

The Lure of the Open Road

A MAN who owns a motor car—be it a big, luxurious limousine or only a little flyer, has at command the means of satisfying one of his most primitive instincts, a desire to fare forth like a true adventurer and enjoy the freedom of the open country.

Accompanied by his family or his friends, he, like the Argonauts, can start a little journey into unfamiliar places.

He need have no fear of consequences, for the modern automobile is a sturdy, dependable friend. All it asks is gasoline, a little lubricating oil, and water. With this it goes up hill and down, without fret or worry.

The wayside brook, or the well on a friendly farm supplies the water, while gasoline and oil may be had anywhere from the Service Stations of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

The splendid system of distribution organized and maintained by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) covers every city, town, and hamlet, and in many cases there is a tank and pump beside the little store at the fork of the roads.

This complete distribution of its products is one of the chief services rendered by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) to the motorists of America; yet it represents but one of the many benefits derived by the public at large from the operation of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) as a public servant.

FOUNTAIN PARK.

As is always the case, Fountain Park opened strictly on time Saturday. The first day is always light, both in attendance and program, yet there was a nice representation present. Most of the cottagers had moved in and more tents were set up than at any recent session of the assembly.

There was no service in the morning Saturday, but in the evening Prof. George Carothers gave an intensely interesting illustrated lecture, the subject of which was "Western South America." This great undeveloped and largely unknown country which is one of our nearest neighbors, is so rich in products and minerals that it is bound to become one of the chief countries of the world when exportation and development is fully established. His lecture was preceded by some very fine vocal selections by Miss Roth, who accompanied the platform manager here from Bethany assembly.

Sunday turned out to be a great day in every way. The rain the previous night made the conditions ideal. No dust or disagreeably hot weather had to be contended with. The program was one of the best ever put on the stage, people from every point coming to enjoy it. From point of numbers and financial receipts it was the greatest first Sunday that the park has ever had. After Sunday school, the platform manager, Dr. S. S. Lappin, delivered a strong sermon on Christianity. In the afternoon, Dr. J. M. Steven delivered an address on "A Cure for Pessimism," which certainly hit the bull's eye, all going the line. This was followed by a concert by the Alpine Singer and Yodlers, whose selections were met with repeated applause. This is, perhaps, the most interesting bunch of yodlers that has ever visited Remington, and yodlers are ever popular at the park. The Wolcott band gave an open air concert after the afternoon performance, and again in the evening gave a half hour's concert on the stage. The evening performance by the yodlers was most interesting and attracted every person on the grounds.

Monday, (wash day) nothing doing in the morning. Sermon lecture by Dr. Lappin in the afternoon on "The Shield of Democracy." Moving pictures at night.

Tuesday the people were entertained by the Philippine orchestra, a six piece combination, all moles. They gave two very fine concerts, consisting of native airs, popular and classical music and vocal selections. These latter were very well received.

Wednesday, Soldiers' Reunion day, the program did not draw much of a crowd. In fact, people have been so much fed up on war stuff that they had no very keen desire to hear more of it. The time of Pat O'Brien is past. A goodly audience was present in the evening to enjoy the tricks of legerdemain, as performed by Mr. Davis, a master hand. All the old tricks and many new ones were produced to mystify the audience.

The lecture Wednesday afternoon by General Naylor was listened to by an attentive audience and was an exceedingly interesting and instructive one to those who are not up on modern warfare. He gave a very clear idea of the personnel which goes to make up the modern army and explained things that to the layman were more or less obtuse.

The program for the coming week is as follows:

Saturday—Davies Light Opera company in two performances. Evening performance, "The Mascot."

Sunday—Sunday school and sermon in the morning. Afternoon, lecture by Dr. Roy L. Smith, Davies Opera company and band concert by the Fowler band. Evening, Davies Opera company will present "The Holy City."

Monday—Sermon lecture and two humorous entertainments by Elma B. Smith.

Tuesday—Lecture by the platform manager on "The Making of a Man," at 8:30 and one at 8:30 by Ernest E. St. John, whose subject will be "Russia and Bolshevism."

Wednesday—Children's day, Alice Louise Shrode, the child wonder, and her company in two entertainments. 8 p. m. Rev. Arthur Frederick Ewert's thrilling lecture on "The American Army in Action."

Thursday—Vittill's Service band will give two big concerts, afternoon and evening.—Remington Press.

WASHINGTON NEWS IN BRIEF.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 24. Adoption of an amendment awarding Shantung to China instead of Japan is regarded as signaling the defeat of the president in the senate foreign relations committee in his entire fight for ratification of the peace treaty and league of nations covenant without change.

He will carry the fight to the floor of the senate and his tacticians are seeking the votes to take the treaty away from the committee this week before further changes are made in the pact.

While legislating on economic problems senators and representatives are busy trying to beat the H. C. of L. personally. Senator McCormick is having his overcoats and suits of clothes turned inside out, Senator Knox has given up meat and is eating fish, Senator Sheppard and Representatives Gladden and McKinley have quite buying clothes till the prices come down.

Nervousness and Headaches Caused by Acid-Stomach

There is a much closer connection between the stomach and brain than most people imagine. It is because of this close connection that indigestion, belching, sour, gassy stomach and other stomach miseries—all of which are sure signs of acid stomach—are so often followed by severe attacks of blinding, splitting headaches.

Nervousness, sleeplessness, irritability, mental depression, melancholia and many other disorders which affect the brain can also nearly always be traced to the same source—acid-stomach.

So often you hear people say "I am so nervous I think I'll go to pieces," or "It seems I never get a good night's sleep any more, my nerves are all on edge." Little do they dream that acid stomach is the direct cause of their troubles because very often there are no pains in the stomach at all. So you see, you can't always judge an acid-stomach condition by the way your stomach, itself, feels.

If you are weak, nervous, unfit—if you are not up to your old time form—if you lack your accustomed enthusiasm, energy and pep—make this test and see if it isn't acid-stomach that is holding you back—robbing you of your health, strength and vigor. Get a big box of EATONIC—the wonderful modern medicine that so quickly puts an acid stomach to rights. It is in the form of pleasant tasting tablets that you eat like a bit of candy. EATONIC rids the stomach of excess acid. Brings instant relief from indigestion, heartburn, sour belching, food repeating, bloating and gas and makes the stomach cool, pure, sweet and comfortable.

Dentists warn us against the bad effects of acid mouth, pointing out that the acid eats through the enamel of the teeth, causing them to decay. You can easily imagine then the amount of damage excess acid will cause to the delicate organization of the stomach.

Thousands of people are using EATONIC and the results obtained are so remarkable as to be almost unbelievable. Yes their letters of gratitude, many of which are received daily, prove absolutely that EATONIC does all and even more than we claim. The medical profession, too, recognizes the great value of this wonderful remedy. A learned Michigan doctor wrote recently: "I have had such wonderful success with EATONIC that I want every one to know how quickly it will neutralize the acidity of the stomach (acid-stomach) and the stomach will soon be sweet and normal again, and the sick man well and happy once more."

So be sure to get a big box of EATONIC from your druggist today. If it fails in any way to give you the kind of satisfaction you want, take it back—he will refund your money. He doesn't want one penny of your money unless EATONIC helps you.
