THE UNIVERSAL CAR

THIS COUNTRY IS GETTING BACK TO PRE-WAR

conditions and the farmer who wants to make money in the future will have to cut the production cost per bushel of his products. To do this he must increase his own capacity and dispose of all excess animal power. The farm is a factory and will pay dividends on modern labor-saving machinery the same as any other factory. Farmers who have kept costs on tractor and horse farming have invariably found that the FORDSON and ASSOCIATED IMPLEMENTS will return a large profit over horses even though the grain fed to horses be at the present low market level. THE CENTRAL SALES CO., of Rensselaer, sewed approximately forty cres of rye this fall using a FORDSON exclusively for power at the following cost per acre:

The ground was plowed, culti-packed, and drilled.
Total Kerosene, 110 gal. at .23c	$25.30
Total Gasoline, 5 gal. at 30c	1.50
Total Motor oil, 8 gal. at 90c	7.20
Total Trans. oil, 2 gal. at 80c	1.60
Total Man hours, 97 hours, at 40c	38.80
Total	$74.40
Depreciation, interest, upkeep	56.67
Total	$131.07

Which equals $3.27 per acre.

DEATH CLAIMS AGED CITIZEN

PROMINENT NEWTON TOWNSHIP FARMER ANSWERS LAST SUMMONS.

John Lonergan, aged resident of Newton township, died at his home near Surrey Thursday evening about 5:00 o'clock. He had not been in good health for more than two years.

He was born in Ireland about eighty-six years ago. He came to the United States when not quite of age. He lived in Chicago for a short time and for three or four years at Chatham, Ill. He then located in Rensselaer and was engaged in the livery and saloon business.

Thirty-six years ago he was married to Nora Murphy. To this union there was born the following children: Thomas Murphy, who lives near Surrey, Mrs. Daniel Morrissey of this city, Anna, John and Edward, who are still members of the home with the mother, who survives. Three children preceded the father in death. Arthur died in infancy, Francis at the age of eleven and George, who passed away about a year ago, was nineteen years old. The family moved to the Newton township farm about thirty-two years ago.

The deceased was a splendid citizen and had won success by industry and uprightness and became the owner of a good farm, the result of the labor of himself and excellent wife.

Funeral services will be held at St. Augustine Catholic church in this city at 10:00 a. m. Saturday and interment will be made in Mt. Calvary cemetery.

YOU SAID IT, HAMLET.

"This is the most unkindest cut of all," said the heavy car dealers when Franklin prices were put down to the medium class. Nobody thinks of spending two thousand dollars anymore without going a little higher and getting the Franklin most miles per day and dollar car.

Doing business without advertising is too much like winking at a pretty proposition in the dark—you know what you're doing but nobody else does.

We don't have to advertise, our satisfied customers do it for us. All we do is sit around and watch what the women are going to pull off next.

Coach Driscoll is mixing up a spicy brand of liniment to be used on Morocco. Come Sunday and watch us rub it in.

MRS. JAMES MOORE DIED LAST NIGHT

The death of Mrs. James Moore, of one mile west of Gifford, occurred at ten o'clock Thursday night and followed the birth of a child. Mrs. Moore was about thirty-eight years of age and was the wife of James E. Moore and the daughter of Charles Lowman.

The deceased is survived by her husband and seven children besides other relatives and friends.

Funeral services will be held Sunday morning at ten o'clock at the Barkley church and interment will be made in the Smith cemetery.

There is the business man who does not advertise and does not believe in advertising. He is no good, pass him by. There is the business man who believes in advertising but does not advertise. He is asleep, if he awakens he may be all right. There is the business man who believes in advertising and advertises. Trade with him for he is wide awake, thoroughly capable, efficient and has the very best goods at the lowest prices. You can trust him. Trade with the firm that advertises. There is a reason.

GOLD STAR BOOK IS NEARLY FINISHED

Final arrangements for the publication of the Memorial-Gold Star volume, the state book commemorating Indiana men and women who died in the service during the world war, will be made at a meeting of the Indiana historical commission Friday. Compilations of the material for the volume has been in progress for months under the supervision of J. W. Oliver, director of the commission, and is now virtually completed. The book will be the first purely gold star volume to be issued by any state and will be made a worthy tribute to the Indiana men and women who made the supreme sacrifice.

The book will contain a picture and a brief biographical sketch of each of the 3,280 men and fourteen women nurses who died during the war. Pictures of more than 3,000 of the men and all of the women have been secured by the commission and the plates made ready for the publication.

The list of the honored dead of the state will be arranged in the book by counties and the county lists will be arranged alphabetically. Five pictures and sketches will be included on a page, making the entire volume have about 600 pages.

Practically all new farming implements at the Arnold sale, December 14.

There will be five head of horses, all bays, excellent work horses, at the Arnold sale, December 14.
