THE ONLY WAY TO GET A CAR

is to deserve it. We get everything in this world we deserve. Then we pass on to the thinly populated district of heaven, if we deserve it. That's the whole object and sole purpose of creation.

We're here with a desire to live and a chance to work for what we want.

Those that work hardest have leisure hours and motor cars.

Those that don't work at all but demand a split of life's pleasures have lost their purpose and found decay.

When they're too rotten they're called bolsheviks and the world holds its nose. A bolshevik makes a pretty sight—dangling from a rope.

Oats were a dollar. Ick Yates has been a hard, steady worker. His golden rule is "Sell nobody food that you wouldn't eat yourself."

He's got a good record and deserves to sit on top of the world. You'll see him there on Sundays with an Oldsmobile for a cushion.

C. C. Jacks, a faithful Monon employee is another example. He's got his reward—it's an Oldsmobile, too.

Mars wouldn't answer us—maybe she thinks she's above us.

With the Pres. back on the job, all our paper is going to Europe. Cuba is sinking—too much money. Even $30 a quart don't enforce prohibition.

There's a terrible shortage in skirts.

We've got a poor line of "bull" but we never gave a bum steer.

If you want to buy a car, show signs of life. Step with pep. Cars are getting scarce. Call up when you're ready. We are ALREADY all ready.

TREATMENT OF ONE WEEK DID UNUSUAL GOOD

IN SEVEN DAYS, TRUTONA'S BENEFITS SURPASSED ALL OTHERS COMBINED

Indianapolis, Ind., April 22.—

"One week's treatment of Trutona has done more for me than all of the other medicines I've ever taken, combined," was the convincing statement recently of Mrs. Bilda Smith, 59 years old, well-known Indianapolis woman, residing at 511 West Henry street.

Mrs. Smith was so happy that she then added: "For the past eight years I have been very nervous and seldom cared for anything to eat. What little food I did eat didn't agree with me. It seemed like a lump of lead had formed in my stomach. I was badly constipated and would sometimes go for several days without an action of my bowels. My head would often swim so that I'd have to catch hold of something to keep from falling. No one knows how much I suffered."

"The different kind of medicines I tried didn't seem to reach my ailments. But I'm thankful now that I have at last found a medicine in Trutona that can cope with my troubles. My bowels are regular now, and you never say any one with a more ravenous appetite than I now have. That lumpy sensation in my stomach is gone and I'm not nervous any more. Nothing excites as it used to."

"I hope every one suffering as I have done will try Trutona. They'll surely be repaid in good health. If any one wants to know more about this wonderful medicine I will gladly tell them more fully."

Trutona is really a medicine of unusual merit. It is unsurpassed as a reconstructive agency, system purifier and body invigorant. It has been declared peerless as a treatment for stomach, liver and bowel troubles.

Trutona is now being introduced and explained in Rensselaer at the Larsh & Hopkins drug store.
