Christian Standard Gives Hugh Miller Endorsement.

The Christian Standard, in its current issue, has the following to say regarding Hugh Miller, Judge Jackson and Ira Batman, candidates on the republican slate ticket:

"His life (Hugh Miller) as a Christian and citizen is spotless, and, indeed, it was his integrity of character and probity of life that caused the party to turn to him as a standard-bearer in an hour when it was going through an important transition in its history. While he is a republican, he enjoys to the full the confidence of both the progressive and democratic leaders, and there is none to breathe a word or insinuate a thought of derogation of his personal life. If he is elected, there will not be one in the ranks of his own or of the opposing parties who will not say that Indiana is represented in the United States senate by a man whose personal life is entirely pure, whose political life is thoroughly honest, and whose promise is worth one hundred cents on the dollar."

"What has been said of Bro. Miller can doubtless be as well said of Ira Batman and Judge Jackson. The Christian Standard rejoices in the fact that when occasions in our national life call for Christian men we can furnish them in unlimited numbers."

Falling Off of Progressive Vote in Baltimore, Md.

Washington, Oct. 13.—In the registration of voters in Baltimore on Saturday, for the approaching election, Charles J. Bonaparte, who was attorney-general during the Roosevelt administration, and his coachman were the only progressives who registered in the precinct in which the former attorney-general lived. In 1912 the progressives cast 33,679 votes in Baltimore city. Last year they cast 4,862. Their registration for the approaching election is only 1,240.

FOUNTAIN PARK CO. WINS HENSLER SUIT

Decision in Appellate Court Sustains Finding in Suit Affecting Chautauqua Assembly.

The famous suit instituted after the failure of the Parker bank at Remington by Hensler against the Fountain Park Co. of Remington, and which was decided adversely to Hensler in the Jasper circuit court, has just been affirmed in the appellate court. The following brief of the finding was prepared by Judge Caldwell, of the appellate bench. This means a victory for the chautauqua association. The opinion reads:

"P was a wealthy public-spirited man, who became owner of the former Remington fair grounds and adjoining farm. The fair grounds property was suitable for a natural park and P organized a chautauqua association, with shares of small value, which caused chautauqua and athletic events to be held on the property, and a 25-year lease was executed to the association and additional buildings built, but the association was financially loosely run, and the bank of which P was head carried its floating debt until P became a bankrupt, and the farm, including grounds used for chautauqua, was sold to appellant who attempted to curtail appellee's privileges, tore down part of buildings and sued for additional claims outside of rent in lease. On appellee's cross-complaint the court decree appellee had right to premises and a roadway during July and August, and a reconstruction of destroyed buildings or $200 damages. Motion for new trial and application for new trial of right, which were overruled. There was no error. No title was involved as gave new trial of right, as title to and nature of road were but incidents to protect appellee's rights. (2) The evidence sufficiently upholds judgment to overcome motion for new trial for cause. (3) The written contract was sufficiently ambiguous to warrant the introduction of the oral evidence to assist in its construction. (4) Oral statements of the former owner, after parting with title, relative to ownership of the buildings, could not be cause for new trial when not objected to at time of admission.

Valparaiso Couple Married Here Wednesday Afternoon.

At the Presbyterian manse at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon occurred the marriage of Miss Nellie Gibb and Mr. Clarence Griswold, both of Valparaiso, the marriage being performed by Rev. J. C. Garrett. The groom is a nephew of C. W. Duval and Mrs. Mary D. Eger and it was on account of this relationship that they came here to be married. They were accompanied to the parsonage by the groom's cousin by marriage, Mrs. C. W. Eger.

Engagement of Miss Jane Moody Announced at Luncheon.

Mrs. A. G. Work and Mrs. Kenton Parkison gave a delightful luncheon Wednesday at the country home of Mrs. Work's father, C. P. Moody, in honor of Miss Jane Moody, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Granville Moody, whose engagement to Mr. T. J. Hall of Kingman, Kans., was announced to the twelve young lady guests.

Pat Miller and George Eggleston, the Mt. Ayr men indicted for illegal sales of liquor, pleaded guilty at Kentland Wednesday to the first charge and Judge Hanley sentenced them to thirty days in jail and each to pay a fine of $50. They were returned here Wednesday evening to enter upon their sentences. It is probable that they will lay out the fine as well as the jail sentence. They have been confined in jail since the first of June. There are several other cases against Miller, but it is probable none will be pushed if he shows a disposition to obey the law when he gets out. There is also a case in the supreme court against him, appealed from the lower court, which is apt to again result in his incarceration.

Charles A. West, Progressive, Supports Wood for Congress

Lafayette Journal.

Charles A. West, former president of the Central Labor Union and the progressive candidate for legislature two years ago, will support Will R. Wood for congress. Mr. West made this announcement last night.

Mr. West was actively identified with the progressive campaign of two years ago, having made many speeches in behalf of the progressive cause. When asked for the reasons that induced him to support Mr. Wood, he said:

"I have become convinced that the fight for congress in this district is between Senator Wood and Mr. Peterson. Believing as I do that the one great question before us is the tariff—whether it shall be protection or free trade—and believing as I do in the policy of protection, I am convinced that Senator Wood should have my support and vote. In my belief the tariff should be taken out of politics and placed on a tariff commission basis, eliminating as it would these causes which create business unrest and uncertainty by making the tariff a political issue. Just as long as the tariff continues to be a political issue just as certainly will it be continually changing and be the cause of business depression. Just as long as that condition exists we can not hope for permanent prosperity.

"Senator Wood stands for protection and the tariff commission idea. I can not see that I can do anything else than support him as against Mr. Peterson, who after two years in congress makes his plea for re-election on the ground that he has done just what the president told him to do and stands for free trade, which places the American workingmen on a competitive basis with foreign labor."

Walter R. Lee Soon to Marry a Bluffton Girl.

Walter R. Lee, who has been engaged in business here for several years and still has his home here although engaged in business at Mt. Ayr, is soon to marry Miss Lillie Baxter, of Bluffton. The following announcement of the approaching marriage is taken from a Bluffton newspaper:

"Announcement has been made of the approaching marriage of Miss Lillie Baxter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Baxter, of South Jersey street, and Walter R. Lee, of Mt. Ayr, Ind., formerly of this city. The marriage will take place the latter part of the month. Friends learned of the approaching marriage Saturday when they discovered Miss Baxter wearing a new diamond ring. After a little persuasion the knowledge of her betrothal was gained.

"Miss Baxter is at the present employed as stenographer at the Sturgis & Stout drug store, while Mr. Lee is managing a store at Mt. Ayr. He formerly owned a store at Rockford, and came here to sell out the Frank Stogdill grocery stock. The friends will anxiously await the announcement of the exact date of the wedding."

Miller and Eggleston Given $50 Fines and 30 Days in Jail.

Pat Miller and George Eggleston, the Mt. Ayr men indicted for illegal sales of liquor, pleaded guilty at Kentland Wednesday to the first charge and Judge Hanley sentenced them to thirty days in jail and each to pay a fine of $50. They were returned here Wednesday evening to enter upon their sentences. It is probable that they will lay out the fine as well as the jail sentence. They have been confined in jail since the first of June. There are several other cases against Miller, but it is probable none will be pushed if he shows a disposition to obey the law when he gets out. There is also a case in the supreme court against him, appealed from the lower court, which is apt to again result in his incarceration.

Francis Harrington May Lose Foot Injured at Newland.

Dr. I. M. Washburn went to Lafayette today to see Francis Harrington, the young man whose foot was badly mashed at Newland some five weeks ago. It was thought at the time that the foot could be saved and he made quite rapid progress toward recovery and was able to be about on crutches. It is now reported, however, that the foot is causing him considerable trouble and it is possible that amputation may yet become necessary.

A report came from Monticello this morning that a girl by the name of Marie Hayden, who for some time worked here at McKay's laundry, had been the victim of a cutting affray at Monticello, having her throat cut. It was understood that she was dead. Investigation made by The Republican disproved the rumor, however. Charles Newton, the city editor of The Evening Journal was called. He said that his corps of reporters had failed to learn of any such an occurrence, however, although four men had had their throats cut. Their throat cutting was voluntary and their throats were cut on the inside with liberal applications of John Barleycorn. All were fined, each having to pay about $27.50 or going to jail to lay that sum out. The Hayden girl, who was reported as the victim of the cutting affray, came here from Pittsburgh, a suburb of Delphi. She was quite young and reports coupled her name with some very bad conduct while here. She is supposed to have joined the carnival company at Medaryville and to have been traveling with them since that time.

COME ON AND GO TO DEMOTTE FRIDAY

Several Cars Will Be Filled With Republicans to Attend the A.
M. Hall Speech.

Come on and go to DeMotte Friday afternoon.

Hon. Archibald M. Hall is to deliver a republican address there at 2:30 in the afternoon and Chairman John Greve, of Keener township wants to make it the big meeting of the campaign. He has arranged to have the "Young Holland band" furnish the music and practically every person in Keener township and the country surrounding will be present.

County Chairman McLain was in DeMotte Wednesday and found republicans there teeming with enthusiasm and all wanting to have a big meeting Friday. Chairman McLain has worked up an auto parade since he returned here and it is probable from ten to twenty car loads of people will go from here to DeMotte. All who care to do so will be welcomed in the parade and will help to win a sweeping victory in Keener township. Any persons who care to take the trip can probably find a free ride, as many have offered their cars. Let Chairman McLain know any time today or in the morning. The start will be made from Rensselaer at 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

Mr. Hall is to speak at Rensselaer in the evening.

NOTHING TO REPORT OF THROAT CUTTING

Marie Hayden Did Not Have Throat
Cut at Monticello Wednesday Night at Reported.

Voters at the November election will have the proposition to decide as to whether or not the 100th anniversary of Indiana is to be celebrated. The Republican believes that the expense of the celebration will be far in excess of the good that will be accomplished and that it is the duty of every person to vote against it. The State Centennial Committee is urging voters to support the plan, but The Republican does not believe that the great expense is justified, that the present taxes are so high that no expense should be incurred that will further increase them, that the expense feature of the centennial will simply furnish some fat jobs for political workers and that no permanent benefit will come to Indiana. Its resources and its development are well known to the world and it is not necessary to spend a million dollars to advertise it.

Sunday, Oct. 25th, has been designated as centennial sermon day. Ministers will do well to recommend that all voters cast their ballots against the waste of the celebration.

Attending State Conference Of Charities and Correction.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Steward left this morning for Madison, where they will attend the Indiana State Conference of Charities and Correction, Mr. Steward having been sent as a delegate from this county by the board of county commissioners. They will also visit at Bedford before returning home. Mr. Steward is suffering from a badly infected left foot and was hardly able to make the trip.

Why Not Publish It?
When you want a fact to become generally known, the right way is to publish it. Mrs. Joseph Kallans, Peru, Ind., was troubled with belching, sour stomach and frequent headaches. She writes, "I feel it my duty to tell others what Chamberlain's Tablets have done for me. They have helped my digestion and regulated my bowels. Since using them I have been entirely well." For sale by all dealers.

Should Order Stoves Out of Storage Now.

Those having stoves in storage should order them set up now before cold weather comes, as it takes time to deliver them, and if all order them set up at once, there is bound to be disappointments.

The Androck Oven

I bake the most delicious pie, cake, pudding and biscuits in my Androck oven, using it always when I have any small baking to do. For baking potatoes or vegetables and cooking small roasts or meat it saves more than half the fuel other ovens require.

For heating three sad irons at a time the heat is concentrated on the irons so that it saves fuel.

CONSISTS OF FOUR PARTS

as follows:
1. The well known Androck toaster which serves as a bottom.
2. A sheet steel disk for heating sad irons.
3. An asbestos lined stand for baking.
4. The aluminum plated top or oven proper.

Makes Walking a Joy

Dr. A.
Reed Cushion
Shoe
J. P. Smith Shoe Co., Mfrs., Chicago.

Yes, sir—that's the shoe that makes walking delightful—the easiest shoe on earth. And one week's wear will show you WHY. You'll go home at night—not limping along on tired, aching feet—but just as spruce and as fresh as when you left in the morning.

You'll enjoy the walking. Simply because the soft cushion built into Dr. A. Reed Cushion Shoes fits your foot like a glove—fills the hollows—distributes your weight so evenly that you walk on your whole foot—not just half. It's a dandy shoe if you're on your feet much. Fits comfortably the first day—needs no breaking in—keeps its shape and wears well. We have a variety of styles and leathers to show you when you come in tomorrow.
