

WEATHER FORECAST
Fair tonight and Saturday except possibly rain in southeast; frost in north and west tonight

Greencastle Herald.

ALL THE NEWS, ALL THE TIME FOR SIX CENTS A WEEK. PHONE 65.

VOL. 3. NO. 165.

GREENCASTLE, INDIANA, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1908.

SINGLE COPIES 2c.

IS HELD ON $800 BOND

GRAND JURY RETURNS INDICTMENT AGAINST CHARLES A. YOUNG, CHARGING HIM WITH ASSAULT WITH INTENT TO MURDER HIS BUSINESS PARTNER, EDWARD BARR—WAS BEFORE THE JUDGE THIS MORNING.

PRISONER PLEADED NOT GUILTY

Victim of His Vicious Assault is Some Better Today But There is Still Danger That the Wounds Will Prove Fatal—Prisoner And His Brother Furnish Bond—Wife Was in the Court Room.

Chas. A. Young, who on Tuesday, cut and badly injured his business partner, Edward Barr, in a fight in Roachdale, which resulted from argument over the county local option law, was before Judge Rawley this morning to answer to an indictment charging him with assault with intent to kill. The indictment was issued by the Grand Jury.

John H. James represented the prisoner. Young pleaded not guilty to the charge and Judge Rawley fixed the bond at $800. Later the bond was taken to Brazil by Young's brother, who will have it executed there.

Word from Brazil this morning was that Barr, although still in a critical condition, was somewhat better and that he probably will recover from his injuries. Young now regrets his attack on his partner very much and says that had he not been intoxicated the fight never would have occurred. His wife was in the court room this morning when Young was taken before the Judge. She left the court room with her husband and later accompanied him to their home in Brazil.

Dislocated Knee-Cap.

Allice, the 12-year old daughter of John Boling, fell while at school today at the Second Ward, and suffered the dislocation of her knee-cap.

EXPE IC ORDINANCE

IF CITY IS DEFEATED IN SUIT NOW BEING TRIED ALL PERSONS WILL BE PROHIBITED FROM USING THE STREET DRAINS FOR ANY PURPOSE.

GET RULING ON DEMURRER

Judge Rawley Sustains Two Paragraphs of the Plaintiff's Demurrer And Overrules One Paragraph—Case Goes to Trial.

Judge Rawley this morning rendered his decision on the demurrer, filed yesterday by the plaintiff in the case of E. B. Lynch against the city. Judge Rawley stated that the case was very complex, but that certain facts seemed to him clear. It appeared that where the city had constructed a channel for water and this channel had conveyed the water across the property of any other party for a period of twenty years, that the city acquired a right to continue that channel. On the other hand he held that where a city collected in a system of drains the surface water from a considerable area and caused this to flow upon the property of another party the city was liable for damages. This holding makes it plain that the city has a right to the channel down Water Street, but that it is liable for injury done Mr. Lynch by reason of the large volume of water carried there by means of the system of gutters draining the section leading to Walnut Street, provided, of course, that it is shown that such damage exists. The point covered by the answer of the defendants and the demurrer of the plaintiffs was not the real point, however. This is the question of the sewage and the damage done thereby. This question is now before the court. The city acknowledges that the situation is serious, and that the only solution is a sewer system. In the meantime it is probable that a drastic ordinance will be passed forbidding all persons to connect in any way with street drains that empty into sewers such as now exist in some parts of the city. The witnesses were heard this morning. A considerable number had been summoned by the plaintiff and gave evidence as to the lay of the land under discussion, the system of drainage now in use and to the effects of such drainage, and the sewage that was complained of. The case will not be completed today, and perhaps not on Saturday.

AN AMUSING INCIDENT

As the old soldiers, to the number of some score, were standing at the Monon station last evening waiting for the train south, an amusing incident happened. Of the score of veterans a majority were Democrats. Naturally they and their Republican brethren fell into a discussion of politics and especially the recently enacted local option law. In the thick of the discussion a Republican veteran very much the worse for many drinks of that which local option is to prohibit, pushed his way into the crowd, and declared that he was a Republican and very much in favor of county local option. The climax was reached, however, when, striking an attitude, the inebriated man declared that "I and Hanly stand on the same platform." All of which proves that politics makes strange companions.

HUGHES IS OMPLIMENTED

In a recent issue of the Pacific Christian Advocate appeared a long write-up of the character and work of DePauw's bishop-president, Edwin Holt Hughes.

The cover page was adorned with a photograph of the bishop and the entire editorial section was given up to a discussion of Bishop Hughes as a man and a minister. The Advocate said:

Bishop Hughes at rest is in no way a striking looking man. He is small of stature, light in body, with a keen, penetrating eye, lips which would indicate severity and an expression of the mouth which is usually associated with firmness, and the expression of his face would indicate a close, critical, analytic mind which would be severe in its judgment and merciless in its processes of reasoning and relentless in its conclusions. There is an expression of the brows, when first observed, which is usually associated with abstracted thought and selfish purpose. All these might be associated with a very undesirable character, and the first appearance of this man is not reassuring or greatly invited.

Why was he chosen to occupy the most difficult field and to meet the most trying conditions of any man in the episcopacy of the Methodist Episcopal Church, for San Francisco presents more difficult problems and comes nearer being an impossible situation of any place where the church is engaged in an earnest effort to overcome distressing conditions and to promote the reign of righteousness. He is humble enough to bow before truth wherever found, and self-confident enough to be himself under all conditions. Hence, we count it a wise choice, reached by the last General Conference, when they took this alert man, capable of prolonged investigation and untiring application as one of the leaders of our hosts.

HORSE FELL ON THE PORCH

Exciting Runaway on Bloomington Street That Ended in a Spill on Andrew Hanna's Front Steps Late Last Night.

RAN TOO FAST TO MAKE TURN

Andrew Hanna was roused from his slumbers about nine o'clock last night by what he at first supposed was an earthquake. Later he discovered it was only a horse that in a freak runaway had ended its career by falling upon his porch. The horse was owned, so it is said, by Edgar Wood. The vehicle was empty when first seen going north on Bloomington Street. The horse was then running at top speed. At the corner of Bloomington and Washington Streets the animal was unable to make the turn. It crossed Chapman's yard, and still unable to turn, ran upon Andrew Hanna's porch. Here the buggy caught on one of the porch pillars, tearing the harness from the horse, which then slipped and fell against the house, striking with terrific force. Neighbors gathered and the horse was taken to the livery barn, and later was reported none the worse for its frantic run and fall.

NEWS FROM CLOVERDALE

GIVE PROGRESSIVE DINNER

Kappa Kappa Gamma Entertains for The New DePauw Girls From 4 Until 10 O'clock Last Night in a Novel Manner—First Course at the Home of Mrs. Lucy Black.

A MOST DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR

Thursday, October 8, Kappa Kappa Gamma entertained from four until 10 o'clock at a progressive dinner given for the new girls of the "spike." Promptly at four o'clock the Kappas called for their guests and were taken to the home of Miss Helen Black on College Avenue for the first course of the dinner. The new girls blew out lighted candles which had the names of their dinner partner attached to them. The color scheme was red used on each of the tables at which the girls were seated.

From Miss Black's the party was taken to Mrs. Donner's elegant home on Seminary Street where an elaborate dinner course was served, after which Mrs. Donner entertained the girls with several readings. The decorations were in "Bitter sweets."

Mrs. Dr. Tucker's home was also opened to the Kappas where the salad course was served. Cut flowers were used for decorations and favors.

The Kappa house was the last stop. Japanese style was noticeable here, the house and porch having been wired for numerous lanterns. Forty girls made up the party, the out of town guests being Miss Sale of Bluffton, Miss Day of Bedford and Miss Loop of Kokomo.

Hayden & Bridges furnished music for the evening on mandolin and guitar.

PERSONAL

H. C. McKee was at Indianapolis on Monday.

Mrs. J. C. Akers visited at Crawfordsville on Thursday.

Col. Oliver Leonard of Owen County was here on Friday.

J. F. O'Brien made a business trip to Fillmore on Tuesday.

Parks Martin of the State Tax Board was here on Tuesday.

Lem Blue will move to his recently purchased farm after the election.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Peyton are visiting at the home of Asbury McCamack.

Mrs. Fanny Moran arrived home on Monday after a few days' visit at Indianapolis.

Henry Warrum will address the masses of the untirred Democracy at Cloverdale next Wednesday.

Hon. J. H. James and J. P. Hughes will speak at Carter school house on Tuesday, October 13, at 7:30 p. m.

James D. Martin, who recently purchased a furniture store at Bedford has moved his family and house hold effects to that city.

The fire fiend still pursues Mr. A. N. Holloway. A fire broke out on the mill yard last Tuesday and destroyed over $500 worth of seasoned quartered oak lumber.

CIRCUIT COURT NOTES

Judge Rawley this morning rendered his decision in the cases of the Star Jack Company against James Chadd and M. G. Chadd, and the Star Jack Company against F. E. Lawton and Edward W. Parry. Judge Rawley announced that the case was really one of interpretation of contract, and that he believed the contract was one for the sale of agent's privileges and not a bill of sale as had been claimed. As a result the judge found for the defendants in both cases. The cases were argued some two weeks ago.

Mrs. James B. Nelson and her mother, Mrs. Johnson, who is here the guest of her daughter, were in Terre Haute today.

Sworn Semi-Annual Statement

OF THE Central Trust Co.

OF GREENCASTLE, IND.

To Auditor of State, Close of Business Sept. 30, 1908

RESOURCES

Loans	$195,800.00
Overdrafts	3.29
Bonds	39,160.00
Furniture	500.00
Advances to Estates	471.48
Due from Banks and Trust Companies	29,212.01
Total	$265,146.78

LIABILITIES

Capital	$25,000.00
Surplus	9,000.00
Undivided Profits	3,385.35
Demand Deposits	81,408.79
Time Deposits	79,925.14
Guardianship of Estates	96,427.50
Total	$265,146.78

R. L. O'Hair, Pres. S. A. Hays, V. Pres. J. L. Randel, Sec.

ECONOMY IN THE READY-MADE WAIST

With such prettiness and prices as our New Waist Line affords, what woman wants to spend her time making, or having a waist made? Just the yardage and trimming would likely cost as much as these "Finished Products."

The styles this season are particularly attractive. We show both the practical and the dressier effects.

VERMILION'S

Fall Greeting

We take pleasure in announcing our readiness for the fall and winter SHOE business. Everything that's good and desirable in the Footwear line is here, ready for your choosing. With this store it's always "how good" rather than "how cheap."

Our aim has always been to furnish such satisfactory Footwear as would induce our patrons to tie to us—come here themselves and induce their friends to come. It is on this platform that we have built up our large Shoe Business and upon this platform that we base our hopes for the future.

We believe an investigation will convince you that this store gives you the best all around Shoe satisfaction—best Shoes—best styles—and best prices. w 13t d m w f 13t39

Christie's Shoe Store

YOU can wear a suit with two buttons or three; with box back or form fitting; the shoulders are high and broad, the lapels long and wide; the pockets are various—patch, pleated, buttoned flap, plain; trousers and waistcoats with new kinks in cut.

That's the way our line of

Hart Schaffner & Marx

suits looks; a big variety; all good. Many colors and patterns, as well as blue and black.

Suits, $18 to $30. Overcoats, $15 to $30.

This store is the home of Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes

Heavier Underwear in all Grades and Colors, Union and Two Piece--

50c to $3.00 the garment

THE MODEL CLOTHING Co.

THE HERALD

Founded 1868

PUBLISHED EVENING

Except Sunday by the Star and Democrat Publishing Company at 17 and 19 South Jackson Street, Greencastle, Ind.

F. C. TILDEN C. J. ARNOLD
Editors

Terms of Subscription

One Year, in advance $1.00
By Carrier in city, per week 6 cents
Single Copies 2 cents

Advertising Rates Upon Application

WEEKLY STAR-DEMOCRAT

Established 1858
The official county paper, sent to any address in the United States, for $1.00 a year—Payable strictly in advance.

Entered as second class mail matter at the Greencastle, Ind. Postoffice.

Telephone, No. 65

FOR PRESIDENT,

William J. Bryan of Nebraska.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, ..

John W. Kern of Indiana.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET

Governor, ..

Lieutenant Governor, ..

Judge of Supreme Court, ..

Justice of Supreme Court, ..

Attorney General, ..

Secretary of State, ..

Auditor of State, ..

Treasurer of State, ..

Appellate Judge, ..

Reporter Supreme Court, ..

State Statistician, ..

State Superintendent, ..

Putnam County Ticket

Representative, ..

Treasurer, ..

Sherriff, ..

Commissioner, Third Dist, ..

Coroner, ..

Surveyor, ..

Commissioner, 2nd Dist, ..

George E. Raines

JOINT DISTRICT TICKET

FOR CONGRESS

Ralph Moss

FOR PROSECUTOR

James P. Hughes

FOR JOINT SENATOR

F. C. Tilden.

The Star & Democrat has been authorized by State Committee to receive contributions for the campaign.

All money received will be forwarded to the Democratic State Committee, to be used in securing and distributing political literature, paying the expenses of speakers and paying organization. Contributions of $1.00 and upward may be left at this office.

We urge prompt and liberal action. The names of contributors, and the amount given will be forwarded to the State Committee, which will mail a receipt to each person signed by the chairman.

d w t

THAT OPTION SCARE.

While Watson is running hither and yon over the state ruining his fine voice and his reputation for veracity by declaring that the Republican state ticket must be elected in order to prevent the Democrats from receiving the county local option law.

The Star & Democrat has been authorized by State Committee to receive contributions for the campaign.

All money received will be forwarded to the Democratic State Committee, to be used in securing and distributing political literature, paying the expenses of speakers and paying organization. Contributions of $1.00 and upward may be left at this office.

We urge prompt and liberal action. The names of contributors, and the amount given will be forwarded to the State Committee, which will mail a receipt to each person signed by the chairman.

d w t

The Star & Democrat has been authorized by State Committee to receive contributions for the campaign.

All money received will be forwarded to the Democratic State Committee, to be used in securing and distributing political literature, paying the expenses of speakers and paying organization. Contributions of $1.00 and upward may be left at this office.

We urge prompt and liberal action. The names of contributors, and the amount given will be forwarded to the State Committee, which will mail a receipt to each person signed by the chairman.

d w t

The Star & Democrat has been authorized by State Committee to receive contributions for the campaign.

All money received will be forwarded to the Democratic State Committee, to be used in securing and distributing political literature, paying the expenses of speakers and paying organization. Contributions of $1.00 and upward may be left at this office.

We urge prompt and liberal action. The names of contributors, and the amount given will be forwarded to the State Committee, which will mail a receipt to each person signed by the chairman.

d w t

The Star & Democrat has been authorized by State Committee to receive contributions for the campaign.

All money received will be forwarded to the Democratic State Committee, to be used in securing and distributing political literature, paying the expenses of speakers and paying organization. Contributions of $1.00 and upward may be left at this office.

We urge prompt and liberal action. The names of contributors, and the amount given will be forwarded to the State Committee, which will mail a receipt to each person signed by the chairman.

d w t

The Star & Democrat has been authorized by State Committee to receive contributions for the campaign.

All money received will be forwarded to the Democratic State Committee, to be used in securing and distributing political literature, paying the expenses of speakers and paying organization. Contributions of $1.00 and upward may be left at this office.

We urge prompt and liberal action. The names of contributors, and the amount given will be forwarded to the State Committee, which will mail a receipt to each person signed by the chairman.

d w t

The Star & Democrat has been authorized by State Committee to receive contributions for the campaign.

All money received will be forwarded to the Democratic State Committee, to be used in securing and distributing political literature, paying the expenses of speakers and paying organization. Contributions of $1.00 and upward may be left at this office.

We urge prompt and liberal action. The names of contributors, and the amount given will be forwarded to the State Committee, which will mail a receipt to each person signed by the chairman.

d w t

The Star & Democrat has been authorized by State Committee to receive contributions for the campaign.

All money received will be forwarded to the Democratic State Committee, to be used in securing and distributing political literature, paying the expenses of speakers and paying organization. Contributions of $1.00 and upward may be left at this office.

We urge prompt and liberal action. The names of contributors, and the amount given will be forwarded to the State Committee, which will mail a receipt to each person signed by the chairman.

d w t

The Star & Democrat has been authorized by State Committee to receive contributions for the campaign.

All money received will be forwarded to the Democratic State Committee, to be used in securing and distributing political literature, paying the expenses of speakers and paying organization. Contributions of $1.00 and upward may be left at this office.

We urge prompt and liberal action. The names of contributors, and the amount given will be forwarded to the State Committee, which will mail a receipt to each person signed by the chairman.

d w t

The Star & Democrat has been authorized by State Committee to receive contributions for the campaign.

All money received will be forwarded to the Democratic State Committee, to be used in securing and distributing political literature, paying the expenses of speakers and paying organization. Contributions of $1.00 and upward may be left at this office.

We urge prompt and liberal action. The names of contributors, and the amount given will be forwarded to the State Committee, which will mail a receipt to each person signed by the chairman.

d w t

The Star & Democrat has been authorized by State Committee to receive contributions for the campaign.

All money received will be forwarded to the Democratic State Committee, to be used in securing and distributing political literature, paying the expenses of speakers and paying organization. Contributions of $1.00 and upward may be left at this office.

We urge prompt and liberal action. The names of contributors, and the amount given will be forwarded to the State Committee, which will mail a receipt to each person signed by the chairman.

d w t

no matter how the House goes. The question is settled for this election at least.

These men should consult together and avoid the plain inference that someone is either mistaken or lying.

Both can not be right, and Hemenway says there is no danger, and Watson is black in the face with shouting there is. And Hemenway is said to have a reputation for veracity, and Watson, well—we won't say.

The dear old New York Tribune, in discussing the recent dumping of Senator Foraker, says:

When Democrats assert that these disclosures have inflicted irreparable injury on their opponents in Ohio elsewhere they make themselves ridiculous. It is notorious that Senator Foraker has not been in touch or sympathy with Republican principles and policies for several years, and that he strenuously opposed the nomination of Mr. Taft.

But what of the others? What of Senator Aldrich, for instance? He is a Republican, and one so high in the confidence of the party as to be its leader in the Senate, the chairman of what is probably its most important committee, and he is now at work fixing up a currency bill which he hopes to get adopted at the coming session of Congress. Yet Aldrich is a Standard Oil man of the most pronounced type, sustaining the closest relations to the great head of that company, John D. Rockefeller. Is it to be said that this Republican leader and boss is "not in touch or sympathy with Republican principles and policies"? Nor should Mr. Harriman be forgotten. Four years ago he was in closest "touch," if not with Republican principles and policies, certainly with Republican statesmen. President Roosevelt himself wrote to Harriman asking him to come to the White House, saying that after the election he would like to consult with Harriman about certain parts of his message, and reminding him that "we are both practical men."

Further than this Mr. Harriman was asked by Mr. Roosevelt to raise money to be used in the last days of the campaign in New York, and Harriman did raise and give $260,000. Here surely was a close "touch."

Nor is it by any means sure that the connection with Harriman has been broken. For it was Harriman's attorney, Cromwell, who suggested the appointment of Sheldon to be treasurer of Mr. Taft's committee. And then there is Senator Penrose, the representative of industrialism in politics, also a member of the advisory committee, is he out of "Touch with Republican principles and policies"?

The list, it will be seen, is a long one. There are Gary and Frick, of the steel trust, who worked for the nomination of Mr. Taft at Chicago, and whose concern was permitted by the President to take over the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company, its only important competitor. The steel trust, by the way, has never been bothered by this trust-busting administration. These men and interests practically all contributed to the Roosevelt campaign fund four years ago, as did the great insurance companies, and they must all at one time have been "in touch with Republican principles and policies."

The insurance money was never paid back, nor was the money raised and contributed by Harriman returned after he had been pilloried as "an undesirable citizen." The New York World charges that Archbold and Rogers, of the Standard Oil Company, also contributed $100,000 to the Roosevelt campaign fund, and that that money was never returned, though the President wrote a letter denouncing the company and commanding the return of the money. All of which seems to prove that Foraker is not the only sinner. Unless he is, his expulsion from the camp can hardly be said to purge the party of those who are "not in touch or sympathy with Republican principles and policies."—Indianapolis News.

Article 460 of the Dingley tariff law places a tariff of 20 per cent ad valorem upon harvesters, reapers, cultivators, and threshing machines and those things which are used by the farmers to till the earth and bring from the soil the substance which feeds the world. The Dingley law places a tax of 20 per cent ad valorem, but in its charity to the American farmer puts on the free list (article 466), Acorns, dried or undried, but not unground! And the the Dingley tariff law places hats, bonnets, hoods, men, women, and children's clothing upon the taxed list of $2 per hundred and 20 per cent ad valorem. But to show the great kindness of the Dingley law to the American people (article 596) it places Leeches upon the free list! If there is a country in this world in which there are blood suckers and leeches, it certainly is the United States, and if there is any one thing upon which a prohibitive tariff as high as heaven should be placed, it is leeches. But the Dingley law offers them to the American people without taxation! The same law places six cents on a pound of tobacco and that enables the trust to control the market and fix the price not only to the producer, but to the consumer as well. In article 684, however, out of the abundance of an overflowing heart, tobacco stems are placed on the free list!—Salem Democrat.

DEMOCRATIC NEWS

What About the Others?

The dear old New York Tribune, in discussing the recent dumping of Senator Foraker, says:

When Democrats assert that these disclosures have inflicted irreparable injury on their opponents in Ohio elsewhere they make themselves ridiculous. It is notorious that Senator Foraker has not been in touch or sympathy with Republican principles and policies for several years, and that he strenuously opposed the nomination of Mr. Taft.

But what of the others? What of Senator Aldrich, for instance? He is a Republican, and one so high in the confidence of the party as to be its leader in the Senate, the chairman of what is probably its most important committee, and he is now at work fixing up a currency bill which he hopes to get adopted at the coming session of Congress. Yet Aldrich is a Standard Oil man of the most pronounced type, sustaining the closest relations to the great head of that company, John D. Rockefeller. Is it to be said that this Republican leader and boss is "not in touch or sympathy with Republican principles and policies"? Nor should Mr. Harriman be forgotten. Four years ago he was in closest "touch," if not with Republican principles and policies, certainly with Republican statesmen. President Roosevelt himself wrote to Harriman asking him to come to the White House, saying that after the election he would like to consult with Harriman about certain parts of his message, and reminding him that "we are both practical men."

Further than this Mr. Harriman was asked by Mr. Roosevelt to raise money to be used in the last days of the campaign in New York, and Harriman did raise and give $260,000. Here surely was a close "touch."

Nor is it by any means sure that the connection with Harriman has been broken. For it was Harriman's attorney, Cromwell, who suggested the appointment of Sheldon to be treasurer of Mr. Taft's committee. And then there is Senator Penrose, the representative of industrialism in politics, also a member of the advisory committee, is he out of "Touch with Republican principles and policies"?

The list, it will be seen, is a long one. There are Gary and Frick, of the steel trust, who worked for the nomination of Mr. Taft at Chicago, and whose concern was permitted by the President to take over the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company, its only important competitor. The steel trust, by the way, has never been bothered by this trust-busting administration. These men and interests practically all contributed to the Roosevelt campaign fund four years ago, as did the great insurance companies, and they must all at one time have been "in touch with Republican principles and policies."

The insurance money was never paid back, nor was the money raised and contributed by Harriman returned after he had been pilloried as "an undesirable citizen." The New York World charges that Archbold and Rogers, of the Standard Oil Company, also contributed $100,000 to the Roosevelt campaign fund, and that that money was never returned, though the President wrote a letter denouncing the company and commanding the return of the money. All of which seems to prove that Foraker is not the only sinner. Unless he is, his expulsion from the camp can hardly be said to purge the party of those who are "not in touch or sympathy with Republican principles and policies."—Indianapolis News.

Article 460 of the Dingley tariff law places a tariff of 20 per cent ad valorem upon harvesters, reapers, cultivators, and threshing machines and those things which are used by the farmers to till the earth and bring from the soil the substance which feeds the world. The Dingley law places a tax of 20 per cent ad valorem, but in its charity to the American farmer puts on the free list (article 466), Acorns, dried or undried, but not unground! And the the Dingley tariff law places hats, bonnets, hoods, men, women, and children's clothing upon the taxed list of $2 per hundred and 20 per cent ad valorem. But to show the great kindness of the Dingley law to the American people (article 596) it places Leeches upon the free list! If there is a country in this world in which there are blood suckers and leeches, it certainly is the United States, and if there is any one thing upon which a prohibitive tariff as high as heaven should be placed, it is leeches. But the Dingley law offers them to the American people without taxation! The same law places six cents on a pound of tobacco and that enables the trust to control the market and fix the price not only to the producer, but to the consumer as well. In article 684, however, out of the abundance of an overflowing heart, tobacco stems are placed on the free list!—Salem Democrat.

DEPAUW NEWS

TEAM IN ROUTINE PRACTICE UNRULY FRESHMEN ACT UP

VARSITY GRINDS OUT HARD WORK YESTERDAY AFTER-NOON.

INJURIES ARE NOW HEALING

The matter of the permanent lineup for the 1908 football team still remains mere conjecture as Coach Brown continues to mix the scrubs and subs into the varsity ranks. At yesterday's practice Schladerman and LeVan were each worked out at left half.

With a new set of signals the varsity tore through the scrubs yesterday in championship style. The coach is determined to remedy the fault of the Indiana contest and insists on a hard line charge with every offensive play.

The squad is in good condition now, being practically recovered from the bruises of Saturday's game. Dewey has completely recovered from his injured rib of last week but Harmon is still bothered by a bruise on the hip received in the Indiana game.

Scrimmage practice will probably be a part of each workout for some time to come.

GIVE STATE CROSS-COUNTRY

DePAUW RECEIVES AN INVITATION TO PARTICIPATE IN NOTRE DAME EVENT.

WILL MOST PROBABLY ACCEPT

Coach Brown yesterday received an invitation from Notre Dame officials to participate in a cross country race which is to be held at Notre Dame on November 24. It is probable that DePauw will be represented although the coach said last night that he did not know of men who could be sent to the meet.

Five gold medals will be presented to the first five men and a large silver loving cup will go to the college winning the most points. It is probable that the larger percentage of Indiana colleges will be represented in the event and the coach is anxious that the Methodist school send a team. Within a short time he will issue a call for candidates and will begin to train his team. All entries are to be in by November 17.

The letter which was received yesterday was not very explicit in regard to the details but it is assured that the event will be emphasized by the Catholic school and will attract not a little attention throughout Indiana.

MUSIC AND ART

Several papers have made favorable mention within the last few days of the playing of Miss Helen Birch of the Music faculty of Knox college, Galesburg, Ills. Miss Birch is a graduate of our own School of Music, class of '96. She has been engaged continuously in teaching and studying since her graduation—pursuing her own work in Europe as well as in America. She is one of our thoroughly successful musicians, whether from the standpoint of her own playing or from that of her teaching.

Peace Association Meets.

The Peace Oratorical Association met last night in Plato Hall. The association held a mere business meeting. The members discussed plans for the coming year. They decided to hold bi-monthly meetings. At the meeting to be held Friday night a week, Miss Minnetta T. Taylor will talk on some phase of the peace movement.

UNDER CLASSES ARE EYEING EACH OTHER VERY, VERY CLOSELY.

THE SOPHOMORES ARE RIDICULED

Notwithstanding the emphatic rules to the contrary there are many indications that the buoyant spirits of the underclassmen can not be held in restraint and a class scrap will be in order this year. Already both classes are active, perpetrating many harmless pranks upon each other but things have not gone too far owing to the warnings and sentiment of upper classmen against such misdemeanors.

Yesterday morning several posters appeared in various public places supposedly written by Freshmen in ridicule of the Sophs. Some of these were immediately torn down. Not long ago several Freshmen were caught and frightened into supporting the Sophomores. Such things have been of frequent occurrence.

Every thing points to the fact that class feeling is running high, and the enthusiasm at chapel is only an indication of the hidden feelings of the two classes.

MAY ABOLISH BASKETBALL

ATHLETIC AUTHORITIES THINK THE GAME IS TOO EX-PENSIVE.

FINAL DECISION NOT MADE YET

It is rumored that the athletic authorities may take basketball out of the athletics program of the university this year. The reason assigned for such a movement is the lack of facilities for the game at DePauw while track athletics in the spring would be greatly built up by the extra financial saving due to the elimination of the winter game.

The sum paid last year for the use of the opera house is considered as entirely unreasonable considering the poor floor it makes for the game. Last winter the use of the floor cost the athletic association $230 which is $70 more than was paid during the season before. The proposed plans would therefore place track work on a startlingly successful financial basis.

Despite the unfavorable prospects baskets will be placed on the tennis courts and practice started there until the opera house situation is fully settled.

LAW CLUB IS ORGANIZED

FORTY-ONE STUDENTS CREATED NEW ORGANIZATION LAST NIGHT.

Forty-one enthusiastic aspirants to the law profession met last night at the Deke house and made temporary plans for the organization of a Law Club. Harold W. Bryan was elected president, Guy L. Elwell, vice-president, Wilbur J. Ward, secretary, Claud Overman, treasurer. The officers of the club are to constitute an executive committee to draw up a constitution and submit it to the club at its next meeting which will be held next Thursday night.

The generous response to the call of those who were intending to enter the profession more than met the expectations of the leaders of the club. President Bryant announces that active work will be commenced as soon as the constitution and credential committee has met and decided upon the specific work that will be taken up this term.

New Motion Pictures And Dissolving Views

With Song at OPERA HOUSE, TO-NIGHT. Change of program each evening. Good Music.

Admission 10 Cents. Children 5 Cents.

THIS IS THE TIME FOR

Fruits and Fresh Vegetables

We have them—the choicest on the market. We will please you if you give us an order.

QUIGG & COOK, Grocers

PHONE 90

Successors to T. E. Evans

MONEY TO LOAN

On personal property, leaving the same in your possession.

We will be at our office in the Allen Bldg., over American Express Co.'s office, on Thursday of each week.

BRAZIL LOAN COMPANY

CREIGHTON WANTS GAME

CREIGHTON COLLEGE WRITES FOR A CONTEST IN OMAHA ON OCTOBER 24.

CHALLENGE MAY BE ACCEPTED

Manager Jay Carpenter yesterday afternoon received a communication from authorities of Creighton College, Omaha, Neb., asking for a game with DePauw to be played at Omaha on October 24. Whether or not the challenge will be accepted is a matter of conjecture. However, Coach Brown is anxious to take his men on the trip and thinks that the advertisement received will be worth the trouble.

Immediately after he had received the letter Manager Carpenter and Coach Brown consulted Dr. Seaman, treasurer of the athletic board as to the advisability of accepting the offer. Vice-president Gobin was asked for an opinion and it was decided that because of the unusually long trip, faculty action would be required. Dr. Gobin will call for a meeting of the faculty either this afternoon or tonight and the matter will be decided then.

DePauw will not consider the proposition unless the Western school guarantees expenses, which will aggregate some $600, and it was inferred from the import of the letter received yesterday that this would be done.

Where Bullets Flew.

David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., a veteran of the civil war, who lost a foot at Gettysburg, says: "The good Electric Bitters have done me more than five hundred dollars to me. I spent much money doctoring for a bad case of stomach trouble, to little purpose. I then tried Electric Bitters, and they cured me. I now take them as a tonic, and they keep me strong and well." 50c at the Owl Drug Store

Too Much For One.

"I am looking for my son," said a sharp featured woman recently entering an office building in Washington, where she found the janitor sitting at the entrance tipped back in a chair. "Have you seen him? He's a tall, slim boy."

"Very tall, was he?" asked the janitor.

"Very and slender."

"I think I saw him here a minute ago."

"Where was he?" demanded the woman.

"Well, madam," replied the janitor, "as nearly as I could make out, he was on the first and second floors."

Lippincott's.

A Healthy Family.

"Our whole family has enjoyed good health since we began using Dr. King's New Life Pills, three years ago," says L. A. Bartlett, of Rural Route 1, Guilford, Maine. They cleanse and tone the system in a gentle way that does you good. 25c, at the Owl Drug Store.

Horace—Some men act like perfect fools when they are in love. Evelyn—Yes, and a great many more do not wait even for that excuse.

INTERURBAN TIME TABLE.

EAST BOUND

Lv. G. C. Lv. T. H.

6 local .. 6:05 am

8 local .. 7:15 am

10 local .. 8:15 am

102 limited .. 9:40 am

14 local .. 10:17 am

16 local .. 11:15 am

104 limited .. 12:40 pm

20 local .. 1:17 pm

22 local .. 2:15 pm

106 limited .. 3:40 pm

28 local .. 4:17 pm

32 local .. 5:15 pm

108 limited .. 6:40 pm

38 local .. 7:17 pm

42 local ar. 8:15 am

46 local lv. 8:17 am

50 local .. 11:15 pm

52 local ar 12:15 am

10:30 pm

WEST BOUND

Lv. G. C. Lv. Indp.

7 local .. 5:05 am

9 local .. 6:42 am

11 local .. 7:42 am

15 local .. 8:42 am

101 limited .. 9:45 am

17 local .. 10:42 am

21 local .. 11:42 am

103 limited .. 12:35 pm

27 local .. 1:42 pm

31 local .. 2:42 pm

105 limited .. 3:35 pm

Driving it home—
One dollar a week
buys a "Buck's"
stove or range.

You surely can't afford to miss this opportunity if you are in need of a stove or range.

It is economy of fuel, beauty of design, lasting quality and an unprecedented number of conveniences that have placed "Buck's" stoves and ranges in a class by themselves.

And they cost no more than the ordinary kind.

12 and 14 NORTH JACKSON ST.

TELEPHONES 89 and 108

COUNTY NEWS

As Reported by Hustling Correspondents.

COATESVILLE

Born to George Walton and wife, Sept. 6, a 12 pound boy.

John Havens of New Winchester is drilling a public well.

Mary Greenlee was brought home from Plainfield on Monday suffering with appendicitis. It is reported she will be operated on, Wednesday.

The ice cream supper and band concert given in the new school house Saturday night was well attended. About $35 was taken in, part of which will be used to purchase a flag. The remainder to go towards a new piano.

Quite a number from around here attended the funeral of Mrs. Hannah Benbow at Stilesville on Tuesday.

New crossings have been put in front of each of the three churches. Mrs. Snoddy is visiting her son.

MALTA

Mrs. Sam Campbell has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Martha Woods, in Greencastle the past week.

Mr. Jerry Nichols and family, Mrs. Jess Elliott visited Mr. Simon Lisby last Friday.

Lottie Reed and wife of Independence, Kansas, visited Mr. Will Shucks last Saturday night.

Mrs. Alice Ransom has been sick but is better at present.

Mrs. Rebecca Shuck visited her mother, Mrs. Woods at Greencastle last Friday.

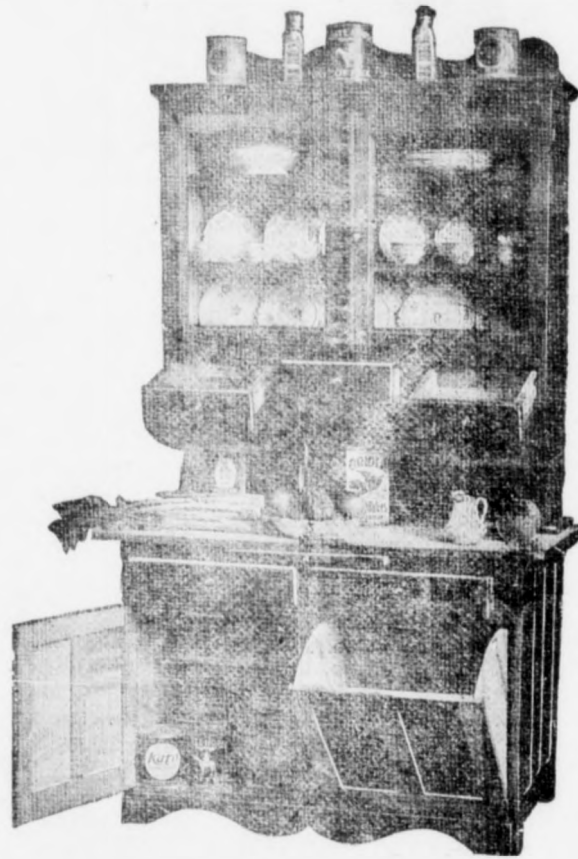

Several from this place attended church at Fillmore last Sunday.

Len Havens took a trip to Morris-town last Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Lucy Garrett and Mrs. Jo Garrett went to Coatesville last Saturday.

Roy Phillips and wife visited Fred Siddons Saturday night and Sunday.

SPECIAL

This up-to-date Kitchen Cabinet with tilting bins, regular price

$14.00, for

$13.00

THIS IS AN OPPORTUNITY.

The same cabinet with 3 drawers instead of tilting bins, regular price $13.00, at $12.00

Visitors at Emory Nichols' last Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Reed of Kansas, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Ruark, Mrs. Duncan and Mrs. Havens.

Mrs. Anna Goodwin, Mrs. Maria Campbell and Mrs. Rebecca Shuck attended the fair at Greencastle last week.

Glen Duncan works with the hay balers, and thinks it beats going to school.

People of this place are busy sowing wheat after the rain.

Ethel Smith is on the sick list. Clay Robinson and Fred Siddons are making preparations to go to South Dakota next month.

MARION TOWNSHIP

Indiana is having one of the greatest droughts that our oldest settlers can remember. All small streams having dried up. People are now driving their stock for miles to get water. Most of the wheat that has been sown has been in poor shape and has dried up. There is just enough moisture in the ground to sprout wheat, so, unless we get rain soon wheat that is in the ground will soon perish for want of moisture.

The farmer that broke his ground deep and plowed deep and late has

R. R. No. 1 Reelsville.

Mrs. Ada Newman has moved to Greencastle.

Charles Johnson, the Vandalla operator has moved to the Newcomb house.

Clyde Hutcherson has sold his house and lot just north of town to Wm. Boone and will move in with his father-in-law, Ed Rogers.

McMurry has rented a house and seven acres near King's school house and will move there in the near future.

Dr. Mercer lost his driving mare by death Saturday.

Levy Sears is sowing wheat. Mrs. Cahill of Lena who is visiting here called on Etta Nelson Saturday.

Corn cutting is the order of the day. Mr. Benfield's mother and sister are moving in the house owned by Ada Newcomb.

The funeral of Mr. Low who died two miles northwest of here was held at the M. E. Church Sunday. It was the largest ever held in Reelsville and was conducted by Rev. Kirk of the Christian Church. Burial was at Reelsville Cemetery.

There was a surprise dinner at M. B. Gilton's on Sunday. Those from a distance were Rev. Blue and wife of Danville, Mrs. Jane Gilton, Mrs. Beck and daughter of Knightsville, James Miles, wife and son and Wm. Beck, wife and daughter of Brazil, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hardisty of Perth. All stayed late in the evening and report a good time. John Urton is at home this week cutting corn.

George Gilton who has been visiting at Brazil for three months is at home.

TARBUTON BRANCH

Some of our farmers are just now sowing their wheat.

James Trail and wife of Mt Pleasant spent one day last week at Milton McCorkle's.

L. R. Chism and wife were called to Maysville one day last week by the illness of their aunt, Mrs. J. B. Bishop; upon returning home Mrs. Chism suffered an attack of heart failure, requiring the attention of a physician.

George Gowin has purchased a farm east of Pinecastle and has moved most of his property to it but he don't intend to leave Monroe Township until after the election.

John Lewis of Linden made a visit to this neighborhood last week.

Brax Ellis and wife, enterprising merchants of Bainbridge, visited at W. W. Boardman's on Sunday.

Roy Hanks who has been confined to the bed for quite a while with a lame knee, has been suffering considerably the past week.

Miss Mary Miller left last week for Lafayette where she will take an eight weeks' course in Lafayette Business College. She will board with W. D. Colliver's who recently went from Bainbridge to put their son and daughter in Purdue.

Mrs. Dora Davis has been on the sick list.

Harry Shoemaker who brakes on the Monon has been taking a vacation with home folks, where he has been suffering with a bad case of ivy poison.

Milt Ford and wife spent last Friday night with their daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Grinstead at Greencastle.

Wiley and Charles Davis will make a public sale at the Wm. Cox farm on October 13, preparatory to going to the southwest to locate.

Ross Hanks is sowing wheat for J. T. Miller.

Mrs. Ray Sallust of Mt. Meridian has been with her parents E. J. Proctor and wife the past week.

Mrs. Daisy Williams and Master Wm. Priest, who have been indisposed are reported better.

Ray Miller went with the Bainbridge band to play for the Hospital Fair last week.

W. W. Boardman sold a mule to Ora Day of Cedar Heights last week.

Mrs. James Miller and Mrs. Ross Hanks visited Mrs. A. C. White at Linedale on Thursday.

Jasper Miller sold a colt to Fred Nutgrass this week.

W. D. Colliver is here from Lafayette looking after farming interests.

Since our last report quite an improvement has taken place along the branch: Aaron Jett's new residence has reached completion.

Mrs. Charles Huffman and cousin were visiting relatives here last week.

Mrs. Frank Ford of Bainbridge and sister, Mrs. Alta Hector of Chicago spent one day here last week at J. N. Miller's.

Jacob Huffman has had his house remodeled which is about ready for occupancy.

Mrs. B. F. Heaney went to Poplar Springs on Monday where she purchased pears.

Aden Hanks is hauling the gravel for the new school building at Bainbridge.

S. J. Wain and wife of Floyd Township spent Tuesday of this week at Wm. Boardman's.

WALNUT VALLEY

The farmers are through sowing wheat.

The meeting at Long Branch Sunday resulted in two additions to the church.

Joe Boswell and family visited Charley Key's on Sunday.

Carry Payne visited his brother Dallas Payne near Lena on Sunday.

Several attended the Democratic

NEW RETAIL LUMBER YARDS and PLANING MILL

North College Avenue,
South of the Railroad Tracks

We can furnish your house patterns COMPLETE, including DOORS, SASH, and GLASS. We have an EXPERT ESTIMATOR and DRAUGHTSMAN in our employ, who will DRAW UP YOUR PLANS FREE OF CHARGE.

We also handle the famous LAWRENCE PAINTS and FLINTOID ready PRE-PAIRED ROOFING.

LET US FIGURE WITH YOU.
You do not have to cross the tracks to reach our yards.

C. H. BARNABY

Big Four Route

OCTOBER BULLETIN

LEXINGTON, KY. AND RETURN

KENTUCKY HORSE BREEDERS ASSOCIATION
Tickets sold October 5th to 15th.
DENVER AND RETURN ANNUAL CONVENTION
NATIONAL WOMAN'S CHRISTIAN TEMPERANCE UNION

Tickets on sale October 15th to 23rd, inclusive.
ANNUAL CONVENTION AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR. Tickets sold Nov. 4th to 10th, inclusive.
NEW ORLEANS AND RETURN CHRISTIAN CHURCH CONVENTION. Oct. 6, 7 and 8. Good returning October 24.

COLONIST TICKETS CALIFORNIA, MEXICO, BRITISH COLUMBIA AND POINTS IN THE WEST AND SOUTH. On sale daily to Oct. 31, 1908.

HOME SEEKERS' RATES To the WEST, NORTHWEST, SOUTHWEST, MICHIGAN, MEXICO and BRITISH POSSESSIONS.

For detailed information see Agent, "BIG FOUR ROUTE" H. I. RHEIN, G. P. A., Cincinnati, Ohio. G. P. O. 73 H. 80 Tu St

KILL THE COUGH AND CURE THE LUNGS

WITH Dr. King's

New Discovery

FOR COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, AND ALL THROAT AND LUNG TROUBLES.

GUARANTEED SATISFACTORY OR MONEY REFUNDED.

PATENTS

60 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

TRADE MARKS, DESIGNS, COPYRIGHTS & C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether a invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. HANDBOOK on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents. Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York

Branch Office, 55 F St., Washington, D. C.

PURE Manufactured ICE

We are prepared to serve our patrons with a good quality of manufactured ice every day.

CALL PHONE 257

GARDNER BROS

Would Mortgage the Farm.

A farmer on Rural Route 2, Empire, Ga., W. A. Floyd by name, says:

"Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured the two worst sores I ever saw; one on my hand and one on my leg. It is worth more than its weight in gold. I would not be without it if I had to mortgage the farm to get it." Only 25c, at the Owl Drug Store.

Pineules

30 days' treatment for $1.00. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

or Sale by Badger & Green.

for the Kidneys, Bladder and Rheumatism.

RELIEVES BACK-ACHE

Boys that Learn a Good Trade are better equipped for success than those that have only an abundance of money. Their future is more secure. THE WINONA TECHNICAL INSTITUTE TRADE SCHOOLS give boys a mastery of the following trades: Foundry, Printing, Lithography, Tile Setting, Painting, Machine Trades, Engineering Practice, Pharmacy, Chemistry, Brick-laying and Carpentry. Ask us about our plan under which you can pay for your training after securing a good position.

W. C. SMITH, DIRECTOR, 1640 E. Michigan St. WINONA TECHNICAL INSTITUTE, INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL HAPPENINGS

What Greencastle People and Their Friends Are Doing

Asa Black is in Putnamville today.

Miss Ratcliff is ill at the Tri Delta house.

A. O. Lane has gone to Houston, Heights, Texas.

Clyde and Clarence Buhs have gone to Missouri.

James T. Denny was in Fillmore on business today.

W. P. Ledbetter was in Indianapolis on business today.

Mrs. Charles Crosby of Roachdale is in the city today.

Miss Mattie Crouch spent the day in Indianapolis today.

Smith Parker was lonesome north of the city is seriously ill.

Miss Ethel Butcher will spend Sunday in Connorsville.

Mrs. Charles Broadstreet is visiting Indianapolis friends.

Born to Prof. and Mrs. John Foreman this morning a son.

Miss Mary Denman is home from an extended visit in Texas.

D. L. Vandament is spending a few days in Elizabethtown.

Mrs. C. C. Hurst entertained the Ladies Whist Club this afternoon.

Mrs. J. C. Harris has returned from a visit with Indianapolis friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John Michael of Bainbridge are spending today in the city.

Elijah Shewer of Barnard is transacting business in the city today.

Miss Verda Knox is spending a few days with home folks at Ladoga.

Mrs. Pete Stoner and little son, John Halbert, were in Indianapolis today.

J. W. Cookerly of Walla Walla, Washington, spent today in Greencastle.

Mrs. Charles Cawley is the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Gaynor at Logansport.

Miss Helen MacNeil of Danville, Ill., came today for a visit with Theta sisters.

Mrs. Eglston of Belleclare, Michigan, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Frank Stiles.

H. F. Shoptaugh attended the birthday dinner of Mrs. James Curtis at Putnamville today.

Miss Dyer Lemon will go to Indianapolis tomorrow to visit home folks for a few days.

Charles Cawley and sister, Miss Florence, left today for a few weeks' visit in South Dakota.

Miss Bethena Vandament went today to Bedford to attend a convention of the W. C. T. U.

Miss Mary Ibach of Hammond comes tomorrow to visit her sister, Ann, and Theta sisters.

Miss Eleanor Werneke returned to Terre Haute this afternoon after a visit with her uncle, H. S. Werneke.

Asa Black and Miss Pearl O'Hair attended the birthday dinner of Mrs. James A. Curtis at Putnamville today.

Prof. Isaac Doty of New York City is expected here for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Doty.

Wm. Kreigh is having a couple of tenant houses built on his lot on the corner of Chestnut and 10th streets.

Mr. and Mrs. David Skelton living out of town went to Terre Haute today for a visit with their son, George Skelton.

You are Cordially Asked

To come in and see our new fall suitings, they will serve to give you a CORRECT impression of the season's best styles.

Our styles are the styles of TODAY and the individuality of our clothes emphasizes the beauty of the fabric.

Sutherland

Will Lockridge is in Indianapolis.

Dael Woof of Marion is pledged Delta U.

Miss Florence Cawley is visiting in South Dakota.

Mrs. Frances Cheek was in Indianapolis today.

Miss Lenore Ford of Kokomo is visiting Theta sisters.

Mrs. Minnie White of Chicago is the guest of Mrs. H. M. Smith.

Miss Susie Talbot will come from Elwood this evening to spend the week-end with her parents here.

Mrs. Scribner of Russellville returned home today after a visit with her sister, Mrs. John Dodd here.

John and Dalby Donohue have returned to Indianapolis after completing their work on the college library.

Mrs. Clay, Reeves, Mrs. Rosa Reeves and Miss Leona Sallust of Mt. Meridian went to Terre Haute today for a visit.

David Hostetter, Democratic candidate for Representative, was here today from his home in the north part of the county.

Miss Edna Hamilton returned to her work at Chicago today after a month's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hamilton here.

Rev. W. H. Brown was in New Maysville yesterday. He was called there to conduct the funeral service of Mrs. John Bishop of that place.

Mrs. Harry Wilson of Cleveland, who has been here the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Arnold, will leave tomorrow morning for her home.

John Scribner of San Francisco returned today to Russellville where he is visiting his mother, Mr. Scribner has been the guest of his aunt, Mrs. John Dodd.

Mrs. Sarah Hillis, Mrs. Bascom O'Hair and Mrs. Fred Goodwine went to Putnamville today to attend a surprise birthday dinner given for Mrs. James A. Curtis.

Mrs. Grace Hoagland Strand who has been here with her mother, Mrs. David Badger, during the latter's illness, returned this afternoon to her home in Terre Haute.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Arnold delightfully entertained at six handed euchre last night in honor of Mrs. Harry Wilson of Cleveland, who is here the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. J. Arnold.

J. E. Florea of Eldorado, Kan., his wife and daughter, Mrs. Cour, and her two children and Mrs. P. A. Allen, of St. Louis are spending several days with B. S. Harris. Mr. Florea and party will leave for home on next Monday.

James L. Hamilton is preparing to build a handsome new home on his lot recently purchased of Wm. Kreigh. The excavation is already made on the lot south of Mr. Kreigh's residence and the foundation is to be laid at once.

WANT AD COLUMN

Lost—Leather tan colored pocket-book. Name of L. W. Otto, Jeweler, containing $3.25. Finder leave at Herald office. It.

Lost—Gray beaded purse, Wednesday afternoon between square and non station. Reward if returned to Hamilton music store. If

For Rent—7 room house just east of W. L. Denman's residence. Phone 389.. 3t63h chg

For Rent—6 room house, 3 blocks from public square, electric lights and furnace. Inquire at 201 N. Jackson St. 3t63

Rooms for Rent—One nicely furnished room, with bath, electric lights and furnace. 629 E. Washington St. 3t61

WANTED—Girl to do general housework in small family. Call on Mrs. R. J. Gillespie, west Walnut street 3t

"I hope you came out of that last horse trade of yours with a clear conscience."

"Yes," answered Si Simling, "but I kind o' worried me. My conscience is so unusually clear that I can't help feelin' I must o' got the wust o' the trade."—Washington Star.

Monkeys Like Scrapping.

"Monkeys are in a class by themselves," said the circus man. "If one of them has red hair he is sure to be a dandy scrapper. The best fighter is always the leader. They hang together and bow and scrape before the boss just like a good many people. Monkeys with red faces and flat heads will whip the life out of those smaller than they are, but will run like the wind when it comes to an even break. A monkey riot is a funny spectacle. Even in the same cage you will find groups herded together as if there was some class distinction and the lines were drawn tightly. If two of the big ones come together in a row the others generally stand off and let them have it out, but if any of the little ones get to scrapping then the father and mother are apt to mix in, and the next step is a general row. We separate them by turning on the hose and punish them by locking up the den so that they cannot get any peanuts from the crowd and hold back their meals. This plan puts them on their good behavior for awhile at least. The monkey likes to eat and likes to be noticed."

Slightly Mixed.

They had just set up housekeeping and were working on the plan of economy. The bathtub needed a coat of varnish. He promised to attend to it if she would order the varnish.

"You'll find the varnish in the closet with the groceries, dear," she said a day or so later, "and the can opener in the knife drawer."

He opened the can and, according to his contract, applied the coat of varnish and then left it to dry.

The soup for dinner that day had to be abandoned, for somehow it possessed a peculiar paint shop odor that was nauseating. After dinner he took her to inspect his work on the bathtub. Now that it had dried it had a certain unnatural appearance. The top and sides were streaked, and here and there little lumps clung to it.

"The man said that was the best varnish," she explained, taking up the can of varnish for an examination, "but—why, dear, you have varnished the bathtub with the ox tail soap!"

"Then it was the varnish we ate, dear," he added, horror stricken. —Lippincott's.

A Model Hotel "Boots."

It was in a Dublin hotel, and as I closed the bedroom door, says a writer in the Manchester Guardian, I noticed that the end of one of my boot laces was inside the room, the boot to which it was attached having been placed as usual outside. When I awoke next morning the boot lace end was still there, and I opened the door expecting to find that the boots had not been cleaned, but I was wrong. A very careful hotel servant, a very model among "boots," had found the lace tightly gripped by the door and rather than disturb me had carefully removed it from the lace holes and carried away the boot. Presently I heard a quiet noise outside the door. The model boots had brought my boots back again and was industriously relacing that one which he had unlaced.

Cheese In the Middle Ages.

Cheese must have been a rather dear or scarce article of food in 1502, for it is recorded in the "Black Books" of the Honorable Society of Lincoln's Inn that at Easter term, 1502, it was "agreed by the governors and benchers of this term that if any one of the society shall hereafter cut cheese immoderately at the time of dinner or supper or shall give cheese to any servant or to any other or shall carry it away from the table at any time he shall pay 4 pence for each offense. The butlers of the society shall present such defaulters weekly under pain of expulsion from office."—Law Times.

Her Test.

"When a young man proposes you should always be careful and test his love," cautioned the conservative chapter.

"But I go one better, auntie," twittered the pretty girl. "Do you see this tiny bottle?"

"Yes. Does it contain perfume?"

"No; it contains acid. I test the engagement ring."

Not Very Funny.

"I did my best to be entertaining," said the young man in a voice of sorrow.

"Did you succeed?"

"I'm afraid not. I recited Hamlet's soliloquy. She looked at me reproachfully for several seconds and then exclaimed, 'I don't think that's very funny.'—London Telegraph.

His Conscience.

"He's forever prating about what his conscience tells him. What does his conscience tell him, anyway?"

"Apparently it usually tells him what awful sinners his neighbors are."—Catholic Standard and Times.

Where She Gets Her Ideal.

She—I wonder if you are just the kind of man I want. He—What kind of man do you want? She—I can hardly describe him to you. He—Don't try. What's the name of the book?—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

To Hold Him.

Nan—That's a beautiful solitaire Dick gave you. I wonder if you know what a fickle young man he is? Fan—Indeed I do! That's why I made him give me such an expensive one.—Chicago Tribune.

A Sad Break.

"Our credit man made a bad break yesterday."

"What was it?"

"He told a dumb man that his word was as good as his bond."—Detroit Free Press.

Three Girls and a Bungalow.

By C. B. LEWIS.

Copyrighted, 1908, by Associated Literary Press.

The three girls—Florence, Molly and Edith—began talking up that bungalow in January, and long enough before the first April shower they had all their plans perfected. It was to be a unique and romantic summer outing. Florence's father owned a farm on the bay. A frame house had been erected for the tenant, and an old log house stood vacant in a romantic spot. It was, as Florence informed her two girl chums, a dear, lovely, sweet, just-too-nice-for-anything old log house. It would make such a bungalow as could not be found for twenty miles up and down the coast.

On the hill forty rods back of the log house was the new dwelling, occupied by Farmer Jones, his good, fat wife and his lean son Jacob. The girls would take their meals there and have no cooking or dishwashing to do. When they wanted to roast clams and potatoes they could build a fire on the shore.

Just three girls and no crowds, no dressing for dinner, no keeping the hair curled; just three girls, boating, fishing and swinging in their hammocks and cantering o'er the dewy grass in the morning; no cards, no bouquets, no flirtations; the fat Mrs. Jones for chaperon, the lean Jacob to run errands, old Jones to drive into the village once a week after kerosene and baking powder and their mail—the very thought of it produced thrills.

Well, it all came about. They went down early in July to remain for two months. Word had been sent to Jones that they wished to rough it and that he must not remove any of the romance. He obeyed orders. He built three rude bunks, put in an old table and three chairs and furnished a lamp. There were a few panes of glass in the windows, and he did not add to the number; there were a few holes in the roof, and he did not cover them; there was half an acre of pigweeds around the house, and he did not mow them down. Mr. Jones was romantic himself and appreciated the sentiment in others.

The outing started off with "How charming?" "How ideal!" and "How very romantic!" Then the three girls got their heads together and took a solemn vow. It was that they would remain until the very last day of August and that in the interval they would not encourage any young man to address them—any young man except Jacob, from whom they learned that young men came that way at intervals to fish in the bay.

The bungalow was a success from the start. On the first night it rained, and the water dripped down through a dozen leaks; on the second night a cow came and put her head through one of the windows to see what strange cattle had arrived and taken possession; on the third an owl alighted on the roof and uttered three whoops, and they were followed by three exclamations of "Murder!" "Poison!" and "Help!"

On the fourth day Jacob appeared with a pitcher of buttermilk and some startling news. He had discovered a young man had gone into camp a short quarter of a mile away. He had with him a tent, a boat, plenty of provisions and cooking utensils. It looked as if he intended to stay right there all summer. Jacob had entered the young man's camp and asked him to please move two miles farther up or down. The young man had glared at him and kept on reading a volume of poetry. The news created intense excitement at once. An indignation meeting was at once called, and it was resolved "that the young man has got to go and that we wait upon him in a body and tell him so."

Jacob bravely offered his help, but it was declined. "The body" marched straight for the enemy's camp, each face wearing a look of determination. The enemy was sitting down smoking a pipe, but on their arrival he rose up and doffed his cap and stood at respectful attention. Miss Florence was spokesman, and after a slight shiver she announced:

"Sir, this is my father's property, and you are a trespasser. I have to request that you kindly go away."

"But it happens to be my property," replied the stranger, with a smile. "Your father's farm ends at the creek there."

"But—but we are three girls, sir."

The young man bowed to the three in turn.

"And we have a bungalow and do not wish to be disturbed."

"I shall take great pleasure in not disturbing you."

"But can't you understand, sir, that we are on our vacation and don't want any men around?"

"Sorry, young ladies—extremely sorry—but I am on my vacation and don't want any females around. I will agree to keep my distance if you will keep yours. I have camped here for the past three years on account of this spring."

The delegation walked back to the bungalow without a word. Then the meeting was called to order again, and Miss Florence asked what further steps were deemed necessary to rid themselves of the presence of the impudent intruder.

"Why, if it's his land he has a right there, hasn't he?" ingeniously queried Molly.

"And I didn't expect to see such a good looking young man," sighed Edith.

"Are you girls going to turn traitor?" demanded the chairman in indignant tones.

"He may be good looking, and he may be on his own land, but he's no gentleman. A gentleman would have consented to move his camp even ten miles if kindly requested by three girls who were camping by themselves. If he thinks we are going away instead he'll find himself very much mistaken. We must snub him on every possible occasion."

When Farmer Jones was appealed to he said he guessed the young man was within his rights. When young Jacob was told the result of the call at his camp he offered to go over and chuck the intruder into the bay and hold him there, but wiser counsel prevailed, and the bungalow once more settled down to peace and romance. Not for long, however.

After breakfast two mornings later Florence went down to the shore for a row to find the boat missing. The tide had floated it off during the night. As she stood there wondering about tides and skiffs and intruders the young man of the camp came rowing up in his own boat and towing the missing craft. He leaped ashore, raised his cap and drew the skiff upon the sands. Then he entered his own craft without a word and rowed away.

At dinner that evening Mrs. Jones proudly placed a dish of fried squelrets on the table. The girls welcomed it with little screams of delight. Miss Florence had half finished her dinner when she remembered having seen the intruder with a gun on his shoulder in the edge of the woods that afternoon. She suddenly lost her appetite and whispered to the girl on either hand:

"You may bow your neck to the tyrant's yoke if you will, but as for me—never!"

"But such a deep, rich voice as he has!"

"And such eyes and teeth!"

At the breakfast next morning there was excellent fish on the table—fish caught that morning, as Mrs. Jones proudly announced. The girls "pitched in," but after five minutes Miss Florence refused further fish. It came to her like a flash that the impudent intruder must have furnished the supply. She looked at her chums in cold disdain, but Miss Molly clasped her hands and rolled her eyes.

"Oh, I knew he must be a gentleman the first moment I set eyes on him."

"And how terrible it would have been had we driven him away from here," added Edith.

They were traitors to the cause, but their conduct only made Florence firmer in her determination. Fate knows when to mind her own business and when to interfere with that of others. In this case she held off for a couple of weeks. Miss Florence went out crabbing by herself. She planned to be by herself so as to snub the intruder if he came within ten rods of her.

It is useless to speculate on how a girl and a boat got upset on bay, lake or river. They do, and that's all there is about it. Florence was after the biggest crab of the century when she suddenly found herself sinking down to a watery grave. She didn't know when the intruder came rushing down in his skiff and leaped aboard to her rescue. She didn't know who she was carried ashore and up to the Joneses' house. When she did recover she heard sobs and sighs all around her, and as she tried to sit up she heard Molly exclaim:

"Oh, goody, goody! She will live! He has saved her life!"

"And if she doesn't marry him she's an ungrateful wretch!" added Edith.

"Why, we've known for two whole days that he was a son of Senator Blake and one of the nicest young men in the world!"

Job Still Open.

The proprietor of a London restaurant advertised for a cook. The first to apply for the berth appeared to be in every way suitable. But before engaging him the restaurant keeper inquired if he could give him a tip for the 2:30 race.

The cook's eyes brightened. He whispered a "dead cert" and mentioned that he had 5 shillings on the horse himself. That was enough. The proprietor gave him a lecture on the evils of betting and showed him the door. As he went out he saw another man about to enter.

"Are you going to apply for the job?" he asked. "Well, if you are asked if you know anything about racing, say you can't tell a Derby winner from a coster's donkey."

The man took the advice, was engaged and commenced his duties. Presently the proprietor rushed to the speaking tube and yelled to the new cook:

"Calf's head one."

Instantly the reply came:

"Did he, by George? What was second and third?"

The Chinese Waiter.

The chief glory of an average Chinese inn is the waiter. This indispensable functionary is the guardian of all your interests for the time being, and when you are not looking he dives into secrets and matters of your own that seem to amuse and enlighten him to your inconvenience and annoyance. Like his confreres in other and more enlightened countries, he hardly ever separates himself from the inevitable napkin, but his badge of waitership is a very practical article with him. With it in summer he mops his damp brow or bare shoulders, while in winter, wrapped about his head, it protects him from rain and wind. The Chinese waiter's napkin is put to all kinds of uses besides those just mentioned. It is used as a dishcloth, a mop with which to wipe the floor, a cloth for cleaning and wiping down tables and a duster. But Chinese landlords are very reasonable in their charges, which in a measure compensate for the unpleasantness of living in their inns.

DEMOCRATIC SPEAKING

Hon. John J. Lentz

At Greencastle, Saturday, Oct. 17, 1:30 p. m.

Rev. Sam W. Small

At Roachdale, Wednesday, Oct. 14, 7:30 p. m.

Henry Warrum and Ralph W. Moss

At Cloverdale, Wed. October 14—1:30 p. m.

Henry Warrum

At Greencastle, Wed. October 14—7:30 p. m.

Ralph W. Moss and F. C. Tilden

Russellville, Mon. October 12—7:30 p. m.

Ralph W. Moss

At Bainbridge, Tues. October 13—7:30 p. m.

Reelsville, Wed. October 14—7:30 p. m.

Greencastle, Sat. October 10—7:30 p. m.

Jas. P. Hughes and John H. James

Carter's School House, Cloverdale tp. Tues. October 13—7:30 p. m.

Jackson Boyd and Jas. P. Hughes

Poplar Grove School House, Cloverdale, Mon. October 12—7:30 p. m.

C. C. Gillen and Geo. W. Wilson

Fincastle, Thurs. October 15—7:30

W. H. Miller and C. C. Gillen

At Brick Chapel, Tues. October 13—7:30 p. m.

John H. James

Groveland, Friday, October 16—7:30

W. H. Miller and Geo. W. Wilson

At School House No 8 Floyd tp, Tuesday October 20—7:30

Theo. Crawley and Jackson Boyd

Fox Ridge, Friday, October 16—7:30

James P. Hughes

Coleman's School House, Marion tp. Friday, October 9—7:30

Jackson Boyd and Theo. Crawley

Mt Meridian, Tuesday, October 20—7:30

W. H. Miller

Riley Allen School House, Washington tp, Wednesday, October 21—7:30

It will be to learn that the leading medical writers and teachers of the several schools of practice recommend, in the strongest terms possible, each and every ingredient entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia, catarrh of stomach, "liver complaint," torpid liver, or biliousness, chronic bowel affections, and all catarrhal diseases of whatever region, name or nature. It is also a specific remedy for all such chronic or long standing cases of catarrhal affections and their results, as bronchitis, throat and lung disease (except consumption) accompanied with severe coughs. It is not so good for acute colds and coughs, but for lingering or chronic cases it is especially efficacious in producing perfect cures. It contains Black Cherry bark, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot, Stone root, Mandrake root and Queen's root—all of which are highly praised as remedies for all the above mentioned affections by such eminent medical writers and teachers as Prof. Bartholow, of Jefferson Med. College; Prof. Hare, of the Univ. of Pa.; Prof. F. J. E. Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M