DR. SUDRANSKI A BENEDICT

Marriage of the Local Physician and Miss Pauline Feibleman, of Indianapolis, at the Home of the Bride's Mother in That City on Wednesday Evening.

A WEDDING DINNER FOLLOWED

The home of Mrs. Mildred Feibleman was the scene of a pretty wedding, last evening, when her daughter, Miss Pauline Feibleman became the bride of Dr. Charles Sudranski, of Greencastle. The ceremony was at 6:30, and was followed by the wedding dinner, and later in the evening the bridal couple left for their home in Elm Street, Greencastle. The rooms were made attractive for the ceremony, with palms and ferns and pink roses.

Just before the ceremony hour a harpist and violinist played the wedding march from "Lohengrin," followed by "Traumerel" and "O Thou Sublime, Sweet Evening Star," as the service was read. The ceremony was performed by Rabbi Morris Feuerlicht, and the blessing was given by Rabbi Meyer Messing. The bride was attended by her nephew, Charles Eftymson, who was dressed in white, and carried the ring in a white chrysanthemum. She entered with her brother, Isadore Feibleman, who gave her away. The wedding gown was of white embroidery over messaline and trimmed with lace. The veil was held by a wreath of orange blossoms and the bouquet was of white roses. For the supper there were two large tables and several small ones.

The bridal table was decorated with a basket of pink roses and lighted with pink tapers in silver candlesticks. The central decoration of flowers met the festoon of smilax from the chandelier. Roses also were used for the other tables. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Julius Sudranski, the parents, and Miss Bess Sudranski, the sister of the bridegroom, of Greencastle; Mr. and Mrs. Tannenbaum and Mrs. Fannie Kahn, of Crawfordsville. The bride's traveling dress was a taupe tailored suit, with hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Sudranski will be at home to their friends after November 15.—Indianapolis News.

Bishop Hughes will deliver the first university sermon of the year on that date. He will start for the East in time to attend the State Convention of the Y. M. C. A. and the meeting of the Methodist bishops in Indianapolis during the previous week. Later he will deliver an address at the dedication of a Y. M. C. A. building at South Bend.

This will be Bishop Hughes' first appearance in Greencastle since the middle of the summer, and he is sure of a royal welcome. Just what his plans are after November 1 is not known, but it is to be hoped that he can be induced to spend some time in Greencastle.

NO VOTE FOR REPUBLICANS

Attempt of Putnam Republicans to Have Prohibitionists Withdraw Their Candidate for Representative in Favor of Lane Falls.

DOES NOT STAND FOR THEIR WAY

It has just been made public that the Republican organization of Putnam County, through Chairman Zeis and Mr. VanArsdel, have been attempting to get the Prohibition party of the county to withdraw its candidate for Representative, Richard W. Raaf, in favor of Mr. Lane. The party leaders have positively refused to do so. They hold that Mr. Lane, standing upon the Republican ticket, does not represent the things they desire, and that they will not be serving prohibition to vote for him. Especially after hearing and consulting with their candidate for governor do they take that position. Mr. Haynes intimated that the law passed at the special session left the temperance situation in the state more unsatisfactory than before. The Prohibition party stands for state-wide prohibition, and no half-way measures.

One Prohibitionist this morning stated that if it came to a vote for Lane or Hostetter he would vote for Hostetter, as the Democratic candidate had already cast a vote for state-wide prohibition.

LENTZ HERE TO-MORROW

Greencastle Democrats are looking forward to an excellent speech to-morrow when Congressman John J. Lentz, of Ohio, will speak here at 1:30 in the afternoon. Congressman Lentz comes with a reputation as an interesting speaker and a thoroughly well-posted man of affairs. It will be of interest to hear the situation discussed from the Democratic point of view by a man from another state, as all the speakers here thus far have been from Indiana. A large crowd will hear Lentz.

THE JAIL IS STILL EMPTY

The jail is still empty. Just a week ago today the Herald announced that there were no prisoners confined in the county jail. Seven days have passed and in that time not an arrest has been made, nor a single person placed in confinement. It has been many weeks since the sheriff could boast of such a record.

Entertain at 5 O'clock Tea.

One of the prettiest of social affairs was the 5 o'clock tea given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Grey Potter and Miss Alice Potter. The rooms were beautifully and artistically decorated in autumn flowers and lighted by exquisitely colored candles. The guests, 25 or more in number, were seated at seven small tables where tea was served in four courses.

MANY HEAR PROHIBITION

Candidate for Governor on the Dry Ticket Tells the Voters of Putnam Of the Weakness of Local Option in the Temperance Fight.

ROASTS BOTH OLD PARTIES

The Prohibitionists of Putnam County are a proud lot this morning, and they have reason to be proud. They had the largest crowd that has attended a night meeting in Greencastle this year. When we look back a little and remember that only a few years ago such a gathering would have been impossible, we see what a gain has been made, at least in the attitude toward the party. An excellent quartet helped draw the crowd, and entertained it after it was there.

The chief speech of the evening was made by Sumner W. Haynes, candidate for governor on the Prohibition ticket. He spoke for two hours and held the attention well during that time. Perhaps the most striking thing said by Mr. Haynes was that in his opinion county local option was not a valuable remedy for the liquor evil. He believed that the Moore Remonstrance was as satisfactory as any measure that could be passed short of prohibition. He stated that now Governor Hanly was claiming credit for the Moore law, which in fact was drawn by the Anti-Saloon League. He said county local option would make 92 prize rings in the state to be fought over every two years, an expensive and unsatisfactory situation. He declared that there were thirteen members of the committee that placed the county option plank in the Republican platform, and that the plank carried by seven votes only and with Watson opposed.

In fact the speech was a disappointment to many Republicans who have been posing, on the strength of their platform, as Prohibitionists. As far as Mr. Haynes could see there was little difference between the two old parties so far as their proposed legislation was concerned. Mr. Haynes stood for state-wide prohibition, and for the passage of the Littlefield Bill to prohibit the Interstate shipment of liquor from wet to dry territory. This naturally brought up recollections of Joseph Cannon and Whip Watson and their relation to the Littlefield Bill which was smothered in committee at the direction of these men last year.

Altogether it was a great meeting for the Prohibitionists and showed that instead of temperance being a question with but two sides, as many have been thinking, it is a question with three sides, and the third a very reasonable side, too.

SHOWER FOR MISS SUDRANSKI

A beautiful shower was given this afternoon by the Modern Priscillas, at the home of Mrs. Bascom O'Hair, for Miss Bessie Sudranski, who is to be married on October 20. Most of the club members and a few invited guests were present, making 45 in all. The handsome rooms of Mrs. O'Hair's were beautifully decorated in the club colors, green and white. In the living room, which was festooned in the same color was placed the gift table. Here were placed the gifts to the bride-elect. In the folding doors was suspended a large wedding bell tied with a large bow of white ribbon. Light refreshments, which carried out the color scheme, were served.

WILL EMPLOY THE MEN

Western Firm Agrees to Give Work To All Men Let Out by Eastern Concern if Bryan is Elected.

The effort of certain manufacturing concerns to intimidate or coerce employees by telling them that if Bryan is elected plants will close or work will be scarce was forcibly met today. One of the concerns notifying its men that its plant would close if Bryan is elected was the Sharples Separator Company, at Westchester, Pa., which, it is said, forced its 1,000 employees to march in the Hughes parade in that town recently. Chairman Norman E. Mack, of the Democratic committee, today received a letter from the Iowa Dairy Separator Company, of Waterloo, Ia., one of the Sharples competitors, in which it offers employment to all of the Sharples people who are let out.

In the letter president W. W. Marsh says: "We, as the largest manufacturers of cream separators in the United States, will agree, in the event of Bryan's election, and the threats of the Sharples company being put into effect, to take the men into our employ. In view of the fact that the finished product of the steel trust is the raw material of a separator factory, and under the present tariff the steel trust is permitted to charge us 50 per cent more and does charge us 50 per cent more than we could purchase it for in the world's market. The Sharples company must be talking as shareholders in the United States Steel Corporation rather than as separator manufacturers."—Indianapolis News.

THE LYNCH CASE TO-DAY

Plaintiff in Suit Against the City Presents Considerable Evidence Gathered Since the Last Session Of the Court.

THE CITY'S WITNESSES TESTIFY

The case of E. B. Lynch against the City of Greencastle, which was continued until today from last Saturday, was taken up this morning before Judge Rawley. The plaintiff introduced a considerable amount of new evidence gathered since the last session of the court. The plaintiff showed that Mr. Lynch had made complaint to the health officer, then Dr. McLaughlin, of the condition at the mouth of the Walnut Street sewer more than a year ago. It was further shown that T. C. Grooms had complained to the city council in May, 1907, and his complaint had brought no results. It was shown that in addition to the business houses and the library that were before shown to have connections with this sewer, that H. S. Smith had a cess-pool connected with the library drain, and that perhaps other private residences were so connected.

The city's witnesses began testifying before noon. They are attempting to show that the condition is not as bad as represented, and that the offensiveness of the odors emanating from the Walnut Street outlet have been exaggerated. It is doubtful if the case will end today.

NOTICE TO DEMOCRATS

There will be a meeting at 7 o'clock this evening in the office of W. B. Vestal to arrange for the W. J. Bryan meeting. All Democrats are urged to be present.

Next Sunday evening is woman's evening at the Christian Church. The large chorus choir will furnish special music. Those who are asking the question "Should Women Vote?" will be interested in this service.

STREET CONTRACTS ARE LET

Green Barker Secures Work of Improving Taylor Avenue and Walnut Street—Bids Were Gone Over At a Special Meeting of the Council Held Last Night.

WORK TO BE DONE BY JUNE

Green Barker, the local contractor, was awarded the contracts for the improvement of Taylor Avenue and Walnut Streets at the special meeting of the City Council last night. There were only two bidders, Mr. Barker and Dillard Artis, the Muncie man who built the Anderson and Larabee Street improvements.

Mr. Barker was the lowest bidder on each job and secured the work. The contract calls for the work to be completed by June 1 of next year. Sidewalks and curbing are to be put in on each street.

The bids of Mr. Barker which were accepted are:

Walnut Street .....$2479.02
Taylor Avenue ..... 929.40

The bids for the improvement of Walnut Street is about $450 lower than the bids which were turned down at a previous meeting. The Taylor Avenue bid is near $100 lower.

W. J. BRYAN IS COMING

Great Commoner Will Address the People of Putnam County on Sun Set Hill at One O'clock on The Afternoon of Tuesday, October 20—Central Committee Received Word This Morning.

A GREAT CROWD IS EXPECTED

W. J. Bryan will be in Greencastle on the afternoon of Tuesday, October 20 to address the people of Putnam County. It will be a great day. Mr. Bryan will make his address from a platform which will be erected on Sunset Hill.

The news that Mr. Bryan would speak in Greencastle was received by the Central Committee this morning and immediately arrangements for his reception were begun.

Mr. Bryan will arrive at Greencastle at 1 o'clock over the Monon on a special train. He will address the people for thirty minutes. Greencastle and Putnam County are expected to turn out to hear the "Great Commoner."

COMPERS HERE TO-MORROW

TOWNSHIP TICKET NAMED

Democrats of Greencastle Meet in Court House Last Night and Name Lincoln Snyder for Trustee and John W. Cherry for Assessor—Meeting Was Largely Attended.

THE SELECTIONS ARE UNANIMOUS

The Democrats of Greencastle Township met last night in the Grand Jury Room of the Court House and nominated their township ticket. Lincoln Snyder was named as candidate for Trustee and John W. Cherry was chosen as candidate for Assessor.

The meeting was largely attended and most enthusiastic. The nominations of Mr. Cherry and Mr. Snyder were unanimous.

T. T. MOORE OBJECTS

Recently Governor Hanly, in his speeches over the state, has been rather pointedly claiming that the credit for securing the temperance legislation known as the Moore Remonstrance Law was due to Hanly and not to Mr. T. T. Moore. This statement took rather definite form in Cloverdale, and has become so common with Hanly that Mr. Moore objects seriously to this attitude of the governor's and intimates that anyone who claims credit for that law other than himself and the secretary of the Anti-Saloon League is well beyond the line which separates truth from falsehood. We can not blame Mr. Moore, for it begins to look as if Hanly was claiming all that has been done by his party in the state.

ESTABLISH HONOR SYSTEM PROSPECTS FOR 2 DEBATES

DR. SEAMAN MAKES KNOWN
THE JUDGES REPRESENTA-TIVE OF EACH CLASS.

WHO WILL TAKE CHARGE OF IT?

The honor system has been established by Dr. Seaman in his psychological department and bids fair to be popular.

During his lecture hour yesterday morning Dr. Seaman announced the judges which have been selected from the three classes represented in his elementary psychology class. These judges will compose a committee which will have charge of all examinations.

The judges were selected from each class by the class itself and are Earl Pittenger, Arthur Adams, and Arthur Rohm representing the senior, junior and sophomore classes respectively.

At a meeting of the committee yesterday afternoon they decided not to name any set rules, except relative to leaving the room during examination and the place of text books; they determined to discourteous "tattling" but to use every possible means to run down the culprit who cheats.

If this system is wholly successful
it may be extended throughout the university.

CONSTITUTION IS RATIFIED

THE LAW CLUB MET LAST NIGHT
AND MADE THEIR FU-TURE PLANS.

TO MEET EVERY FOUR WEEKS

At the first regular meeting of the DePauw Law Club held last night,
the constitution of the new organization was read and ratified. It limits
the club membership to twenty members and also provided for the election of honorary members to be chosen either from the faculty or from the DePauw alumni. A committee was appointed to secure subscriptions to prominent magazines and periodicals pertaining to the study of law. The club decided to hold its regular meetings on the last Monday night of each month and the next regular meeting will be held the 26th of this month at which time
Hon. Silas Hays, a prominent lawyer of Greencastle and an Alumnus of DePauw, will address the club and Guy L. Elwell will read a paper on "The Benefits of a Law Club in De-Pauw." This meeting will be held at the Beta house.

evening in Brazil.

About Education.

dent of the State Institute Instructors section of the Indiana State Teachers Association and is getting out the programs for the Indiana session. The association will meet on the 27, 28, 29 and 30 of December in Indianapolis.

New Supplies.

Doctor Blanchard has received this year's batch of supplies for his department of chemistry. These consist of acids and chemicals of various sorts and some minor pieces of apparatus. The supplies were ordered early in the year, but for some reason they were delayed in arriv-

AUTHORITIES ARE ANXIOUS TO DATE ANOTHER CONTEST
FOR DEPAUW

WILL GIVE FIVE MEN A CHANCE

Saturday noon ends the time when names can be handed in for the debate contests. Professor Gough and the Debate Council are very anxious that as many as can will enter these contests.

Heretofore there has been only
one debate team chosen each year.
This year those in charge are trying to secure another debate so that more people will have a chance to take part in the work. One debate with Albion college of Albion, Michigan, has already been secured. The secretary of the debate council has written to about ten schools and will write to several more in the near future for dates for another contest.

Last year there were thirty-five or thirty-six men who entered the contests and only one team to be chosen.
This year with the prospect for two,
many more ought to come out for the work.

PLAN FOR CLASS CONTESTS

CAPTAIN OF BASKET BALL TEAMS ARRANGING FOR GAMES.

MANY MEN OUT FOR PLACES

Practice has begun for class basketball. The junior, sophomore and freshman classes have elected their basketball captains, who are respectively, Charles Crick, Hoyt Hardin,
and John McNaughton. The teams have been holding their practice upon the tennis court which was recently fitted with basketball goals.

It is the hope of the coach and athletic board that the class games
be played this term and this brings out the men especially the new ones
who intend to try for the college teams next term. Arrangements will soon be made whereby the inter-class schedule can be made and carried out along these lines.

MUSIC AND ART

Miss Josephine Adamson of Terre Haute has entered the voice department of the School of Music.

Miss Butler of Irvington was here yesterday making inquiries with reference to coming to DePauw to complete her course in the School of Music.

Miss Mary Carter, '08, of the College of Liberal Arts and of the Junior class of the School of Music, after visiting university friends returned to her home in Shelbyville last evening.

The Art School people report a delightful time at their meeting of Wednesday evening, also the reorganization of their "Arts and Crafts" Club. A number of interesting pieces of handicraft work were on the tables for inspection. Mrs.
Blanche O'Hair, with her well known generosity toward the Art School presented it with eight pieces of Japanese tapestry in black print decorations, and two interesting pottery pieces from Old Mexico—one of these
a platter and the other a water jug.
She had also several other good things among the display articles of the evening.

What?

DePauw had a game scheduled
with Butler but some of the players
Butler had sent for failed to arrive in time to learn the signals, so they crossed their fingers and asked for a postponement.—Wabash Bachelor.

Would Mortgage the Farm.

A farmer on Rural Route 2, Empire, Ga., W. A. Floyd by name, says:
"Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured the two worst sores I ever saw; one on my hand and one on my leg. It is worth more than its weight in gold.
I would not be without it if I had to mortgage the farm to get it." Only 25c, at the Owl Drug Store.

GAME HERE TO-MORROW

WINONA TECHNICAL ELEVEN
WILL OPPOSE METHODISTS
SATURDAY.

DEPAUW TO WIN BY BIG SCORE

The Winona Technical football
representatives will oppose the De-Pauw eleven tomorrow afternoon on McKeen Field. Coach Brown expects to win by a 100 to 0 score since Butler beat them by 42 to 0. The lineup for Saturday is not announced as yet. Scrimmage galore was the scene on McKeen Field yesterday afternoon. In the first round the varsity lined up against the preps. The latter were unable to gain through Dewey and Lawrence from breaking through the line before the plays
were well started.

The varsity was also given a chance at offensive work and could not be stopped by the academy lineup. The varsity line is working up a whirlwind charge that took the preps off their feet in yesterday's scrimmage work.

The scrubs were lined up against the preps later during practice and worked like veterans only once allowing the prep backs to make a long gain. The academy lineup was weakened by the loss of Captain Long who will be out of play for a few days because of a game shoulder.

WORKERS ARE NOW BUSY

Y. M. C. A. MEMBERS ARE TRY-ING TO TAG ALL COL-LEGE MEN.

THEY HIT THE FACULTY ALSO

The campaign is on. The Y. M. C. A. workers could not wait until this morning to begin their "tag game";
but made night calls on all the professors enlisting them in the work.

Many of the faculty members appeared at chapel this morning with red tags signifying their union with the Young Men's Christian Association.

The cry is for two hundred strong,
two hundred new members for the Y. M. C. A. and it looks as though the workers will be successful.

Tonight a meeting of the committee in banquet will disclose the success of the enterprise.

Where Bullets Flew.

David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., a veteran of the civil war, who lost
a foot at Gettysburg, says: "The good Electric Bitters have done me worth more than five hundred dollars to me. I spent much money doctoring for a bad case of stomach trouble, to little purpose. I then tried Electric Bitters, and they cured me. I now take them as a tonic, and they keep me strong and well." 50c
at the Owl Drug Store

Why He Drowned.

Describing the stringent police regulations of Berlin, a citizen of that city by way of illustration told the following story:

"Schmidt and Krauss met one morning in the park.

"Have you heard," says Schmidt,
"the sad news about Muller?"

"No," says Krauss. "What is it?"

"Well, poor Muller went boating on the river yesterday. The boat capsized, and he was drowned. The water was ten feet deep."

"But couldn't he swim?"

"Swim? Don't you know that all persons are strictly forbidden by the police to swim in the river?"—Philadelphia Record.

Not Mentioned by Herodotus.

Xerxes was meditating upon his good luck in having been made king
by his royal father in preference to the eldest son.

"Still," he said, "if the succession
had been determined by a primary election I would have got it just the same. Naturally everybody would have marked an X opposite my name."

Subsequently, however, the Greeks
gave him the double cross at Plataea
—Chicago Tribune.

A Poor Place.

"And you say you almost starved to death in your last position?" said the kind housewife. "What position was it?"

"I was treasurer of a poets' union,
mum," replied the dusty wayfarer,
with a deep sigh.—Exchange.

Easy.

Higgs—I never want to see him again. Diggs—That's easily done. Lend him a fever.—Illustrated Bits.

Card of Thanks.

We thank all of our kind friends
and neighbors for their kindness during the sickness and death of our dear husband and father, J. W. Low, Lida Low and children.

Engraved cards at the Herald Office.

A SURPRISING WEDDING.

It Gave a Shock to the Lady Who Was So Anxious to See It.

An elderly American authoress asked me to conduct her to a place where she could see a workman's wedding, as she required it for a new novel, writes the Paris correspondent of the London Gentlewoman. To oblige the lady I took her to the Lac Saint-Fargen, an establishment at the top of the steep Rue de Belleville.

It was still early when we reached the place, and no brides or bridegrooms were visible as yet. At last two char-a-bancs drove up to the door, and a noisy company alighted, all smoking cigarettes, including the bride, which shocked my friend exceedingly.

The company then sat down to luncheon, and we watched them from a distance, while a photographer took up his position near us. The meal did not last very long and ended in the bride performing a jig on the table, while the guests danced around her. They then started games, hide and seek, etc., and while the bridegroom had his back turned the bride threw her arms round the neck of a red haired youth.

This led to a fight between the two. The melee became general, the bride pulling off her wreath and throwing it at her father-in-law's head. My friend looked on in breathless excitement, while the guests jumped over the tables and chairs, but when the bride turned a somersault, alighting on the bridegroom's shoulders, the good lady's indignation rose to a high pitch, and it was only then that I told her what I—and the reader no doubt, too—guessed long before, that they were a party of acrobats rehearsing a scene for a cinematograph company.

A Land Where Women Are Tyrants.

A missionary of long experience in Bantoland has declared that the men there are much more often ill used by their heathen wives than vice versa. The fact is that these women, by their labor in the fields and their domestic work, support the men; consequently the latter are dependent upon their wives instead of its being the other way about, as with us, and the field work makes them strong and vigorous, the women are usually quite able to hold their own if ill used—for instance, they sometimes bite off their husbands' ears! However, this does not make it any easier for a woman to become a Christian, because then she feels it wrong to assert herself and hit back, and thus she is at the mercy of her husband, and it is very little money she gets when she refuses to comply with heathen customs.—Missionary Review of the World.

How a Cat Caught Two Rats.

I once had a cat who did a rather remarkable ratting feat. He stalked two young rats on the eaves of a low flat stable roof and caught one in the usual way. The other jumped on to an elderberry tree just below.

Bob, however, not satisfied with the one, grasped it firmly in his mouth and then jumped headlong for the other. Either he was very lucky or extraordinarily agile, for he fell to the ground with one rat still in his mouth and the other in his paws and promptly killed them both.—Scotsman.

The Smart Set.

A lady in a town lying under the Rockies was much distressed at hearing a small clique in her town refer to themselves as the "smart set." She appealed to an ex-United States senator and asked him what he understood by the term "the smart set." He replied: "I think I can give you an inkling. In the eastern part of Colorado and in the western part of Nebraska there is a large tract of land known as the 'rain belt.' It never rains there."—Argonaut.

No Police in Heaven.

Small Isabel's particular friend, the policeman on the beat, contracted pneumonia and died. Isabel was greatly grieved until her mother convinced her that he had gone to heaven. Even then she was not quite reconciled. "If heaven is such a good place," remarked the little skeptic, "I don't see what God wants policemen there for."—New York Press.

A clipping from a Hereford, Texas newspaper, announcing the marriage of Ross McCullough and Miss Gracia Job, was received here recently by friends. The wedding occurred Wednesday evening, September 30, 1908, in the presence of a few friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. McMillan in North Hereford, Texas. Miss Job was making that her home at the time. The bride was dressed in brown and the groom wore the usual black.
