WARRUM SPEAKS TO MANY

ASSEMBLY ROOM AT THE COURT HOUSE IS CROWDED TO HEAR THE ELOQUENT INDIANAPOLIS ATTORNEY DISCUSS THE ISSUES OF THE CAMPAIGN.

CROWD ESTIMATED AT 600

Points the Weakness of the Roosevelt Heirship Theories of Taft and Shows Danger of the Republican Theory of Protection.

Henry Warrum, the eloquent attorney from Indianapolis, held a large audience of Democrats and Republicans for an hour and a half last night at the court house, while he discussed the issues of the campaign. All the seats were filled, and many stood about the walls and sat in the windows. The speech was filled with fact, but was so interesting and so bright and so eloquent withal, that laughter, applause and serious attention alternated throughout the evening. People sat up and took notice of that speech.

Mr. Warrum discussed the issues, giving special attention to the claim that Taft was the heir of the Roosevelt policies. Mr. Warrum showed the Republican platform was the will through which whatever the present administration wished to hand on to the next must pass. This platform said nothing of the policies advocated by Roosevelt in relation to railroad rate legislation, the income tax campaign contributions, etc. As a matter of fact these policies were all Democratic property and not to be bequeathed by the Republican president who had only borrowed them.

Mr. Warrum showed further that the great trusts such as the Steel Trust and the Paper Trust, did not pay but two per cent upon their common stock, and that these corporations might go before congress, and in perfect fairness ask that the tariff be raised so that they might make a "reasonable profit" as pledged by the Republican platform. This was a telling shot and made a strong impression.

Altogether the meeting was one of the best of the year, and this is saying much when it is remembered that all the Democratic meetings have been hummers.

McCONNELL TO HEAD D. P. U.

New York Pastor Who Has Been Asked to Accept Presidency of the Methodist School, Has Declined to Be Dean of the Boston School of Theology.

HAS ANOTHER POSITION IN VIEW

Boston, Mass., Oct. 15.—The Rev. Francis J. McConnell, D. D. pastor of the New York Avenue Methodist Church, has declined to be dean of Boston University School of Theology. He has written a letter to President Huntington stating that he has another position in view.

This is believed to be at DePauw University, whose trustees have been seeking him for the presidency to succeed the Rev. Edwin H. Hughes. There has been speculation here as to which college call the eminent pastor would accept. In view of the rejection of the Boston University office it is generally believed by Dr. McConnell's many Massachusetts friends that he had decided to go to the Indiana University.

CONGRESSMAN LENTZ HERE

Democratic Speaker From Ohio With Excellent Reputation for Oratory And Large Knowledge of Facts to Speak Here Saturday.

Greencastle and Putnam County Democrats are very fortunate in the speakers that are appearing here. Thus far all have been more than satisfactory. On next Saturday another strong man and most able orator will address the people. This is Congressman John J. Lentz, of Ohio. Mr. Lentz is looked upon as one of the most brilliant speakers, and one of the best posted orators of the party. He will speak at the court house at 1:30 o'clock, and it is expected that a large crowd will be present to hear him.

DOC HURST'S BARN BURNS

Fire Destroys Structure at the Corner of Indiana and Olive Streets Last Night at Near 11 O'clock—Origin of the Fire is Unknown Although it is Believed That Tramps Probably Started It.

TWO HOUSES CATCH FROM FIRE

Fire of unknown origin totally destroyed the barn belonging to Doc Hurst, at his residence at the corner of Indiana and Olive Streets last night. The fire occurred at near 11:30 o'clock. The barn, together with its contents consisting of a buggy, harness, hay and grain were destroyed. The horse which was in the stable, was gotten out.

The blaze was not discovered until the fire had gained much headway and when the fire department arrived at the scene the barn was falling in. There was no chance to save it. During the fire sparks blew into the houses of Dr. Lawton and Enos Townsend but bucket brigades soon extinguished the blazes started by them.

The origin of the fire is a mystery. The general belief, however, is that a tramp, who had gone to the barn to sleep, dropped a spark from his cigar or pipe into the hay. The loss will reach several hundred dollars.

BARN FIRES ARE NUMEROUS

Up until the last few weeks the local fire department had not been called out to fight a barn fire for five years. In the past few weeks, however, they have been called upon to fight fires in three barns and in each instance the barn was totally destroyed. The barns burned were the Rev. Pike barn on East Washington Street, the J. O. Cammack barn on Hill Street and the Doc Hurst barn last night.

It is believed that the dry summer and carelessness by persons who have had fire around the barns have caused these later conflagrations. The fires of five years ago, and there were several of them, were believed at the time to have been of incendiary origin.

WARRUM PLEASE BIG CROWD

Meeting of Democrats at Cloverdale Yesterday Afternoon Was One of The Largest and Most Enthusiastic Held in the County This Campaign—Senator Moss Pleases.

STIRS APPLAUSE AND ENTHUSIASM

The Henry Warrum meeting at Cloverdale yesterday afternoon was one of the largest and most enthusiastic ever held in Putnam County. A crowd of at least 600 people gathered on the lawn at the home of Albert Grissom to hear the speakers of the day.

The porch of the Grissom home, which was used as a speaker's stand, was decorated in flags and bunting and presented a most patriotic appearance. The Bainbridge band furnished music for the occasion.

Senator Ralph Moss was the first speaker of the day and he entertained the people until the arrival of Mr. Warrum of Indianapolis, who made the main address of the day. Mr. Warrum delivered a most pleasing and instructive address.

SOME VERY FALSE ALARMS

Assertions Circulated by Republicans Far From the Actual Facts as Revealed by State Statistics.

The Republicans, on the stump and through circulars, are sending out some comparisons of prices of farm products under the administration of Cleveland and Roosevelt. The facts are badly garbled, and prove nothing. It is asserted that under Democracy farm products were low, and under Republican administration, high. The facts are they have been high and low under both administrations. The first years of the Cleveland second administration saw some of the highest prices for farm products of any time since the war. Hogs sold at that time for $8.75 a price not reached since. On the other hand, in the time of the Republican rule between 1888 and 1892 farm products were at the lowest. Corn, at that time sold on the Chicago markets for less than 30 cents per bushel, and oats for less than twenty, a price not reached in Cleveland under Cleveland.

Such comparisons of the price of products means nothing. Prices of farm products in America depend upon competition with the world, and rise and fall as the world's need for our products varies. No administrative policy will affect farm products till we consume all and more than we produce. On the other hand the tariff has raised the price of all manufactured articles which are sold here some 47 per cent. It costs nearly twice as much to live now as it did ten years ago, a condition due entirely to the tariff and the trusts.

SAM SMALL AT ROACHDALE

Georgia Preacher Discusses the Political Situation Before an Enormous Crowd at Franklin Township Capital Wednesday Night.

WILL SPEAK HERE NEXT WEEK

Rev. Sam Small spoke at Roachdale Wednesday night, and his speech is the talk of all who heard it. Rarely have those who went to hear a political discussion been so entertained and instructed as was Mr. Small's audience last night. All the people who could crowd into Ader Hall were present. Not only did they come but they stayed. And they will long remember that speech. Eloquent, witty, instructive and powerful, the speaker's discourse swayed the crowd, and they passed from laughter to seriousness and from seriousness to laughter again in rapid succession. It was a whirlwind speech from first to last.

Rev. Small spoke for over two hours and many who were standing declared that they did not know they were weary till after the speaker closed his address. Rev. Small will address the Bryan and Kera Club here next Wednesday night and it is a foregone conclusion that room in the court house will be at a premium on that occasion.

MAY TAKE SEVERAL DAYS MORE

Judge Rawley will come from Brazil tomorrow to hear the completion of the testimony in the case of E. B. Lynch against the city. The case is the one in which Mr. Lynch asks damages of $1000 and an injunction preventing the city from draining sewage upon his lands.

The trial was begun during the last few days of the last term of court but was not completed during the term. Judge Rawley arranged to get away from his court in Clay County and come tomorrow to hear the remaining testimony in the case.

Mr. Lynch, it is said, has secured much new evidence since the last day of the trial and it is probable that it will take several more days before the testimony is closed. Many new witnesses have been summoned to appear at court tomorrow morning.

USING CHICAGO SIGNALS TO HAND OUT RED TAGS

COACH BROWN STILL SHOOTING HIS MEN THROUGH HARD PRACTICE.

TWENTY-FIVE ON THE SQUAD

Snappy signal practice for an hour and three-quarters with hardly a breathing spell during that time, was Coach Brown's program for his pigskin chasers. The coach is working for lasting qualities in the ranks of the regulars and the scrappy manner in which the Methodists stuck by the fight in the Indiana battle is assurance that his policy is effective in actual play.

The squad is being continually worked out on new plays. The forward pass which has been used extensively by Indiana and Chicago again this year is being worked in to practice on McKean Field in several forms.

Twenty-five or more men still compose the squad that trots out to the field every day and two full teams with subs are always on deck for work. The scrubs are stronger than they have been for several years containing good future varsity material.

I now take them as a tonic, and they keep me strong and well." 50c at the Owl Drug Store

Y. M. C. A. WILL OBSERVE "BOOSTERS DAY" TO-MORROW.

EVERY MAN TO BE SOLICITED

Friday, October 16, has been designated by the Young Men's Christian Association as "Booster's Day." At a meeting of the cabinet last evening a committee of thirty men was appointed to solicit every man in the university in the interest of the Young Men's Christian Association membership.

Five hundred red tags have been printed bear the inscription "Y. M. C. A. Boosters Day." Each member of the committee has been supplied with a goodly number of these together with a supply of application blanks and membership cards and no effort will be spared until every man in school, senior and faculty, as well as prep is wearing one.

These are given on one condition and that is that you join the Y. M. C. A. None who appears in masculine garb will be exempt until he wears a red signal. It is advised that each man be ready to give his dollar to the first man who asks you to join tomorrow so that the whole committee will not have to see you before you present your money to the thirtieth man.

WILL HOLD TRY-OUT SOON

CANDIDATES FOR CROSS-COUNTRY TEAM TO COMPETE FOR PLACES.

STATE EVENT AT NOTRE DAME

On Monday, November 9, the university cross country run will be pulled off as a preliminary to the big state event which will take place at Notre Dame, November 24. The local event is open to entry by any student in school an unlimited number of participants being possible. The try-out will consist of a five-mile race across country near Greencastle. Coach Brown said yesterday that the number of men sent to the state contest would depend on the individual showing made in the preliminary. If five men make a close finish in the try-out and at the same time lap off some good fast running five men will probably represent the Methodists against the other schools but if only a small number make a good showing the DePauw representation may be trimmed down to two or three.

Being the first track event of the year the contest is of especial importance in the athletic program as an indication of prospects in that department for next spring's team.

QUARTETTE TO SING

Dormitory Boarders Will Listen to Music Tonight.

The students who board at the dorm are promised a treat for tonight in the form of a concert by the Clarion male quartet who accompanied the prohibition party's candidate for governor to Greencastle. The quartet will dine at the dorm this evening and will sing several numbers during the supper hour, if possible.

Hon. Sumner W. Haynes, of Portland, Prohibition candidate for Governor of Indiana, will arrive this afternoon with his party preliminary to the big political rally to be held at the Court House tonight under the auspices of the DePauw student Prohibition Club.

Incident to this big meeting the college club will reorganize and solicit new members for the coming year. A large attendance is expected tonight.

To those afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble, backache, rheumatism, Pineules for the Kidneys brings relief in the first dose. Hundreds of people today testify to their remarkable healing and tonic properties. 30 day's trial $1.00. They purify the blood. Sold by Badger & Green.

TICKETS ON SALE MONDAY

LECTURE COURSE MANAGER ANNOUNCES DEPAUW PLANS.

SALE OPENS AT TWO O'CLOCK

Arrangements have been made by Charles Fisher, manager, of the college lecture course, whereby students and business men wishing to buy tickets for the lecture course next Monday will be enabled to sign up for their tickets at one o'clock.

Tickets will be placed on sale at two and purchasers will be allowed to get tickets in the order in which their names appear on the book at the Langdon store. This method has been followed in previous years and seems to be about the only convenient method to be followed in the sale of tickets.

No one will be allowed to sign before one o'clock and thus every person wishing tickets will have an equal chance and no advantage can possibly be taken. Monday is considered the best day for the sale as both students and business men have more leisure on this day than any other.

The prices of last year will prevail and patrons of the course are offered a chance to see six high grade entertainments at the same prices which have been offered for years.

NOTED LINGUIST TO SPEAK

MISS MINNETTA TAYLOR WILL ADDRESS STUDENTS FRIDAY AFTERNOON.

PEACE ASSOCIATION HAS CHARGE

Miss Minnetta T. Taylor will address the Intercollegiate Peace Association Friday afternoon at four o'clock in Plato Hall on the question of International Peace.

As a linguist Miss Taylor has a world-wide reputation; she speaks seventeen and reads twenty-one different languages. In connection with her linguistic work she is also taking part in the study of many great reforms.

DePauw University has ever been noted as a literary center, not only in educational circles but in the world at large, and a part of this reputation is due not only to the persons connected with the college but with the City of Greencastle as well. Miss Taylor is one of the noted, yet least known, of these citizens. Though Miss Taylor lives in Greencastle, her work as an interpreter, translator and lecturer calls her away from the city for so much of the time that she is not so well known as many of the other illustrious residents.

It is a rare opportunity to hear this distinguished lady and an invitation is extended to all the students of the university to attend this lecture.

VOTERS TO BE EXCUSED

REGULAR HOLIDAY WILL NOT BE GRANTED ON ELECTION DAY, HOWEVER.

MEN MAY GO HOME TO VOTE

The action of the faculty in refusing to grant a holiday for November 3, election day, has been generally misinterpreted by the students. Many of the students voters took the ruling to mean that they would not be allowed to go home to vote, but this is a mistake. All students who are of voting age will be excused from classes on election day, if necessary. The students who get to vote, however, constitute such a small per cent of the entire student body, that the faculty believes it quite unnecessary to dismiss school for the day.

PROMINENT ALUMNUS DEAD

News has reached the university of the death of Chalon G. Cloud. The deceased is one of the most prominent alumni of DePauw. He entered Asbury College under the administration of Bishop Bowman and had a remarkably good record as a student. Professor Longden places him first among his 500 fellows and many others testify to his studentship. His specialty was mathematics and in this he was surpassed by few or none.

Through the years of a very active business life he never severed his relations with his alma mater and with his fraternity—Delta Kappa Epsilon. He provided the funds for the C. G. Cloud Declamation Prize. He gave and has maintained the C. G. Cloud Alcove in the library and has never failed to respond liberally when the institution has stood in need.

The funeral was held at McLeansboro, Ills. The funeral oration was delivered by a classmate the Rev.

John C. Hall of the M. E. Church of McLeansboro. Many prominent alumni gathered to pay their last tribute to an old classmate and friend.

Negro Acted Strangely.

The local officers were called to the interurban station yesterday noon to arrest a drunken negro on the west bound car who was acting queerly. The negro had a large amount of money and was acting so strangely that the conductor of the car telephoned ahead to have the officers at the station to arrest him. The negro asked the officers to accompany him to Terre Haute where he could prove his identity and prove that he was no "hold up" man or "burglar," as they feared was the case. The officers did as the negro asked and learned from hotel employees at Terre Haute that the man was all right.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Willard Rollie Nelson and Julia Agnes McCammack.

Serpent Appears on Street

Quite an excitement was created on the street today by the appearance near Dunlavy's drug store of a large serpent which may, or may not have escaped from a circus. The horrible reptile, which was almost six inches in length and probably three-fourths of an inch in circumference was discovered first by a pair of young women who promptly went into hysterics and the nearest doorway. Russell Newgent appeared from Jones' and went bravely to the rescue, dispatching the creature, which resisted ferociously, but was finally put out of existence.

No News from New Castle.

No further description of the negro under arrest in New Castle has been received by the officers here. The New Castle police believe the man may be Clayton Herring wanted here on a burglary charge. The New Castle police have been asked to furnish a full description of their prisoner.
