Maurice Gorman, of Wheatfield, was a passenger out of here Tuesday evening for Indianapolis.

Joseph Brown, of Union township, was in Rensselaer Tuesday. Mr. Brown has a very badly bruised right hand that is giving him considerable trouble. He also complains that his Republican reaches him a day late each time. This is absolutely the fault of Burleson as the papers are placed in the local postoffice the evening before they are due.

Due to the fact that I am forced to seek another climate on account of poor health, I will offer for sale at public auction at the old William McKelresh farm, 5 1/2 miles northeast of Rensselaer; 2 1/2 miles southeast of Burke's corner, on WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 20, the following personal property:

Some good timothy hay to be sold in stack.

FLOYD GRATNER, Col. Fred A. Phillips, Auctioneer. C. G. Spitzer, Clerk.

Chicago, Aug. 12.—The actors' strike, which has closed several of New York's large theatres, spread to Chicago tonight. The Cort theatre and Cohan's Grand Opera house were closed after the principals and other members of the casts announced that they would not go on the stage tonight.

Dr. and Mrs. A. G. Catt returned last evening from a month's motor tour in the east. They attended the national convention of optometrists at Rochester, N. Y., and from there went to New York City, and also visited in Bridgeport, Conn., took a trip through the Catskill mountains and returned by way of the Mohawk valley. Their trip was a delightful one. While in the east Mr. and Mrs. Catt visited with John M. Knapp and family near Jamestown, N. Y., former residents of this city. Mr. Knapp asked to be remembered to his Rensselaer friends, and stated that he considered this city as the finest he had ever lived in.

Hammond, Ind., Aug. 12.—The state's attorney of Lake county and the war-time food administrators received instructions today from Attorney General Stansberry to begin prosecution of food dealers in cases of violation of the Indiana anti-trust law.

Even though prosecutions should fail for want of evidence the county attorneys are instructed to submit the information obtained to the state's attorney.

This marks the actual opening in Indiana of a vigorous fight against profiteering.

WONDERFUL SHOOTING AT GRAND AMERICAN HANDICAP.

Giving phenomenal exhibitions of shooting, Frank Troeh, of Vancouver, and Bart Lewis, of Auburn, Ill., Tuesday won the national amateur and professional trapshooting championships, respectively. These contests were the feature events of the second day's meeting in the Grand American handicap tournament.

Not only did Troeh and Lewis win their events handily but they turned in perfect scores of 200 each, which are new world's records for shooting at this number of targets from the eighteen-yard rise.

Frank Peck, of Remington, was entered in the opening day shoot and turned in a score of 97 out of a possible 100, which is ordinarily enough to win a place in the money. Remarkable shooting on the part of his opponents, however, placed him outside the money wheel. Dr. Robinson, another Remingtonian, will be in one of the tournaments this week. Peck and Robinson are recognized as two of the leading trapshooters of the county.

Alban Coen returned to his home in Berwyn, Ill., Tuesday.

Perry Horton went to Monon today to tune some pianos.

John W. Marion returned to his home in Marion today after visiting here.

Mrs. M. Larson returned to Chicago today after a visit with Mrs. Henry Gilbransen.

Misses Belle Kendrick and Vernie Cook, of Flora, returned to their homes today after a visit here with Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Maxwell.

Mrs. Mary Wood, of Chicago, Ill., came Tuesday evening for an indefinite visit with her brother, C. W. Platt, and family.

Mrs. Rose Harold, Mrs. Cole, Everett Brown, Walter Brown, and Flossie Roe returned to Huntington today. They had attended the Mrs. Clinton Brown funeral.

Mrs. H. R. Mardorf and daughter, Mary Margaret, returned to their home in Chicago Tuesday after a visit here with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Milliron.

William Tilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Tilton, for two years and four months a member of Uncle Sam's navy, arrived in Rensselaer Tuesday afternoon, having been discharged from the service. There is a marked change in his appearance, physically. William enlisted in the service in this city only a few days after America's entrance into the war in April, 1918. From this city he went to Indianapolis, where he received his preliminary naval schooling. In February, 1918, he was sent to the war zone, where he remained until June of this year, in all sixteen months of active service on the other side. While there he assisted in the laying of mines.

IDEAL AUTO TRIP

Drive to Kankakee Fair Is Unexcelled.

Good Roads, Excellent Entertainment; Last Week in August.

During the week of August 25th to 30th motorists will find a one-day trip to the Kankakee Inter-State Fair, at Kankakee, Illinois, an excellent idea. At that time the roads leading to that city are in the best condition of the year; the days are not too hot and the evenings are comfortably cool.

On August 25th the great Kankakee Inter-State Fair will open; and will continue its unexcelled outdoor entertainment for a solid week. On each of the days there will be presented a mammoth program of harness horse races, free outdoor circus acts, over 25 in number, a magnificent fancy horse show, and a myriad display of live stock, farm products, fruits, flowers and fancy work.

One-Day Trip.

By leaving home in the morning the auto owner can, by moderate driving, reach the Fair grounds by noon. The program does not begin until about one o'clock. Then during the three or four hours of the afternoon the visitor will be entertained by the most remarkable Fair program he has ever witnessed. An early evening drive, in the cool comfort of that time of day, will bring the motorist home with the feeling that he has indeed enjoyed a perfect day.

The dates of this great Fair are August 25th to 30th, 1919. Thousands of people who have made such a trip in the past are making plans for a drive to Kankakee on one of the days of Fair week.

Parking Space.

Consistent with its long established policy of giving the public the best there is, the Kankakee Fair makes ample provision for parking space. Three years ago a twelve-acre tract was purchased and added to the Fair ground, and practically the entire space is given to auto owners who attend the Fair.

Take off a day to go to the Kankakee Inter-State Fair. The trip is delightful, the entertainment cannot be excelled, and the prices of admission are very nominal. The dates are easy to remember—the last full week of August.

FAIR OAKS.

John Barber is improving his property by way of a new fuel house. Pat Dean was here Sunday after a four years' absence in the navy. Mrs. F. R. Erwin spent a day this week in Rensselaer.

Isaac Kight and wife went Tuesday to visit Allie Kight and wife, of Detroit, Mich.

The elevator and the pickle factory seem to be doing full time now with no talk of a strike.

Mrs. Nora Phillips, of Rensselaer, visited Aunt Hannah Culp Tuesday.

Our teacher, Mr. Campbell, is moving here this week and will occupy the Moffitt house.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thorn, of Hammond, are here helping Charles Halleck look after the melon crop.

Lorene Littlefield, of Rensselaer, is visiting here this week.

Mrs. William Warne has returned from Hoopeson, where she has been attending a protracted meeting.

Mrs. Josiah Thompson will keep all school supplies in for the season in their building on Front street.

Miss Iva Dunn is visiting home folks this week.

TEFFT.

On account of the busy season, the Tefft Community club has postponed its meeting until September. Then look out for a good night, good music and a splendid program.

Mr. Dean and family made a visit to Charles Stalbaum's Sunday and returned to Valparaiso in the evening.

Andrew Kerr received a telegram from Ohio that his brother, John, had met with a serious accident and was not expected to live. John is well known among his schoolmates, as he went to the Tefft school. Andrew left Sunday noon for Ohio, hoping for better news.

Grace Albin is here from the Lakeside hospital, where she graduated last spring.

Mrs. Smith, of Mishawaka, is visiting her folks.

Harold Fanslow, of Chicago, is spending his vacation at his grandparents' home, Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Bailey, of Hammond, are visiting Mrs. Reddin.

Charles White, of Hammond, is home sizing up his family before school starts. Come again, Charles.

It's good to see all these old friends return. It goes to show their appreciation of their little town, the beautiful village of Tefft. Be a booster.
