MANAGEMENT CANCELS THE CHAUTAUQUA

OF S. EUGENE WHITE, GENERAL MANAGER OF
CENTRAL COMMUNITY CHAU-TAUQUA SYSTEM, CAUSES
GREENCASTLE PROGRAM TO BE SUSPENDED FOLLOWING
TUESDAY AFTERNOON PRO-GRAM.

TO BE REFUNDED

Because of the death of S. Eugene White, general manager of the Central Community Chautauqua System, headquarters in Greencastle, the program of the Greencastle Chautauqua, which began on Monday afternoon, was cancelled following Tuesday afternoon entertainment. Announcement was made at the Chautauqua tent on Monday evening, and hundreds of Greencastle and Putnam county people went to the tent to attend the evening entertainment. The management of the Chautauqua announced that it would not only refund all money paid for tickets but would pay all of the costs incurred by the local committee in arranging for the community. This will result in the expenditure of many hundreds of dollars.

Refunds of season tickets should be made at the Citizens' National Bank in the next few days to get their money refunded.

Greencastle people had subscribed for the Chautauqua mainly in appreciation of Mr. Whiteside's enterprise, the closing of the season in his honor is most fitting. The people were appreciative of the enterprise was evidenced by the fact that the sale of season tickets was the largest ever reported by a Chautauqua committee, being more than sufficient to meet the guarantee and provide for full payment of obligations by the local committee. The decision to close the Chautauqua here was agreed upon by the guarantors at the suggestion of management.

POLITICAL GOSSIP FROM WASHINGTON

Washington, July 30.—The second session of the federal trade commission is to the activities of the big packers has added to the trouble of the leaders in this Congress. Again there has been brought forward a governmental agency to indict the packers and methods by which they are allowed to control the prices of meats to the producers and the consumer. This Congress must determine if it is going to be done about this situation.

Now is the time when Indiana yearns for a creditable representative in this Congress. Now is the time when a Voorhes or a Turpie Hendricks, or a Kern, or a Shiver, or a Taggart might thrust himself into the debate in the Senate and win his way to a successful ending of the people he represented. Opportunity has been entirely lost in the League of Nations fight for Indiana might just as well not have been in the Senate. There was no contribution from the State to assist in the approval or rejection of the League, and it is a condition which is true almost alone of Indiana. For weeks now there has been going on the fight over the packers and the high cost of living and when Senators New and Watson appear on the floor—and that is not very often they appear in the attitude of good losers. The "poor consumer" who has a tremendous interest in the packer question, even the packers themselves, might as well have no representation from Indiana in the Senate.

There is opportunity to make one of the famous in the House over this question. But Indiana is as poorly represented in the House as in

GOVERNOR GOODRICH BACKS UP

NO SPECIAL SESSION OF LEGISLATURE DURING AUGUST OR SEPTEMBER ACCORDING TO THE LATEST ANNOUNCEMENT FROM THE STATE HOUSE.

EARLY SESSION OPPOSED

Governor Goodrich announced last evening that he will not call a special session of the legislature in August or September, after receiving an opinion from Ele Stansbury, attorney general, which holds in effect that regular appropriations for the next fiscal year can be utilized for meeting deficits of the current year in the maintenance costs of state institutions.

The opinion is based on a paragraph of the 1919 regular appropriation act, which according to the attorney general gives the state board of finance the right to make the appropriations of a succeeding year available in event of such an emergency as the institutions now face.

Governor's Statement.

Governor Goodrich in a statement issued after receiving the opinion, said:

"The opinion of the attorney general seems to make it unnecessary to call a special session of the legislature before the close of the fiscal year. It was found from the answers of members of the General Assembly in reply to letters in which the reasons for the proposed special session were explained that it would be very inconvenient for the members to meet in August or September. In the light of the opinion I see no immediate necessity for calling the special session."

DEPAUW GIRLS MAKE RAID; FORTY-EIGHT BATS SLAIN

DePauw University girls who are attending summer school made a raid on bats in Mansfield Hall during the past few evenings. In some manner many of these "night flying birds" had gotten into the reception room of the hall and the girls determined to rid the room of them. Arming themselves with tennis rackets and tying bath towels over their heads, the girls started in on their fight. The first night thirty-two bats were killed and on the second evening the job was completed with a kill of sixteen bats. In all, forty-eight bats were killed.

ADVERTISED LETTERS.

Greencastle, Ind., July 30, 1919
Curtis, Mrs. C. G.
Fowler, Rev. E.
O'Hair, Mr. J. M.
In calling for same please say "advertised."

W. L. DENMAN, P. M.

If it had not been for "Bobby," a little fox terrier, the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Crousore, who reside on West Liberty street might have been robbed. Mrs. Crousore was awakened about 2:30 o'clock Tuesday night by the barking of "Bobby," who fancifully was running through the rooms. The cause of the dog's barking was that burglars had attempted to gain entrance to the home by taking out a screen on the west side of the home. In doing so, the would-be robbers dropped the screen, making considerable noise, awakening "Bobby," who was slumbering near the window. He then gave the alarm and the burglars made a hasty exit from the side yard. Finger prints are in the dust on the window sill where the robbers made the attempted entrance. This incident is one of several similar incidents happening in this part of the city within the last month.

Miss Laura Hinton will go to Mansfield this evening, where she will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. George Frank, for several days.

STOP SWIMMING AT STOP 34-NO NEVER THEY SAY

ACTION OF WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP FARMERS IN POSTING TOWNSHIP AGAINST HUNTING, FISHING AND CAMPING CAUSES CONSTERNATION AMONG GREENCASTLE SWIMMERS.

WHAT WILL BE THE RESULT

Stop swimming at Stop 34? No, never, say the Greencastle "mermen" and "mermaids" who have been visiting the popular swimming hole on Walnut Creek west of town most every hot evening this summer.

But how about the farmers of Washington township who have posted the township against hunting, fishing and camping? Large signs have been posted all over the township and one of these especially noticeable has been posted near the road entrance to the swimming hole.

This has caused the swimmers to become just a wee bit worried. For they fear the farmers may attempt to include the pastime of swimming among the "outlawry" sports of the township. So far there has been no indication that the farmers were going to attempt to prohibit swimming. And the swimmers say that they will not give up without a struggle.

CLINTON FALLS.

Harvey Thomas was hurt last Monday, being kicked by a horse.

Miss Flo Vandament, of Greencastle, called on Miss Lucille Bettis, Sunday.

Charlie Miller has returned to his home from England, where he was in the U. S. army.

George Pierce and Clay Bettis are cutting timber east of Greencastle.

Charles Stites' wagon caught fire Saturday while threshing, burning the wagon and some grain. It caught fire from the engine.

William Alsbaugh and family, of Greencastle, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Bettis.

Moses Manker, of Indianapolis, is here visiting relatives.

Frank Davison, of Greencastle, and Moses Manker, of Indianapolis, visited their niece, Miss Lucille Bettis, Sunday who is quite ill.

Mr. and Mrs. John Porter, Mr. and Mrs. James Woodward of Cayuga, Mrs. Eula Staggs and little sons visited Mrs. Anna Boswell, Sunday.

NATION-WIDE DRIVE TO IMPROVE ALL LIVE STOCK

United States Department of Agriculture Announces Campaign to Eliminate Scrub Sires from Breeding.

Washington, D. C., July 30.—"Better Sires—Better Stock." This is the slogan of a national better livestock crusade to get actively in motion October 1 that is announced by the United States department of agriculture working in co-operation with the state agricultural colleges and other agencies interested in live stock improvement. The campaign looks forward to the future food needs of this country's increasing population and results from long and careful observation of the live-stock industry in this country, and was planned after extensive consultation with specialists and breeders. The plan is to hasten the replacement of the multitude of scrub domestic animals in the United States with pure-bred or high grade stock, and also to improve the quality of pure breeds themselves. The goal in view is greater efficiency in production.

The campaign will be the first organized crusade in a large country to improve all live stock simultaneously. It will interfere in no way with any work in live-stock improvement now being conducted, but makes all the work more definite and effective by providing official recognition for progressive breeders.

The campaign will be supervised from the department of agriculture in Washington and in each state by the state agricultural colleges. County agents and other field workers of the department of agriculture and of the state colleges will handle the campaign locally. Every live-stock owner actively co-operating and keeping and using none but pure-bred sires of good quality will be given an emblem as an official recognition of meritorious effort.

the Senate. There was a report the other day from a House committee and therein was printed the name of a representative from Indiana. It was the first notice in weeks, trivial as it was, that there was anyone from Indiana attending this Congress.

This Congress must do something on the high cost of living. The Republican party in control of this Congress must answer to the people. At least there has been presented one side of the case against the packers—and the packer question and the high cost of living question are so intimately related that out of the packer investigation will grow a high cost of living investigation. A governmental agency has rendered an accounting against the packers, an accounting so bristling with condemning statements that either the governmental agency must be proved by Congress to be deceiving the people or there must be something done by the party in power relating to the high cost of living.

Indiana's place has been definitely determined in the League of Nations fight despite what the sentiment of the people of the state may be. The state has been marked down as giving no aid nor comfort to the creation of the League. The voice of the state has been the voice or lack of voice of Senators New and Watson. To Indiana can go no credit when the League is finally adopted.

The situation means much to Watson. He must be a candidate before the people in 1920. To New it may not mean so much as it is generally believed now that New will not be a candidate to succeed himself. Watson can only be remembered in the next campaign as one who has uttered no word in support of the League and one who, even in silence, has made it known to the opponents of the League that they can count upon his support.

There is some evidence that leading Republicans of Indiana are a little frightened over this situation. Word has come to the Indiana Senators asking if it is not possible for them to join in support of the League. And it is understood that word has gone back that the Indiana Senators cannot agree with the suggestions from the Indiana leaders.

The campaign of 1920 appears now to be revolving around the two big questions—the League of Nations and the high cost of living. And in both cases in both big question, neither New nor Watson nor any Indiana member in the House is showing any ability for constructive effort or showing any desire to be a force in either body.

BUYING OF FERTILIZER NOW WILL SAVE TIME AND MONEY

Now is the time to buy fertilizers for fall sown crops, was the statement of County Agent R. S. Fouts today. Companies handling fertilizer material can give better and quicker service at this time of the year and transportation facilities are better now than they will be later in the season.

Buying the material in car load lots is recommended by the Soils and Crops Division of the Agricultural Extension Department of Purdue University since this method of purchasing will make it possible to get a discount of about seven per cent from the listed price. In certain sections of the state it may be possible for some elevator or fertilizer concern to handle the material for the farmers and later put it out to them at a very small increase in price to cover the cost of extra labor. By buying the fertilizer now when reduced prices are possible and storing it in a convenient place from which the farmers may haul it in a slack season, much can be saved in fertilizer buying.

Fall prices which have recently been put out by the various fertilizer companies show a reduction from those in the spring of 20 to 30 per cent, on almost all mixed goods.

THRESHES 32 BUSHELS OF 62 POUND WHEAT TO ACRE

Lacy Stoner has just completed threshing a field of wheat on the Stoner home place which threshed 32 bushels of 62 pound wheat to the acre. This is a splendid yield of No. 1 wheat. The entire yield will be saved for seed wheat.

SIX KILLED ON NEW FLEET DESTROYER TENDER

On Board the U. S. S. New Mexico, July 26.—Six men were killed today in a boiler explosion on the U. S. S. Melville, a naval tender attached to the Pacific fleet, Captain Twining, chief of staff, has been advised.

The Melville, the first ship especially designed as a destroyer tender and completed in 1915, was the first large American naval vessel to cross the ocean after the United States entered the war, arriving at Queenstown, Ireland, May 22, 1917, soon after the first patrol of destroyers. She immediately became the flagship of Admiral Sims, commanding the American naval forces in European waters, and flew his flag until she started back home in January, 1919.

The ship, a 7,150-ton vessel, 400 feet long and 51 feet beam, carries a regular personnel of 500 officers and men, more than one-half of whom are skilled mechanics. During her service overseas the Melville was a repair and supply ship for thirty-five destroyers operating from Queenstown.

Commander John S. Irwin is the Melville's commanding officer.

BARNABY BUYS LARGEST OAK LOG IN STATE

The largest oak tree in Putnam county, and according to Charles Barnaby probably the largest in Indiana, has been purchased of Hutcheson Brothers, farmers who reside on Walnut Creek in Washington township, near Stop 34 on the interurban by Mr. Barnaby and will be cut into veneer.

The tree, which made five big logs, was hauled to Greencastle on Friday by Mr. Barnaby's log haulers. The butt log of the tree reached Greencastle at near midnight Friday night. Some idea of the size of this log may be gained from the fact that while it is only ten feet long it required four horses to haul it to town and the four horses had all they could do to get it here. The small end of the butt log measured more than fifty inches in diameter.

The veneer from the log will be used in the manufacture of Victrola and Columbia phonograph cases, according to Mr. Barnaby.

Local persons who have seen the logs do not hesitate to say that they are the largest they have ever seen. Mr. Barnaby, who is most familiar with the timber of Indiana, states that there is only one more tree in the state, as far as he knows, that is near as large as the one purchased from the Hutcheson Brothers. This tree is at Turkey Run. Mr. Barnaby doubts if it is quite as large as the one he bought here.

A photograph of the five logs cut from the giant oak will be taken today.

The log haulers who brought the giant oak to Greencastle from the Hutcheson farm are Jack Greenlee, Lee Surber and Tobe Nelson.

PUTNAM ONLY COUNTY WHICH GAVE QUOTA

Putnam county was the only county in District No. 12, consisting of six counties, to subscribe its quota in the Indiana United War Work Campaign, according to a report just issued by the State United War Work organization.

Putnam county, with a quota of $33,940, subscribed $34,700 as its share of the war work fund. Or in other words Putnam county gave 114.4 per cent of its quota.

The other counties in the district, their quotas and the amount subscribed are as follows:

County	Quota	Subscription
Marion	$936,000.00	$378,000.00
Hancock	28,961.00	20,725.00
Hendricks	34,989.00	32,200.00
Putnam	33,940.00	34,700.00
Morgan	21,000.00	15,750.00
Johnson	40,833.00	26,700.00

Total for District — $1,095,732.00 $508,075.00

MAY WEAR UNIFORMS ON SPECIAL CIVIC OCCASIONS

Washington, D. C., July 26.—The war department has issued a circular advising honorably discharged soldiers that they are entitled to wear their uniforms on special occasions, such as parades, patriotic celebrations, etc. The circular was issued because of numerous requests from discharged soldiers for such information. An act passed by the last Congress allowed honorably discharged men in the military service, including the navy and the marine corps, to retain one complete uniform and authorized it to be worn after the men had returned to private life.

TRUE & TRUE OFFICES TO INDIANAPOLIS

Announcement was made Saturday by Fred Hixon, general manager of the True & True Lumber Company, which for the past several years has had general offices here, that on August 15 the company would move the general offices to Indianapolis. The Indianapolis office of the company will be in the Merchants' Bank building.

The True & True Lumber Company are now operating seven retail yards in Indiana. It expects to add several more yards and also organize a wholesale branch of the business soon after getting located in Indianapolis.

The offices are being taken to Indianapolis because that city is more centrally located in regard to their several yards and because of the better location for headquarters for a wholesale business.

Mr. Hixon has just returned from Indianapolis, where he secured office rooms and also secured apartments for his family. Mr. and Mrs. Hixon will occupy apartments in the Esplanade apartments at 3015 North Meridian street. Mr. and Mrs. Orville Hixon, who also will go to Indianapolis, will reside at Thirtieth and Delaware streets, only two blocks from Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hixon. Miss Madeline Hixon, a daughter, will remain in Greencastle and will continue in DePauw. She will reside at the Tri Delt house.

The management of the local True & True yard will not be affected by the change. Leroy Thompson will remain here as manager of the yard.

REPUBLICAN BUREAUS IN ATTACKS AGAINST LEAGUE

Washington, D. C., July 26.—Pamphlets containing Elihu Root's proposals for "reservations" in the covenant of the League of Nations are being scattered broadcast through the mails from the same office in New York from which a weekly publication is issued by the Republican National Committee.

Washington correspondents who received copies of the pamphlets observed that they emanated from the office which is the headquarters of a branch of the Republican National Committee's publicity department, and are convinced that they are being disseminated as part of the Republican propaganda against the League of Nations.

In Ohio the Republican organization also is flooding the state with literature attacking the League, and individual leaders are busy in the same work.

Correspondents and others who have received these pamphlets in Washington are commenting on the fact that while Chairman Will H. Hays is publicly declaring the League of Nations is not a partisan issue, the men, money and machinery of his party are being employed to conduct an attack on the covenant from ambush.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Clyde Murphy and little son, Manfred Roy, of Basin, Wyo., and Mrs. J. W. Kierce and daughter, Mary Imogene, of Baker, Fla., are here the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bond, near Reelsville. Mrs. Murphy and Mrs. Kierce are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Bond.

Charley Buis, who lives about seven miles east of Greencastle, was in town last Friday afternoon. He reports that his wheat, just threshed, made thirty-five bushels to the acre and tested No. 1.

Placing the blame for exorbitant prices on "certain unlawful practices in the traffic of foodstuffs," Governor Cox puts direct responsibility on policies of cold storage institutions, saying: "The evil seems to be rooted largely in the concerted policy of cold storage institutions. Designed originally to conserve the necessities of life, their purposes have been distorted and in too many instances they are conducted for the preservation of prices that can not be defended. The law of supply and demand, which has been a ruling factor through the years, has been well nigh if not completely destroyed."

On Saturday July 26, occurred the marriage of Zelma Bales of this city and Charles Greenlee of Decatur, Ill., at their home in Decatur, which they expect to make their future home they are both well known in Greencastle. Mrs. Bales has been a nurse in this city for the past two years.

Miss Ethel Fisher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maylan Fisher, of Maple Heights, who was operated upon for appendicitis in the Methodist hospital in Indianapolis last Thursday, is reported to be getting along nicely.

J. B. Harris, agent, has sold the Mrs. Cora O'Brien property on East Seminary street to A. J. Cosner for a consideration of $3,300.

PRICE INQUIRY ORDER BY GOVERNOR OF OHIO

Columbus, O., July 26.—Sweeping investigation of food prices in every county in Ohio is requested in a communication sent by Governor James M. Cox today to John G. Price, state attorney-general. Grand jury investigations, Governor Cox states, should be begun in some cases without delay.

Attorney-General Price, who had several discussions with the Governor before the latter's letter was sent, declared he would set every facility of his office at the disposal of the Governor and county prosecutors. He has called a meeting of prosecutors for 2 o'clock next Wednesday afternoon in the chamber of the House of Representatives.

In case there is lack of co-operation in the counties, the Governor will grant authority for the institution of an inquiry by the grand jury under state auspices, the Governor's communication says.

Present high prices, the Governor asserts, are precipitating a crisis and unless action, if necessary drastic action, is taken the situation will become even worse and resulting unrest will increase, the letter observes.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Jones, of Terre Haute, are here visiting relatives.

Mrs. Jennie Johns returned today from a business trip to Chicago.

John Williams, an escaped state farm prisoner, who was arrested in Detroit, Mich., was brought to Greencastle last Thursday night and was held last Thursday evening.

Mrs. W. C. Jean and children, Carl and Margaret Ann, of Parker City, Ind., were the guests of Miss Hazel Lear Thursday evening.

Col. and Mrs. J. R. Weaver left last Friday for Sandusky, O., where they will visit relatives for several weeks. Edward Crume, of Greensburg, is here the guest of his sister, Mrs. Charles Buchanan and family.

J. B. Hammond, as agent, has sold the Frank Wallace property on East Anderson street to Charles McGaughey.

Claude Burk has returned to his home here from overseas service.

The death of Mrs. Ben Tinscher, wife of Ben Tinscher, a wealthy Putnam county farmer, occurred last Friday morning at the home just east of Mt. Meridian.

Harold Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Stewart, who has been visiting friends in Newman, Ill., has returned to his home here.

Miss Myrtle Owens, who is attending the Central Business College at Indianapolis, was here to spend the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Owens. Miss Owens was one of three out of eighty to complete a three months' course in five weeks. On August 1 she will be employed in the office of the Indiana Refining Company of Indianapolis.

Adam Beck, president of the Indiana Portland cement plant, was a Greencastle man who witnessed the fatal plunge of the big dirigible balloon in Chicago a few days ago. Mr. Beck was in Chicago that day and happened to be looking at the balloon when it suddenly burst into flames and collapsed.

Fred Ellis, who conducts a livery barn on Franklin street, killed a gopher at the barn Saturday. Gophers are rare in this part of the country and the one killed this morning is the first which probably has been killed here in many months. A gopher is of the same nature as a prairie dog, only much smaller, being a bit larger than a large sized rat.

Mrs. Mary Wright, who has been spending the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Steve Brown, of North Jackson street, has gone to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. O. B. Evans, of Nashville, Tenn. She was accompanied by Mrs. Brown, who will spend a week visiting relatives.

The Mrs. Jennie Smythe cottage property on East Washington street has been sold through the Dobbs & Vestal agency to George Sage for a consideration of $3,800. Mr. Sage expects to move to Greencastle from his farm just southeast of town this winter.

H. V. Toole, DePauw '17, and his sister, Miss Tollie Toole of Booneville, Ind., are here the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Cook. Mr. Toole recently returned from France, where he served in the American army. He was given a Croix de Guerre for gallantry by the French government.

The funeral of Mrs. Ben Tinscher, whose death occurred Friday morning at the home in Mt. Meridian was held Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the Mt. Meridian church. Rev. J. E. Cash had charge of the services. Interment will be made in the Providence cemetery.

BUSY DAYS FOR CITY FIREMEN

The last few days have been busy ones for the city firemen. Four fires in four days is the record, and it is one which probably has not been equalled in many years. Luckily none of the fires did great damage.

The last fire was on Monday morning when a four-room cottage on Main street, owned by Dr. W. W. Tucker and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Jim Short was badly damaged. The fire evidently was started by children who were playing with fire in the rear of the house and burned into the attic and did damage of several hundred dollars. The fire was confined to the attic of the cottage.

On Sunday morning fire which started in some oil and saw dust in the engine room of the Barnaby mill was discovered by the watchman before it had gained much headway and the firemen got the flames extinguished before any damage was done. This might have resulted in a bad conflagration had it not been discovered early.

Two fires on Friday, one at the Cox & Webb garage and another in a traction car, complete the list of four fires in four days. The traction car caught fire near Torr's switch west of town and was hauled to Greencastle in order that the local firemen might extinguish the blaze. The car was badly damaged by the fire.

SINGLETON-MURPHY WEDDING.

Using the single ring ceremony, two former residents of this vicinity, Lawrence L. Murphy and Miss Jessie Singleton were united in marriage Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in the parlors of the Locust street M. E. church, Rev. F. O. Fraley officiating. The Mendelssohn march was played by Aubrey Cox.

Only the immediate members of the families of the bride and groom, with a few intimate friends of the young couple were present for the ceremony which was beautiful. The bride was dressed in white, wearing a necklace of pearls as the only ornament. After the ceremony at the church the couple left for a brief wedding tour from which they will return for a visit with relatives in this city.

After the fifteenth of August Mr. and Mrs. Murphy will make their future home in Edgeley, N. Dak., where the groom is engaged in the retail lumber business.

The wedding is the culmination of a pre-war romance, when the two young people lived near Brazil, Ind. The groom returned recently from two years' service in the A. E. F. with the Sunset Division commanded by Major-General E. L. Scott. The bride is a graduate of Indiana State Normal and both are well known and have many friends who wish them much happiness in the home in the West. Relatives and friends present for the wedding ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Ross Murphy and family, of Terre Haute; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Murphy and family, of Basin, Wyo.; Glenn Murphy, of Thermopolis, Wyo.; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. O'Hair and family, of Greencastle; Mrs. Harry Rhodes, of Dallas, S. Dak.; Mr. and Mrs. William Murphy and Maurice Murphy, of Brazil; Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Singleton, of Lena; Willard Singleton, of Louisville, Ky.; Misses Valla Murphy, Edith Singleton and Sylvia Singleton of Chicago, Ill.; Misses Lou and Solmie Rader, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Cox and family and Mrs. F. O. Fraley and daughters, of Greencastle.

LAND OPENED TO ENTRY.

Washington, July 26.—Twenty-four thousand acres of land in the Tahoe National Forest in California and Nevada, and in La Sal National Forest, Utah, have been restored to the public domain and made subject to entry under the homestead laws on and after August 21, 1919, and to settlement and other disposition on and after August 28, 1919. Sixteen thousand acres of this land in California and 1,000 acres in Nevada are said to have limited value for grazing. The land in Utah—about 7,000 acres—is in part suitable for dry-farming and partly useful for grazing.

Ott Sherrill, of the Putnam Overland agency, who resides in Cloverdale, but who spends most of his time in Greencastle looking after his automobile business, has sold his farm just south of Cloverdale for a consideration of $20,000.

Charles Reeves of this city, who is in charge of the Gorton sub-station west of town for the traction company, has engaged extensively in the blackberry business during the past few weeks. Mr. Reeves has purchased more than 325 gallons of berries from the pickers who live near the substation. Interurban employees have purchased most of the berries from Mr. Reeves.

POLITICAL GOSSIP FROM WASHINGTON

Washington, July 26.—Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican National Committee, has assumed either a new task, taken a new job or just turned charitable and tried to do somebody a good turn. He is now appearing as the "advance" man for a weekly magazine and he is using the literature of the Republican National Committee to assist the magazine in gaining circulation.

"You will, of course hear of and no doubt will see in full the editorial by ———, published this week in ———, relative to the proposed Franco-American treaty," says Will in a letter marded "personal" to Washington correspondents. "I want to be sure that you see this, with its remarkable subject matter, hence this letter calling your attention to it."

"With kindest personal regards I am" and so on.

Of course in his personal letter "Will" names the writer and the magazine for which he is soliciting particular attention. There is not the slightest intimation that he intends to start any propaganda in this manner. He is not the mission of a Republican national chairman in this instance, apparent. His is a great interest in that article and in the future welfare of the correspondent who he wants to see it by all means, probably as a part of his education.

That some other editors might become incensed at this use of the Republican National Committee literature to boom the circulation of one particular magazine is not to be doubted. Any magazine would be very much pleased with such attention. And any magazine might now write to the correspondents calling attention to something they wished them to see and in their letter suggest that the editorial printed some time ago in another magazine be read. The editorial published in one of the largest magazines in the world simply advised "Will" to get an idea.

It is impossible to satisfy some of the opponents of the League of Nations. William Howard Taft attempted a compromise to permit the Senators to save their faces and vote for the League and he got nothing but a vote. Witness these discussions:

Senator Moses: "The suggestions (Taft's) will convince the people who have been supporting the League to Enforce Peace that he (Taft) was getting money under false pretenses."

Senator Knox: "It will not do; there must be something more than mere interpretive reservations."

Senator Lodge said Mr. Taft himself suggests one reservation relating to representation of colonies on the Council and this reservation would cause the treaty to go back to conference.

Senator Borah talked about Mr. Taft's flop.

Senator Spencer insisted it would not do at all.

When Mr. Taft endeavored to satisfy his Republican friends in the Senate and even went to the extent of criticising the President just to please their sensibilities, he undertook a very difficult task. As long as President Wilson's name is connected with the League of Nations that is sufficient reason for Lodge and Knox and Moses and Spencer to be opposed to the treaty and the League.

"Put some teeth into your reports," was the order which went out from the secret Republican conferences in the House of Representatives to members who were carrying on investigations. Republican leaders have been chagrined because the investigations brought nothing but a water-haul.

So now that the Republicans do not want any investigation of the high cost of living or the packers or anything of that nature. Secretary of War Baker has been singled out as being the cause of the high cost of living. Everything he has done relative to disposing of surplus army foodstuffs is wrong. He is ordered to do something else at once, whatever it is to be the investigators care not. They add in a sentence so filled with generalities it is amusing that they want him to adopt some method of disposing of the foodstuffs which will assure everyone getting an opportunity to purchase some quantity of them.

The House membership laughed when that report was read. The Democratic members now propose to write a report denouncing the Republicans in more generalities than were written in the Republican report. To do so will be to put "some wisdom" in the Republican leadership," the Democrats insist. But when the Republicans have their little joke, even at the expense of Secretary Baker, they are to be commended for endeavoring to entertain the House. It is so dull now that Will Woods of Indiana spends most of his time elsewhere.

SHRINERS HAVE ANNUAL PICNIC

The Putnam county Shriners' picnic held on the Charles Carver farm, one-half mile west of Bainbridge Sunday, was one of the best social affairs staged by the Putnam county people for a long time. Shriners from everywhere were there, and the motto for the day was "Pack your troubles in your old kit bag and smile, smile, smile."

Dr. A. E. Ayter was the toastmaster and after the feast at noon speeches were made by Captain Earl Lane of Greencastle, J. S. McFadden of Rockville, Fred Manson of Crawfordville, F. L. Lyons of Greencastle, James Randal of Greencastle, Mrs. Charles Carver of Bainbridge and Mrs. Earl Lane of Greencastle.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Allen and family, Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Ayter and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Brown and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Broadstreet, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Crawley and family, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Duff and daughter Miss Helen, Mr. and Mrs. A. Durham and family, E. C. Hamilton, A. B. Hanna, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Houck and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Hoffman, Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Hutcheson, Captain and Mrs. Earl Lane and family, Roy Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Long and family, Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Thomas and family, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Lyons and son Glen, Mr. and Mrs. Nealy O'Hair, Mr. and Mrs. James Randal W. W. Sellers, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Taylor and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Timmons and Ed. Walls and daughter, Miss Lela. Those not living in Greencastle were Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Zaring of Rockville, Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Bertrand and family of Roachdale, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Bogan and family of Roachdale, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Douglas and family of Lafayette, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Fordice and family of Reelsville, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Quinn of Lafayette, Orin I. Hall of Roachdale, Frank A. Hanna of Roachdale, L. C. W. Burton of West Point, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carver of Bainbridge, Mr. and Mrs. John Case and family of Roachdale, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Collins and family of Bainbridge, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Chastin and family of Roachdale, Mr. and Mrs. Grace Balkema of Rockville, Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Collier of Terre Haute, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cook of Boswell, Grace Balkema of Rockville, Mrs. E. P. Lastinger of Tampa, Fla., Miss Edith Zaring of Reelsville, Mrs. Claude Garner of Indianapolis, Mrs. Ethel Moeller and children of Terre Haute, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Reddish and family of Waveland, and Miss Eleanor Moninger of Indianapolis.

MRS. THEODORE BOES IS CALLED BY DEATH

The death of Mrs. Cicely Breat Boes, age 56, wife of ex-sheriff Theodore Boes, occurred at the home at the corner of Market and Franklin streets at near 7 o'clock Monday morning of apoplexy, which followed an illness of more than three years of Bright's disease and complications.

Short services were held at the home here Tuesday afternoon and the body was taken to her former home in Cloverdale, where services were conducted in the Cloverdale church by the Rev. Willis Gill. Burial was in the Cloverdale cemetery.

Beside her husband Mrs. Boes leaves one daughter, Mrs. Nellie O'Neal, who resides three miles south of Cloverdale; two brothers, Ezra Brown and L. W. Brown, of Cataract, and her mother, Mrs. Catherine Brown, who lives with her sons at Cataract.

Mrs. Boes had been ill for more than three years, being a sufferer of Bright's disease. Complications developed and three years ago she suffered a slight stroke of apoplexy. A week ago her condition became critical and she was taken to the Dr. Sterns hospital in Indianapolis for treatment. On Saturday she suffered another stroke of apoplexy and the physicians there gave no hope for her recovery.

Mr. Boes then immediately arranged to bring his wife to their home here, the trip to Greencastle being made in an ambulance. They arrived here at 1 o'clock Friday morning.

DEATH CLAIMS

MR. WHITESIDE

The death of S. Eugene Whiteside, age 27 years, vice president of the First National Bank of this city and president and general manager of the Central Community Chautauqua System, occurred Tuesday afternoon at 1:15 o'clock in St. Vincent's Hospital in Indianapolis following an illness of two weeks of typhoid fever.

Beside his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. George Whiteside, of Evanston, he leaves two brothers, Loring J. Whiteside, of New York, with whom he was associated in the Chautauqua business, and Kenneth Whiteside, who has just returned from overseas. One sister, Miss Eleanor, also survives.

Mr. Whiteside came to Greencastle only a few months ago and in his short residence here had proven himself a leader in business affairs. Buying controlling interest in the First National Bank he immediately had the old building remodeled into a modern banking institution, arranging offices for his Chautauqua company.

Mr. Whiteside was just planning the organization of a bond sales company in Indianapolis in which Major Allen Moore and Lieutenant Claire Bittles of this city were to be associated with him when he was taken ill. It is believed that he contracted the disease while visiting one of the towns in which his Chautauqua was appearing.

Mr. Whiteside was a graduate of Northwestern University and last June received his A. B. degree at Columbia University.

GILBERT KNETZER WEDS

MISS HELEN DIETRICK

A pretty wedding took place Sunday evening at 6 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Dietrick, who reside five miles east of Greencastle, when their daughter, Miss Helen Dietrick was married to Gilbert Knetzer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Knetzer, who reside on their farm east of Fillmore. The Rev. Levi Marshall pastor of the Christian church of this city, pronounced the wedding ceremony. Only the immediate relatives and friends were present. Mr. and Mrs. Knetzer are graduates of the Greencastle high school and prominent in their communities. Mrs. Knetzer is a member of the Christian church of this city, while Mr. Knetzer is a prominent worker in the M. E. church of Fillmore. The young couple will reside in their new home recently built on the Coatesville road one mile east of Fillmore.

SAYS BIG FIVE HAVE

PRICES IN CONTROL

Washington, July 29.—The federal trade commission has added another chapter to its indictment of the big packers in Part 3 of its report on the meat situation. Manipulation of the live stock market through control of market yards and a practical monopoly in the buying of live stock are charged against the "big five" packers—Swift, Armour, Morris, Cudahy and Wilson. These, the report says, "have the prices of dressed meat and packing house products so well in hand that within certain limits meat prices are made to respond to their wishes."

Extreme Fluctuations.

Discrimination against competing independent buyers also is charged against the Big Five, as well as manipulation of the live stock market in such a way as to "cause extreme and unwarranted fluctuations in the daily prices paid for live stock." This practice, the report said, had resulted in curtailment of the nation's meat supply by discouraging the production of live stock.

DUNBAR HILL.

Mrs. Nellie Nelson and son, Roscoe, spent from Tuesday until Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Herbert Boswell.

Mrs. Mary Surber and Mrs. Abe Vantook were shopping in Greencastle, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Boswell and Mrs. Nellie Nelson attended the dinner at William Boswell's, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Dodd went to Greencastle, Saturday.

Mrs. Weaver had the threshers Monday.

Mrs. Austin Dodd is on the sick list.

Jacob Pierce is spending a few weeks with his son James Pierce, near Portland Mills.

John W. Miller, Mrs. Golda Bee and Charles Miller visited Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Bettis one day last week.

Ruth and Merrill Fulford have returned to their home after a visit at Ellettsville.

ABOUT DIGESTION.

Digestion begins in the mouth. The food should be thoroughly masticated and insalivated before it is swallowed. When this is habitually neglected stomach trouble is almost sure to follow. If you now have indigestion eat no beef or veal and sparingly of other meats, masticate your food thoroughly and you may recover without taking any medicine. If your bowels are constipated take Chamberlain's Tablets. They not only cause a gentle movement of the bowels but aid digestion and strengthen the stomach.

FOR A BILIOUS ATTACK.

If you have bilious attacks give Chamberlain's Tablets a trial. They are excellent. Willis Browning, Patonsburg, Mo., has this to say of them: "About a year ago my wife used a bottle of Chamberlain's Tablets and they cured her of a bad bilious attack, also of constipation from which she had been suffering for years."

Fire of unknown origin destroyed a barn and contents and threatened destruction of a new $6,000 sale pavilion owned by Fred Obenchain, of Bainbridge, Sunday night. The fire occurred about midnight. When discovered the barn was a mass of flames and burning embers were being carried to the roof of the pavilion near by. Heroic work by Bainbridge men resulted in saving the pavilion. The barn and contents loss is near $3,500, with insurance of near $1,750.

FOUR STATES AFFECTED

BY HUGE FOREST FIRES

San Francisco, July 24.—Much of the Pacific northwest was under a pall of smoke from grass, brush and forest fires burning today in Montana, Idaho, Washington and Oregon.

Lightning was responsible for a number of new fires reported, and high wind in many places overcame the temporary advantage brought by the slight rainfall which accompanied the thunderstorms, to the thousands of fire fighters who have been for weeks waging an almost ceaseless struggle against the flames.

In western Montana and northern Idaho, according to forest officials, there have been 612 fires since June 10. About 2,500 men are employed in fighting them in that territory.

A change in the wind last night brought temporary safety to the little town of St. Regis, Mont., which for several days had been threatened by fires on three sides. The most serious fire, to the north of St. Regis, covered an area thirty miles in circumference.

Three crews of 300 men each were fighting a fire along a fifteen-mile front in the Blackfoot forest adjoining Glacier national park.

Eleven fires were burning in the Flathead forest in Montana.

Fires in Washington were confined to slashings, but were reported spreading rapidly and threatening standing timber.

Fires at several points in Oregon followed an electrical storm yesterday.

TRAIN CREWS HELP

SEARCH FOR NEGRO

Muncie, Ind., July 24.—Scores of men are aiding the local police department and sheriff's forces today in an effort to find George, alias William Anderson, a negro, and admitted slayer of Clyde Benadum, a Muncie druggist who broke jail here last midnight. Anderson also has been partly identified as the murderer of Fred Holle, a Ft. Wayne young man who was fatally wounded last Memorial Day while riding in his automobile with Miss Bernadine Woenker.

Crews of all trains leaving Muncie also are on the lookout for the man and the authorities in all surrounding cities have been notified of the escape. With Anderson, when he calmly walked out of the jail after springing the lock on the door of the upper corridor, was Harvey Lawson, age 28, of Indianapolis, his cellmate, a former convict, being held on suspicion of larceny.

LACK OF STATUTES TO

COVER CHICAGO CASE

Chicago, July 24.—G. M. Stadelman, vice president of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company, owners of the ill-fated dirigible which took the lives of thirteen and injured twenty-eight other persons when it burned and crashed through the skylight of the Illinois Trust and Savings Bank, Monday, has issued a statement through his attorney saying that the company will pay all expenses caused by the accident.

"Any families who have suffered because of this accident will only have to present the bills to our company to have them paid," the statement said. "Irrespective of what the investigations may disclose as to our responsibility, we wish to be allowed to afford all possible facilities for the care of the persons and families afflicted. The company also offered to assume full financial responsibility for damages wrought in the bank."

Because of the lack of law covering the case it is probable there will be no criminal prosecution, Coroner Hoffman said today.

Investigations by federal and state authorities to fix responsibility for the accident, which were adjourned yesterday, will be resumed Friday.

The thirteenth victim died last yesterday. He was Marcus A. Callopy, bank teller, who was burned by flaming gasoline.

"RIM" FLIGHT IS RESUMED.

Army Plane Departs from Mineola, N. Y., for Augusta, Me.

Mineola, N. Y., July 25.—Lieutenant-Colonel R. S. Hartz, who with a crew of four men is making an 8,000-mile trip around the rim of the country in a Martin bombing plane, left here at 8:25 o'clock this morning on the flight to Augusta, Me.

Colonel Hartz arrived here from Washington yesterday on the first leg of the flight, making the trip in two hours and forty-seven minutes. A leak developed in the water tank, but this was repaired while the plane was flying at a height of 5,500 feet over Baltimore.

The next leg of the flight around the country is from Augusta to Cleveland, a distance of 660 miles. The League of Nations question, an-

INDIANA BANKERS TO HELP

PUT OUT FARM RECORD BOOKS

The Indiana State Bankers' Association and the farm management division of the department of agricultural extension, Purdue University, are co-operating to give Hoosier farmers more direct assistance in keeping a simple record of the farm business so that income tax returns will be easier to make. During the last year sixty-eight banks in forty-six counties have placed more than 9,000 record books with farmers.

Keeping books on farm business is difficult with most of the record books that are now available. Farmers are tired after they have worked in the field all day and have little time to devote to book-keeping, so the book they will use must necessarily be easily kept in a short time. In order that a book of this kind may be available to them, the Purdue farm management department has revised its former record book, making changes which the experience of more than 5,000 farmers who have kept records has shown desirable. These new farm record books will be placed with bankers at the cost of publication.

An agricultural credit statement is included in the additions to the new book. This will enable bankers to more intelligently extend or withhold credit to farmers, if made use of, so that banks may obtain a direct benefit from the use of the books as well as farmers. At the end of the year assistance will be available from the Purdue farm management department in helping farmers summarize their records to find the margin of profit or loss and see where modifications may be made in the farm business to increase the net returns. Agricultural agents of the different counties will co-operate in the distribution of books.

FOREST FIRES SUBSIDE.

Spokane, Wash., July 25.—The forest fire situation in western Montana and northern Idaho, which has been regarded by forest officials as critical for the last ten days, seemed much improved today after heavy rains.

Tourists were said to have abandoned chalets in Glacier National Park which were threatened by fires. The fire between Sand Point and Hope, Idaho, was still burning after having covered approximately fifty square miles.

MAKING GREAT IMPROVEMENTS AT GAS PLANT

Great improvements are being made this summer at the Greencastle Gas Company plant in South Greencastle. The work, which is being done under the supervision of H. E. Burkhalter, manager, will do away with future gas shortages.

All equipment used in the manufacture of gas is being duplicated and the plant enlarged and modernized. When completed, the plant will be much more efficient than in the past. When the duplicate equipment is installed there will be no danger of gas shortage, as in case one set of equipment suffers a stoppage or breakdown the other can continue to supply the gas.

Mr. Burkhalter has, since coming to Greencastle, given the people of the community a fine quality of gas and with a more modern plant he will be able in the future to even improve the service which he now is giving.

GOES TO PRESIDENT.

Washington, July 25.—The house late yesterday passed the agricultural appropriation bill, after adopting the Senate amendment permitting homesteaders to leave their farms during droughts without losing any of their rights.

The bill is without the daylight saving repeal rider which caused the presidential veto of the original bill, and now goes to the President for signature. It is the last of the regular appropriation bills.

WILL ENCOURAGE THRIFT

AMONG SCHOOL CHILDREN

Chicago, July 25.—Several hundred Indiana banks have written to the federal reserve bank here asking for supplies of hand grenade banks to be distributed among the school children as inducements to save, according to announcement today by William B. Bosworth, executive secretary of the seventh federal reserve district savings organization. The banks will buy the hand grenades, with tags attached bearing the name of the individual bank, and use them as advertising souvenirs. Children under twelve years who save enough money to buy at least one War Savings Stamp during the summer will be entitled to the hand grenade banks. Children over twelve must save enough to buy two War Savings Stamps.

Mr. Bosworth announced that banks will be expected to get their orders in by August 1. When the banks have been supplied, the hand grenades will be provided for industrial establishments that have organized War Savings Societies. The members of these societies will be required to buy a certain number of stamps before they are entitled to hand grenade savings banks.

WILL NOT OFFER FRENCH

TREATY AT THIS TIME

Washington, July 25.—President Wilson does not now plan to present to the Senate the supplemental treaty with France, promising aid in case of German aggression, until after he returns from his tour of the country. This statement was made today at the White House.

When the President presents the treaty, he will accompany it with an explanatory address to the Senate. No statement was made at the White House with regard to assertions in the Senate yesterday that the President had violated a section of the treaty by not presenting it simultaneously with the treaty of Versailles.

FARM LANDS SELL;

FOUR DEALS MADE

Four farm sale deals totaling more than $50,000 were reported last Friday by S. C. Sayers, manager of the Central Trust Company. The deals were all closed within the past eight days.

Frank Donner of this city is one of those who has acquired a farm through the agency of the trust company. Mr. Donner has purchased the Reutshahn land in Madison township for a consideration of $11,500. There is 175 acres in the farm.

Frank Allee of this city has sold his Warren township farm to Louis Morrison, of Cloverdale, for a consideration of 19,000. There are 194 acres in this farm.

The sixty-acre farm in Jefferson township owned by Frank Morrison has been sold to Floyd Love for a consideration of $7,800.

The other sale reported is the sale of the Vince Jeffries farm in Franklin township, east of Fincastle, for a consideration of $12,000.

POLITICAL GOSSIP

FROM WASHINGTON

Washington, July 25.—James R. Mann, of Illinois, former Republican leader of the House, has again come into his own. Within a short time it is expected that Mann again will be on the floor every day, keeping in touch with all legislation and directing the House Republicans in their legislative course.

It is the first evidence of an intention upon the part of the Republicans to abandon their program of permitting a few states in the East to dominate the entire congress. It is possible the West may yet be recognized and that what New York demands may not be granted entirely. Within the last few months it has been impressed upon this Congress with considerable emphasis that 52 per cent of the voting strength of the country lies in the Mississippi valley alone.

Mann was beaten decisively for the speakership just a few months ago. A Mann figurehead leader, however, was named to direct the battles. Frank W. Mondell of Wyoming being given the task. The responsibility, the task and the fact that he was shorn of much of the power he needed to control the House doomed him to failure. And the failure has come until it is generally admitted, admitted even now and then by Republican newspapers in the East, that Champ Clark told the truth when he described this Congress as "one concentrated growl."

Mann's return will mean at least that some effort will be made to do something in the House. With all the possibility of the reconstruction period there has been nothing done. Congress has devoted all its time to passing some bills which the Republicans in the Senate held up in a Republican filibuster in the last session. They refused to work for three days and then put in two months doing the work which could have been done in those three days.

The greatest fault Mann had is his idea that it is not reason to commend the effort of a Democrat now and then. His last and greatest mistake was to commend the President for his effort to create a league of nations. His commendation was indirect in that he criticised without stint the Republican opposition, but it was sufficient commendation to mark him for slaughter. With him in control in the House, the Senate policy of waiting to see what the morning papers said the President would do and then declining to do just the opposite would not operate successfully.

Mann says the reports of disorganization in the Republican forces in the House is "newspaper talk," and that the present Republican leaders "are young yet." But he was not on the floor ten minutes when he was given an ovation by both Republicans and Democrats, and a short time later he began to direct the Republican legislative wheels.

There have been several night meetings of the Republican leaders within the last few weeks. The situation in the House has been discussed and the criticism has been rather severe. Julius Kahn, chairman of the House committee on military affairs, and Representative Butler, chairman of the naval affairs committee, have been outspoken in their denunciation of the manner in which things have been going.

Special attention has been called recently to the endeavor to pass the vocational education bill over the veto of the President. A blunder had been made in refusing to grant sufficient money to assure wounded soldiers and sailors and marines the benefit of the educational system. The President refused to sign the bill until the appropriation was increased. The course to pursue was to have admitted the mistake and co-operated with the President, but the Republican leaders began to play politics. Their tactics brought thousands of letters from soldiers who condemned them and applauded the President.

The investigation into the conduct of the war has fallen so flat that there is now talk of discontinuing the work. As the Democrats expected when they joined in asking that the investigation be made, the only thing which has been shown is the wonderful efficiency of the military forces in this war and the able manner in which the war and navy departments brought the enemy to terms. A highly paid publicity man engaged by the Republican national committee has failed to get any result from this committee.

The "drys" contended that Representative Mondell was responsible for the delay in passing the prohibition enforcement bill. The Republican "wets" blame him for not endeavoring to have some of the radical sections of the bill wiped out.

Speaker Gillett is criticised for putting himself in a hole when he refused to recognize a Democratic member who wanted to propose a welcome for General Pershing.

There is little but disorganization. If Mann can get some constructive effort, even though it be of the slightest extent, he will have improved the situation. The history is now one entirely of destruction, a "concentrated growl."

POOR MANAGEMENT REDUCES

PROFIT ON NATIVE LAMBS

That the enviable reputation of Idaho lamb is due to careful management which is ordinarily denied the eastern farm flocks is apparent to visitors to the sheep house of any large market. The native lambs, with few exceptions, come to market without having been castrated, and undocked, but after midsummer they are usually "docked" in another sense at the time of sale sometimes to the extent of two or three dollars a hundred. Even this discrimination often fails to show the actual difference in value, buyers in many instances being open to criticism for not making a sufficient spread between the good and common grades.

The commendable attitude of Idaho sheepmen toward this neglect was recently shown in their declaration that undocked and uncastrated lambs were not "Idaho lambs" and any such were barred from competition in the sheep club classes of that state.

The annual loss to farm flock owners from neglecting these important features in management must total millions of dollars. The long tailed, bucky lambs have not only run off their milk fat, but have done the rest of the flock an undetermined injury. There is a striking lack of uniformity in native lambs and this is probably as much due to neglected management as parasites. Beside the lack of uniformity and the loss of weight the carcass of the ram lamb is inferior to that of the wether. Buck lamb carcasses often cut 6 to 8 per cent more of the low priced cuts than wethers. Their meat is coarse grained, redder in color and as a rule not as highly finished.

Agricultural colleges have urged castration for years until it is tiresome to see the articles in print. The problem is unchanged. One commission man with years of experience in selling sheep, upon being asked if the condition was not getting worse, replied "No, it can't. The farmers never did castrate their lambs and they haven't changed their ways."

LILLIPUT-LAND.

Sunday visitors at J. C. Moore's were Thomas Fiddler and family, Lloyd Blue and family, Ezra Cummings and wife and Abner Tabor.

Mrs. Anna Sewnig, of Logansport, is visiting Harry Day and family.

Ross Johnson arrived home from France, Sunday.

Miss Lois Allee attended institute at Gosport, Saturday.

Mrs. Margaret Sherrill and Mrs. Ettie Murphy, of Cloverdale, spent Tuesday with Ezra Baldwin and family.

Mrs. Mary Furr, of Quincy, spent Friday night with John Sinclair's.

James Harrigan and family, of Little Mount, and Lan Oagles and family, of Amity, were Sunday guests at C. E. Hartsock's.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Cummings and Mrs. Mary Moore and daughter, Lillian, made a flying trip to Gosport, Wednesday.

POPLAR GROVE.

Mrs. Dan Cline and granddaughter, Wilma, are slowly improving.

Jewel Trout spent the week end at Bedford.

Elmer Farmer, of Indianapolis, spent the week end with his parents. Mrs. Farmer and daughter, Miss Frances, accompanied him home.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cline and daughters spent Sunday with Hannibal Jones.

Master George Elmore, of Indianapolis, came Saturday for a visit with his grandparents.

J. O. Bales is spending the week at Fillmore and assisting in threshing.

Grandpa Gasley is on the sick list.

Sunday visitors with Elias Elmore of near Cloverdale, Mr. and Mrs. and family were Harold Cox and family Jones, of near Putnamville, and Dewey Elmore of Indianapolis.

The First National Bank will be closed all day Thursday on account of the death and funeral services of S. Eugene Whiteside, vice president of the bank. The Citizens' National Bank and the Central National Bank will close, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

The temperature at noon today was 98 degrees as officially recorded by Weather man Joe P. Allen, Jr.

W. P. Daggett, of Indianapolis, who has been engaged as the architect for the new Phi Psi home, was in Greencastle Tuesday afternoon and with Jackson Boyd visited the stone quarries of Putnam county to decide whether or not the Putnam county material could be used in the erection of the new $50,000 Phi Psi home which will be constructed this winter. As a result of the inspection Mr. Daggett stated Tuesday evening that the stone is fine and is just what he has been looking for.

Mrs. L. F. Crawford is visiting friends in Putnamville today.

Raymond Coffman of this city has filed suit in the Putnam county circuit court for divorce from his wife, Mrs. Ethel Coffman. Coffman alleges in his complaint that they were married in 1915. In 1917 he joined military service and in May of that year he went to France. He was discharged from service in July, 1919, and came home to his wife. But while away he states that his wife had conducted herself in such a manner that her name was in bad repute. On this grounds he sues for a divorce. Mrs. Coffman is now residing in Anderson.

Mrs. G. W. Bence, who ten days ago underwent an operation in the Methodist hospital at Indianapolis, is expected home this evening. Mrs. Bence has rapidly improved since the operation.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. John, who reside on North Indiana street, are having their home remodeled. Five rooms are being built above the first story. This part of the building will be stuccoed. When completed the house will be strictly modern.

John Meehan, an employee at the Indiana Portland Cement Company plant, suffered a painful accident Wednesday morning when the middle finger of his left hand was badly mashed.

William Sutherland has sold the 93-acre farm in Franklin township, which he recently purchased, to Frank Wilson for a consideration of $11,000.

Miss Lola Jones and Miss Reggie Daniels of the Central National Bank are taking a two weeks' vacation.

A very timely advertisement is placed in the show window of the Putnam Electric Company's office on East Washington street. The advertisement consists of three electric fans placed upon a revolving pedestal which moves as a merry-go-round.

A beautiful silver loving cup which will be given by Ed. Hamilton for the winner of the golf series this summer is on display in the Hamilton book store window. The cup is a beauty and well worth winning.

Miss Leslie O'Neal of Mt. Meridian is visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Thorpe. Mrs. Charles Ellis and two children of Indianapolis are visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Ellis.

The Rev. and Mrs. Don Nichols, Miss Ida Long, Warren Courtney, Miss Mary Manuel and Miss Nora Webb went to Bethany Park Tuesday morning, where they will attend the Indiana conference Epworth League institute.

Messages have been received here from Dr. A. W. Broadstreet, who is in Rochester, Minn., with his brother, Verlin, who on Monday was operated upon for abdominal troubles, stating that the operation was successful and that his brother is getting along nicely. Dr. Broadstreet expected to start for home Thursday.

Mrs. Carl Hanneman and son, George, who have been visiting relatives in Greencastle, will return to their home in Terre Haute this afternoon.

Maurice H. Kendall, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kendall, has accepted a position as teacher of French in the military academy at Delafield, Wis., for the coming year. Mr. Kendall taught there last year and is one of the Greencastle young men who are making good in this vocation.

Miss Mary Foster, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Arnold, returned to her home in Indianapolis this morning.

The Phi Delta Theta fraternity house at the corner of Poplar and Vine streets has been sold by the Central Trust Company to W. L. Miller of the A. & C. Stone Company, who will remodel the home for a residence. The consideration in the deal was $4,000.

T. D. Strawn, who resides on his farm near Roachdale, suffered a severe loss Monday night when the barn on his farm was struck by lightning and burned.

Good rains fell east and north of Greencastle on Monday evening, but Greencastle and vicinity, although threatened, did not enjoy a rain.

The Food Question.

"I must compliment you on the remarkable lightness of your bread," said the woman customer.

"Thank you," rejoined the baker. "It is my aim to turn out the lightest bread in the city."

"Yes," continued the woman customer, "and if you get it much lighter it will take two of your pound loaves to weigh sixteen ounces."—Answers.

Boarding-House Repartee.

The literary boarder was perusing the advertising columns of an agricultural paper.

"Here's an advertisement of a new device for feeding hogs," he remarked.

"If it isn't too expensive," said the landlady, "I'll buy one."

And not one of the boarders grinned.

Another Reformer.

Stella—So you are really going to marry old Milyuns. I had no idea you were mercenary.

Maudie—I'm not. I am going to marry him to reform him.

Stella—Reform him! I didn't know he had any bad habits.

Maudie—Yes, he has one. His friends say he is miserly.

Up to Date.

The Value of Your Tractor Is Based on the Service It Gives

If it works all the time it is worth all you pay for it. You can keep it working all the time by using the right kind of lubricating oil.

One burned out bearing will offset the cost of a year's supply of lubricating oil. The Standard Oil Company has prepared three oils—

Heavy Polarine Oil Stanolind Tractor Oil Extra Heavy Polarine Oil

Years of experience and study have developed that one of these three oils is the correct oil for you to use. The nearest Standard Oil representative has a chart prepared by our Engineering Staff, which indicates the correct oil for you to use to get the best results in your particular tractor.

We have just published a 100-page book, "Tractors and Tractor Lubrication," prepared by our Engineering Staff, which you will find a valuable reference book, and we believe it will save you many days of tractor idleness with the resultant money loss. It's free to you for the asking. Address

"Honey, you're some cook."

These are the most thrilling words in the English language.

They spring from the very depths of a man's heart, just a fraction of an inch from his stomach. For centuries they have been the inspiration to better baking and lovelier meals the world over.

Such words are oftenest spoken where Valier's Enterprise Flour is used—for who couldn't do beautiful baking with such superlative flour.

OPENING PROGRAMS

ARE PLEASING

Monday was a great beginning day for the Community Chautauqua in Greencastle. The big tent on the C. F. Reed lot on East Washington street was filled both in the afternoon and in the evening. C. C. Gillen, representing the people of Greencastle, introduced Prof. H. G. Hopkins, superintendent of the Jacksonville, Ill., schools, and superintendent of the Chautauqua. In introducing the superintendent Mr. Gillen said: "I take great pleasure in introducing to you a sucker from Jacksonville, Ill." Prof. Hopkins, who realizes just how much a Chautauqua superintendent should talk, was great in his praise of the two Greencastle young men, Royal Davis and Simpson Stoner, both graduates of the local high school and students of DePauw University, who are working for this Chautauqua. "Mother" Leonora M. Lake, who spoke Monday evening on "The Divine Rights of the Child," told of the possibilities of the youth of the nation and the faults practiced by the parents in America today. "Mother" Lake, who is in the seventies, would put aside "Spare the rod and spoil the child." A child should be taught through reason and kindness by the parents, she said. "The voiceless and most helpless living thing in the world," said Mrs. Lake, "is a little child. I appeal to you, ladies and gentlemen, for the divine rights of a child—the right to be well born and well raised."

"Mother" Lake spoke of the health auto now going through the southern part of Illinois administering to the sick and afflicted. This truck, carrying a skilled physician and nurse, passes through all towns visiting the sick. All mothers are given the privilege to bring their children free of cost to the auto and the child is given a medical examination.

Some good advice given by "Mother" Lake was as follows:

1. Sleep in well ventilated rooms. If there are not enough windows in the room, kick a hole in the wall.

2. Let every grown person have from six to eight hours' sleep; children at least eight hours and ten hours if possible.

3. Never slap a child's ears; it not only shows the weakness of the parent but also injures the hearing of the child.

4. Yesterday is gone, only today can we call our own—then use today rightly.

5. Children are not given to us for our pride and joy alone, but to make men and women out of them of which the nation will be proud.

The Harry Bennett Scotch Entertainers, who preceded "Mother" Lake, proved to be one of the jolliest trios ever in Greencastle. Beside Mr. Bennett the other two members of the company are Miss Violet Walsh and Miss Lenore Hurd. Mr. Bennett appeared in costumes characterizing an old man, a young school boy and a care-free sailor. Mr. Bennett sang "Oh it's nice to get up in the morning, but it's nicer to lie in bed," and his rendition brought forth applause from the audience. "When I was 21" also was a favorite with the people.

"The American Boy," a patriotic poem given by Miss Hurd, was especially fitting and was enjoyed by the audience.

The song in which Mr. Bennett excelled was the nursery rhymes known to everybody, but this time the words were a "wee bit" changed. One which brought down the house, given by Mr. Bennett, was as follows: "Go to bed early, stay as long as you can, eat ham and eggs and become a man."

The piano accompaniment by Miss Walsh was splendid and her piano solo of combined Scotch airs was beautiful.

The entertainment both in the afternoon and evening by this company proved to be one of the high spots in Greencastle's entertainers' list.

Supintendent Hopkins introduced Miss Mabel Schroeder of Lincoln, Neb., who has charge of the "kiddies" during the Chautauqua. Miss Schroeder came to the platform and briefly outlined the work which will be done in the junior department this week. The following program has been planned.

Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock—hike.

Wednesday Evening—Junior parade.

Thursday Morning—Boys' field meet to determine if Greencastle boys are the average American athletes.

Friday evening a pageant of the Juniors entitled "The Legion of the Beautiful Cross." Miss Schroeder will award Wednesday morning an honor badge to all children earning their own Chautauqua ticket and also athletic badges to the winners in the boys' track meet Thursday morning.

Each morning they will meet on the grounds at 9:30 o'clock for games and yells.

The Community Chautauqua tent

was well filled this afternoon with Greencastle people to hear the Mozart Orchestral Ladies. The company is composed of four members—a cornetist, a drummer, a pianist and a cellist. The entertainment this afternoon was splendidly received by the audience. This company will appear tonight in the prelude for the lecture by Hon. Frank B. Willis, ex-Governor of Ohio. Mr. Willis will talk on "Perils and Problems," in which he will clearly discuss the I. W. W. and similar organizations and the League of Nations. Ex-Governor Willis is a most eloquent speaker. His voice has a subtle magnetic quality and all who hear him are profoundly impressed both by his eloquence and his grasp of his subject.

The program for Wednesday is as follows:

Morning—Artists' recital, Misses Margaret Ringgold and Rachel Major. Lecture, "New Fads and Fancies," by George P. Bible.

Evening—Dramatic musical play reading, "Just Plain Judy," Hettie Jane Dunaway, assisted by Misses Ringgold and Major.

POLITICAL GOSSIP

Washington, July 29.—Charges are being flung about the House by the Republicans now that Representative James R. Mann of Illinois, former Republican leader and just recently recalled to assist in reorganizing the drifting elements in the party, is determined to destroy those who opposed him by "giving them rope."

Mann had hardly returned to his place in the House when he had his ears filled with stories of the folly of the present Republican leadership. Complaints and charges were hurled back and forth until it was impossible that Mann was not fully informed as to the desperate state of mind in which the Republican leaders found themselves. Mann just smiled over reports that he had come back to take charge. Then he went into a Republican secret caucus and informed the members there need be no changes just at present as the Republicans of the Middle West approved of the work of this Congress.

Mann is an artist in irony. He could not but have enjoyed that statement for there has been nothing but complaint from all sections of the country as to the work of this Congress. Rather it has been a constant complaint as to the failure of this Congress to do anything. Mann's tactics will permit the machine to run itself ragged and then those who have fought him will be forced to come to him on bended knee and beg pardon.

There has been considerable camouflage in the House in the using of such terms as "Progressives" and "Old Guard." Mann does not represent the "Old Guard" type. He was not the candidate of the Old Guard organization for leadership. He was fought bitterly by this element. If he had been its choice Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania the most conservative of all conservatives and the most reactionary of all reactionaries, would not have fought him. Will H. Hays, Republican national chairman, would not have joined in the fight on him. They would have welcomed him.

Mann was defeated because he uttered several statements that the Republicans would do better to accomplish something constructive than by spending all their time attacking President Wilson. From that time on he was doomed. It was not the story about the packers and the horse and steak which defeated him, either. It was the fear in the Republican organization that in the days of reconstruction and when no politician knew where the lines of demarcation laid, that Mann might be found too lukewarm in his support of the policies of reactionaries.

Indiana has taken some place in the fight to prevent the approval by the Senate of the appointment of Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer. As usual with the type of representation Indiana is forced to admit in this Congress, it has been proved that the Indiana representative—in this instance Senator Harry S. New—had no grounds for his opposition to Mr. Palmer.

It appears that Horace Stilwell, well known in Indiana political circles, had presented to New some charges against Palmer brought by a clerk in the office of the former alien property custodian. The clerk was in so minor a position that Palmer did not know him or what his tasks might be. He investigated. The clerk had charged Palmer did not use good judgment in disposing of German property interests in this country.

Palmer found the clerk and when he was confronted with the statements made by New he immediately retracted everything he had been quoted as having reported to New via Stilwell, the attorney-general stated.

It is another instance of New's activity in committees where votes do not betray a man's work as Senator. If a complete history can ever be written of New's committee work, the people of Indiana will have their cup of sorrow filled, for Indiana's entire representation is pathetic.

But the Palmer story may develop something more of interest. There is a pretty good suspicion as to what is behind the opposition to Palmer. Before long it is coming out in its full light. Palmer has charged that some persons interested in the German property this government seized are pressing the charges. He may develop his argument to a considerable extent if he is forced to do so. If he does, there will be a rushing to cover of those who have endeavored to prevent him being named.

Do You Take the Herald?

SAVED $50.00 AND GAINED TEN POUNDS

A prominent farmer and hog feeder came into our store in Indianapolis on July 29th and told me that he had just completed a little hog feeding test.

He weighed his hogs, fed them hominy feed, wheat middlings and tankage for a few days ($122.50 worth of feed) and weighed them again, showing a gain of 900 lbs. He then fed them for a few days on HURST'S CLOVER BRAND HOG FEED. When he weighed them again they showed a gain of 910 lbs. at a cost of $72.50.

He came in to buy a full carload of our especially prepared feed and is convinced that we have the best feed he has ever fed.

A certain amount of rice is used in "Hurst's Clover Brand Hog and Pig Feed" and we believe it is the best balanced ration on the market. We also believe it will produce pork for you cheaper than any other feed or combination of feeds you have or can get, and that it will save you the trouble of keeping several kinds of feed on hand and trying to mix a balanced ration yourself.

We have experimented with different feeds for several years in a sincere effort to procure the best combination before offering a feed under our own label.

Fifty dollars is a good big saving in the production of 900 lbs. of pork.

For growing shoats under 100 lbs. buy our "CLOVER BRAND PIG FEED." For fattening purposes buy our "CLOVER BRAND HOG FEED." We will carry it in stock at our Greencastle store at all times for your convenience.

GOVERNOR PLANS SESSION AUGUST 26

Governor Goodrich, it is understood, is now making plans for calling the special session of the legislature on Tuesday, August 26. In his original announcement, the Governor said he proposed to call the special session either the last week of August or the first week of September.

As many members of the General Assembly, who have either conferred with the Governor or have written him in regard to the session, have indicated that they prefer an earlier to a later date, it is believed he will acquiesce.

Many of the attorneys, who are members of the Assembly, look with disfavor on the September date, as the fall terms of court will convene during that month. They are anxious that the session be called at a time that will not interfere with their plans any more than can be helped.

Governor Makes Inquiry.

The Governor, before departing for a short trip in northern Michigan Tuesday evening, made inquiries at the offices of the board of public printing to learn how much time would be required for the board to prepare the necessary printed matter and stationery for the special session.

Another reason advanced for the calling of the session in August is that some of the maintenance bills of the state institutions will remain unpaid on August 1, and that it would not be good business to delay the payment of these accounts any longer than necessary.

All the institutions, with the aid of the Governor's contingent fund, were able to pay their June bills, but two or three of the institutions will not have enough revenue to meet all their July accounts. A larger number of the institutions will be "broke" in August.

Investigations have been made in the auditor of state's office to see if there is some way in which the deficit created by the institutions during the remainder of the fiscal year ending September 31 can be met. It is said that no way has been found for obtaining legally the funds needed unless an appropriation is made by the legislature.

POLITICAL GOSSIP FROM WASHINGTON

Washington, July 24.—The high cost of living is going to come to Congress if Congress will not come to it. There is going to be an invasion of even the dignified Senate and Senators are going to learn of how an ingenious toiler lives on an average of not more than one-fourth the salary of a Senator.

It is the opinion of a few of the progressives in the Senate that the high cost of living investigation will grow out of an investigation to be made as to living costs in the District of Columbia. There may be added fuel when the Senate takes up the question of controlling the packers. There will be an explosion by that time if there is any further delay in this question.

There are a few of the Senators on the Republican side who are getting a little angry about this high cost of living problem. They know it is going to be one of the most important questions of the next campaign and they are not satisfied with the dictation from the Penrose-Lodge-Smoot camp which does not insist upon this subject getting even slight consideration.

These Senators realize the problem is with us, that it cannot be avoided, that the Republicans are in power and must do something to satisfy the demand of the people for relief and that nothing has been done and there is an apparent desire to avoid doing anything. There have been a half-dozen resolutions introduced in the House calling for an investigation, and as yet the House leadership, with assurance of a voting majority of more than forty, has not regarded the subject with sufficient interest to encourage the authors of the resolutions, especially as one of these is a Democrat.

There was even the suggestion from one Republican Senator today that if a third party can be formed at all it can be done around the high cost of living problem. He said the subject would be of far more interest than the subjects pressed forward by the Republican leadership in the Senate and House. He recognized that the executive department, which is Democratic, had taken one definite step through the Federal Trade Commission expose of the packers' methods in a fight upon the rising prices while Congress, with more power than the executive departments, is idle. And Congress is controlled entirely by the Republicans.

Thousands of letters have poured into the offices of Senators and Congressmen within the last few days. The letters protest that Congress should take no step to regulate the packers. The writers insist that proposed legislation should be defeated.

It is evident in a great many instances that the writers have no information as to the legislation proposed. They designate it by the number of the bill. And Senator Kenyon, Progressive, has made public two letters from the packing companies which urged that such letters should be written.

Senator Kenyon has received many inquiries as to the legislation he proposed and some few thousand letters have been handed to him. He has been asked just how far his legislation would go in controlling the packers and whether it would bring government ownership of the meat industry. He has replied it would not.

Talking to the Senator, who is anxious that the Republicans do something without another few months of delay, there is the slightest suggestion that perhaps it would be a bad political move to endeavor to decrease prices. The contributions will be necessary for the next political campaign and men cannot contribute without making money, and the more they make the more they will contribute, appears to be one thought suggested now and then. In other words, it is "good politics" to take a complete inventory of the situation and not take hold of dynamite, according to the Republican philosophy.

In the meantime, letters which are coming to Congress from the toilers in the city indicate that they care little whether it is good politics or bad politics and that they care very much if relief is not given them and an opportunity had to at least live.

President Wilson merely asked Senator Lodge and his Republicans to consent temporarily to the appointment of an American to the reparations committee in Europe. He informed Senator Lodge that it was necessary that an American should be there to protect American business interest abroad. Lodge, described by some of his Republican friends in New York as awaiting to see what the President will do so that he can form a policy of opposition, immediately grows suspicious in this case and finds some motive behind the Presidential request. As a result, any advantage which might be had by American business must be lost.

It is the peaceable weapon of civilization, where ballots take the place of bullets, and can be used equally by the weak and the strong.

It is the guarantee of equality before the law of every individual human being who used it.

It is the ultimate source of power and the foundation on which rests our entire government.

Women, it is going to be yours—prepare to use it.

Captain Earl Lane, recently landed from overseas, is here visiting his family. Captain Lane has passed the examination for service in the regular army but it is probable that because of the limited army appropriation by Congress he will not get into the regular army at this time. He expects to be discharged from service at the expiration of his fifteen-day leave of absence.

Reid Tustison is here visiting relatives and friends for a few days. Tustison lately returned from France, where he served nearly two years in the motor transport corps. He is the son of O. E. Tustison, formerly of this city but now living in Chicago.

Robert G. Turner, of Paris, Ill., is here the guest of his cousin, Miss Cerna Brothers of Elm street. He is the son of Col. Fred H. Turner, chief of staff of the third division of the U. S. army, which is now stationed in Germany.

Sprinkling the garden a little while in the evening does little good. If you are going to water it, give it a thorough soaking and as soon as the ground is dry enough to work get in with a hoe and help hold the moisture for the plants.

BUILDING OF STORAGE SHEDS AIDS LIMESTONE DISTRIBUTION

Lafayette, Ind., July 24.—Building of sheds for the storing of ground limestone so that it may be hauled away at any time other than the rush season on the farm is being advocated as one means to encourage the use of this product on Indiana farms. Three firms in Lake county are building bins 18 x 30 feet at a cost of about $299 so that a carload or more may be hauled away as needed by the farmers.

In many cases a local coal or elevator man who has shed room would be glad to unload the lime in his sheds or have it unloaded and handle the distribution of it to the farmers at a nominal cost. In cases where sidings are more convenient to farmers a shed could be erected to hold the limestone.

"One of our problems in getting limestone used on the farms in Indiana is to make it accessible to the farmers who wish to use it," said W. A. Ostrander of the soils and crops extension staff of Purdue University. "In communities where limestone is to be shipped in the farmers have found it practical and convenient if the stone could be unloaded in a shed to keep it dry and haul it at their convenience. Many times a car comes in when the farmer is too busy to haul it except at sacrifice to his crops. If it is thrown out on the ground it is apt to get wet and cause trouble in spreading. Also a man may not wish an entire car load and this storage plan enables him to get smaller amounts conveniently."

Men who have not ordered their limestone for fall use should do so as soon as possible in order to assure timely delivery.

SCHEDULE FOR CULLING CAMPAIGN ANNOUNCED

Lafayette, Ind., July 24.—A complete schedule for August of the poultry culling campaign to be conducted by the poultry extension department of Purdue University in co-operation with farmers and county agents has been announced. Prof. A. G. Phillips, L. H. Schwartz, L. L. Jones and C. W. Carwick are the members of the staff which will go into the thirty-five counties on the August schedule and demonstrate to the farmers and poultry raisers the proper method of detecting the boarding hen and eliminating her from the flock.

The following is a list of the counties and the days that they will be visited by the poultry men from Purdue: Hendricks and Bartholomew, July 31 and August 1; Gibson and Jennings, August 1 and 2; Posey and Dearborn, August 4 and 5; Decatur and Morgan, August 5 and 6; Vanderburg and Franklin, August 6 and 7; Fountain and Johnson, August 7 and 8; Spencer and Jackson, August 8 and 9; Daviess and Clark, August 11 and 12; Rush, August 12 and 13; Dubois and Washington, August 13 and 14; Hancock, August 14 and 15; Monroe, Greene and Orange, August 18 and 19; Shelby, August 19 and 20; Randolph, Lawrence and Putnam, August 20 and 21; Madison, August 21 and 22; Hamilton, Jefferson and Sullivan, August 22 and 23; Vigo, August 25 and 26; Grant, August 26 and 27; Parke, August 27 and 28; Tipton, August 28 and 29.

A schedule for the northern part of the state is being arranged for September, the work starting immediately after State Fair week.

RACE RIOTS HELD TO ISOLATED OUTBREAKS

Washington, July 24.—Although there were reports of isolated outbreaks by negroes, including the firing into a street car, last night passed without serious renewal of the race rioting which has terrorized the national capital since Saturday. The presence of 2,000 armed soldiers and co-operation generally by the public with the request of the city authorities that street traffic be held to a minimum resulted in quieting the situation and both the military and city officers expressed the belief that there would be no more serious trouble.

No one was hit by three shots fired into a street car on Fourteenth street, near A, early in the night, nor was anyone hurt when early this morning, near the same locality a speeding auto loaded with negroes fired into another auto occupied by whites. Shortly before midnight a riot call came from the southeast district where a white woman and her brother reported that while going home from a theater they were set upon by a mob of negroes and shot at several times. No arrests were made in any of the outbreaks.

The death list was brought to six with the death of Louis Havlick, a marine, who was shot Monday night in front of the treasury as he stood on a platform waiting to board a car. A negro employed as a watchman at the treasury is charged with killing the marine.

ARMY PLANE AROUND RIM OF THE UNITED STATES

Washington, July 24.—An army bombing plane carrying a crew of five and commanded by Lieut.-Colonel R. S. Hartz, left the ground here at 10 o'clock this morning on the first leg of a flight of nearly 8,000 miles around the rim of the country. The first stop scheduled was Augusta, Me., 560 miles from Washington.

The flight is the longest ever attempted by the army air service and will carry the machine through thirty-one states, over ninety-five cities and cover long stretches of the Atlantic, Pacific and gulf coasts as well as the Canadian border.

Five Men in Crew.

Colonel Hartz was accompanied by reserve pilots Lieutenants Ernest E. Harmon and Loth A. Smith and Mechanics Sergeant John Harding, Jr., and Master Electrician Jeremiah Tobias. The big machine rose from Bolling field, circled the White House in low flight, then headed away on its course.

Direct flights between the points designated for the terminus of each day's flight will not be attempted. The first stop today will be at Hazelhurst Field, Long Island. Tomorrow the airmen will proceed from Augusta to Cleveland, 680 miles.

General Line of Flight.

The general line to be followed will carry the machine in order to Duluth, Minn.; Seattle, Wash.; San Diego, Cal.; San Antonio, Tex.; Miami, Fla., and back to Washington.

The actual measured distances of the route is 7,805 miles. The machine used is a two-engine craft known as the U. S.-Martin bomber.

GREATEST SOLDIER A PROHIBITIONIST

Westerville, O., July 24.—When Sergeant Alvin C. York, of Pall Mall, Tenn., the world's greatest soldier, performed the feat in the Argonne forest whereby he killed twenty-eight Germans, captured 130 prisoners and put out of commission thirty machine guns, he was not stimulated by liquor. That is his declaration. He said:

"I have not taken a drop of any sort of liquor for five years."

Sergeant York declared himself for prohibition. What he has found beneficial in his own case he wishes to pass on to other people, he said, until the whole world is dry.

Lieutenant A. C. Read, who commanded the NC-4 on the first ocean flight ever made, said that there was no drinking of liquor by himself or any member of his crew while preparing for the flight across the Atlantic, nor during that flight's progress.

"Everything was done," he said, "to make the flight a success."

Sergeant York and Lieutenant Read spoke from the same platform at the Centenary celebration of the Methodist Episcopal church in Columbus, O. Neither had a good word to say for liquor, and it is significant that the two men most noted for individual effort accomplished their work while sober.

"Were you 'fortified' with liquor when you made that fight in the Argonne?" Sergeant York was asked.

"I was perfectly sober, as I have been for years," he answered. "I don't touch a drop and haven't had a drop for five years. Liquor is no good."

At the Centenary Sergeant York's brother was with him. These two men have grown up in prohibition Tennessee. In their county, Fentress, the jail has been closed by prohibition, education has received a boost and good roads are being built.

Wilhelm told the truth at least once in his life when he said the nation that should win the next world war would be the one that used the least alcohol.

U. S. TO SIGN BULGARIAN AND TURKISH TREATIES

Washington, July 24.—The United States will sign the treaties with Bulgaria and Turkey, it was announced today at the state department.

Although the United States never has been actually at war with Bulgaria and Turkey, it will sign the treaties to show its concurrence in the terms imposed upon these allies of Germany and Austria. Like those with the Teutonic powers, the treaties change boundary lines and create new nations, some of which, particularly Armenia, probably will ask that the United States act as mandatory for them under the league of nations covenant.

The announcement was the first that the United States would be a party to the treaties.

A SCHOOL NURSE FOR PUTNAM COUNTY

In order that Putnam county may reap the benefit of the $4,000 in the Putnam county Red Cross fund, plans for a school nurse for Putnam county are being perfected by a committee appointed by Dr. W. M. McGaughey, president of the Putnam County Red Cross Association.

The duty of the nurse, who probably will be secured, will be to visit the schools of Greencastle and Putnam county and instruct the children regarding health. In a general way her duty will be to better the health conditions in the county. The nurse, if one is secured, will be sent by the Division Red Cross Society and will be a woman of ability in her line.

A committee consisting of Frank Wallace, representing the county schools; Superintendent E. C. Dodson, representing the city schools; Dr. C. T. Zaring, representing the county board of health; Dr. Blaine Kirkpatrick, representing the Putnam County Anti-tuberculosis Society; Rev. Levi Marshall, representing the home service section of the Red Cross; Dr. W. M. McGaughey, representing the Red Cross Society, and Mrs. Frank Donner, representing the women's organizations of the county, has been named to arrange for securing the nurse.

It is planned that the nurse will have offices on the court house and that she will regularly visit the schools of the city and county. She will make a health survey of the school children and will follow up the cases where special attention is needed.

Under the rules of the Red Cross the local chapter cannot use the money in their treasury in any manner unless it is approved by the district organization. The plan of securing school nurses is one which is recommended by the district organization and no doubt will be approved in this instance.

Eleven fields of wheat in Benton county have been accepted by the county farmers' organization and county agent as sources for seed, following the inspection of scores of fields throughout the county. The eleven were chosen because they were of one variety, free from weeds and disease.

OKLAHOMA AUTO IN REELSVILLE HILL WRECK

Reelsville Hill was the scene of what came near being a fatal accident last Thursday when the sedan car of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Robinson, of Tulsa, Okla., enroute to Pittsburg, went over a twenty foot embankment.

The big car stalled on the hill and the brakes refused to work, letting the car back down the hill. When near the bridge the car toppled over a twenty-foot embankment. The heavy top of the car is believed to have resulted in saving the lives of the occupants. Mrs. Robinson suffered a sprained ankle.

The Reelsville hill is one of the danger spots for motorists in this part of the state and a great many accidents, some of which were fatal, have occurred on this hill.

Reelsville hill will be eliminated when the National road is built, the course to be changed so as to avoid the dangerous incline.—Brazil News.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Allan and son, Eugene, have returned from Shelbyville, where they visited Mrs. Allan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Lloyd. Their daughter, Lucille, remained for a longer visit with her grandparents.

Misses Frances and Carolyn Forcum have gone to Crawfordsville, where they will visit the remainder of this week.

Mrs. Marie Zaharakos has purchased the room occupied by the Miss Alice Thompson millinery store on East Washington street. The consideration was not given.

The Sullivan county boy who is worth $2,000 after two years as a member of a pure-bred big club will no longer question the value of club work.

The Putnam county township trustees and County Superintendent Frank Wallace and the members of their families picnicked at Eel River Falls, Sunday. Those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. William Gowin, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stark, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Crosby, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. George Walker and their families. Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Stone of this city also attended the picnic, being the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Stone.

GREENCASLE CARS IN WRECK NEAR BRAZIL

Mrs. Otis Allen of this city was badly cut and bruised about the face and arms as the result of an automobile collision which occurred about 11:30 last Tuesday night at the Risler & Finley corner in Harmony.

Mrs. Allen sustained a bad gash across the nose, requiring three stitches to close, the right ring and little finger were nearly severed and the left thumb and forefinger were badly lacerated. She sustained body bruises as well as a severe nervous shock. Mr. J. D. Sourwine was called to the scene of the accident and the injured woman was removed to the home of E. Owens, where her injuries were dressed.

A party of six young people from Greencastle, who had come to Brazil early in the evening to attend the Sourwine theater are said to have been responsible for the accident. The party left the city shortly after 11 o'clock and at the time of hitting the Allen car it is said they were driving at high speed and on the wrong side of the road. Allen's car was run as far toward the ditch as possible, but the Greencastle driver sent his machine head-on into the Allen car. Mrs. Allen was injured by the flying glass of the broken windshield.

Both cars were badly demolished and it was necessary to abandon both machines. The Allens being brought to their home by friends and the Greencastle party returning on the last car.—Brazil News.

Resolutions urging the wider growing of clover in Lake county as a means of improving the soil have been adopted by the Lake county farm bureau. The resolution also emphasized the importance of using ground limestone or phosphorus liberally. Following adoption of the resolution, a drive was started in the county to increase the clover acreage.

"Beans," Ollie James, colored soldier and well known Greencastle character, is home. "Beans" landed in Greencastle last Thursday and immediately created a stir. Everyone was glad to see "Beans" back home. He was a member of the 809th pioneer colored regiment. James says the army has no horrors for him and asserts that he may re-enlist.

Jess Richardson, employed at the cement plant, suffered severe burns on his hands and arms, especially his left hand and arm, last Thursday morning when while working with some hot tar he splashed a lot of it on his hands and arms. Richardson was at work assisting in putting the hot tar on the roof of the building and in handling a bucket of the tar he slipped. When the bucket struck the roof the hot tar was splashed over his arms and hands.

Once-a-Week Polish
Keeps Teeth Stainless

Why do so many use pumice stone, charcoal, or other harsh, dangerous substances, to remove the unsightly yellowish or blackish tinge from the teeth? Simply because they have never learned to find any tooth powder, paste or liquid that would do the work. The reason tooth stains are so difficult to remove is that they are covered with a thin film, or "pellicle," which the usual abrasives cannot penetrate or dissolve.
This problem of removing these obstinate films has finally been solved by a new tooth powder, obtainable at any drug store, which is called "Once-a-Week Tooth Polish." This polish not only removes the stain easily and quickly, but without the least injury to enamel or gums—qualities not found in any other preparation in the market. Once-a-week tooth polish, obtainable at any drug store, is not intended as a substitute for dentifrices, but to be used in addition to them—once a week, as the same implies. It should be used by children, as well as adults, as a preventive of stains, tartar, decay, germs and pyorrhea.

KIRKPATRICK IS

PRESIDENT OF INSTITUTE
The Rev. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick, pastor of the College avenue church,
was honored by the 1919 Epworth League institute held last week at Battle Ground, being elected as president of the institute for 1920. The Rev. Kirkpatrick has been registrar and publicity manager of the institute for five years. This year he taught a class in "Life Work."

The Greencastle district, which is composed of about fifty young people, won for the second time the first prize at the annual stunt night contest given. This year the stunt put on by the Greencastle district was "A Sequel to the Death of John Barleycorn."
Last year the play was "The Death of John Barleycorn." The theme of the act was the attempted resurrection of John Barleycorn from his grave by the many "wet" agencies throughout America. Attempts were made by these agencies through the returned soldiers, Congress, the church and the women of America to secure the key which would unlock the vault of John Barleycorn. At last the vault was blown open and the ghost of John Barleycorn arose before the startled audience. The ghost makes his last speech warning his friend, Nicotine, to beware lest he shall follow the footsteps of John Barleycorn.
He then berates his henchmen for allowing him to be conquered and for their negligence and tells them they must die. They fall upon the stage and the curtain is drawn. Thus ends the tale. The leader of the wet element who was the devil, was taken by the Rev. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick, of Greencastle, who dressed in his flowing red garments with pitch-forks dragging on the floor made a very weird and uncanny actor.

Second and third prizes were given respectively to the faculty and South Bend district.
The DePauw members who attended the institute gave a very interesting act portraying life in DePauw University among which the stone wall, DePauw's courting classroom, was the center of attraction. Stunt night at Battle Ground always is well attended and the many different acts make the evening one of special merit throughout. The four districts in attendance at the institute were Greencastle, South Bend, Lafayette and Crawfordsville. About 750 students were enrolled in the institute.

COMBINED CIRCUSES TO SHOW IN INDIANAPOLIS

The world's biggest amusement institution, Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Shows combined, is to exhibit afternoon and night at Indianapolis Monday, August 18.
The consolidation of the "World's Greatest Shows" and the "Greatest Show on Earth" in one circus of colossal size constitutes the amusement surprise of the country. Nothing to approach this gigantic new circus has ever before toured America. It has been formed by merging the pick and the cream of all that was biggest and best in the two famous shows. It would be folly to attempt to enumerate its many wonders. Some idea of the enormous scale upon which features are presented may be had when it is stated that a quarter of a million pounds of elephants take part in a single act. In other words—six times as many of the big-eared giants than have ever before been seen in one main-tent exhibition. All else to be seen is in proportion. The arena stars embrace all the world's foremost circus performers. There are three hours of novelties and big sensational acts. The menagerie is far and away the most colossal ever traveled. For instance—a herd of eight giraffes are exhibited in place of the two or three shown in the past. The great tournament which opens the main-tent program is the most magnificent thing in pageantry yet produced in America. Hundreds upon hundreds of gorgeously costumed characters and beautiful horses take part in it. The morning street parade is the longest and most brilliant ever given anywhere. It is a stupendous super-circus that baffles description.

Captain and Mrs. Everett Jones received word this morning of the safe arrival of Captain Jones' sister, Miss Helen Jones, in Naples, Italy, from where Miss Jones will sail for Constantinople, where she will be engaged in Young Women's Christian Association work. Miss Jones sailed from New York on July 1, thirteen days being required for the voyage.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Coleman, of Indianapolis spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sweeney, who reside near Limedale.

The Rev. Ray Banks, assisted by the Rev. W. E. Houghton, of Franklin, a singing evangelist will begin a series of tent meetings on Monday, August 4, at the Bethel Baptist church, ten miles east of Greencastle.

Miss Zola Hancock has returned to her work in the ten cent store, having spent a two weeks' vacation in Indianapolis with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Yeager and daughter, Miss Beulah, have returned from an excursion trip to Niagara Falls. They report a splendid trip.

Mrs. Clark Bateman and two children, of Bombay, India, are here the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Evans.
Mrs. Bateman formerly was Miss Veda Stevens, a DePauw student.

Louis Stewart was here from Lebanon to spend Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hixon and other relatives and friends.

GRENADE SAVINGS BANK FOR SCHOOL CHILDREN

Indianapolis, July 28.—Indiana school children will obtain hand grenade banks through the banks in their respective cities, according to an announcement today by Robert E.
Springsteen, director of the Indiana War Savings Committee. In making this announcement, Mr. Springsteen made public a statement by the War Savings organization of the Seventh Federal Reserve district, as follows:
"The hand grenade is the highest modern development of a time-honored weapon. The war department owned 15,000,000 when the armistice was signed. Some of these are now available through the savings division of the treasury department for distribution to school children as savings banks to encourage the forming of habits of thrift.

"These hand grenade savings banks are real hand grenades with the percussion caps and high explosives removed. The are, with the exception of the money slot, externally the same as those the Sammies used to clean out crooks and bends in captured trenches, enemy dug-outs and machine gun nests. A live hand grenade was not dangerous until the ring and pin had been withdrawn, which freed the trigger that started a percussion cap, resulting in a terrific explosion within three or five seconds. The small squares of steel thrown by the explosion were deadly within a radius of forty to fifty feet.

Every child or grown-up will want one of these souvenirs of the world war. Only those who are willing to save and help their government can have them, as the War Savings organization is the sole distributor in the seventh federal reserve district and we are distributing them through banks to school children under a uniform plan, the conditions of which are as follows:

1. One grenade is to be loaned by the bank to any child under seventeen years of age signing the Thrift agreement.
2. It is to be opened by the bank when presented by the child, and Thrift or War Savings Stamps given in exchange for the contents.
3. It will become the property of the child as soon as he has thus purchased through the bank one or more War Savings Stamps (maturity value $5.00 each), children under 10 being required to buy one War Savings Stamp and those over 10 two stamps.
4. The bank is to fill out and give the child at the end of the vacation period (if a school child) a certificate of his summer savings in order that he may present same to his teacher and get credit therefor in the War Savings Society now or hereafter organized in his grade.
5. If the bank so desires, it may ask the children who earn these souvenirs to write essays on "How I Won My Hand Grenade," offering such essay prizes and publishing such essays as it desires. The War Savings organization requests a copy of the essay winning first honors.
6. After the schools have reopened and the children have been supplied, the hand grenade banks may be given to anyone over 17 years of age who purchases three or more War Savings Stamps.

The federal reserve district officials are writing to every bank in the state, pointing out the advertising value to the banks in issuing the hand grenades. The bank will be permitted to have a metal tag bearing its name attached to each hand grenade bank.
Mr. Springsteen said that it is his belief that at least 50,000 school children of Indiana will receive this little hand grenade savings bank. He based his opinion on the large number of children that pledged themselves to their school teachers that they would save during the summer.

Misses Frances and Caroline For-cum have returned home from Crawfordsville, where they have been visiting their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Crawford.

C. W. Otis left, Sunday, for Pennsylvania, where he will join his wife for an Eastern motoring trip. Mr.
Otis will be on his vacation about one month.

The funeral service for Jasper J.
Henry age 44, who died in Memphis,
Tenn., Friday, was held at 3 o'clock
Monday afternoon at the Brick Chapel church. Burial was in the Brick Chapel cemetery. The Rev. Don Nichols, pastor of the Locust street church, was in charge of the funeral service. Mr. Henry was the brother of Mrs. Henry O'Hair of this city.
He was salesman for the Gibson Auto Accessory Company of Indianapolis and recently won first prize in a sales contest.

visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Talbott, who reside on East Hanna street, has returned to her home in Kansas City,

MANY PEOPLE REPORT
BIG GAINS IN WEIGHT

THOUSANDS OF THIN, FRAIL PEOPLE RESTORED TO HEALTH BY TANLAC

MANY REMARKABLE EXPERIENCES TOLD

People in all Ranks of Life Tell
What Celebrated Medicine Has Done for Them.

One of the most noteworthy features in connection with Tanlac and the one that stands out more promi-nently than any other, perhaps, is the very large number of well-known men and women from all parts of the country who have recently reported astonishing and rapid increases in weight as a result of its use.

When so many well known people of unquestioned integrity make statement after statement, each corroborating the other, the truth of such statements can no longer be doubted.

Thousands have testified that this famous medicine has completely restored them to health and strength after every other medicine and the most skilled medical treatment have failed.

One of the most remarkable cases on record is that of Mrs. Viola Ives, of 315 Cross street, Little Rock, Ark., whose statement appears below.

"In May of 1913," said Mrs. Ives,
"I suffered a complete breakdown of my nerves and my entire system gave way. About six weeks afterwards I was carried to the hospital. I became perfectly helpless—couldn't move any part of my body and just lay there in bed for five months, not knowing anything or anybody. I was brought home in October, 1913, and tried all kinds of medicine and everything I was told about.

"I read about so many people getting relief by taking Tanlac and my husband got me a bottle. After taking three bottles I began to feel better. I have taken several bottles of Tanalac now and I can walk anywhere and sleep like a child. When I took my first dose of Tanlac I weighed only one hundred and twenty-two pounds. I now weigh one hundred and sixty-two—an actual gain of forty pounds since I started on Tanlac."

Texas Man Testifies.

Another remarkable case was that of John M. Crabtree, a general merchant of Five Mile Station A, Dallas, Texas:

"I have actually gained thirty-four pounds on three bottles of Tanlac and I now know what it is to enjoy good health after suffering for twenty years," said Mr. Crabtree.

"I suffered with catarrh of the stomach and indigestion for twenty years, and for eighteen months before I started taking Tanlac I had to live almost entirely on cereals. I spent nearly all of one whole year in bed and was unable to do anything at all and I fell off in weight to 118 pounds.

"After using my third bottle of Tanalac I found I had increased in weight from 118 pounds to 152 pounds, making an actual gain of thirty-four pounds—all my troubles were gone, and I was feeling like another man."

Captain Jeff D. Riggs, popular Y.
& M. V. engineer, running between Vicksburg and New Orleans and residing at 2020 Pearl street, Vicksburg, in speaking of his experience with Tanalac said: "Yes, sir, it's an actual fact, I have gained twenty-five pounds on Tanlac."

"When I began taking the medicine," continued Captain Riggs, "I was simply a nervous and physical wreck and had dropped down in weight from one hundred and forty to one hundred and ten pounds.

"I have just finished my second bot-

WAS TWICE EXAMINED AND TOLD OPERATION WOULD BE HER ONLY HOPE

"I have just finished my third bottle of Tanlac and have gained twenty-seven pounds," was the truly remarkable statement made by Mrs. Charles Peden, residing at 55 Mill street, Huntsville, Ala.

"When I commenced taking the medicine," she continued, "I only weighed ninety-eight (98) pounds; now I weigh 125 pounds, and never felt better in my life. For years I have suffered with a bad form of stomach trouble, constipation and pains in my side and back. At times the pains took the form of torture, and I was twice examined and each time I was told that I had appendicitis and that an operation would be my only hope.

"I had made all preparations for the operation and called in my sister to tell her good-bye, as I did not know whether I would live to see her again or not. My sister begged and pleaded with me not to allow them to cut on me and told me to wait and try a good tonic for awhile. The next day, as I returned from the consultation room,
I thought of what she said and as I had heard so much about Tanlac I decided to try it and got a bottle.

"I never returned for the operation,
but just kept taking the Tanlac.
Right from the start I began to feel better. The medicine seemed to take hold right at once.

"I was so happy over the wonderful improvement in my condition that I sent for my neighbors to tell them how much better I felt. I sent and got another bottle of Tanlac, and have just finished taking my third bottle and feel as if I have been made all over again into a new woman."

pounds and I feel like a new man."

Old-Time Engineer Talks.

Engineer Charles J. Weeks, who runs the Seaboard Air Line fast train
"Fox" between Jacksonville and Tampa, bears the distinction of being the second oldest engineer in point of service with this road, having been with the company for thirty-five years.

"I have gained twenty pounds on seven bottles of Tanlac and feel as well and happy as I did when a boy," said Mr. Weeks.

"For twenty years I suffered with nervous indigestion of the worst sort," he continued, "and at times during the past fifteen years I didn't think I would last much longer. To tell you the truth, I finally reached the point where I didn't much care whether I lived or died."

Thousands of other people all over the country have reported the same astonishing gains in weight after taking Tanlac. Among these are: Mrs.
E. O. Wilson, of 197 Bass St., Atlanta, Ga., who gained 25 pounds; Edward Reno, 1721 Broadway, Kansas City,
Mo., who gained 25 pounds; Mrs. W.
C. Cochran, of Julietta, Idaho, who gained 22 pounds; Mrs. Doll Davis, of 108 Samuel Ave., Peoria, Ill., who gained 30 pounds; Charles E. Shaffer, 508 W. Charleston St., Portland, Ore., who gained 24 pounds; Mrs. Amelia Mann, R. F. D. No. 2, Ogden, Utah, who gained 25 pounds; W. S. Hukill, 7308 Park Ave., Tacoma, Wash., who gained 20 pounds; Mrs. B. W. Smith, 3113 Burdett St., Omaha, Neb., who gained 35 pounds; Fred W. Saunders, 710 Market St., San Francisco, Cal., who gained 24 pounds, and many others too numerous to mention.

LOW SALARIES CAUSE
RESIGNATIONS AT I. U.

Bloomington, Ind., July 28.—Resignation of several Indiana University faculty members and the rumor that others may resign has caused a stir in local educational circles.

The recent resignation of Dr. Will
D. Howe, head of the department of English, who soon will go to New York where he is to be connected with a newly organized publishing house, was followed Saturday by the announcement that Professor C. J.

Sembower, of the English department, will leave the faculty at the close of the present summer session to enter business in Indianapolis.
Professor J. L. Parks and Professor Scott Rowley of the law school, also resigned recently.

Lack of money to provide higher salaries is said to be at the bottom of at least two of the resignations. Officials of the university, although they have issued no official statement to this effect, have let it be known that they are powerless, because of insufficient money, to avert the threatened blow to the faculty.

GAVE HIS OPINION FREELY.

General Sherman's Views as to Re-modeling a Dude.

General William Tecumseh Sherman hated a dude worse than a hornet. He never cared for fine clothes. In fact, he judged men for what they could do.

One day at Saratoga a real dude was presented to the grizzled old soldier. The dude looked through his monocle at the warrior and tenderly inquired:

"Aw, Gen'well, what would you do if I were you and you were me?" "Oh, you must excuse me," said the General modestly.

"What would I do?" growled the old soldier when the dude had gone away. "What would I do if I was it?" pointing to the disappearing dude. "I'll tell you what I'd do! If I was a dude, I would throw away that vile cigarette, cut up my cane for firewood, wear my watchchain underneath my coat, smash that monocle and stay at home nights and pray for brains."

What They Might Be.

"Where have you been?" asked Mr. McGuff, as his wife came in the drawing room all excited.

"Why, I have been down to the genealogist's," she replied, proudly, "and he has traced my ancestors back a thousand years. Here is the list. You will notice after some of them there stands the letter 'P.'"

"H'm! What does that stand for?"

"Why, either poets or painters." "You don't say? I thought, perhaps, it stood for pirates or peddlers."—Detroit Tribune.

A Case of Second Sight.

A Scotch minister had his friend, who were coming home from a wedding, began to consider the state into which their potatoes at the wedding feast had left them.

"Sandy," said the minister, "just stop a minute here till I go ahead. Maybe I don't walk very steady, and the good wife might remark something not just right."

He walked across of the servant for a short distance and then asked: "How is it? Am I walking straight?"

"Oh, ay," answered Sandy, thickly: "ye're a'recht—but who's that who's with you?"—Harper's Weekly.

Reciprocity Experience.

"Miss Pinkley," said Miss Miam Brown, "what does you understand is the meanin' of de word reciprocity?"

"Well," was the answer, "you take de chicken coop. De chicken inside is layin' foh de man dat owns her; de man is layin' foh me 'cause he knows I's layin' foh de chicken. An' dat's reciprocity." — Washington Star.

An Easy Matter.

"Jimmy, d'yer t'ink dey'll git dis in 'Fads and Fancies'?"

"New, I'll give dem a few 'tousand ter suppress it."

The Moon's Triumph.

"The sun is all very well," said an old Irishman, "but the moon is worth ten of it." "Why?" asked his friend. "Because the moon affords us light in the night when we want it, whereas the sun's with us in the daytime when we have no occasion for it," was Pat's explanation.—The Tatler.

The Truth.

"Mr. Hardup must have used a great deal of flattery to win the heiress."

"No; he simply told her the truth."

"Indeed?"

"Yes; he said he couldn't live without her."

John F. Sage, of Ashmore, Ill., is here the guest of his brothers, Thomas Sage and George Sage.

Charley Stites, while assisting in threshing oats at a farm near Clinton Falls one day last week, had an experience which he will not forget in many days. Stites was hauling a big load of oats to the threshing machine when a spark from the engine ignited the oats straw on the wagon. In a minute the whole wagon load was ablaze and Stites barely had time to get off the wagon and with the assistance of others unhitch his team. The oats, wagon and all were burned.

At the meeting of the school board Monday evening in the high school building Miss Beryl Sandy, who for eight years has been principal of the of the Cloverdale high school, was elected to teach Latin this year and Miss Wanda Mottier, a graduate of Indiana University, was elected to teach French. The two elections come as a result of the resignation of the Latin and French teachers, Miss Mamie Albaugh and Mrs. Cecil Weatherers. The two new members of the faculty come to Greencastle highly recommended by those who know of their work. Miss Mottier is the daughter of Professor Mottier of Indiana University. She is of French descent. The time for the opening of school was set for September 8.

The Rockville Chautauqua will begin on August 8 and there will be a ten days' program. The Rev. J. G. Benson, of Detroit, formerly pastor of the Methodist church of Brazil, will be superintendent of the Chautauqua.
