MANY PURCHASE U. S. FOODSTUFFS

POSTMASTER HAS LARGE DEMAND FOR GOVERNMENT SUPPLIES.

Postmaster Littlefield sent in an order Wednesday amounting to $475.95 for government foodstuffs now being offered to the public.

A large number of orders are being placed and Thursday's list will be even more than the Wednesday order. The orders run from $15 to $70 and average about $30.

In Wednesday's orders were included 168 cans of baked beans, 312 cans of corn, 648 cans of peas, 600 pounds of navy beans and 648 pounds of bacon.

Evidently from the way the orders are being placed and the cash that accompanied them, most of our people here are able to meet the H. C. L. but have a desire if possible to lower it.

WILL RENT FARMS AND DISPOSE OF EQUIPMENT.

Firman Thompson, who has several thousand acres of land in this county, and for many years has been active in the management of the same, has decided that his other business demands so much attention that he is forced to give up this strenuous work.

Mr. Thompson will hold a big public sale at which he will offer all of his livestock, farming implements and much of his land.

This will be one of the very largest public sales ever held in this county.

The Republican will prepare bills for Mr. Thompson, and the date on which the sale will be held will be announced in a very short time.

MANY ENTERTAIN FOR VISITING GUESTS.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Charles M. Sands entertained at her home on South Front street for Mrs. Carl Duvall, of Detroit, Mich. Today Mrs. Ed. D. Rhoades was the hostess to a large number of friends in honor of her daughter, Mrs. C. A. Radcliff, of Cincinnati, O. Friday Mrs. Leonard Rhoades will have as her guests Mesdames Radcliff and Duvall.

FARMERS WIN AS PRESIDENT LOSES

REPUBLICAN CONGRESS OVERRIDES VETO OF LIGHT REPEAL LAW.

Believing that the monstrosity, the daylight saving law, is unnecessary and another of the foolish whims of President Wilson in his abnormal attempt to cater to the city laborer in preference to the farmer and all other people of the nation, the republican congress has overridden the president's double veto and both the national house of representatives and senate have passed the repeal law by a two-thirds vote which was necessary to overcome the executive's veto. The vote in the house stood 223 to 101 and in the senate 57 to 19.

After October 27 the natural laws of the physical world will govern the time and another idiotic notion of an egotist will be relegated to the scrap pile, where still others should be consigned with haste and completeness.

No other one act of unnecessary legislation has ever been quite so obnoxious to the farmers as this attempt to improve upon the plan of the Almighty.

THOMPSON-MURRAY NUPTIALS.

The marriage of Gerald Edson Murray, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Murray, of this city, and Miss Nelle Thompson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. N. Thompson, occurred at the home of the bride's parents in Sullivan, Ind., at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. E. Gray, of Sullivan, and only the members of the immediate families were present. Following the wedding, a wedding breakfast was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Murray left for Indianapolis where they will remain for a short visit, returning here Friday evening to take up their residence in their new home on College avenue.

Miss Thompson is a charming and talented young lady and a graduate of James Milliken university, of Illinois. She is quite well known in this city, having been a frequent guest at the home of Mrs. Austin Hopkins on Park avenue.

Mr. Murray is well and favorably known to our citizens in general. He was graduated from the high school of this city in 1913 and in 1918 was given a diploma upon the completion of his studies at Illinois university. As a soldier in the war with Germany he attained the rank of a second lieutenant upon the completion of his course in an officers' training school at Camp Zachary Taylor, Ky. In the future Mr. Murray will be associated with his father in the mercantile business in this city.

Invitations have been issued, announcing that Mr. and Mrs. Murray will be at home to their friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Murray on Park avenue Friday evening.

The Republican joins the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Murray in extending congratulations and well wishes for a life of happiness and prosperity.

ATTENTION, ROYAL NEIGHBORS

You are urged to be present Friday evening, August 22, to assist in making necessary arrangements for the district meeting which is to be held in Rensselaer the first week in September. Please give this matter your preferred attention and be present without fail.

RECORD OF THE PAST.

No Stronger Evidence Can Be Had In Rensselaer.

Look well to their record. What they have done many times in years gone by is the best guarantee of future results. Anyone with a bad back; any reader suffering from urinary troubles, from kidney ills, should find comforting words in the following statement.

Mrs. Wm. Moore, Elm St., Rensselaer, says: "I suffered from kidney trouble. I had backaches and headaches for a long time. I had no strength or ambition and couldn't sleep well. I could hardly turn in bed on account of the lameless in my back. I couldn't do my housework and I knew that my kidneys were weak. Finally I got Doan's Kidney Pills and they cured me of all those ailments. I have never had an attack since." (Statement given May 31, 1907.)

On February 29, 1916, Mrs. Moore said: "I am never without Doan's in the house. They are the best kidney medicine I know of."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Moore had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

HEALEY URGED TO MAKE RACE

STRONG SENTIMENT FAVORS COLONEL HEALEY FOR GOVERNOR.

Col. George H. Healey, Indiana's most popular officer in the late war, is being urged on all hands to allow his friends to get back of a movement to make him the republican nominee as the chief executive of this state.

The editor of the Republican is a very close personal friend of Colonel Healey. We were class mates in school and since that time have been very intimate. We believe we know the colonel, and that knowledge convinces us that he is thoroughly capable of the high position to which his friends are so anxious that he be elected.

The colonel has a strong, pleasing personality. Few men possess his ability to make and keep friends. As he was the friend of everybody in this county, so he was the idol of the soldiers. Though a strict disciplinarian and always insisting upon the closest observation of all army rules and regulations, yet he was loved, admired and obeyed by his boys. He is one of the very few army higher officers about which this statement would be true.

Popularity, the deserving recognition of service rendered, and personal sacrifices made for home and country while having a very important place could not alone be considered in the qualifications of a man to be governor of this great state.

The chief executive of Indiana must have ability and efficiency. The record of Col. George H. Healey from the time of the death of his father, when he was but a lad, his care and support of his widowed mother, his success in the newspaper business and the exceptional ability shown by his efficient army service mark him as one of Indiana's foremost men, thoroughly capable to be entrusted with the office for which he is being urged to make the race.

Colonel Healey has never wavered in his faith to the Republican party. He has ever been steadfast and faithful, believing that the success of that party meant progress, prosperity, peace and plenty.

He has never been a candidate for office but has exerted a powerful influence for the success of his party. But for him Jasper county might have been found in the ranks of the enemy as the assaults made by the democrats of the county were often vigorous and seemingly sure of success. While a pronounced partisan, he has at all times had the respect and often the admiration of those who opposed him politically. He was always fair and square, open and above board and never resorted to means not thoroughly honorable. If nominated he will receive the votes of a very large number of democrats.

That the soldiers are to be rewarded for the sacrifices made and the services rendered by political preferment there is no question. What the colonel's decision may be in this matter we are not able to state at this time, but we do not believe he will be able to turn a deaf ear to the demands of his host of admiring friends.

DEMOTTE HOME COMING.

All of the soldiers from DeMotte and vicinity have returned home and the citizens of that village are planning to give these returned boys a home coming welcome Friday evening. A number from this city will attend the celebration and a few have been asked to make addresses. A good time is planned and everybody is invited.
