BREAD!

The little boy of the family never finds it a burden to go for a loaf of bread.

The promise of a slice with jelly or jam turns the trick.

Children have natural longings for substantial foods.

Give them bread at meals and between meals.

DELAWARE PUTS OFF SUFFRAGE

Dover, Del., May 17.—The Delaware house of representatives, which convened today after a two weeks' recess, adjourned late in the day without taking any action on the resolution to ratify the woman's suffrage amendment to the federal constitution, recently adopted by the senate.

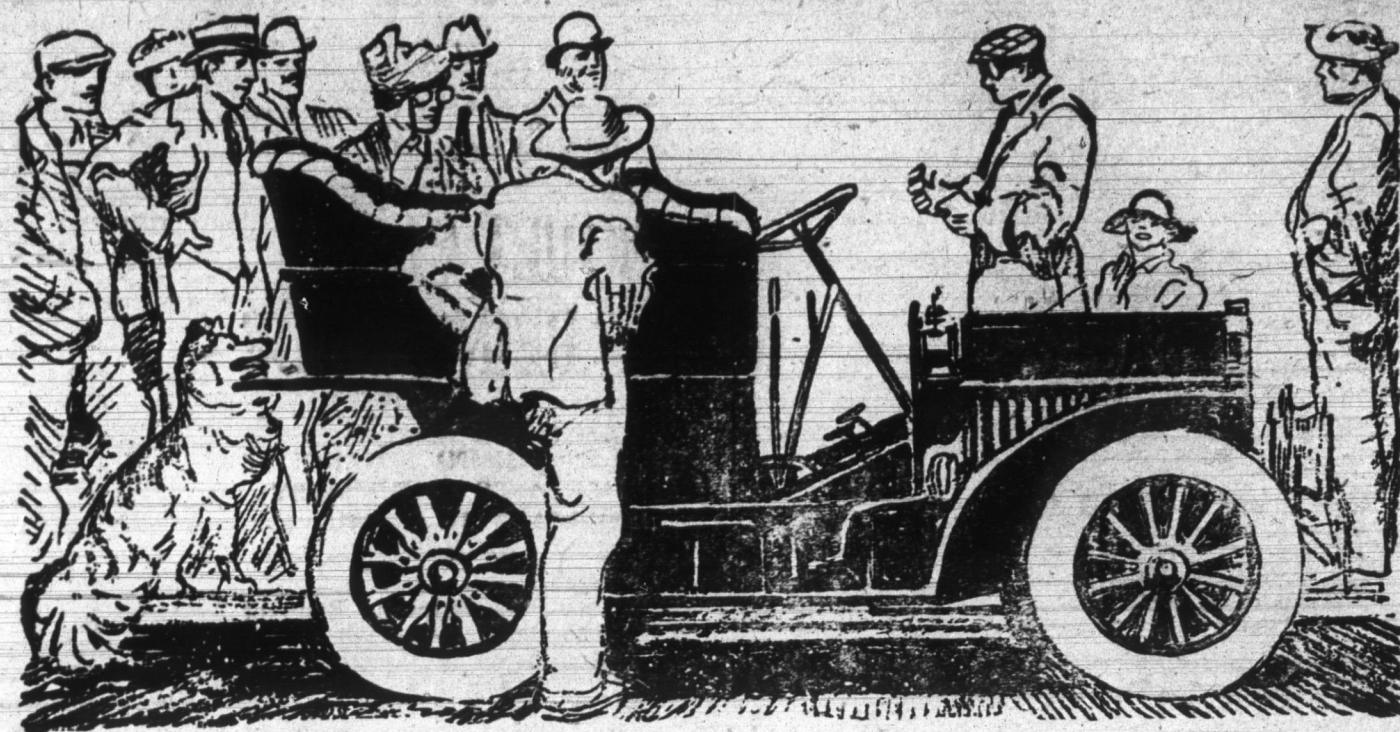

The measure now cannot be brought to a vote before Wednesday unless the house rules are suspended, which requires a two-thirds vote. Should it be presented to-morrow it must go to the committee and be reported out after one day before it can go to a vote.

They used to call a man a "sport" when he bought an automobile

THAT was before the days when pretty nearly everybody owned one—or could, if he wanted to.

There was a lot of waste about motoring in those days. A man spent a lot of money on his car and never thought very much about what he was getting in return.

II

When a man buys a tire nowadays he has a pretty definite idea of what he expects to get out of it.

The dealer who sells him one that gives him less than he expects isn't likely to get any more of his business.

That's one of the reasons why we handle U. S. Tires—and recommend them to the motorists of this community.

III

The U. S. reputation for quality is not built on any one tire.

There is not one standard for large U. S. Tires and another standard for small ones.

Every tire that bears the name "U. S." is built the best way its makers know how to build it. The oldest and largest rubber concern in the world cannot afford to play favorites in seeking its public.

IV

Come in and tell us what you are looking for in tires.

We can probably tell you whether you need a U. S. Nobby, Chain, Usco, Plain, or a Royal Cord.

Select your tires according to the roads they have to travel:

In sandy or hilly country, wherever the going is apt to be heavy—The U. S. Nobby.

ROYAL CORD—NOBBY—CHAIN—USCO—PLAIN

For ordinary country roads—The U. S. Chain or Usco.

For front wheels—The U. S. Plain.

For best results—everywhere—U. S. Royal Cords.

NEW TASTELESS CASTOR OIL IS EASY TO TAKE

Strength and Purity Remain The Same, but All Unpleasant Taste Is Removed.

A remarkable process, perfected by the chemists of Spencer Kellogg & Sons, Inc., has resulted in a great improvement in castor oil, the reliable old family remedy. This new tasteless castor oil has the same strength and purity as the old-fashioned kind. Nothing has been removed but the taste. Kellogg's Tasteless Castor Oil is precisely what the name says—absolutely tasteless. Think what this means to mothers and their children! When the Doctor says, "Give them castor oil," there need no longer be any trouble. Children need never know they are taking castor oil. Grown-ups will also appreciate the difference between Kellogg's Tasteless Castor Oil and the old fashioned nauseating kind. Insist on Kellogg's if you want a really tasteless castor oil. At all good druggists. Two sizes, 35c and 65c.—(Advt.)

THE MAN FOR THE PLACE

The rivalries of the primary contest having subsided and being now all but forgotten, the friends of all contestants are willing to concede that the Republican voters chose wisely in selecting Warren T. McCray to head the state ticket. Mr. McCray is no stranger to Hoosiers. He was the runner-up in the gubernatorial race four years ago, and is an active, public spirited citizen who has taken a real interest in the welfare of the state. He is known beyond the borders of Indiana as one of the nation's most successful farmers and stock raisers.

Mr. McCray is essentially a business man who has made a flattering success of his own affairs. He is not a theorist nor a capitalist who sits back as the stockholder or owner of an enterprise some other man is managing. Mr. McCray has built up a great business and reputation by first-hand attention to its details. He has won in his own affairs by the application of that practical good sense and judgment that may be depended upon to make him equal to the problems that are presented to a Governor in the direction of the business of the commonwealth.

The position of Governor is fundamentally that of business manager of the state. He is charged with oversight of the various departments and institutions, with seeing that those are conducted efficiently and economically. That is primarily a business proposition and should have the same grade of direction required for the proper handling of any other important undertaking.

There is nothing mysterious about a Governor's duties. His is a business man's task.

Mr. McCray is equipped to give to the office the quality of experience and judgment needed. His opponents at the primary are able men and each has strong points. It is no reflection on them that the voters were most impressed by the qualifications of Mr. McCray. The Republican nominee seems specially fitted for the requirements of the position during the readjustment period that is just ahead of the state and nation.—Indianapolis Star.
