

"I smiled- and he shot me"

AFTER MONTHS and months.
MY WIFE persuaded me.
TO HAVE it done.
SO I went around.
TO THE photographer.
AND GOT mugged.
WHEN THE pictures came.
I SHOWED them to a gang.
OF AMATEUR art critics.
AND PROFESSIONAL crabs.
DISGUISED AS friends.
WHO FAVORED me.
WITH SUCH remarks as.
"DOESN'T HE look natural?"
"HAS IT got a tail?"
"A GREAT resemblance."
AND THAT last one.
MADE ME sore.
SO WHEN friend wife.
ADDED HER howl.
I TRIED again.
THIS TIME they were great.
FOR HERE'S what happened.
THE PHOTOGRAPHER said.
"LOOK THIS way, please."
AND HELD up something.
AS HE pushed the button.
AND NO one could help.
BUT LOOK pleasant.
FOR WHAT he held up.
WAS A nice full pack.
OF THE cigarettes.
THAT SATISFY.

LIGHT up a Chesterfield and sense the goodness of those fine Turkish and Domestic tobaccos in that wonderful Chesterfield blend. Taste that flavor! Sniff that aroma! You'll register "They Satisfy." You can't help it.

Chesterfield
CIGARETTES
They Satisfy
Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE

FAIR OAKS.

(December 1.)
Howard Gilmore of Lafayette visited here a few days last week.
Miss Hanson spent the week-end with friends in Chicago.
Mr. and Mrs. George McSlean and Miss Mary Abell of Gary spent Thanksgiving with the Abell family.
Miss Hazel Jones visited relatives in Danville last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kline and sons of Hammond spent Thursday with the Corns family.
C. A. Gundy spent Sunday with his family.
Several from here spent the latter part of the week in Hammond. They were Mr. and Mrs. McConnell and son, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wendell, Irene Ballinger and Mae Hallock.
M. Shehan and family of Monon spent Thursday with I. Kights.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank McKay and children returned to Hammond Sunday after a few days' visit here.
Mrs. C. A. Gundy and Mrs. C. A. Corns spent Friday in Rensselaer.
Mrs. W. Rhorabaugh and children visited last week in Radnor.
Mrs. Roy Marshall and children left Thursday for Alabama where they will spend the winter.
Mrs. N. A. McKay of Hammond came Monday and packed her household goods and rented her house to Bryant Pritchett, who moved from the Hampton ranch Wednesday.

SHELBY.

Mrs. J. Bowie of Wheatfield came Monday for a few days' visit with her sisters, Delia and Anne Fuller.
The Church of Christ are purchasing a moving picture machine to be used for the benefit of the church and the community.
Sam. Sirols and son, Sammy, went to Hot Springs, Ark., Monday for a visit with Mrs. Sirols and daughter, Mabel.
Sugar 9 cents per pound at Dickey's Big Bargain store.
Special Blend Coffee, 19 cents per pound, at Dickey's Big Store.

THAYER.

Milton Cobb and Charles Fuller attended the dance given at Lowell Thursday evening. They report a very enjoyable time.
A very interesting program was given here at the church by the pupils of the school Thanksgiving evening. A large crowd attended and everyone was highly pleased.
Mr. John Kelly of Chicago visited here Thanksgiving with Mr. Keperling and daughter, Helen.
Mrs. Albert Helsel has been quite sick the past week.
A masked ball was held here Saturday evening at the Thayer hall. A very large crowd was in attendance and many beautiful costumes were worn.
Mr. and Mrs. Eelden Spieth of Shelby, attended the Thanksgiving services held here at the Thayer church last Thursday evening.
The Fellman family motored to Leroy last Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gault, formerly of this place.
Mr. Halicki was a Chicago visitor last Thursday and Friday.
Rev. Hauser of Lowell conducted his services here last Sunday evening.
Born, Nov. 20, girl to Mr. and Mrs. James Buie. Dr. W. W. Tate was the attending physician.
Born on November 22, a girl to Mr. and Mrs. Willard Wenter, Dr. W. W. Tate attending physician.
The four-weeks old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Brooks was taken to Jefferson Park hospital, Chicago, for a surgical operation and on Monday word was received here that small hopes were entertained for the recovery of the child.
Adolph Pewestorff visited Sunday at Roselawn with J. R. Kight and wife.
Margaret and Blanch Craig visited the past week here with their father, James R. Craig.
A big attendance was had at the masquerade ball here last Saturday night.
Milt Cobb and Tom Spittler finished their painting season last Friday.

ROSELAWN.

A brother of D. K. Frye, of Fort Wayne, Ind., who has been visiting his brother and family here, returned home Monday.
Rev. Todd and wife of Evanston, Ill., returned home Monday after a few days' visit here.
Bill Boyle made a fellow pay $32.25 for his best girl's box at a social over to DeMotte last Friday night.
J. J. Mulder made a business trip to Hamlet, Ind., last Friday.
Ross Thompson, agent of Monon here, was on the sick list Monday.

DEMOTTE.

Merl and Gerald Curtin were Wheatfield goers this Tuesday. They are pupils of Mr. Richards, taking lessons on piano and slide trombone.
"Jim" Erwin, who is manager of a Western Union Telegraph office in Chicago, returned Monday, having spent a week's vacation here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Erwin.
C. P. Curtin and family and "Jim" Erwin, Jr., attended the Gordon show and dance at Wheatfield Thanksgiving evening.
Mr. Fred Wolff returned from Battle Creek, Mich., Monday.
Any one looking for a wrestling match for a 195 lb. man, (no one barred), can be accommodated by getting in touch with Chas. Curtin.
Some of our dancing crowd went to Rensselaer Thanksgiving to attend the dance, that wasn't a dance, so journeyed on to Mt. Airy.
Miss Grace Halleck, who is attending Business college at Ft. Wayne, Ind., spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Halleck.
Several of our lads attended church at Kniman last Sunday evening and assisted with the singing.
Mr. Bert Struble and family and Miss Grace Greenwald autoed to Hopkins Park, Ill., Thanksgiving and took dinner with his mother.
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Feldman spent Thanksgiving in Kankakee, Ill., with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Russell.
"Bill" DeCook and Miss Vera True, L. G. Templin and Miss Effie Fairchild attended the Rensselaer-Michigan City football game at Rensselaer Thanksgiving day.
Miss Ann DeCook, who is attending college at Holland, Mich., is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John J. DeCook.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Turquist of Chicago are visiting this week with the Chet Sutton and George Dolson families.
The box social, given by the school Friday evening, was a success in every way. The two short plays given were highly appreciated by the large crowd. When it comes to putting anything over successfully we remove our hat to our principal, Miss Marshall.
Mr. and Mrs. Mell Struble went to visit his mother at Hopkins Park, Ill., this week.
W. C. Hanaway and J. E. Curtin were Hammond goers this week.
Lendert Mak, who was operated upon in a Chicago hospital, is not reported as improving as rapidly as was expected.
Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Enz and daughter, Edith, went to Chicago to attend the live stock exposition and do their holiday shopping this week.
Carl Enz went to Lafayette Monday.
At the box social here last Friday evening, George Hockney, Trustee Fairchild and Bill Boyle of Roselawn beat Manny Bobele's price on the box belonging to his best girl at the social last week—at Tefft when Manny put up $17.50. The three old heads, George, Cliff and Bill figured it out so Bill DeCook paid $27.00 for his best girl's box, and then add the $5.75 that the box cost George in the first place, totaled $32.75.
Jack White, who is working in Chicago, visited home folks here over Sunday.

WHEATFIELD.

A caller at The Review office the other day asked the question "how many subscribers have you, Editor?" And he was readily answered about one-half as many as we have readers.
Mr. and Mrs. Willie Darnier of Harvey, Ill., visited here over Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Darnier.
Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Hendrickson of Kouts were Sunday visitors here and Skeet has an ad in this paper stating that he lost his gloves while at the shooting match here Thanksgiving.
The box social given by the M. E. church here last Friday evening was well attended.

Edward Ledke looks decidedly better since he got his new set of food grinders.

Allen Fendig of Kankakee and his two cousins, the Allen brothers, spent Thanksgiving here with Grandma Allen and Mr. and Mrs. Simon Fendig.

A. S. Barlow left here Monday for a week's visit with relatives at Amboy, Ill.

Charlie Duggleby says, either the little birds have might long ears or somebody is a mighty good guesser.

The Wheatfield Township Farmers' club will hold their next meeting Thursday evening, December 9th. A good attendance is requested.

Elmer Hunsicker returned home last Saturday with an honorable discharge after serving our Uncle Sam for over three years.

Mrs. Schedell of Crown Point was a visitor at the home of Mrs. Martha Marble Thanksgiving.

Jacob Melser and son, Ira, of South Bend, spent several days here last week visiting relatives and friends and part of the time tried their luck hunting.

Pauline Gulbranson of Rensselaer is clerking here this week while Mr. Barlow is taking a week's vacation in Illinois.

Russell Hickam was quite sick a few days last week.

Sometimes when we get our bank account balanced and get the return checks it makes us feel as if we had a whole in our pocket.

According to law the husband is the head of the house. Now please don't misunderstand us—we said "according to law."

The meanest man ever—is the man who stole the editor's last year overcoat and sweater that he expected to do him this winter, and just at the time of year when he needs it most.

This is a good time of year to take down your screens and let the flies out that have been cooped up all summer.

It's no trouble at all to earn a hundred per cent on an investment in this town. Just subscribe for this paper and the job is done.

Up-to-date—"Old King Coal Is A Costly Old Soul."

TEFFT.

Something new at institute December 10th. If you want a real treat, don't miss this. These institutes are getting very popular with a live wire like Miss Harris and the rest of the teachers all pulling together. Even the trustee and the janitor pull with them, too.

Geo. Goar is getting tired of batching. He says, "For goodness sake, ain't anybody going to buzz wood so I can get a square meal once."

Mr. Albert and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Albert, Jr., from Streator, were visiting their daughter and granddaughter, Mrs. Kerr, over Thanksgiving. They went home after reporting a fine time here.

Frank W. Fisher has been on the sick list a few days but is out again.

There are a few that never attend church but something is getting their goat, as Bill Jaff and Chas. White have made a start and they seem to enjoy it.

Morris McCollough and wife, who left for Detroit, are back again and expect to winter at their home on the banks of the Kankakee.

Andy Kerr and family and mother and Grandpa spent Thanksgiving with Chas. Woodward of near Rensselaer.

Mrs. Duggleby, who visited Conrad Meyers in her new home, reported it to be the finest and most up-to-date house in the township.

That's going some, because we sure have some nice homes to compete with the Meyers home. Anyway the credit must go where it belongs. Good for you, Conrad.

Chas. Stalbaum received a letter from George in Nebraska and said the beets were making 12 tons to the acre. At fourteen dollars per ton or 160 dollars per acre. That's sure fine and we wish George all kinds of luck, which we think he has already.

Frank Henly, who came from Davenport, Ia., a few years ago and bought land at Newland, is sure making a success. His onions made around nine hundred bushels per acre this year and Frank is in high spirits all the time.

That Reo Truck man don't know which way to jump as another fellow took his best girl home in a Sedan. Someone gave it away.

Waldy Duggleby and Geo. Meyers, who was working at South Bend, came home for Thanksgiving and could not return as work is very scarce. Anyway they are both husking corn and seem to be working with pleasure. That's what counts.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Nelson of Rush Run, Ohio, landed in town Monday for a few weeks' visit with their parents, Jerome Nelson and family. Ross says there is plenty of work and he has got his diploma as a real blacksmith. Ross used to be a plumber in Rensselaer four years ago.

The corn picking is progressing somewhat slow. The boys don't seem to have the pep they used to have. The price is O. K., but Oh, My, the energy it takes.

The first Community meeting was held Friday night. The Wheatfield band sure did fine and the president, Mr. Hohner, came pretty near getting their wind. Twelve selections were played in rapid succession but they seemed to enjoy it, too. Bill Meyers tried to blow his head off just to show Ethel how much wind he had and Dewey, Oh, Boys. Mrs. Heil was good and did her part as they deserve lots of credit. A real community spirit around this neck of the woods. Tefft will sure be put on the map.

The Tom Hill family, who were so sick, are improving and the neighbors tried to help them and console them to the best of their knowledge.

Luther Albin is able to be out again, although very weak. He is gaining strength and encouragement.

ACUTE INDIGESTION SIEZED HIM SUDDENLY

Well again in less than an hour.
Says Digest Well Tablets
probably saved life.

"While driving home in my car from a big reunion dinner, I was suddenly seized with acute indigestion, and thought my end had come. My family couldn't drive and we were many miles from a doctor. I had in my pocket six Digest Well Tablets, which I took at 5 minute intervals. Relief came very promptly. In less than an hour I felt about 100 per cent again. They saved me from a serious illness, and probably saved my life."
—C. A. Bradock, Warsaw, Ind.

You have never taken anything for indigestion, acid stomach or gas pains, that we believe so quick, sure relief as Digest Well Tablets. Let them help put your stomach in good shape, so you can eat and live in comfort. If your druggist cannot supply you, send 50c for a package prepaid. Money back if they fail you. One Day Doctor Co., Bourbon, Ind.

OFFICIALS DISCUSS AID FOR DISABLED SOLDIERS

Charges of American Legion officers that a "distressing situation" exists in the government's conduct of efforts for the relief of disabled service men, were discussed yesterday at Washington, at an executive session of officials concerned, Col. F. W. Galbraith, national commander of the legion, and a special legion committee. The heads of the war risk insurance bureau, Federal vocational education board, the public health service and the surgeons general of the army and navy attended.

Upon the conclusion of the conference, the legion officers, participating went into a separate executive session to frame legislative recommendations that will be made to Congress concerning the situation.

FILES SUIT ON ACCOUNT.

On November 27 George Humbert filed suit in the Jasper circuit court against Lloyd Landis for the collection of an account. John A. Dunlap is attorney for the plaintiff.

CITY SELLS BONDS.

The $12,000 municipal bonds issued by the City of Rensselaer to pay for a new city building have been purchased by Meyer-Kiser, banking firm of Indianapolis. The city received a premium of $85.

TAXI SERVICE

PHONE
567

Charles Osborne

Some electric washers lift and dip the soiled fabrics in a tub of sudsy water—and it is a good method.

Other electric washers rock and toss the soiled fabrics to and fro in sudsy water—and it is a good method.

The ABC Electric Laundry does both. It does both the lifting and dipping method—and so it combines their advantages.

This Ends Discussion!

If you have been looking at electric washers your mind is muddled concerning whether the lifting and dipping method or the rocking and tossing method is preferable. In fact, both are good. Why not get an ABC Electric Laundry that uses both methods—and so ends discussion?

ABC
Electric Laundry

Easy Terms Make It Easy to Own

K. A. LEE
Phone 62
Do It Electrically.