Tarzan and the Jewels of Opar

By Edgar Rice Burroughs

is the latest and best of those famous Tarzan stories that have thrilled millions of readers. Tarzan is one of the most unique characters ever created in fiction. He is a majestic man, a noble beast, an aristocrat in civilization and a King in the Jungle.

Tarzan is the dream man most of us would like to be, and when you surrender yourself to the thrill of his exploits in the damp African jungle you are only yielding to the pull of primitive impulses and in imagination are back again in prehistoric times, swinging from tree to tree in glorious abandon through the primeval forest or fighting the great cave bear with rude stone weapons. Once you have started this gripping tale, a team of horses couldn't pull you away from it until the last word is told.

PRESENTED "HELEN GRAY OF THE U. S. SECRET SERVICE"

At the Ellis theatre last night the North Brothers Stock company presented a delightful play, "Helen Gray of the U. S. Secret Service," with Miss Virginia Goodwin North as Helen Gray.

Everyone enjoyed the three long acts and special vaudeville review between the acts. This company is far the best stock company to play this city for ten years.

The company will finish their short run here Saturday and then begin their route toward Springfield, Ohio, where they play every summer at the Sun theatre.

OBITUARY.

Effie Lee Cowden, born Dec. 26, 1874, and departed this life March 12, 1920, age 45 years, 2 months and 17 days.

SMALL POX.

From our exchanges we note that there are quite a number of cases of small pox in our neighboring towns. This should be a warning to the people of Rensselaer and vicinity, and every precaution should be taken against the disease getting a start here. Why would it not be a splendid idea to have the school pupils and all others vaccinated?

SELLER'S MASTERCRAFT

We Leave It To You

We are all in the game for what there is in it. The cabinet that pays us—that pleases most and pleases easiest—that gains the largest number of friends in the shortest length of time—well, we'll leave it to you, if it isn't the Sellers cabinet that makes the "game" pay best and saves time for all of us.

Very truly yours,

Worland Bros.
