"SPANISH FLU"

I guess I'll write a poem
As I've nothing else to do,
And for want of something better,
I will call it Spanish Flu.

The gasolineless Sunday
May be a pretty thing
When we think of what destruction
The Spanish Flu may bring.

All people are uniting
To check the deadly plague,
And many just to kill it Would give an arm or leg.

It seems that when you take it You're chilly down your spine, Next minute you are roasting
From your marrow to your rine.

You ache in every muscle,
And your spirits are so blue,
That you call the family doctor,
And he says "you've got the Flu."

The Flu would not be fatal,
But with it hand in hand,
There is the germ Pneumonia,
That takes you from the land.

I read a simple method,
That helps the Flu to halt,
By washing throat and nostrils,
With water mixed with salt.

Don't mingle with the public,
Associate with few,
And keep away from coughers,
And from the sneezers too.

And sleep with windows open,
Keep your liver in good tune,
And try a dose of castor oil,
Say—'bout a table spoon.

Get your system in condition,
To repel most all disease,
Partake of food that's wholesome,
And stay out in the breeze.

Drink lots of nature's beverage,
The purest Adam's ale,
The kind that Simple Simon found,
Within his mother's pail.

And by co-operation
We can rid the land of Flu,
And again can go among them
Just as we used to do.

Then we'll meet our friends and neighbors,
Say "Hello and How'd-d-ja-do,"
"Sure fine weather we are having Did you have the Spanish Flu?"

The above poem was written Oct.
6, 1918, by Leon E. Parks, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Parks of Milroy.
While written sometime ago it is interesting reading at this time.

OBITUARY.

Catherine Weber, the subject of this sketch, was born in Wobra, Hesse-Kassel, September 15th, 1862.
She spent her childhood and girlhood days in the place of her birth and here she also received her education. At about the age of 21 she came to America and spent one year in Buckley, Ill., and then moved to Melvin, Ill.

On March 3rd, 1887, she was united in marriage with Elita Tobin. To this union four sons and one daughter were born.

Eight years ago Mrs. Tobin moved with her family to Jordan township, Jasper county, Indiana, where they lived on a farm.

Shortly before their marriage she with her husband, united with the German Methodist Episcopal church at Melvin, Ill., of which she remained a faithful member.

After a seige of sickness of but a few days' duration she passed to her eternal reward early Monday morning, February 9, 1920, at the age of 57 years, 5 months and 25 days.

Mrs. Tobin had many friends both in Illinois, her former home, and also in Jasper county, her late home. She was always cheerful and had a kind word for every one and was a splendid neighbor.

She loved her family to which she was greatly devoted.

Mrs. Tobin had a deep religious nature which she cultivated. She was greatly interested in the Sunday school and religious services held at James school house and did what she could to make that work an influence for good. She will be greatly missed in the community in which she spent the latter part of her life.

She leaves to look forward to the meeting over there, the faithful husband, four sons, John H., of Melvin, Ill.; Henry B. and Louis S., of Jordan township and Albert L., of Rensselaer; a daughter, Catherine E., who is at home, four grand children, two brothers in this country, John Weber of Beatrice, Nebraska, and Louis Weber, of Melvin, Ill., also two sisters and a brother in Germany and a host of friends.

Funeral services were held at the Trinity M. E. church in this city Wednesday afternoon and interment was made in Weston cemetery.
The Rev. E. W. Strecker was in charge and was assisted by the Rev.
H. Stahmer of Melvin, Ill.
