STIR AT MT. AYR WHEN MOTHER TAKES CHILDREN.

Morocco Courier—

Considerable excitement was occasioned over by Mt. Ayr last Saturday by the alleged abduction by their mother of the two children of Daniel Guthrie.

Mr. and Mrs. Guthrie have not lived together for about six months.
Mrs. Guthrie has been living with her parents in Logansport and their two children, a son aged five and a daughter aged four, have been cared for by their father. The little girl has been living with Mr. and Mrs. John Meharry, neighbors of Mr. Guthrie.

Some time ago Mrs. Guthrie filed a suit for divorce and alimony in a Logansport court, and also asked for the custody of their children. Friends of Mr. Guthrie say she is entitled to go any length in his behalf. It is understood that Mr. Guthrie does not oppose the granting of a divorce, but he does object to paying alimony and giving the children over to his wife.

Last Saturday Mrs. Guthrie, accompanied by her parents and an auto liveryman from Goodland, appeared at the Meharry home and before Mrs. Meharry had hardly recovered from her surprise over their visit, took the little girl and bundled her into the machine and made away. They seemed to have had their plans well made and proceeded down the road some distance where they met Mr. Guthrie and the little boy who were returning from Morocco. Following a plan of action similar to that employed at the Meharry home, the party stopped Mr. Guthrie and before he knew what was going on they had the little boy and were off again.

The sympathy of the neighbors seems to be largely with Mr. Guthrie and any attempts of his wife to bring false witness to gain her ends will be met by abarrage of evidence from his friends to the contrary.

COL. HEALEY IS HOME

DISTINGUISHED ARMY OFFICER SPENDING LEAVE WITH HIS FAMILY.

Col. George H. Healey arrived here this Friday morning and will spend about a week with his family and will then go to Camp Sherman, O., where he will be mustered out of the service.

The colonel is in splendid health, looks but very little older, except that there is just a little more silver in his locks. He is not quite so heavy, but has the appearance of a real fighter, for which he is sorry he did not have a chance to demonstrate.

The colonel held the highest rank in the war of any man from Jasper county. Peculiar as it may seem, he reached the rank in this war which his father occupied in the civil war, that of colonel, and more strange is the fact, that like his father, he was colonel of the 151st infantry.

The colonel is a native of Jasper county. He received his schooling here, lacking but a few months of graduating from the local high school.

Opportunities knocked so heavily at his door that he was unable to resist, and very much to the disappointment of his classmates, he deserted them during the senior year which was in 1890 and 1891.

The colonel has had a varied experience, during most of which time he was associated with the printing and newspaper business. He was employed awhile on a paper in Tennessee and later worked in the government printing office at Washington, D. C. He owned and published a paper at Brookston and later was connected with the Ren-selaer Republican, first as an employee of George E. Marshall, afterwards a part owner with Mr. Marshall and when the Republican and Journal, the latter owned by Leslie Clark, were combined he became a partner with Mr. Clark. The firm name was Healey & Clark.

Colonel Healey was always interested in military affairs. During the Spanish-American war he was the important factor in raising a company of men in White county, but through trickery the command was given to another.

That Jasper county had a fine lot of men ready for duty at the entrance of the United States in the late war was due to the fact that Colonel Healey had given to our company, known as Co. M., the training and enthusiasm which they possessed.

Upon the call to duty, Colonel Healey sacrificed his business and let go splendid opportunities for financial success. His ability could not be overlooked and he was rapidly promoted from captain to major and finally to colonel and had he been given the opportunity to win the spurs he would have been promoted to higher ranks.

The colonel is so well known and so universally loved by the people of this part of Indiana that his splendid ability will be given ample opportunity and undoubtedly there is in store for this distinguished gentleman and soldier a position worthy of his mettle and expressive of the appreciation of his fellow citizens.

The colonel was very popular with his "boys" and they are sure not to be silent and inactive when the colonel's interests are at stake.

The colonel has the ability to serve well his people, either in the highest office within the gift of the people of his native state or in the house of representatives of the nation.

FAILURE TO HELP IN WAR RECALLED NEAR CARMEL.

Carmel, Ind., Aug. 13.—Farmers in this vicinity, who were conscientious objectors during the world war and who would not buy Liberty bonds, are facing a serious situation as the result of the refusal of threshing crews to handle their wheat crop. North of Carmel, where great quantities of wheat have been cut and left in the field, the farmers have been unable to complete harvesting the crop.

The threshing crews are said to be unanimous in refusing to assist those persons who are accused of not carrying their full share of the war burdens.

The only practicable solution if the crews do not change their stand, will be for the farmers to resort to the old-fashioned method of using a flail or trampling the wheat out, it is believed.

During the war, the farmers who are now being refused any assistance in threshing, were greeted almost daily by their neighbors with "Have you bought a bond?" They also were requested to leave many stores and other places of business and were told that their trade was not wanted.

M'CRAY MAY NOT BE A CANDIDATE

RUMORS STATE THAT KENT-LAND MAN MAY NOT MAKE GUBERNATORIAL RACE.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 14.— Rumors to the effect that Warren McCray, of Kentland, may not be a candidate for the republican nomination for governor after all are being circulated here.

Rumors are also being circulated to the effect that Edmund M. Wasmuth, of Huntington, republican state chairman, is being groomed for the race. Consequently, those who thought they had it all doped out are guessing again.

All Are Hanging Back.
Although numerous candidates and possible candidates have been mentioned there seems to be little inclination to make announcements and to start the race. When Will H. Hays, republican national chairman, withdrew his name for consideration it was stated that Mr. Mc-Cray in all probability would be a candidate. Now some go so far as to venture the opinion that Mr.
Hays may be induced to re-enter the race.

Everybody Just Guessing.
These rumors simply go to show the unsettled condition of affairs.
Just what is likely to happen only a few on the inside are supposed to know. The rest are kept guessing.
The only thing certain thus far is that Edgar D. Bush, lieutenant governor, will be a candidate. His candidacy seems not to be taken seriously; so as it stands, the field is still wide open.

Besides Mr. McCray, Edward Toner, of Anderson, is probably the most frequently mentioned possibility but he is not meeting with general favor and it is considered a matter of doubt whether he will decide to make the campaign.

Wasmuth a Farmer.
There are strong indications that the story that Mr. Wasmuth may be a candidate has some basis of fact.
Mr. Wasmuth is a farmer as well as a manufacturer and for this reason could be expected to appeal to a large class of voters. He is not as well known as some possible contenders for the nomination, but his record as a republican has never been questioned and with a strong campaign he could be expected to poll a heavy vote.

HEARS EQUITY CASE.

Hon. Charles W. Hanley, judge of the Jasper-Newton circuit court, had before him this Friday morning the executor of the estate of the late George H. Murphy, of Newton county.

Mrs. Stella E. Murphy, wife of the deceased, brought action by her attorneys, Robert O. Graves, of Kentland, Milton Graves, of Morocco, to compel the executor, Charles E. Triplett, to pay her in addition to the amount she had been given by the will of the deceased, the $500 allowed a widow under the law and $700 additional, willed to Mrs. Murphy in a codicil.

The court ordered that the widow be paid the $500 which she is entitled to under the law, and that the $700 be not paid until the case came up for trial in regular term and in the meantime the executor is to have the household goods invoiced, as the executor claims that Mrs. Murphy elected to take these in lieu of the $700.

The executor was represented by Attorneys W. H. Parkinson, of Lafayette, and Fred Richmaier, of Morocco.

FORD IS NOT AN 'ANARCHIST'

TRIBUNE ARTICLE DAMAGED
HIS REPUTATION SIX
CENTS.

Mount Clemens, Mich., Aug. 14.— A jury tonight awarded Henry Ford six cents damages against the Chicago Tribune for calling him an anarchist.

Orvy Hulett, foreman of the jury, said that they took "nine ballots that I can remember," the first one, according to Leonard Measel, an other juror, standing eight to four in favor of awarding Mr. Ford some damages.

"Does the award of six cents about express the feelings of the jury as to the case?" a reporter asked Mr. Hulett.

"It just about does. That expresses our judgment." That expressed Attorney Alfred J. Murphy for Mr. Ford, said:

"The important issue in this case has been determined favorably to the plaintiff. He has been vindicated. Money damages were entirely subordinate and were not sought by Mr. Ford. He stands not only vindicated but his attitude as an American citizen has been justified after a trial which raised every issue against him which ingenuity and research could present. His friends are entirely satisfied."

Weymouth, of counsel for the Tribune, said:

"We consider it a victory for the reason that Attorney Alfred Luck-ing, in closing for Mr. Ford, stated that anything less than substantial damages would be a defeat for his client."

The close of the great suit, which began three months ago, came when the lawyers and spectators had about made up their minds that they were in for a night of waiting and watching, with a mistrial as the probable outcome.

The jury had been out ten hours when a resounding knock was heard on the high old-fashioned door of the jury room.

Some of the lawyers had not yet returned from dinner nor had Judge Tucker put in an appearance.
Balliff Kelly went to the door and then hurried to Walter Steffens, the court clerk, and whispered:

"They're ready to report."

Mr. Steffens got Judge Tucker and the absent lawyers on the telephone and in ten minutes all was ready.

Mr. Hulett was plainly laboring under suppressed emotion as he rose and faced the court.

"Have you reached a verdict, gentlemen?" asked Judge Tucker.

"We have," replied the foreman.
"You may deliver it."

Mr. Hulett first gave the directed verdict of no case against the Solomon News company, which distributed copies of the Tribune of June 23, 1916, containing the alleged libel.

The award against the Tribune was then given and the clerk recorded the following as the verdict:

"You do say upon your oath that the said defendants, the Tribune company, is guilty in manner and form as the said plaintiff hath in his declaration in this cause complained and you assess the damages of the said plaintiff on occasion of the premises, over and above his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf expended, at the sum of six cents damages and you find that the defendant Solomon News company is not guilty as directed by the court."

The jury acknowledged the ver-

DEMOCRATS BLAME WILSON

SAY HE KILLED THE PARTY
AFTER BEING LIFTED
FROM OBSCURITY.

Francis J. Finneran, president of the Democratic Club of Massachusetts, has sent to Homer Cummings, chairman of the democratic national committee, a letter signed by Mr.
Finneran and two Massachusetts senators and fifteen Massachusetts representatives, demanding that the national committee repudiate the action of President Wilson, who, according to the words of the letter, "wrecked the party after we had lifted him from obscurity."

The signers of the letter, in addition to Finneran, are Senators George E. Curran and William J.
Foley and Representatives Thomas F. Donovan, Thomas H. Green, Dennis F. Reardon, James W. Hays, John P. Engler, John B. Cashman, John J. Carey, Patrick J. Melody, James J. Kelley, Joseph B. Aigen, William J. Frances, Daniel C. Murphy, James H. Brennan, Thomas A.
Niland and William J. Manning, all democratic members of the legislature from Boston.

The letter says:

"We, the undersigned democrats of Massachusetts, request you to call a meeting of the northern and western members of the national committee and repudiate the actions of Woodrow Wilson, who wrecked the party after we had lifted him from obscurity, making him governor and then president. He has held the party up to ridicule by the following acts:

"First—By appointing incompetent men to positions of responsibility, the most glaring examples of which are Postmaster General Burleson, Secretary of War Baker and Fuel Administrator Garfield."

Point four says: "By his idle promises at Washington's tomb when he declared he would demand independence of small nations, and by refusing to take up the question at the peace table of the liberty of Egypt, India, Ireland and South Africa and recognizing England's right to govern Egypt."

Point seven: "By his policy in Mexico, his recognition of Carranza, an anarchist and anti-American, and the toleration of the murder of over 300 Americans in Mexico without a declaration of war."

Point fourteen: "By his policy of shipping vast amounts of foodstuffs to Europe and spending $100,000,- 000 for food at the expense of America, thus causing the present high cost of living which confronts the American people."

"We hope immediate action will be taken so that we can build up our party anew and let the people forget that he was ever a member of our party and make it possible for us to elect a northern or western democratic president in 1920."

dict as correct and hurried from the court room. None would discuss their deliberations in detail.

One juror stated that for six hours the ballots stood 8 to 4 to give the plaintiff an award. Then two of the four joined the majority. The remaining two held out until nearly 8 o'clock, when they surrendered and the knock sounded on the door.

Mr. Ford was not in court. The Tribune was represented by Capt.
Joseph Medill Patterson, one of the publishers.
