Eye
Dont's

Don't bathe inflamed eyes with cold water; that which is as warm as can be borne is better. Don't expose a window in such a manner that a strong light will strike the eyes on awakening. It isn't above all, have the children sleep so that the morning sun shall shine in their faces to arouse them. Those who have been destroyed by neglect or ill-use; but give them fair treatment, and they will serve faithfully to the end.

They call for aid, come to us and we will do what they want. We have studied the eye and know its needs. Through examination free of charge.

At Knightstown To-Night.

There will be a big demonstration by both the Johnson and Watson men at Knightstown tonight.

The Watson people have secured the opera house and will have several bands and large delegations from neighboring towns. There will be fire works and street parades. The following speakers have been secured: Hon. E. E. Hendee, of Anderson; Hon. Caleb S. Denny, of Indianapolis; Hon. Thomas M. Green, of Rushville; Hon. R. A. Black, of Greenfield; Frank B. Smith, of Brookville. The Johnson men will have street parades and fire works, and will have an open air meeting, being represented by Judge H. C. Fox, Hon. C. C. Binkley, Capt. Lee Yaryan, Senator Shively, Thomas Jessup and Maj. J. S. Ostrander, all of Richmond. Trains have been chartered and hotel accommodations will be taken.

Neither Mr. Johnson nor Mr. Watson will be present at Knightstown as both are engaged at New Castle.

There will be a number of Mr. Watson's friends and supporters go over on the 5:45 train headed by the Greenfield band.

THE JOHNSON-WATSON CONTEST.

No Presidential Contest Has Ever Stirred Henry County as This Congressional Race.

The people of Henry county have done but little the past two weeks except to talk about and work in the race for the Congressional nomination between Henry U. Johnson and James E. Watson. It is the greatest contest of the kind ever in the State, but it will be all settled tomorrow, and no doubt harmoniously.

So far as the contestants are concerned we know it will be. The Journal correspondence today, says that the charges that imported men will get to vote is trash.

In the several voting precincts the voters are so well known that it would be useless for a nonresident to attempt to vote. Furthermore, while the Republicans of this county are terribly in earnest about this election, there is a sentiment for fair play that out-weighs any prejudice in favor of either candidate and it is safe to say that any attempt on the part of either side to introduce into this contest Southern Democratic methods would meet with summary and effective resistance.

Any information here as to the showing of the polls is of the most meager character. Both sides have polled the county and the claims that are made are based on the showing these poll make, but the leaders on both sides are too good politicians to reveal what their books show. It is safe to say, however, that these two polls would show some very glaring discrepancies and it is also safe to say that both polls are far from correct. Men engaged in making the polls agree that it is a much more difficult thing to make an accurate poll as between two candidates within the same party than as between the two parties. So far as the betting shows, the chances of the two candidates are about even.

One bet of $150 even was made last Saturday and several wagers of from ten to fifteen dollars have been made, all at even money.

Trouble Among the Bottle Blowers.

Last night a bottle blower who was sick, went to his boarding house, and by mistake got into the wrong bed, the men who roomed in the room came home about two o'clock drunk and raised a row, driving him out and threatening to shoot him. They pointed revolvers at his head and abused him in several ways.

He at last escaped and came to town after an officer. He appealed to the city Marshal, who refused to go, saying he had no right to go to the country without a warrant. He then went to the Sheriff who refused to go for same reason. He remained in town all night afraid to return home. Warrants are now out for the men, but they have not been served.

Anderson Theatre Company.

At the Opera House tonight the great play "Pawn Ticket 210" will be produced by the Anderson Theatre Company. Several charming specialties will be introduced including the Serpentine dance by Miss Watson. Wednesday night that truly wonderful play "In Old Kentucky" will be presented. A real live horse is used in this great play. There are several exciting incidents in this big production, including the rescue of the horse from the burning stable, and famous race track scene. Miss Watson in full jockey costume, wins the thrilling race on the Kentucky Thoroughbred, "Queen Bess." Matinee Saturday at 2 p.m., 10 cents for everybody.

To The Citizens of Greenfield.

Having implicit confidence in the untried hospitalit of the people of our city, I made an earnest effort to obtain the Semi-Annual State Missionary Convention of the Christian church and was successful in securing it. The convention will be held here on the 21st, 22nd and 23rd of April. There will be present not less than 100 delegates and ministers nor more than 200. The helping Hand Society of the Christian church will entertain all present for dinner and supper each day, and the citizens of our city will be courteously asked to assist in entertaining the convention over night. Being almost a stranger to many of the people of our city, having only been here a short time I hesitate to mention the matter personally to you, and it will relieve me very much to have those who may wish to assist in making those who may attend at home in our fair city, to hand me their names and the number they would be pleased to entertain.

We hope this may be made a matter of reciprocity among the churches as the membership of the Christian church will at any time gladly assist her neighbor churches in entertaining any of their church assemblies.

A rich program has been prepared by the committee. Able men, not only of our own state, but from Ohio and Kentucky will address the people.

You can see me personally, or address Lock Box 563, City.

Yours fraternally,
W. M. GARD,
Pastor Christian Church.

A Woman and a Baby Makes Thing Lively for a Greenfield Man.

Yesterday evening a woman with a young babe in her arms and blood in her eye, came to this city from Indianapolis and started up the street on the hunt of a policeman she spied a deputy Marshal Lynam and demanded that he go with her to the home of Dode Boles who lives on South State street. She said that he was the father of the child, she was carrying and that her daughter was the mother that her daughter was sick in a hospital at Indianapolis, also that Boles had promised to take care of the child but failed to show up and that she had come over to make him keep his promise. Lynam turned her over to city Marshal Scott who showed her to Boles' home and left her. She evidently did not succeed in her undertaking as she left on the 9:25 train taking the child with her. As Boles is a married man and has two children large enough to go to school we imagine there was a lively time at his home.

The Lightning Rod Agent.

The Anderson Theatrical Co. held the boards at the Opera house last night in the play "The Lightning Rod Agent." They had one of the largest crowds of any show here this year. Ed Anderson as the Lightning Rod Agent, was very good. The violin playing of W. H. Cooley was fine. The singing and dancing was also good. The entire company is strong, better than some of the fifty cent companies that have played here this winter. They will appear again tonight in "Pawn Ticket 210."

WILKINSON.

Messrs Walter E. Cooper and Obe Vanduyne started Monday for the State Normal at Terre Haute.

Miss Fannie McCray, of the State University at Bloomington, who has been at home for a few days, returned to school Monday.

Porter H. Cook, who is home from Earlham college, will return next Monday.

Frank Hardy and wife and their daughter, Bessie, of Anderson, were here visiting friends Sunday.

Milam Marshal and family have moved to Indianapolis.

Ira Simmerson has purchased and moved into the Marshal property, lately vacated by them.

Miss Erma Byrket will probably attend the spring term of school at Spiceland.

Five car-loads of ties were loaded from here Saturday.

J. H. Pennington, our druggist, was at Indianapolis Saturday.

Rev. Harter, the M. E. minister and wife, are attending the conference at Richmond.

Miss Ethel Bicknell is teaching a spring term of school with about thirty pupils.
