof. Sharp hoped to find a way to get to his home at Springfield, Ohio, to spend the vacation. He usually goes via Indianapolis, and Sunday went to Lafayette, thinking that he would go to Indianapolis over the Big Four, but learned that there was as yet no trains running east out of Indianapolis. He returned here and decided to try the north route.
