TO THE G. O. P.

Thy laurels are won But the G. O. P. goes on Not content with victories past;
Not until
All foes are still
To the last.
The G. O. P. lives for the right,
The G. O. P. prays for the light; Conquering many a stormy cloud With courage of which we should Be proud.

'Tis not in physical might
But in spiritual right
That makes the G. O. P. a winner.
One good and cheerful loser, Yes, good morals the G. O. P. teaches.

And not alone these
From the housetops preaches
But in consecrated lives
An answer to the whys
The G. O. P. never dies.
The G. O. P. is founded on reason Very kin to Wisdom
And with God at its right hand
This optimistic working band
I hope will always stand
To do a just amount of good
In this most blessed land Where all can help if they but would.

—An American.

Complete Text of the Wilson League of Nations, With Lodge Reservations

In order that Indiana voters may readily study the Wilson League of Nations issue with full information at hand, there is printed in the following paragraphs the complete text of the League Covenant and those Articles of the Treaty of Versailles which were considered in the Senate, together with the full text of the fifteen Lodge reservations, advocated by the Republicans in the Senate, for the protection of American rights and American nationality.

Articles 10 and 11, of the League Covenant, which bind the United States to furnish troops, munitions and finances for the protection of the boundaries of foreign powers, are printed in black type in column 3.

The Lodge reservations are set in brackets and immediately follow the Articles of the Covenant and the Treaty to which they apply.

THE HIGH CONTRACTING PARTIES.

In order to promote international co-operation and to achieve international peace and security

by the acceptance of obligations not to resort to war,

by the prescription of open, just and honourable relations between nations,

by the firm establishment of the understandings of international law as to the actual rule of conduct among Governments,

and

by the maintenance of justice and a scrupulous respect for all treaty obligations in the dealings of organized peoples with one another,

Agree to this Covenant of the League of Nations.

ARTICLE 1.

The original Members of the League of Nations shall be those of the Signatories which are named in the Annex to this Covenant and also such of those other States named in the Annex as shall accede without reservation to this Covenant. Such accession shall be effected by a Declaration deposited with the Secretariat within two months of the coming into force of the Covenant. Notice thereof shall be sent to all other

Members of the League.

Any fully self-governing State,

Dominion or Colony not named in the Annex may become a Member of the League if its admission is agreed to by two-thirds of the Assembly, provided that it shall give effective guarantees of its sincere intention to observe its international obligations, and shall accept such regulations as may be prescribed by the League in regard to its military, naval and air forces and armaments.

Any Member of the League may,

after two years' notice of its intention so to do, withdraw from the League, provided that all its international obligations and all its obligations under this Covenant shall have been fulfilled at the time of its withdrawal.

These Republican reservations apply to Article 1.

1. The United States so understands and construes Article 1 that in case of notice of withdrawal from the League of Nations, as provided in said Article, the United States shall be the sole judge as to whether all its international obligations and all its obligations under the said covenant have been fulfilled, and notice of withdrawal by the United States may be given by a concurrent resolution of the Congress of the United States.

15. In consenting to the ratification of the treaty with Germany the United States adheres to the principle of self-determination and to the resolution of sympathy with the aspirations of the Irish people for a government of their own choice adopted by the

HEAR WOOD AND BRUMBAUGH

Jasper county is to be greatly favored next week in the way of political orators. Hon William R. Wood of this the Tenth Indiana District, and who is this state's senior member in the national congress, is to be at the Gillam church in Gillam township Tuesday afternoon, October 12.

Congressman Wood has been on the job at Washington. He knows the conditions of the country and can give information and guidance to all voters who want to cast an intelligent as well as honest ballot at the election on November 2. His address here Wednesday evening was so well received and so thoroughly appreciated that he is sure to attract a large audience at Gillam and also at DeMotte. He will speak at the latter place the afternoon of Thursday, October 12.

Governor Martin G. Brumbaugh of Pennsylvania will make an address at the New Ellis Opera House Monday evening, October 11. Governor Brumbaugh was at one time superintendent of public instruction of the state of Pennsylvania and while in this office addressed the Indiana State Teachers' Association. He afterward served as commissioner of education. He served as governor of Pennsylvania and has been mentioned as a candidate for the Republican nomination for president.

He is a statesman, an orator and a red blooded American citizen. No man upon the political platform should attract more attention than Governor Brumbaugh.

TENT MEETING.

Union meetings of the Rosebud and Brushwood churches are now in session one mile west of Aix and will continue until October 17 inclusive. A special evangelist and singers have been procured for these meetings. Three services, Sundays, 10:00 a. m., 2:30 p. m. and 7:15 p. m. Each evening at 7:30 p. m. Everybody welcome.

POCAHONTAS MARKET.

There will be a Pocahontas market at the Co-operative meat market Saturday, October 9, at eleven o'clock.

BUICK

TRUE to the Buick tradition of twenty years, the one feature Buick engineers have particularly sought to develop in the new Nineteen Twenty One Buick Series is high utility value.

You will find, in fact, when you investigate these new models, that Buick capacity for hard, fast, sure transportation is even greater than ever before. The high-powered, sure-working Buick Valve-in-Head Motor is a feature of each of the new models.

Added to their great service value are a beauty of contour and appointment and a comfort of movement and seating arrangement that appeal to the most particular.

Buick primarily, however, is a car of action. Buick for business—built to stand up—is a well known Buick feature. Business men will find the new five passenger touring car a happy selection.

Back of it, reinforcing its high serviceability, in using the uninterrupted use of your investment is authorized Buick Service rendered by a nationwide organization.
