THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Out of the more than 3,000,000 Ford cars now in use, about sixty percent have been sold to farmers. Probably no other one thing has brought to the farm so much of comfort and profit as has the Ford car. It has enlarged the social life, doubled the facilities for marketing, brought the town next door to the farm, multiplied for the farmer the pleasures of living. A family car without an equal in low cost of operation and maintenance. We solicit your order for one now because the demand is large and continually increasing.

TALENT SELECTED FOR EXCELLENT LYCEUM COURSE

Attractions for Season of 1920-21 Announced.

COURSE SURE TO PLEASE

Numbers Will Be Both Inspiring and Enjoyable—Season Ticket Sale Should Be Large.

The attractions which are to appear on the Lyceum course here this season have been announced. The various numbers have been especially well selected and everything points to a large sale of season tickets for the course.

The attractions were secured from the well known Redpath Lyceum Bureau, and this in itself is a guarantee of satisfaction.

People are more than eager this year for instructive, inspirational lectures and clean entertainment, and the splendid attractions to be heard here are sure of a hearty reception.

The numbers on the course are as follows:

PROCTER COMPANY.

In presenting Mr. Harold Procter, the eminent Irish tenor, and supporting artists, Miss May Rees, violinist, and Miss Fleta Lawrence, pianist, the Redpath Bureau predicts that every community which enjoys an artist trio of extraordinary attainments, acknowledged ability and superior accomplishments, will find this company meeting or surpassing every expectation.

Mr. Harold Procter has sung throughout the British Isles, singing in concert and oratorio under such men as Hans Richter, Gaul and other great English composers and conductors and in company with the leading singers of England. He later traveled throughout the United States in companies headed by Kitty Gordon, Fritz Scheff and Charlotte Greenwood. For two years he was tenor soloist at the Temple Baptist church, Los Angeles, the largest church west of the Mississippi.

Miss May Rees is of Welsh descent, coming from a noted musical family. She has studied with the masters of both America and Europe.

Miss Fleta Lawrence is well equipped by nature and training for the important place she has in the program of the Procter Company. As an accompanist, she is dominated by that fine spirit of understanding and sympathy so necessary as the background of an artist. As a pianist she displays in her solo numbers a power and technique which insures her a future of unusual brilliancy.

THOMAS BROOKS FLETCHER.

Thomas Brooks Fletcher is one of the real stars of the lecture platform, "Thomas Brooks Fletcher," says Judge Ben Lindsey of Denver, "is one of the most powerful orators of our time. He is not the old type of platform entertainer. He entertains but he also has a powerful message, and knows how to deliver it. People want to hear about the things that are being done and need to be done in this country, and that is what Fletcher is telling them about, and he is telling it in a way that commands attention, provokes thought and stimulates men to action. He leaves the impress of his message upon every community."

Mr. Fletcher comes with a reputation of being a dramatic orator. It is said that he dramatizes his message by an intensity of energy which holds his audiences from the very start.

Writing of Mr. Fletcher to the committee in charge of the local course, the Redpath Bureau, through which Mr. Fletcher was secured, says: "It is difficult to write of Fletcher without using superlatives. He is one of the biggest men Redpath has ever had on the platform. His personality is such that, to put it tritely, he simply must be heard to be appreciated. No one can use the right word to describe Brooks Fletcher and his lecture. When you have told all about him you find that what you have said is inadequate."

Mr. Fletcher is a newspaper editor. He lives in Marion, Ohio, and is editor of the Marion Tribune.

Miss Addie E. Hinds of Paris, Ill., came today for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Kurtz and their son, Edward. Mrs. Kurtz and Miss Hinds are sisters.

William Eigelsbach arrived home today from Olene, Ore., where he had been visiting for the past several weeks with his sister, Mrs. Albert Marshall, and hunting in the Oregon woods. He was favorably impressed with the western country and will no doubt make annual pilgrimages to the Pacific coast state in the future. Bill's return has caused joy to reign in the football camp of Harry Parker, as he is regarded as being one of the greatest gridiron players ever turned out by Rensselaer, and will work at either quarterback or one of the halfback positions in the remaining games on the card of the Rensselaer independent team.

CHARLES B. STEWARD, South Side West Washington St.

CHARLES B. STEWARD.

This company consists of Athel Lindorff, harpist, and Florence Zander, reader and impersonator.

The harp has always held a deep place in the hearts of the people. It is among the earliest known of all musical instruments. But the harp of today is much different from that of early times. The modern harp possesses three thousand separate pieces of mechanism and there are few who master it in all its complexity.

Miss Lindorff is fast becoming known as one of America's talented harpists. She is hailed in Chicago and other large cities as a most successful entertainer.

Mrs. Zander is a clever character impersonator who has had a successful Lyceum and Chautauqua experience. Her readings and impersonations never fail to entertain and also to provide food for good, clean thought.

THE MONTAGUE LIGHT OPERA SINGERS.

Light opera, always popular, is featured in costume by the Montague Singers. In the repertoire of this veteran organization are scenes from "The Serenade" by Victor Herbert, "Robin Hood" by Reginald DeKoven, and the "Pied Piper," selections from "The Mikado," "The Red Mill" and "Madam Butterfly," and a complete operetta, "A Japanese Romance," all of which are given in costume.

Incidental solos, duets and quartets from the best song literature give pleasure variety to the program. One or more readings such as a sketch from "The Blue Bird" by Maeterlinck, give further diversion without departing from the superior quality of the Montague program.

Doubtless much of the success of this company year after year is due to the fact that there is no let-up in their musical study. New program features are constantly being developed and in this way return engagements are welcomed without the necessity of duplication.
