CURTAIN DROPS ON H. S. FOOTBALL THURSDAY

The 1920 football curtain will be rung down on Rensselaer high school with the staging of the Armistice Day game between Kirklin and Rensselaer at Riverside Park tomorrow afternoon as a part of the day's celebration.

The downstaters are reckoned as being among the real class of Indiana high school football circles and Rensselaer will face a foe that will tax every ounce of strength they possess.

Kirklin has suffered but one setback this season, and that came at the hands of the Sheridan eleven last Saturday by a 7 to 0 score. Sheridan is laying a strong claim to the state title and have much to support their claim. The narrow margin by which they won over Kirklin shows that the true class of the aggregation that is to pit its strength against the Red and Black Thursday.

Coach Leighly has driven his men hard all week and will have them in the pink when they step onto the chalk-lined field. Despite their unexpected reverse at the hands of the Emerson team, the men are not disheartened and assert that they will close the season with a victory.

The defeat at the hands of the Steel City crew removed them as championship contenders, but they are going into the Kirklin game with their heads up and try to surpass the Sheridan score and thereby show that the Emerson game was a fluke.

SCARLET FEVER AT HOSPITAL

DEATH FROM THIS CONTAGIOUS DISEASE CLOSES THE COUNTY HOSPITAL.

On account of the death of Mrs. Charles Saltwell from scarlet fever Tuesday at the hospital, that institution has been closed and City Health Officer Dr. M. D. Gwin has issued stringent orders that all patients be removed and that the building be thoroughly fumigated.

The quick and drastic action by those in charge will undoubtedly prevent patients, who were in the building, from taking the disease, and the taking of the very greatest precaution is necessary and it is hoped will be thoroughly effective.

No patients will be received at the hospital for several days and those who have been exposed will be placed under the very closest observation.

There is a great amount of scarlet fever in the county and drastic action should be taken to prevent its spread.

The source of the disease contracted by Mrs. Saltwell is unknown, and this should be a warning to all to use the greatest diligence and care.

MOTHER DIES AT HOSPITAL

SCARLET FEVER CAUSES DEATH OF MOTHER OF WEEK OLD BABY.

Mrs. Charles Saltwell died at the hospital in this city Tuesday evening at 9:30 o'clock, the cause of her death being scarlet fever.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Saltwell at the hospital on November 3. While recovering Mrs. Saltwell developed scarlet fever and death from the same resulted as indicated above.

Mrs. Saltwell was born on Aug. 26, 1882, and was married to Mr. Saltwell about two years ago.

She is survived by her husband, the week old son, her father, William Bull, and the following sisters: Loretta Bull, Mrs. Lee Snodgrass, Ruth Bull and Mrs. Norman Gerham.

Interment was made in Weston cemetery this Wednesday afternoon, a short service being conducted at the grave.

GREAT THRONG HONORS M'CRAY

THOUSANDS ATTENDED JOLLIFICATION OF INDIANA GOVERNOR-ELECT.

Kentland outdid herself Tuesday in her demonstration jollifying the election of her distinguished citizen, who had just been elevated to the highest official position in the state of Indiana, and that by the greatest majority known in the political history of the state.

There was music by the Kentland band and also by the great Purdue University band, consisting of a hundred members. A fife and drum corps, consisting of Civil war veterans from Sheridan, enlivened the occasion. There was singing by Glee Clubs.

The meeting was held in a big tent in the court house yard.

Lawrence Lyons, chairman of the tenth Indiana congressional district, opened the meeting.

The Rev. C. L. Harper, pastor of the Kentland Methodist Episcopal church, offered prayer.

Governor-elect Warren T. McCray was then presented by Chairman Lyons. He made a short address thanking all and especially his friends and neighbors.

He promised to be faithful in the discharge of his duties as governor and hoped to return to his home in Kentland after the expiration of his term of office with as many friends as he now has.

Congressman William R. Wood was then called upon and made a short address and expressed great delight at the completeness of the Republican victory. He noted especially that not a Democrat was elected in the tenth Indiana congressional district.

Miss Adah Bush made a snappy and interesting short address.

Rev. C. L. Harper was then placed in charge of the meeting and he made an address full of earnestness and enthusiasm, and made a great hit with the big audience.

Senator James E. Watson was then introduced by the Rev. C. L. Harper. Needless to say he made a great address. He, in common with every other speaker of the occasion, was delighted in the election of Warren T. McCray as governor of this state.

Senator Watson described the destruction and debauch into which the Democratic administration had plunged the country and begged for patience and co-operation, and assured those present that the Republican party has the ability and the disposition to right matters just as soon as possible.

WHISTLES AND BELLS TO SOUND IN GLADNESS

Beginning promptly at 10:55 a.m. and lasting until 11:00 o'clock a.m. all whistles, bells, automobile horns and other noise making instruments in the city will be sounded in commemoration of the cessation of hostilities on the European battle-front November 11, 1918, a day which brought to a close the bloodiest war in all history, and a day which has been officially declared as a legal holiday—Armistice Day.

The fire whistle and siren, the mill whistle, the train whistle of the 10:55 a.m. train and sundry other whistles will shriek in gladness, and church bells will peal forth in all their volume. Automobile owners are asked to sound their horns during the five-minute period, and those without automobiles are urged to purchase lung-power horns and lend their bit of noise to the occasion.

All ex-service men are asked to assemble at the court house yard and stand at attention during the five-minute celebration while Sergeant Allen Bowsher blows “taps.”

NELSON SHAFFER, Commander Dewey Biggs Post.

ST. JOE TO MEET PYRAMID A. A. CLUB SUNDAY

Sunday, Nov. 14, the Purple and Red of St. Joe will meet the fast Pyramid A. A. of Chicago in a battle for blood on the St. Joe gridiron. Coach Moore has made some clever changes in the St. Joe lineup, adding considerable strength to the line as well as to the backfield. The team is in excellent condition and is working with a speed and harmony which is certain to win the laurels.

Judge and Mrs. George A. Williams, Mrs. W. L. Yates, Elizabeth Yates, Mrs. John Eigelbach, Mrs. Elmer Wilcox and Mrs. Ralph O'Riley were in Lafayette today.
