Sunday was the 17th birthday of Miss Myrtle Shell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Shell, of the Oak Grove neighborhood, and twenty-five young people gathered at the Shell home Saturday evening, surprising not only Miss Myrtle but all members of the family. Music and games furnished lively entertainment until midnight, when refreshments, which the guests had brought, were served. The refreshments had been deferred until after midnight, so that they could be eaten on Miss Myrtle's birthday. All enjoyed a splendid time.

The funeral of Mrs. J. P. Green was held at the Baptist church Sunday morning and the body taken to Muncie for burial.

Charles Harris, 6 miles south of town, has been in quite poor health for some time and for two weeks was quite sick. He is now somewhat improved and will probably regain his old strength in time.

Mrs. Charles Jouvenat and Mrs. J. L. Emmet, of Chicago, came Saturday to visit the former's sister, Mrs. C. George. Mrs. Emmet will return this evening, and Mrs. Jouvenat will remain all week.

Today is chill and gloomy, quite a striking contrast from the warm days of the past three weeks. The leaves are falling fast, corn is drying and autumn is at hand. It has been a remarkable season, with only one or two slight frosts and here we are almost in the middle of October.

Mayor and Mrs. Spitzer and Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Leaming are this week being visited by the following relatives: Mr. and Mrs. Delos Coen and two children, of South Bend, who came over by auto; Mr. and Mrs. Marion Leaming and baby, of Lafayette, and Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Clark, of Wheatfield.

Marion Leaming, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Leaming, of this city, recently was admitted to the bar of Jasper county. As claim agent for the Monon railroad, to which position he was recently promoted, he will be admitted to the bar of the counties through which the Monon passes. Mr. Leaming has been with the Monon for several years and his promotion will be welcome news to his many friends.

Probably few large city newspapers in recent years have stepped to such depths of dishonest politics and deceit as The Indianapolis Star. It daily misrepresents everything in its effort to secure support for the bull moose cause. Two weeks ago it published a paragraph stating that the Pulaski County Democrat had come out in support of B. B. Shively, progressive candidate for representative in the eleventh district. The Democrat last week denied this, stating that its acquaintances and friends at home knew this to be false and that it was solidly for George W. Rouch, democratic candidate. The editors of The Democrat sent to The Star a denial of the false statement and asked The Star to publish it, but that paper has failed to do so, which shows how contemptible its policy is.

HANGING GROVE.

Gus Stephens and family attended the Bryan speech at Monticello Saturday.

Mrs. C. Williamson, of Westfield, came Saturday evening to make her home indefinitely with her son, A. Williamson and family.

The McCoyburg Sunday school picnic Sunday was a very enjoyable affair from beginning to end. On account of the damp ground the dinner was held at the school house. Everything good to eat was spread immediately after the Sunday school hour. The afternoon exercises after dinner consisted of singing and talk by Louis H. Hamilton, of Rensselaer. The later was received with intense interest. Mr. Hamilton was formerly a resident of Hanging Grove; in fact, taught his first district school in this township during J. C. Gwin's term as trustee, and was elected to the office of county superintendent from this township, and naturally we can't be blamed for claiming Louis as ours.

Rensselaer Gun Club

To Hold Shoot.

The Rensselaer Gun Club will hold a shoot at the match factory grounds on Tuesday, October 13. There will be five or six of the best shooters of the country present, representing different powder companies. Expert shooters from surrounding counties will also be here. One event is for the 8-county gold medal. Everybody come out.—Adv.
