

JOHN CURRY HAS MORE BAD LUCK

TWO HORSES, WORTH $500, ARE KILLED BY TRAIN—LOST TWO WITH BARN AND CONTENTS BY FIRE RECENTLY—HIS WIFE ILL.

John S. Curry, of Philadelphia, is certainly having one man's share of bad luck. He has lost $700 worth of horses in a few weeks; also, a barn and contents, with but little insurance, and has had much serious sickness in his family.

Two valuable horses, worth $500, were struck by a Pennsylvania train Wednesday night, below Philadelphia, and both were killed. A chicken thief had left the gate open leading into a lot adjoining the railroad. The horses wandered through the gate into the lot and passed through the loose hedge fence and onto the railroad and were struck by an eastbound train between 8 and 9 o'clock Wednesday night.

A few weeks ago, Mr. Curry's barn burned, two horses being lost, with the other contents. Mr. Curry's wife has been critically sick, recently returning from the hospital. She has not been told of the latest bad luck, because of her weakened and nervous condition.

Your Fall Cold Needs Attention.

Edgar Bussell and family, of Greenfield, will move to the Scott farm, near here.

CONSUMPTION TAKES 350 PEOPLE DAILY

Over 350 people succumb to consumption every day in the United States. Science proves that the germs only thrive when the system is weakened from colds or sickness, overwork, confining duties or when general weakness exists.

The best physicians point out that during changing seasons the blood should be made rich and pure and active by taking Scott's Emulsion after meals. The cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion warms the body by enriching the blood; it peculiarly strengthens the lungs and throat, while it builds the resistive forces of the body to avoid colds and prevent consumption.

If you work indoors, the easily feel languid or nervous, Scott's Emulsion is the most strengthening food-medicine known. It is totally free from alcohol or any stupefying drug. Avoid substitutes.

WESTLAND.

Lydia M. Jessup, of Scott City, Kansas, is visiting relatives and friends in this and Western Grove communities.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Binford spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Binford.

Last year's senior class of Westland high school presented the domestic science department with a beautiful new sewing machine.

John Morris met with a close call Wednesday while loading gravel in Harry Apple's pit. The gravel caved in. Some one seeing it hallowed to him and he escaped without serious injuries, but the wagon was badly broken and one horse was knocked over the wagon tongue, though not seriously hurt.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hayes, of Greenfield, spent Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Butler, after attending the horse show at Morris-town.

Neighbors, friends and relatives went with cake and cream to the home of Mrs. George Mace Saturday evening to spend the evening in a pleasant social way with F. N. Edwards and family, who are soon to move to Charlottesville. All wish them well in their new location.

Mrs. Faughn Addison is attending the state W. C. T. U. convention at Brazil this week.

Otto Feucht and Miss Anna Counts, of Indianapolis, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Cook Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Elliott and Charles E. Cook attended the Sunday school convention at Fortville Sunday afternoon.

Blue River township Sunday school convention has been dated for November 1st. Please remember the date.

Both the Republican speaking Tuesday evening and the Progressive speaking Saturday afternoon were well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lindamood, of Michigan, happily surprised Mr. and Mrs. James Lindamood Saturday by their coming home. Sunday they had a family reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Elliott went to Richmond Friday in their auto to visit their daughter, Mrs. Paul Brown and family, and returned Saturday afternoon.

Charles Hill and family, Mr. and Mrs. Price Scott and Mr. and Mrs. Lindley Andrews were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Wiggins Sunday.

Dr. T. R. Woodard was entertained at dinner Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Binford.

Mrs. T. J. Holding was taken suddenly ill Sabbath.

C. Moffitt and family spent Sunday with friends at Knightstown.

Why Not Publish It?

When you want a fact to become generally known, the right way is to publish it. Mrs. Joseph Kallans, Peru, Indiana, was troubled with belching, sour stomach and frequent headaches. She writes, "I feel it my duty to tell others what Chamberlain's Tablets have done for me. They have helped my digestion and regulated my bowels. Since using them I have been entirely well." For sale by all dealers.

A Jolly Good Time.

The home of Alonzo Wainscot and sons, William and Edward, on Route 4, was the scene of a jolly time Sunday, October 11th. Relatives and friends to the number of sixteen gathered at the home at an early hour with well filled baskets. The party was conveyed from Philadelphia to the Wainscot home in a big wagon. At noon the table groaned under its weight of good things to eat. Horseshoes was the general game of the day and some pretty exciting games were played. In the afternoon watermelon and muskmelon were enjoyed by all present.

All departed at a late hour hoping that they might again meet. The ride back to the car was even more enjoyable than from the car. Songs were sung almost all the way and everyone declared that the day had been well spent. Those present were John Moore and wife and their son, Frankie; Charles Moore and daughter, Edna; Charles Wilkins, wife and daughters, Pearl and Algie, and son, William; Bertha Ogden and Fred Johantgen, all of Indianapolis, and James Moore, wife and daughter, Iva Giles and Mrs. Eveline Mattillo, all of Greenfield. One Who Was There.

Stop Those Early Bronchial Coughs

They hang on all winter if not checked, and pave the way for serious throat and lung diseases. Get a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and take it freely. Stops coughs and colds, heals raw inflamed throat, loosens the phlegm and is mildly laxative. Best for children and grown persons. No opiate. H. H. Zike.
