PRESBYTERIANS WITHDRAW FROM INTERCHURCH MOVE

Philadelphia, May 28.—Support of the Presbyterian church in the U. S. A. was withdrawn from the interchurch world movement, but it was decided to continue the new era movement and cut the annual budget from $900,000 to $400,000 at today's session of the general assembly.

In its action on the interchurch world movement the general assembly adopted the new plan of the executive commission providing for contribution of $100,000 for the ensuing year to the movement "when properly reorganized" to be used for payment of its current operating expenses as a going concern for that period and for no other purpose.

The general assembly next year will convene at Winona Lake, Indiana, it was decided today after the contest for the next meeting place had narrowed down to Winona Lake and Atlantic City, N. J. Committee of five members will attend the republican and democratic national conventions with authority to confer with the resolutions committee against "wet" planks. The committees, which will be appointed from prominent Presbyterians living in or near the convention cities, also will throw their influence against the election of "wet" congressmen.

OLD AND NEW GRADS MINGLED

AT THE BANQUET TABLE AS CURTAIN DROPPED ON THE SCHOOL CAREERS OF 44

With delightful music lending inspiration to the affair, with a delicious banquet raising conviviality to the supreme degree, with a toast program unexcelled and with pretty decorations drooping in abundance over the banqueters, Friday night's annual banquet of the alumni of Rensselaer high school to the new graduates was one which will be a memory everlasting and a scene not soon forgotten by the graduates who drift silently from the institution which they hold so dear into the great space of practical experience, touching elbows as they went with those who had passed from the portals of the school many years before them. It was an occasion that the forty-four young men and women will forever cherish as the most pleasant event of their lives.

Year after year the alumni banquet has held its place as an event unsurpassed on the annual social calendar, and the achievement of the alumni this year eclipsed all previous banquets.

Many of the alumni of the school were lured back from distant fields to again dwell in the school atmosphere and renew acquaintances with their former classmates, and to meet the new members of their association.

Perhaps never in the history of the city was such an interesting toast program offered as the one of last night. The speakers of the evening had worked faithfully to make their part of the program maintain the standard of enjoyment supplied by the other events of the evening's entertainment, and how well they did their part is voiced by those who were in attendance. With all due respect to those who occupied the other places on the toast program, it must be said that the toast given by Miss Helen Lamson on the subject, "How You Go to Keep 'Em Down On the Farm?" was none never equalled since the inauguration of alumni banquets. Miss Lamson handled her subject in such a pleasing and humorous manner that she was interrupted time and again by the applause of her auditors.

We are privileged to publish Miss Lamson's toast, which reads as follows:

"Misselle Toastmistress, Class of 1920, Fellow Alumni, Friends—yes, and Enemies! I for I am sadly aware that I have enemies present. I had already classified the members of the program committee as such, and now I find that I must add to their number the toastmistress of the evening—Miss Harriett Shedd—my would-be friend and supporter.

A few days ago when two member of the program committee came sneaking up to ring my door bell with the purpose of their coming projecting itself conspicuously before them, I did not greet them cordially.—Oh! No! I said most emphatically, 'In the first place I won't do it; in the second place I can't do it; in the third place, why should I?' To my first statement they calmly said, 'You will'; to my second, 'you can'; to my third, 'why should you, why, because that subject about the farm we have selected is so especially suited to you.' 'You see,' went on Mr. Meyers, 'although you have lived inside of the corporation of the thriving little city of Rensselaer for almost four years, you have not yet succeeded in shaking the hayseed all out of your hair.' 'Yes,' chimed in Mr. Hanley, 'anyone would know a block away that you are a clodhopper.'

Up until six o'clock this evening I still said, 'I won't.' Now I am still saying, 'I can't' and soon you will be thinking, 'Why! Oh why should she.'

Yes, I was born on a farm. I have lived a fraction of a century upon a farm and if the right farmer should happen along at the right time and make the right sort of proposition, I assure you that I would not turn down a chance to die on a farm!

The time will come when 'clodhopping' will be a favorite dance, as popular no doubt, as pleasing at least, as the present day 'shimmy.' I think this graduating class will live to see Farmer Cornstassel in the President's chair. He'll not drive out to the golf links to take his exercise, he'll hoe the beans. His wife will not be running over to Paris for diversion, she'll be of Maude Muller stock, she'll help make the hay. She'll not receive orchids every morning, she'll be happy with a corsage of marigold and hollyhocks. She can step out and select the breakfast from the White House pig pen; sugar from their own private sorghum patch; cold slaw from the garden, or, in the winter time tap a barrel of sauer kraut in the White House cellar.

The question reads: 'How you going to keep 'em down on the farm?'

Away back in the years preceding 1905, when I was in Rensselaer high school, I learned that the best way to avoid answering a hard question was to ask another one, and I have

FITTING TRIBUTE TO BE PAID

THOSE WHO GAVE THEIR ALL IN UNITED STATES' CONFLICTS MEMORIAL DAY.

Memorial day, the most sacred of all national holidays, will be observed in this city and county Sunday, when reverence will be paid to those who gave their all in the defense of their country.

From present indications the largest crowd that ever assembled here on Memorial day will be present at the services which will no doubt be the most impressive services of their kind ever held in Jasper county. The dwindling ranks of the Civil war veterans will be strengthened by the presence of scores of youth who saw service in the late world war.

It is a certainty that all of the old soldiers will be present at the services and the spirit of willingness among the younger men to don their khaki and blue is present in such a marked degree that the success of the day's program is assured. It is understood that many of the soldier boys from Remington will be present to aid in the burial services of Dewey Biggs, the first Jasper county boy to die overseas, which will help to swell the ranks of the soldiers.

At one-thirty o'clock the burial services for Dewey Biggs will be held in the court house yard and will be in charge of the local chapter of the American Legion. Following these services, the line of march to the cemetery will form. True D. Woodworth will act as officer of the day, and announces that the various organizations will line up as follows:

1. Sunday Schools.
2. Fraternal Organizations.
3. Band.
4. Escort.
5. Clergy.
6. Coffin and pallbearers.
7. Family.
8. World War Veterans.
9. Civil War Veterans.
10. Civilians.

World War Veterans and S. A. T. C. will meet at the Court House at 1 p. m. for instructions and formation.

Services at Court House Steps at 1:30.
Line of March will form as above at conclusion of funeral ceremonies. At the conclusion of funeral exercises at the grave the Memorial program will proceed from the platform.

75 ATTENDED LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS LUNCHEON

About seventy-five members of the League of Women Voters of Jasper County enjoyed a luncheon at the Makeever House Thursday at one o'clock.

Toasts were responded to by Mrs. Cope Hanley, Mrs. A. G. Catt, Mrs. F. H. Howard, of Remington; Mrs. Malcolm Clark, of Wheatfield; and Mrs. I. F. Meader, of Union.

Mrs. A. H. Hopkins presided at this meeting which was a very enthusiastic get-together assembly of prospective voters.

Following the luncheon a meeting was held at the court house, in which the Franchise League was merged into the League of Women Voters, a non-partisan organization, whose object is to foster the education of all women in citizenship and to support important legislation.

Mrs. Ora T. Ross, district director, appointed Mrs. A. H. Hopkins county chairman. The following officers were elected:

• Vice-Chairman—Mrs. A. A. Hoover.
Secretary—Dr. Rose M. Remmek.
Treasurer—Miss Mildred Biggs.
Directors at Large—Mrs. Geo. Bartee, of Remington; Mrs. Simon Fendig, Wheatfield; Mrs. Warren Poole, Hanging Grove; Mrs. Emory Garriott, Union Township; Mrs. A. Eib, Barkley township; Mrs. Wallace Saylor, Newton township.

The program committee had prepared an outline study in citizenship for the month of June and these were distributed to the township chairmen. Miss Ora T. Ross, Miss Effie Worrell and Mrs. Margaret Hill McCarter gave splendid instructive talks on citizenship, how it affects the home and how to obtain legislation of particular interest to women.

The League of Women Voters already has a large membership and the enthusiasm shown at this meeting would indicate that certain great purposes and ideals of women can be accomplished through this organization which individual women or individual groups cannot bring about.

EXAMPLE OF HIGH COST OF PAPER

Buffalo, N. Y., May 28.—The Lackawanna Journal appeared this afternoon printed on brown wrapping paper with this headline across the front page:

"This paper costs us 14 1/2 cents a pound, 4 1/2 cents more than the meat they used to wrap in it."

Old time prices again on boys' suits. A complete line of several dozens to select from at $7.98 for your choice. Rowles & Parker.

20 Per Cent Off On Silk Piece Goods, Waists Dresses

The wholesale market is such that it enables us to give you this cut. TAKE ADVANTAGE OF IT WHILE THE OPPORTUNITY IS HERE—because this situation is brought about by the financial condition of Japan rather than by any over-supply of silks.

If the bankers of Japan can regain their feet and again make loans to the silk producers, they will no longer be forced to sell at a loss and silk prices will return to where they were.

TIMMONS-LILLY.

Ergus C. Timmons and Emma D. Lilly were married Wednesday, May 26th, at four p. m., at Crown Point by a justice of the peace. Mr. Timmons is the son of Mrs. J. N. Timmons, of this city and has been employed by T. M. Callahan. Miss Lilly is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lilly, of Wheatfield, and has been employed in the Makeever hotel dining room. Mr. and Mrs. Timmons will leave today for Jackson, Tenn., where the groom will be employed by his brother, Will, who has a large machine shop there.

SELL HAMPSHIRE

HOG FOR $3,000

Another Jasper county man is becoming noted as a breeder of Hampshire hogs. Our good friend, W. H. Pullins of Barkley township, who is one of the very best informed farmers in this county, sold this week to James Nelson of White county a male Hampshire receiving for the same $3,000. Mr. Pullins had raised this hog and it is said to be one of the finest animals of the breed.

PLACES NEED ATTENTION.

The Boy Scouts in their examination a few days ago of the sanitary condition of the city made report as follows:

They found twenty-five neglected ash piles. There were nine unhealthy manure piles, twelve unsanitary outdoor closets, and three highly scented pig pens. These places were tagged by the boys and it is hoped that in pointing out these conditions the young fellows have learned a very practical lesson in sanitation.

It is essential that our city be kept clean. All of the above are a menace to the good health of the people of the city.

In neglecting to keep cleaned up properly one endangers the health of his own family as well as his neighbor's.

JOHNSON DECLARES HE WILL NOT BOLT

Senator Johnson, of California, declared in a political address here today that he would not bolt the republican party at Chicago, if he should not be chosen the republican presidential nominee there.

MARY McLAREN

IN
"THE POINTING FINGER"

They accused her of being a thief—but fate takes a hand and brings her into a life of happiness, though she was only a stray little orphan in an asylum—and in her new life of happiness she herself accuses herself of being a thief in the very presence of her lover. She is about to be denounced and punished when another trick takes a hand and saves her. How was it done? Oh, but that would be telling—but you can see how it was done and enjoy one of the nicest plays of the season when you see "The Pointing Finger."
