HARDY PLANTS.

I have just received a supply of fine hardy plants, including Canterbury Belles and Hardy Phlox; they are very fine and flower-lovers should see them.—J. H. Holden.

BULBS.

This is the time of year to put them out for the spring blooming. I have all kinds and they are fine ones, tulips, hyacinths and others. Order now and have the pleasure of flowers when the snow leaves in the spring.

musicians, whom Mr. Carmeliny has known for years. Under his direction "The Heroes of Valley Forge" has been presented by a band of players in Chicago, New York and Brooklyn and in such cities as Albany, N. Y., and Muncie, Ind., and the press comments have been enthusiastic. At Christian church Fri-

Cornet Soloist With Famous Bands.

Mr. Carmeliny was not only at one time cornet soloist with Liberator's Band, but also solo cornetist with the 27th U. S. Infantry band, also soloist in Don Phillipini's Band, and Ringling Brothers' concert band. Before coming to this country, Mr. Carmeliny was chief trumpeter in the third infantry in Italy. Incidentally, it is of interest that he was awarded a gold medal for sharp shooting, while a member of this Italian infantry. In addition to directing The Old Colonial Band, Mr. Carmeliny will render cornet solos. At Christian church Friday evening.

KING GEORGE BACK
IN LONDON PALACE

Though Much Fatigued His Majesty Continues to Improve—Travels Via Special Train.

London, Nov. 1.—King George, who was injured last week by being thrown from his horse while reviewing troops in the field, returned to London this evening. The king arrived at Buckingham palace at 7:30 o'clock. Although much fatigued by the journey his condition was officially reported as satisfactory.

The king reached Victoria station by special train. Great precautions were taken to insure privacy, the greater part of the station being closed. The public exit was also closed, but the elaborate nature of the measures defeated their purpose, as they attracted a large crowd, which lined the approaches to a considerable distance and loudly cheered when the king's motor car came, followed by several others containing members of his suite.

Milroy Township Citizen Refuses to Work Out Tax.

Squire Gaffield, of Milroy township, is this afternoon trying a lawsuit of more than ordinary interest. Albert Fitzhugh, an English resident of that township, refused to obey the orders of the road supervisors and work out his poll tax, amounting to $3. The road supervisor appealed to Trustee Foulks, who is required by law to bring action against any person who refuses to work out the tax. He gave Fitzhugh an opportunity to do so, before starting the action but again was refused. Fitzhugh has lived in Milroy township for some time and owns 40 acres at a cross roads. He is unmarried and recently erected a new house, putting it right in the center of the 40 instead of at the crossroads.
The outcome of the case will be watched with interest.

Knights and Pythian Sisters to Have Social Gathering Tonight.

The Knights of Pythias and their wives are to have a social evening at Pythian hall this evening and a banquet is to be spread by the Pythian Sisters. The regular lodge meeting will be dispensed with and the evening devoted to entertaining a number of young men who have been invited as guests. Cards will be played as a part of the amusement and it is probable that some short speeches will be made.

Old-Time Fair Oak Store
Keeper To Move to Virgie.

Virgie is on the boom.
Fair Oaks and Parr will have to look to their laurels or the third Union township village will surpass them.

Warren Zellers has erected a store building and will put in a complete stock of groceries. John Q. Lewis will engage in the restaurant and soft drink business there and now it is announced that Tom Mallatt, long a store keeper at Fair Oaks, will sell out his store there and move to Virgie to engage in business, erecting a room adjoining the Zellers store and putting in a stock of boots and shoes, clothing and notions.

Something entirely new in the way of a lyceum attraction is presented Friday evening at the Christian church in the Old Colonial Band of Chicago, comprising twelve musicians, with E. Carmeliny, at one time cornet soloist with Liberator's Band, as director. This band will present as a part of the program a musical novelty known as "The Spirit of '76." The costuming is true to the days portrayed and is elaborate.
