ANOTHER WAR VETERAN GONE

LOUIS L. DAUGHERTY IS LAID TO REST BESIDE HIS WIFE.

The body of Louis L. Daugherty, who died at the home of his son, Edward Daugherty, in Chicago, Sunday, February 15, was brought to this city Tuesday afternoon and was buried in Weston cemetery beside his wife, who had preceded him in death some four years ago. Mr. Daugherty was for many years a resident of this county and owned and lived upon a farm which is now a part of the Jasper county farm. He served two terms as sheriff of Jasper county, 1872 to 1876. He was a veteran of the Civil war, having served with the 9th and 48th Indiana Volunteer regiments and was wounded at the battle of Vicksburg. He held the rank of Orderly Sergeant.

Some thirty years ago he moved to Hammond and lived to see his children become very prominent citizens of Lake county. His son, Charles Daugherty, served two terms as sheriff of that county and postmaster at Crown Point, and his son Henry Daugherty is a banker of Highland.

Louis L. Daugherty was born August 9, 1834, and was more than eighty-five years of age at the time of his death.

His wife was, before her marriage, Miss Hester Jane Saylor. She was a sister of Miss Ellen Saylor, Mrs. John T. Daugherty and Mrs. N. W. Hopkins, the latter two deceased.

Five of the six children born to Mr. and Mrs. Daugherty survive. They are, Oliver M. Daugherty, of Hammond, Henry H. Daugherty, of Highland, Charles Daugherty, of Crown Point, Edward Daugherty, of Chicago, Mrs. Charles E. Beall, of Chicago.

The following accompanied the body of the deceased here for burial: Henry H. Daugherty, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Daugherty, Oliver Daugherty, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Beall and Charles and Hester Daugherty of Hammond. The two latter are children of Charles Daugherty, Sr., who was prevented from being here on account of sickness.

Funeral services were held at the home of Edward Daugherty at 1503 51st street, Chicago, Tuesday morning at 11:00 o'clock. The minister was the Rev. J. L. Mahan, pastor of the Congregational church accompanied the funeral party here.

The deceased was a member of church and was a man of excellent character and deeply beloved by all who knew him.

Two instances are related of Mr. Daugherty. He proudly claimed to be the first private to volunteer from this county during the civil war. The news of the firing on Ft. Sumpter reached him at his home south of this city. He hurried to town to gather with many others at the court house where Judge Robert Milroy made a stirring address and asked for volunteers. Mr. Daugherty was the first to go forward and offer his services.

At the battle of Vicksburg, when Mr. Daugherty was wounded by being struck by a bullet in the hip and fell forward into a sunken place and for a long time bullets continued to pass over him. He remained quiet until the battle was over and then seeing a house near by he, in great pain, dragged himself to the door and called for help. His call was answered from within by a man who came to the door. He told Mr. Daugherty that the house was full of wounded soldiers and it would be impossible to help him. The house stood upon blocks and Mr. Daugherty crawled under it for protection from the rain which set in after the battle. While lying under the house Mr. Daugherty suffered intense pain and his fever rose very high. Late in the night, having cared for the wounded soldiers, who had crowded the house to capacity, help was extended and being a young vigorous man his wound was soon healed and he again joined his comrades.

He served four years in that bloody struggle, ninety days with the 9th and the remainder of the time with the 48th Indiana volunteers.

CHURCH PROGRAM THURSDAY NIGHT

The Christian church has planned a very unique program to be given in connection with the annual reports and election of officers. The reports will be interesting because of the growth which will be shown. The young people will give the play "Dr. Cure-All" in connection with the meeting. The public in general is not invited, but all members of the church and the auxiliary societies and any member of any family that is represented in these organizations is invited. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p. m. and all are urged to be in their place by that time.

W. H. Hogan went to Hammond Tuesday afternoon.

David Leichty of near Fair Oaks was in Rensselaer Tuesday.

FOUR IN PERILOUS TRIP TO WHEATFIELD

During the cold spell of last Monday, Edd J. Randle, of this city, Charles Weiss and D. S. Makeever, of west of town, started for Wheatfield to transact some business. However, their journey was filled with accidents and suffering and it was only after several hours that the party managed to make their destination. That every member of the party came through the trip without serious results is remarkable.

The three gentlemen made the trip by automobile and when about three miles out of Rensselaer experienced trouble with their car. The car refused to respond to their treatment, and after a cold walk to a farm house a telephone message was sent to the Rhoades garage. Their man had no better luck with the stalled machine than had the occupants of the car, so the party resumed their journey in the Rhoades car, and all went well until they were within about two miles of Wheatfield when misfortune again crossed their trail.

The icy condition of the road made driving difficult and almost every foot of the road traversed was filled with perils. Finally a particularly bad stretch of road was reached and the machine skidded and was shot into the ditch and overturned, pinning the four occupants beneath it. Mr. Weiss was the first to extricate himself from beneath the wreckage, making his escape by punching a hole through the side curtain. Mr. Weiss was alarmed after making his escape by hearing no sounds from the other members of the car, and began looking about for help. However, Mr. Randle had managed to punch a hole through the curtains and joined Mr. Weiss. He was soon followed by Makeever and chauffeur in the order named. The four men made an examination of themselves and found that they were unhurt. A message was sent to a Wheatfield garage and the remainder of the trip was made in a livery car.

That the misfortunes of the party did not terminate more seriously was remarkable, and the men are truly thankful that their cold, dangerous journey is now history.

GOVERNOR TO OUTLINE LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM

The Republican state committee will meet at the Hotel Severin, Indianapolis, February 26, when a date will be fixed for the Republican state convention, matters relating to the next primary will be taken up and party policy will be discussed.

Governor James P. Goodrich will attend the committee meeting and discuss a program for the next special session of the state legislature which probably will be called before the primary election. Governor Goodrich has asked the members of the state committee, candidates for the Republican nomination for state offices and other Republican leaders to make suggestions about the program for the legislative session, which it is aimed to make as short in duration as possible. Governor Goodrich has said that as far as he is concerned he will leave the legislators free to make any change in the tax law they see fit, and it is not anticipated there will be changes which will materially affect the vital provisions of the law.

Some other matters which will likely come before the special session will be an appropriation for a state war memorial, a "blue sky" law, a child labor law, changes in the election laws so as to provide better for women voting, and some other matters relating to county government.

FARMER BUYS YEAR'S SPACE IN NEWSPAPER

A South Dakota farmer recently walked into the office of the Headlight at Big Stone, S. D., and contracted for a certain amount of advertising space for a year.

"I've always got something to sell or trade or else I want to buy something, and I might as well have this space ready for me, as to run down here every time," he told the editor. "I believe regular advertising is what gets results."

"There's no good reason why scores of farmers in this neighborhood could not buy yearly space in local papers just the same as did this South Dakota farmer. The farmer is a business man and should advertise to promote his business."

BEG PARDON.

Mr. L. H. Hamilton, Rensselaer, Ind.

Dear Sir:—I notice in last week's issue of the Republican an article pertaining to a free-for-all fight that was purported to have occurred in the course of a game of basketball at Fair Oaks school. Your informant, whoever he was, was sadly mistaken. There was no such thing happened.

Two of the boys struck at each other and for this were put off the floor. After the game and on their way home, these two boys "fought it out."

Would you please correct the error through the columns of your paper? Thank you.

Yours very truly,
A. C. CAMPBELL.

DENY PRESIDENT SUFFERS SECOND SHARP RELAPSE

Washington, Feb. 17.—President Wilson continues to show improvement and was up early today, shaving himself and going about his usual routine. Rear Admiral Grayson, his physician, said. Dr. Grayson's statement was prompted by published reports that the president had a relapse last night and that Dr. Francis X. Dercum, a Philadelphia specialist, had been hurriedly summoned to the White House for a midnight conference.

Dr. Grayson said he had not been in communication with Dr. Dercum since Saturday, when the latter visited the White House and president making steady progress.

The president's cabinet, probably will not meet this week, Dr. Grayson said, but he added that if the president desired to call one his physician would not object.

LIKES WESTERN HOME.

The editor of the Republican has received a postal card from Virgil Hobson, who a short time ago moved from Hanging Grove township, this county, to Corning, Calif. The card reads as follows:

"Am receiving the Republican O. K. Was eighteen days on the road. Like it fine. It is just like June in Indiana, ripe oranges, lemons, grape fruit on trees, flowers in bloom, alfalfa knee-high. Fruit trees blooming."
