Lewis J. Selznick Presents

EUGENE O'BRIEN

"SEALED HEARTS"

"Sealed Hearts" is a stirring story of tangled love with father and son both loving the same woman.

Some men are known as a "lady's man" and others are referred to as a "man's man," but there is still another type—the ultrasensitive type known as "everybody's man." Such a man is Eugene O'Brien, the Selznick star.

With a manly manner, fine poise and magnificent physique, tall, straight, athletic, good-natured and forever smiling, he's just a "regular sort of fellow" with all the fine qualities that go to make a popular favorite.

"Sealed Hearts" is a powerful drama of love and romance, in which the star is seen in all his manliness.

GRANVILLE MOODY INJURED THIS THURSDAY MORNING

Granville Moody, Sr., was injured this Thursday morning by being thrown from the back of a horse on which he was riding near his farm in Barkley township. Mr. Moody was found by a farmer who was passing by, and was in a dazed condition. He was taken to his home and a physician called. His condition was such that no attempt was made to bring him to the hospital. He is in a semi-conscious state and his injuries appear to be rather serious.

HOOVER TO PASS UP MARYLAND PRIMARY

Baltimore, Md., April 14.—Following a meeting of Hoover men today it was announced that it has been decided that Mr. Hoover would not enter the Republican presidential primaries in Maryland at this time.

John T. Stone, president of the Maryland Casualty company, said however, that if other candidates for the republican nomination file in Maryland the friends of Mr. Hoover will reopen the matter and decide then whether to reconsider the decision to not enter.

COUNTY EDUCATIONAL NOTES.

Janper county's recently selected agricultural agent arrived last Monday morning and assumed the duties of the office. Mr. D. M. Mawhorter is a young man of about thirty years of age and is amply qualified to do the work of the office. He wishes every farmer in Jasper county would make his acquaintance at once so that he can begin administering to the farmers' needs in this county.

The teachers of Jasper county have responded to the request of the county superintendent that each teacher make a state license ever though the teacher has made a county license. The following list of state applicants will receive their state licenses within a few days. The licenses range from thirty-six months back to twelve. A list of the successful applicants are: Mabel Worland, Rensselaer; Bernice Myers, Wheatfield; Daisy C. Knauer, Rensselaer; Mildred Rush, Rensselaer; George Hammerton, DeMotte; Elsie P. Benson, Mt. Ayr; Millie Hoover, Francesville; Gladys Ogle, Rensselaer; Gertrude Besse, Remington; Elsie Zeller, Fair Oaks; Mamie C. Reed, Remington; Freda M. Ferguson, Wheatfield; Frank H. Woerner, Rensselaer; Grace M. Norris, Rensselaer; Helen L. Lamson, Rensselaer; Beatrice Tilton, Rensselaer; Agnes Kahler, Rensselaer; Gertrude Kanleiter, Wheatfield; Ruth Murphy, Surrey; Amanda Steinknecht, Kniman; Fernie Rawlings, Remington; Apple Hefey, Remington; Bertha Herschman, Medaryville; A. C. Campbell, Fair Oaks; Edna Reed, Rensselaer. This is the longest list of successes that has been the fortune of the present incumbent in the office of county superintendent to enter on the records for Jasper county. The endorsement of the state department of the intellectual status of Jasper county teachers represents one angle of efficiency that should stimulate the pride in our teaching personnel. One remarkable fact worthy of consideration is that not one applicant from Jasper county for March failed. There were seven other applicants whose names do not appear above who received conditions in one or two subjects which will need be removed on April 24.

EVEN DEMOCRATS MUST COMPLAIN

W. H. Robinson of the Lafayette Journal-Courier comments upon the remarks of Democratic editors in reference to one of President Wilson's incompetent cabinet officers. He says:

Mr. Burleson's postal service is getting pretty rotten when democratic newspapers can no longer tolerate it. The Rensselaer Democrat has this to say on the subject: "The Democrat is mailed at the postoffice in Rensselaer every Tuesday and Friday evenings. Such mailing constitutes delivery to our subscribers to the extent of our ability. We are not responsible for the damnable mail service that we have, apparently all over the country, and we do not guarantee any subscriber that he will ever get a copy of The Democrat through the mails. We mail them and are called upon to pay the postage, which we do, but the subscriber must take his chances with everybody else."

"The Democrat believes that the trouble in the mail service is caused by a conspiracy among a large number of the employees—who are seeking increases in pay—to make the service just as abominable as possible. There seems to be too much of this don't-give-a-damns among the postal employees to render anything like decent service to the public."

"Of course we, want every subscriber to receive his paper regularly and will look after all complaints, but when we have done this we want the subscriber to transfer his cussing to the postal service and give us a rest."

The Benton Review, another democratic newspaper, reprints the above and says: "Them's our sentiments, too."

If, as these newspapers profess to believe, a conspiracy exists among the postal employees, it might be well for Mr. Burleson to take some action. But as a matter of fact, these publishers probably don't believe anything of the kind; party allegiance merely prohibits them from placing the blame where it rightly belongs.

WILL RESIDE IN CALIFORNIA.

Mrs. Helen Goodman left today for her home in Redlands, Calif. Her mother, Mrs. Eldon Hopkins, accompanied her and will make her home in the Golden state. Mrs. Ida Hopkins, of Goodland, an aunt of Mrs. Eldon Hopkins, left with the party here today.

Walter Hopkins, son of Mrs. Eldon Hopkins, will remain here for sometime to complete some work he has on hand, but may join his mother in the west in June.

While the railroad strike situation is clearing up in some parts of the country, the condition in Rensselaer remains about the same. The freight embargoes that were put on last week are practically all in effect today.

The Monon is a little better off than its three competing lines. The Monon has modified the embargo to the extent that less than car loads of freight, other than live stock and perishables destined for Chicago proper may be accepted, but must be receipted for subject to delay.
