NORTHERN JASPER.

Morris McCullough and wife of Dunn's Bridge were Wheatfield callers Saturday.

Halleck Minor, who has been in poor health for some time, was taken quite sick the latter part of last week and Dr. Fife was called and took him to the hospital at Valpo where he will receive medical treatment.

The Box Supper at Teft Friday night was well attended and boxes sold well. About 55 dollars was cleared.

Martin Hohner and wife were Kersey goers Sunday and took dinner with his brother and family.

The changeable weather we are having doesn't seem to be very encouraging to the farmers.

The Institute at Wheatfield Saturday was the last one to be held this term, which the teachers of Wheatfield decided to have "something" extra in the way of an el-elegant dinner, in which the neighboring teachers helped to partake and all declared it to be the best ever. The pupils of the Teft school played quite an interesting part in the afternoon session.

Mrs. Andrew Misch who has been seriously ill for some time is lying at the point of death. The doctors gave up all hopes last Thursday and says she can live but a day or two.

Rev. Abel and Mr. and Mrs. Edd Spurgeon and children of near Vir-gie were Sunday guests of Geo.
Hile and wife.

Rev. Davis, the Dis. Supt., occupied the pulpit at the M. E. church of Wheatfield Sunday evening and delivered a very pleasing sermon.

Mrs. Andy Misch and two children spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Theis of Cedar Lake.

Joe Hickam, who has made Wheatfield his home for a number of years, passed to his reward Sunday morning about 8 o'clock. He had been in failing health for a year or more, and the past month has been spent with intense suffering in which he never complained.

He was highly esteemed among all and in losing him Wheatfield loses one of its best citizens. Short funeral services were held Monday morning by Rev. Abel and the remains were sent to Spencer, Ind., for burial, it being his old home.

He leaves to mourn their loss a wife and one son, his only daughter having preceded him to the great beyond September last.

Walt Duggiby and Vernie White were out joy riding Sunday afternoon.

Relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Walter French, from Chicago, autoed here

Sunday for a day or two visit with them.

Orie C. Potts, in writing The Republican, asks that the address of his paper be changed from Washington, D. C. to the Rainier, Md.
Mr. Potts is employed by the government. He states that because of the railroad strike food is brought to Washington by army trucks, and that employees of the street railway companies in Washington and the Electric River Company, which supplies the city with electricity, are contemplating striking.

An "Overall Club" has been formed by students of State Normal college. The students have also threatened to go barefoot unless clothing prices drop.

Samuel Pendig has made arrangements for a new front on his store building, adjoining the remodeled Farmers' National Bank building.

E. W. Wagner & Co. of Chicago, has opened a branch board of trade office in the rooms over the Wood & Kresler barber shop, with Sam Stevens as manager and wire operator.

The paper shortage has become so acute that the Chicago papers have reduced their size considerably. The Herald-Examiner contains but eight pages this morning and the Tribune twelve. In some of the large Eastern cities the publishers have been forced to four pages.

Earl Tichen is home from Waterloo, Ia., for two weeks to be with his mother, who is now at the Methodist hospital in Indianapolis. Mrs.
Tichen rested well last night, according to word that came from Indianapolis. She will probably be operated upon next week. Frankfort Crescent News. Mr. Tichen was formerly the manager of the Hilliard & Hamill store in this city.
