FORDSON TRACTOR MAKES RECORD RUN.
PLOWS FORTY DAYS AND NIGHTS: 900 ACRES WITHOUT REPAIRS

Stopping only for fuel and oil, a FORDSON tractor, owned by N. Korpus of Ludden, Dickey county, North Dakota, recently completed a record run of forty days. Three operators were assigned to the tractor, each working an eight hour shift, thus keeping the tractor in operation 24 hours a day. "Nine hundred acres were plowed without one minute's stop for repairs," says the affidavit received by the Ford Company from the FORDSON owner.

The tractor was equipped with electric lights. No special efforts were made to run a test. The farmer simply obtained his operators and set them to work, with the result that they set a new record.

Last week in this paper we set forth some operating costs, showing that a FORDSON is a MONEY SAVING TOOL FOR THE FARMER TO OWN. The above record of a FORDSON in the hands of an owner shows that the FORDSON is a dependable machine that will do your work with a freedom from repairs and annoyances that can not be equaled.

Next week we will have a word to say about SERVICE.

FAIR OAKS SCHOOLS.

Don't forget the Lyceum Course Thursday night. A splendid program and oysters and other refreshments. Admission 25c and 50c.

The basket ball team swooped down on the quintet at Reynolds Friday night and after one of the best exhibitions put up by the local lads, during which time Ogle and Woods displayed some real class in offensive play, making shots so close as to make one think the ball was bewitched, when, after rolling all around, would fail to drop thru the hoop like a properly trained ball should, and a defense, especially by young Robbins, a sub, that did credit to a veteran, came away with the wrong end of a 41 to 16 score. There was no time after the first half that the game was in doubt, in fact, we had no idea of winning when we went down, but from the beginning to the close, found the boys putting all they possessed into the game. Reynolds has a fast clean bunch that has lost but one game in 15. They are a clean fair crowd that it is a pleasure to meet.

The girls' game, at this place Saturday night, with the Hebron girls, was a hummer from start to finish. The girls put up a fight on both sides that is rarely surpassed in a boys' team. The watchword of both teams seeming to be "Treat 'em rough," and this was certainly carried out to the last word. The score 10 to 3 doesn't indicate very accurate shooting, but it was a game that had to be seen to be appreciated.

Vain Glorification.

For him does not amount to much.

The Reason.
"Miss Peek is fishing for compliments. I think."
"I suppose that is the reason she has been waiting to hear you speak with bated breath."

Another Way.
"The old question, 'Where did he get it?' is being asked now with more energy than ever."
"Yes; it does seem to have considerable more spirit to it."

FRANK K. NEBEKER

Frank K. Nebeker, assistant attorney general in charge of anti-trust prosecutions, has held that the farmers' co-operative organizations are exempt from the application of anti-trust laws, and that the department of justice is without power to act on the withholding of crops from the markets. Mr. Nebeker, however, states that the department will act if prices advance.

IRISH QUIZ TO LEAGUE

Geneva Assembly Asked to Assist in Inquiry.

Rep. Mason Sends Appeal to Induce British to Admit Investigators From United States.

Washington, Dec. 13.—Representative Mason of Illinois made public a cablegram sent by him to Paul Hymans, president of the League of Nations, appealing for support of the league in the effort of the commission of the committee of 100 investigating the Irish question to send a special investigating body to Ireland.

Passports issued by the State department to members of the investigating committee have been refused a visa by the British embassy.

Representative Mason in his cablegram declared that "in the present instance the League of Nations is afforded an extraordinary opportunity to prove to Americans its freedom from British domination by inducing the British government to permit the truth to be known to America as to conditions in Ireland."

London, Dec. 13.—Debate on the government's Irish policy is expected to be opened in the house of commons by liberal leaders next Tuesday.

Announcement of martial law in southwestern Ireland, made by Premier Lloyd George before the house Friday, was accompanied by intimations that debate on the subject was not desired, but it appears probable the lower house of parliament may be called upon to decide whether the cabinet's plans regarding Ireland are to be carried into execution without the requisitance of the legislative branch of the government.

This question, should it come to a vote, would test the stability of the Lloyd George cabinet.

Although the declaration of martial law in Ireland has been decided upon, the door to negotiations between the government and the Sinn Fein is not considered closed.

Comment in the newspapers relative to the government's Irish policy was for the most part restrained, and with the exception of one journal, the government's proposals were nowhere wholly condemned.

The feature of the premier's speech that did not escape notice was the fact he was, in effect, holding an olive branch in one hand and the sword in the other. It evoked some questioning, but generally speaking, was not regarded as banishing hope of success.
