SCHOOL OF CITIZENSHIP TO BE ORGANIZED SATURDAY

The School of Citizenship will be organized Saturday afternoon at 2:30 in the East Court Room.

This being the first year in the history of Indiana in which women will be permitted to vote for a president of the United States, it is very important that they acquaint themselves with the machinery through which to exercise their franchise intelligence. Because of this need a School of Citizenship is to be conducted under the auspices of the Democratic women of the community that any woman who wishes to thus prepare herself for citizenship may do so.

The text books used will be those prepared for the State Franchise League and that therefore non-partisan. These books will be furnished free to any woman wishing to join the class.

We will be pleased to have our Republican friends come and study with us. Speakers from both parties will be asked to address the school from time to time and a question box in which those who differ with us as well as those who agree will be privileged to furnish helpful questions.

The school will begin promptly at 2:30 and be in session one hour. It is hoped that many country women who are in town on business will attend this meeting. Attorney Moses Leopold will give an address on the Primary law.

On account of the heavy rain storm there were no services at the Barkley church last Sunday. We hope for better weather next Sun-

Mr. Jesse Eldredge, who has had a very serious time with the mumps is improving slowly.

Mrs. Herbert Eib and her father,
