OBITUARY.

John Theron Saylor, son of Micah and Hannah Saylor, was born April 18, 1850, on a farm near Rensselaer, Jasper county, Indiana, where he grew to manhood and was married to Marilla June Coen, daughter of John and Sarah Coen, July 16, 1874. To this union five children were born, three daughters and two sons. One of the latter, Perle Thomas, dying in infancy. The remaining four are all living and married, namely, Mrs. Mabel Daley of Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. Bessie Hershman of Brook, Ind.; Mrs. Grace Deffenbacher and Burton O. Saylor, of Chewelah, Washington.

He united with the church in early boyhood and was an earnest Christian worker all his life. He took an active part in all social affairs that were for the betterment of the community in which he lived. His old friends will remember him as an enthusiastic Sunday school superintendent of the Saylerville Sunday school over which he presided for a number of years.

He was a member and loyal supporter of the Iroquois lodge of Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Rensselaer, Ind., having served as noble grand and held other offices of trust in the lodge. He was also a member of the Camp at that place.

In 1900 he sold his farm near Rensselaer and moved to one purchased near Monticello, Ind., where he resided until 1906 when, with his wife and two children, Burton and Grace, he removed to the state of Washington, where he made many friends and held different offices, political and social. He served on the school board of his own district and on the city school board of Chewelah, Wash.

He was a devoted husband, a most sympathetic and indulgent father, generous and always happy in an act of service to a friend and neighbor.

In the early Spring of 1920 his health failed and after a short illness he passed away on April 15, 1920, one day before his seventieth birthday.

He leaves to mourn his departure a wife, four children, eight grandchildren, one sister, Mrs. Letitia Benjamin, of Pomona, Calif., one brother, Thomas J. Saylor, of Lamar, Colorado, beside many more distant relatives and friends.

Funeral services were conducted from the residence of his daughter, Mrs. R. E. Hershman, of Brook, Ind., by Rev. J. J. Nelson, of the M. E. church of that place.

CHANDLER SIX Famous For Its Marvelous Motor

Everybody Likes The Chandler Dispatch

THE popularity of the Chandler Dispatch, which has grown by leaps and bounds and reaches to every corner of the world, is based not only on the grace of its trim design and its beautiful Rainbow Blue finish, but is due quite as much to the standard Chandler chassis upon which it is mounted.

The Dispatch attracts young folks and older ones alike. It is a great favorite with young women. All love to drive it, and the charm of its beauty gives them additional satisfaction in its ownership.

The Chandler Dispatch seats four persons with utmost comfort. The driver's position is restful. The cushions are deep, well tilted and trimmed in the best of genuine hand buffed leather.

With its wonderful flexibility of power, its ease of driving and real comfort, characteristic of all Chandler models, everybody likes the Dispatch.
