

WHAT REPUBLICAN PARTY TYPIFIES

Organization Is Genuinely Progressive As It Always Was.

A SQUARE DEAL FOR ALL

Farmers of North Must Have Equal Chance With Those of South—Property and Employment For the Idle Thousands—American Markets For American Producers.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 7.—A few of the progressive things for which the Republican party stands in the present campaign are cited in a statement just issued by the Republican state committee. The statement gives the following:

"The Republican party stands for a tariff that will prevent 'Big Business' from hiring Japanese labor in Japan and Chinese labor in China for manufacturing goods to be distributed by 'Big Business' distributing agencies at lower cost than the same articles, made by American labor, can be distributed.

"The Republican party stands for a tariff that will give the farmers of the north an equal chance with the planters of the south.

a tariff that will keep Argentine corn out of this country and will give the wheat growers of the north a chance with the onion raisers of the south.

"The Republican party stands for a tariff that will put the thousands of idle railroad employees and factory men back to work at high American wages.

"The Republican party stands for a tariff equal to the difference between the cost of production at home and abroad.

"The Republican party stands for the same measure of protection for the products of the mines as the products of other American industries.

"The Republican party stands for the preservation of American markets for the American producer.

the repeal of the Underwood tariff law, which hands over the American markets to foreign commerce and the establishment of a non-partisan tariff commission to the end that all duties shall be adjusted to the exact difference between the cost of production at home and abroad.

the maintenance of the Panama canal without dictation from any foreign power.

"The Republican party stands for international arbitration and the principles of peace inaugurated by William Howard Taft.

"The Republican party stands for the most generous pensions for the old soldiers and their widows or orphans.

"The Republican party stands for such legislation as will develop a modern system of rural credits.

the right of individual participation on the part of its membership in party affairs.

"The Republican party stands for a reduction in state debt and current expenditures and the unhorning of the notorious Democratic machine now so grossly extravagant and corrupt in the management of state affairs.

"The Republican party stands for honesty and integrity in office and good and efficient government all along the line.

"The Republican party stands for the same efficiency in the conduct of the public business as is demanded by private business enterprise.

"The Republicans party stands for the demolition of the spoils system.

amendments to the State Constitution prohibiting extension of the term of any legislative officer.

We reiterate our former declaration in favor of the revision of the constitution of the state by a constitutional convention consisting of representatives elected by the people, the new constitution so prepared to be submitted to the people for ratification or rejection.

"The Republican party stands for the extension of industrial and agricultural education.

the right of labor to organize for its protection and the establishment of a non-partisan state labor commission to have charge of state inspection and to mediate industrial disputes.

arbitration of industrial differences, for the eradication of the child labor evil, for better hours and working conditions for women and more sanitary conditions in workshops.

"The Republican party stands in opposition to placing prison-made goods in competition with the products of free labor and for better safeguards to protect the lives of those who toil in the mines.

"The Republican party stands for the enactment of an equitable workmen's compensation law.

the removal of the liquor question from party politics.

"The Republican party stands for the submission of women's suffrage to the proposed constitutional convention or to a vote of the people in the form of a proposed amendment to the state constitution.

the divorce of the judiciary from partisan politics, the simplification of methods of legal procedure and legislation that will make less difficult the impeachment of officials for malfeasance.

"The Republican party stands for the enactment of a law prohibiting the issuance of sale of watered stock by corporations, the suppression of tuberculosis and the enactment of better regulations for the sale of narcotic drugs.

"The Republican party, nationally, in state and in county, stands for a square deal to every man, no matter what his politics; stands for an honest use of taxes and revenues, and stands against bias or prejudice in the administration of public affairs."

ANOTHER DEMOCRATIC PAPER FIGHTING COOK

New Albany Public Press Demands "Explanation that Explains."

NEW ALBANY, Ind., Oct. 7.—The Public Press of this city, the leading Democratic newspaper of Floyd County, in a recent issue backs up Editor Samuel B. Wells, of the Scotts-burg Journal, in his demand for an explanation of the nefarious things put over by the Taggart-Fairbanks machine in the last legislature. The Public Press wants an explanation from Homer L. Cook, the Democratic nominee for Secretary of State, who was speaker of the house in that session, and makes it plain that it is not wearing the Taggart-Fairbanks-Ralston-Cook collar.

Under the heading of "Cook Should Come Through," the Public Press says:

"Editor Samuel B. Wells, of the Scottsburg Journal, seems to have stirred up a hornet's nest by his criticisms of Speaker Homer L. Cook, nominee for Secretary of State, with reference to the Lake County Recorder Bill that is printed in the Acts of 1912, when the bill was definitely postponed in the House while it was on its way through the House."

"Speaker Cook recently made a partial explanation that did not explain and the matter is as much beclouded now as it was when it was first made known.

"The Public Press understands that efforts will be or have been made to get Speaker Cook off the ticket, as many prominent Democrats are reported to be of the opinion that if he remains at the head of the ticket the whole ticket may be defeated. It is surely the right of the people to know the truth about this matter and it should be to the interest of the Democratic party and especially to Mr.
Cook to come through with an explanation that will explain instead of an evasion of the responsibility."

Commenting on this editorial, Editors Wells, of the Scottsburg Journal, in this week's issue, says:

"Read the editorial of Frank Gwin, Editor of the Public Press, of New Albany, about Homer Cook's letter, which we published last week. Mr.
Gwin has the right idea, that Cook's letter of explanation is a letter that DOES NOT EXPLAIN. But Mr.
Gwin, in making that remark, lays himself open to the charge of Sam Ralston, as being a Democrat that belongs to the class of 'Scurrilous Hounds,' who are such according to Ralston because they demand the TRUTH and ALL THE TRUTH."

MANY THINGS HURTING
DEMOCRATIC MACHINE

Ft. Wayne News Says Taggart-Fairbanks Outfit Is Hard Hit.

FT. WAYNE, Ind., Oct. 7.—Declaring that the desperate efforts of the Democratic state committee to get speakers of national reputation for participation in the Democratic campaign indicates clearly that the Democrats realize they are "up against it," the Ft. Wayne News enumerates a number of things which it says are working to the great detriment of the Democrats in Indiana and are proving very instrumental in bringing about Republican success this year. The News says the following are working tremendous injury to the Democrats:

"The brazen administration of Donn Roberts, Democratic mayor of Terre Haute, and his amazing effrontry in aspiring to the governorship of the state.

"The disgraceful condition of the state's finances, due to the frenzied extravagance of the Democratic party after it had pledged the people a policy of 'economy, retrenchment and reform.'

"The public knowledge of crooked work during the last legislature, by means of which nauseating salary grabs were impudently placed on the statute books, though they had not been passed by the legislature.

"The obnoxious candidacy of Speaker Cook, the man who signed the salary grabs and had them placed on the statute books, for secretary of state.

"The underhanded and wholly despicable manner in which the state
