Residents in North East Part of Town

Will Not Permit the Practice of Clothesless Bathing.

Complaints are being made of boys who have already begun the practice of swimming in Brandywine creek in the northeast part of town to the annoyance of the residents of that section of town. They are in the habit of shedding their apparel and making nuisances of themselves that the people say they will not permit another time. Affidavits will be filed under the statutes which upon conviction place the lowest possible fine at five dollars and costs.

Society Events.

Dora Crider and wife, east of this city, entertained at dinner on Sunday last, John Sipe and family, John Williams and family, Rev. Ireland, of the Morristown M. P. church, also Walter Crider, of Newport, Ky. In the afternoon the young folks' prayer meeting was held at their home. There were many present. Among those who attended from a distance were Lan Wyant, son and daughter, Ed McCord and family, and Roy Lackey, all of Noblesville, making the trip in two large automobiles. All left feeling they had a good time.

GOVERNOR NAMES TWO ARBOR DAYS

April 29th and October 28th are Set Apart as Appropriate Time for Children to Plant Trees.

Gov. Marshall has issued his proclamation designating Friday, April 29, and Friday, Oct. 28, as arbor days, recommending that they be appropriately observed by the planting of trees. Elaborate school exercises will be held all over Indiana to celebrate the days. The proclamation follows:

"It is to be hoped that the citizens of Indiana
Finds tongues in trees, books in running brooks,
Sermons in stones, and good in everything."

"The tongues in trees voice in a finer language than the tongues of men, the watchful care which the God of nature has over all His creatures. They proclaim that the duty of all life is to grow—to lift itself upward—to shelter the songsters of our State, to shade the care free child and him who stoops with age; to be young and hopeful but at the last, to be cut down for the common good. Day by day, the remorseless onslaught of commerce is silencing these tongues in Indiana. Others must find expression or soon these voices will be rarely heard.

"To the end, therefore, that nature may speak to this people of nature's God. His bounty and his blessing, I, Thomas R. Marshall, governor of the State of Indiana, do hereby designate Friday, April 29, and Friday, Oct. 28, a. d. 1910, as arbor days within and for the common wealth of the State of Indiana. Upon those days, I request that the people of this State devote themselves to the planting of trees that in the years to come, their children may hear from them, voices more impressive than the whirlwind and the storm."

Here and There

Chicago has now unearthed a scandal in her police relief fund. But the calendar shows, we think, that St. Louis got there first with this high sign of true American metropolitanism.

According to a government cook book just out, the cheap cuts of meat can be made highly palatable. How to get a good cook is not included in the directions, which may prove an awkward omission.

Spring is now officially here, although some of the almanacs are persistent in moving it over until about the middle of May, when it is only to play a curtain raiser before the advent of summer on the stage. Officially this is spring, and in a land which dotes on officialism that should be enough.

Some domestic science expositors in Chicago claim to be able to teach how a family can live on a per capita expenditure of 18 cents a day. But this is the minimum, with the maximum at $1. It is this range between the irreducible figure and the unaccommodating high one that bothers the average family.

Funeral of John G. Newsom.

The funeral of John G. Newsom who died at his residence three and one-half miles southeast of Carthage Friday morning March 25th, occurred at the M. E. church in that city Sunday at 1:45 o'clock. The pastor officiated and the Carthage quartette sang several songs.

Mr. Newsom was 69 years of age and had spent his entire life in the neighborhood where he died. He was known as an honest man and a true Christian.

He was well known to many in this county as he had visited here a number of times. He leaves a wife who is the youngest child of John Gates family, and six children.

Those attending from this county were: Jerry Hendren, W. P. Fisk and wife, John W. Biser and family, John H. Brooks, Robert Brooks, Jacob Hamilton and family, Homer Binford and wife, George Gates and family, Jacob Catt, D. H. Gates Jr. and wife, Mrs. D. H. Gates Sr. and daughter, Mary, Morton Allender and family, D. H. Holt, Albert Anderson and wife, Chester Tyner and wife, John E. Barrett and family, and Joseph Sattler and family.

Mrs. Barrett and Mrs. Sattler were daughters of Mr. Newsom.

HAS RELATIVES HERE

Carl Nobach in Trouble in Germany is

Cousin of Mrs. Will Hooten.

Carl Nobach, of South Bend, who is just now in international prominence over the attempt of his native land—Germany—attempting to force him to serve in the army of that country. Local interest is attached to the case from the fact that Mr. Nobach is a cousin of Mrs. Will Hooten, of this city.

Nobach is a young man and came to America with his parents from Germany when he was one year old. Recently he returned to Germany to pursue his studies and the government assumed to place him in the army, in accordance with the laws of the Empire. To this objection was made and the case is now attracting wide attention.

EASTER DAY WEDDING

Mr. Joseph Briney and Miss Carrara Burton were married Easter Sunday morning at the home of William Briney, by Mayor Ora Myers. Mr. Briney is a successful farmer and Miss Burton, whose home was at Cincinnati, is a sister of Mrs. William Briney and is favorably known to a number of people in Greenfield where she has frequently visited.

The newly married couple were given an infare dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Briney, of Blue River township. The day being the birthday of Mr. Frank Briney, the occasion was made both an infare and a birthday celebration. The Briney brothers are well known in this community and their families were all present and participated in the pleasant event.

Mr. and Mrs. Briney have moved to his farm on rural route eight, near Leamons' corner, where they will live and be at home to their many friends who wish them a long and happy wedded life.

Proposition by Defendants to Abandon Office Club and Dispose of Shooting Gallery and Lunch Room.

The blind tiger cases were continued Monday morning in the mayor's court. There is a probability that the cases will be continued from time to time by agreement upon the part of the men charged with the offense to sever their connection entirely with the Office Club and the business room beneath the club room.

There does not appear any disposition upon the part of the authorities to persecute anybody and they say if the objectionable business is eliminated the public should be satisfied, without a trial and possibly punishment if the men should be found guilty.

It appears today that if the club is abandoned and the other places under charges are kept closed the cases may not come to trial. The question of destroying the liquor confiscated is now being discussed. The law provides for its destruction, but as it was owned by individual members of the Office Club the authorities are disposed to ship it back to the brewery if there is a possible way.

...Farm News...

The clover sown last year has come through the winter in good shape and is well rooted, which is very favorable for a good crop of hay this summer.

There has been a great deal of breaking ground done in the month of March. Though there was not much winter breaking, the weather throughout March has been so favorable that many farmers have half their corn ground broken now. The wheat and grass look good. A nice warm rain would do them a great deal of good. With a warm rain the pastures would be in condition for stock in a week or less time.

In general, all kinds of stock have gone through the winter in pretty good shape. The farmers have had plenty of feed and the winter was such that the stock could be handled and fed to good advantage.

The farmers are working under such favorable conditions, and the prices of stock and other products that they raise are such as to make their business so profitable, that they are making many improvements. They are getting in shape to farm and raise stock to the best possible advantage. They are raising better grades of stock, and taking better care of them.

There is not a great deal of stock of any kind in the county ready for the market but there is every evidence that the farmers are giving special attention to breeding and raising all kinds of stock as at present.

The farmers will carry over from the winter an unusually large amount of corn and this will be utilized in developing stock. Already young lambs, pigs, calves and colts are to be seen, and it is safe to say that there never was such an effort made in Hancock county to raise and develop all kinds of stock as at present.

And why should not a great effort be made. Hogs are quoted from $10.85 to $11.20; sheep from $3.00 to $8.00, with spring lambs $18.00; cattle advancing every day with the demand unsupplied, with bulls and dry cows the highest ever known, and good farm horses so high that if a farmer wants to keep his team, he must not put a price on it.

The oat crop has been sown in good condition but a little rain is needed to start it off nicely.

There will be some fruit of all kinds if it does not become advanced by the warm weather to the extent that the frost will kill it. Many farmers are spraying or having their fruit trees sprayed.
