

Do you know where the purest and best flavored maple sugar comes from? The flavor of Maple Karo tells you

Over a thousand tons of rich maple sugar from Vermont and Canada to make Maple Karo for the American family

The American housewife endorses Maple Karo this way:

Over five million cans were consumed last year. This is a greater sale, by far, of any kind of maple syrup sold.

If you are particular about the syrup you buy, and the price you pay for it—the new Maple Karo is your kind of syrup.

Perfectly delicious in rich maple tang—yet very moderate in price. So moderate that you can serve it every day, every meal. And all grocers everywhere have it.

Go to your grocer today. Get one can of Maple Karo. Try it just once. If you are not absolutely satisfied return it—and your grocer will give you back your money.

COMRADE OF THE LATE JOHN KNOX VISITED HERE

Chester F. Larson, of Minneapolis, was the guest here Tuesday night of Thomas A. Knox and left this Wednesday afternoon for Indianapolis where he will be employed. Mr. Larson was a very close friend of Mr. Knox's son, John, who died while in the service of his country overseas, Mr. Larson acting as one of the pallbearers at the funeral.

Mr. Larson was greatly grieved over the death of his chum, the two boys having been together as members of the same squad from the day they entered the service, February 27, 1918, until Mr. Knox's death, which occurred December 5, 1918.

The two young men were greatly attached to one another, true army buddies, as Mr. Larson expressed it, ministering to one another in times of sickness, and doing the many other little things which served to draw their bond of friendship tighter.

Since the death of his comrade Mr. Larson has kept in touch with the Knox family, doing his best to alleviate their pain and to take the place left vacant in their hearts through his friend's passing.

The remains of Mr. Knox will arrive here some time within the next few days and Mr. Larson will return here to attend the funeral services.

The following Jasper county farmers were at the Chicago Union Stock yards today: Elias Arnold, Granville Moody, Estel Osborne and Robert Overton.

ANOTHER OLD RESIDENT CALLED

About nine o'clock this morning we were summoned to the home of Dr. H. L. Brown. The Dr. had gotten so out of habit of buying gas that he never thought to look at his gas tank when his Franklin wouldn't start.

We turned on the reserve tank and gave the Dr. a good calling. Another feature of the Franklin is control that doesn't require strength.

AUTOMOBILE KILLED DAUGHTER OF FORMER RESIDENT

Word has been received here of the accidental death of Genevieve Lehman, 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Lehman, of Oklahoma City. The mother of the little girl was formerly Miss Ethel Sprigg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Sprigg, former residents of Rensselaer, and a cousin of Leslie Clark of this city.

According to an Oklahoma City paper, Mrs. Lehman and three children started across the street in front of an approaching automobile driven by Miss Linnie King. Little Genevieve had crossed the street but became frightened and darted back towards her mother and directly in front of the automobile. The car was not going more than ten miles an hour, but a stop could not be made until the wheels had passed over and crushed the life of the little one. No blame is attached to the driver of the car, according to a statement made by Mrs. Lehman.

MONTICELLO CRIPPLE LOSES LIFE IN BLAZE

A fire which cost the life of John H. Ferguson, a helpless cripple, occurred early Tuesday morning when his home in Monticello was destroyed by fire. Death was due to suffocation.

Ferguson had moved into the house last Friday without notifying the owner of the property. The house was in flames when the fire company arrived and the firemen were unable to rescue Ferguson, who was unable to leave his bed. Ferguson was seventy-four years of age and wealthy. He had been a lifelong cripple.
