GREENCASTLE, INDIANA, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1920.

CHILDREN'S HOME PLANS ANNOUNCED

EIGHT BUILDING PLANT THE INDIANA METHODIST CHURCH IS PROPOSED FOR ENLARGEMENT ORDERED BY INDIANA CONFERENCE

ORGANIZED IN 1915

Plans have just been completed for the proposed new plant of the Indiana Methodist Children's Home, which is intended to erect to replace the present home at Greencastle. The new building, which will give the institution room to care for about 100 children, with the very best facilities for the work. W. H. Stevens, of Indianapolis, is the architect who drew the plans.

Growing demands for more room have caused the move to construct the new plant. The institution at present is crowded for thirty children, and has been forced to turn away more than 100 applicants during the last year. It has grown steadily since it was founded five years ago, is now a self-sufficient institution, and is now a debt and owns its own property. A program for enlarging the plant was adopted at the last session of the Indiana conference.

The Indiana Methodist Children's Home at Greencastle was organized by Angie Godwin in the spring of 1915. Its purpose, which is still its purpose today, was to give a home, moral advantages and Christian training to orphans and dependent children, and to place them in good homes. It early received endorsement of the Indiana conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, and was formally opened October 19, 1915. The first children received eight days later, and at that time progress has been made.

The board of trustees of the home consists of: Dr. J. S. Ward, Greencastle, president; Mrs. C. H. M. Stevens, Greencastle, secretary; Dr. F. A. Steele, Indianapolis; the Rev. J. W. McFall, Connors; Homer Ellis, Greencastle; Angie Godwin, Greencastle, superintendent; Bishop Anderson and Dr. E. C. Smith, of Cincinnati, O., are on the advisory board.

HEAD OF F. F. A. HOLD SERIES OF CONFERENCES

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Feb. 9.—John Brown, president of the Indiana Federation of Farmers' Association, returned during the last week from Washington, D. C., where he was called for a series of conferences with the heads of a number of farmer's organizations and reported that much progress was made at the national capital. In addition to conferring with the various national bodies and assisting in their activities, Mr. Brown looked into a number of things which are of vital interest to the general welfare of the Indiana farmers.

"We have been troubled for several months in getting cars in moving grain, live stock, fertilizer materials, etc., and have kept wire hot to Washington to relieve serious shortages in various counties," said Mr. Brown. "Car shortage means a loss to the farmers when their products are ready for the market and have to wait, so I took the opportunity while at Washington to get in direct touch with the proper authorities of the United States Railroad Administration."

"I found that the car shortage is general over the country but that we may expect relief. The heads of service department appear anxious to want to co-operate with us, and I believe that it is our duty to help them as much as possible. They ask me to personally give as much publicity as possible to the need of using the maximum capacity of the cars when shipping is done. Cars shipped with only a half or two-thirds of a load means wasted space, and many times this keeps cars from shipping. Co-operative shipping with neighbors to fill these cars to capacity should be encouraged and is a part of our duty now that a shortage exists. Figures were presented to me while at Washington to show that more than 200,000 box cars in space were wasted last year alone through not shipping to full capacity."

"Another matter of interest to shippers of live stock is that the government authorities promised to look into the Belt Railroad situation in Indianapolis. We have had numerous complaints from farmers that their live stock has been held up for hours at Indianapolis junction points. The Internal Revenue Department heads promised us a committee conference to discuss new forms for income tax returns. This will not apply to the returns to be filed this year, but we hope for quite an improvement over the present form, after this conference is held."

His death was due to uremia. He is survived by his widow, one son, Eugene, age six; a sister, Mrs. Homer Frazier, of Greencastle, and two brothers, Raymond and Oscar Gill, both of Indianapolis.—Indianapolis News.

RAIL STRIKE TO HINGE ON DAY'S CONFERENCE

WASHINGTON, February 11.—The result of the railroad wage conference today between Director-General Hines and representatives of the employees' unions probably will determine whether the rail transportation systems are to be tied up by a strike before the government surrenders control March 1.

The situation was regarded as critical by the railroad administration and union officials. At the conference, which in effect is a wage negotiation between the government and more than 2,000,000 railroad workers, vigorous efforts will be made to reach an agreeable settlement.

HAMPSHIRE HOG WELL ESTABLISHED IN COUNTY

Among the breeders of hogs well established in Putnam county the Hampshire must be noted as being the man who is really breeding Hampshire hogs on a large scale and probably doing most to further this breed in Putnam county is H. O. Easman, located one mile north of Bainbridge. The writer had the pleasure of going through Mr. Easman's hog plant and of seeing his breeding animals. The hog plant is exceptionally well equipped with modern hog houses and handling devices. The breeding herd consists of two herd boars, 80 gilts and 100 sows. Besides these, there will be 44 head of bred sows and gilts which will go through his sale ring in Champer's barn at Greencastle on the evening of February 25. The very best sows and gilts of this herd will go into Mr. Easman's sale.

Mr. Easman's senior herd boar, Cherokee Giant, is indeed an exceptional individual with massive bone, beautifully arched back and great stretch. He is out of Cherokee Lad who was a grand champion boar and was the sire of more champion boars than any Hampshire living. No better bred boar could be found than is Mr. Easman's senior herd boar.

The junior herd boar, Westwood Boy, is one of the longest, growthiest and most symmetrical pigs the writer ever saw. He is out of a champion sow sired by a grand champion boar and was sired by one of the most consistent ribbon pullers of the breed.

It will be economy for breeders to pay good, long prices for the sows and gilts which have been bred to these two great boars.

ASK RECEIVER FOR STANDARD HEATING CO.

THREE STOCK HOLDERS FILE SUIT IN THE PUTNAM CIRCUIT COURT ASKING JUDGMENT ON NOTE—ALLEGED THAT COMPANY IS UNABLE TO MEET ITS FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS

MAY BE A REORGANIZATION

James E. Houck, Ralph E. Knoll and Walter Albaugh, three Putnam county men, have filed a suit against the Standard Heating Co., asking judgment of $3,000, and that a receiver be appointed for the concern. The three men in their complaint allege that in December, 1919, they signed notes as security to secure a loan of $4,000 from the Citizens National Bank for the Standard Heating Co. The money, they allege, was used by the company in the promotion of its business. Each of the men at the time were stock holders in the company. They allege that $1,544.71 was paid on the note, but that the balance is due and unpaid. To secure themselves these men took mortgages on the property, in south Greencastle, used by the Standard Heating Company as its factory and offices.

That the company is unable to meet its obligations, is further alleged, and the three men ask that a receiver be appointed.

The Standard Heating company is a concern in which many Putnam county men are interested. The company has two offices and factories, one in Greencastle and one in Chicago. According to the statement of a man interested in the company the Greencastle branch operated last year at a nice profit. However, the Chicago office business, showed a big loss. A few days ago at a meeting of the stock holders in Chicago, Ralph Knoll of this city was elected president of the company, and Walter Albaugh, also of Greencastle, was chosen secretary.

Whether the company will be reorganized and continue in operation, with Greencastle as the headquarters, eliminating the Chicago factory and office, or not is a question. The suit was brought in order to protect the three men who went security for the Standard Heating Co. loan and to bring to a head the financial tangles of the company.

MANHATTAN

Well, the snow and ice is off of the roads at last and folks are venturing out again, and if it was not for the ground hog we might think that winter was over, but he seldom makes a mistake and according to his prediction we will have six more weeks of winter.

Mrs. Mary Zaring is on the sick list.

Mrs. Ross Zaring visited her mother, who is in the hospital at Indianapolis, last Monday.

There is a great deal of sickness of bad colds, but no flu has been discovered thus far in this community. The weather begins to feel like maple molasses time and the sugar birds are singing again.

THE PUTNAM COUNTY BEE KEEPERS MEET ON APRIL 19

Bee keepers of Putnam county and members of the County Horticultural Society will hold a joint all-day session at Greencastle on April 19, at which time C. O. Yost, state apiary inspector, and Frank N. Wallace, state entomologist, of the state conservation department, will address the convention. At this meeting Mr. Yost will also arrange the date for a county tour for inspecting all bee colonies in the county.

In their talks to the convention, the speakers from the division of entomology will cover thoroughly all phases of the beekeeping industry; discuss the disease and their characteristics to which bees are subject, tell how to manipulate the hives in order to contain the maximum amount of honey and, in general, conduct a school of instruction in bee culture. The convention is free and open to the public and it is earnestly hoped all beekeepers in Putnam County will co-operate in this state-wide educational campaign.

Plans adopted by the State Beekeepers' Association in its state-wide campaign intended to convince of the importance of and profit from the industry including the following:

To assist County Beekeepers Associations to secure supplies for their members at wholesale prices.

To keep a list of reliable queen-breeders and up-to-date information as to their ability to make prompt delivery.

To issue letters at intervals bringing to notice matters needing attention at that particular season.

To keep a list of persons having bees or equipment for sale or desiring to buy same.

To gather information as to crop conditions and locations.

To keep a list available to anyone desiring to buy honey or having honey for sale.

To conduct a campaign for production and packing honey in marketable conditions.

To secure as speakers at the annual meeting, men of national reputation.

To explain the advantages and advocate the greater use of honey.

To advocate better beekeeping by every possible means.

To exert the Association's entire influence at the meeting of the State Legislature toward furthering of the beekeeping industry in Indiana.

Ten beekeepers in any county can form a county association and affiliate with the state association. There are approximately 20,000 beekeepers in Indiana who own about 200,000 colonies of bees.

POLITICAL GOSSIP FROM WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Complaint is being made by the members of the Indiana delegation in Congress that Carl Mote, secretary to the Public Service Commission in Indiana and political secretary to Governor Goodrich is becoming too prolific as a letter writer. The complaint is rather to the point that Mr. Mote has been endeavoring to force upon the Indiana delegation his friend the Indiana governor.

It has become known that one of the recent letter received from Mr. Mote was addressed to Representative Vestal of the district in which the Indiana Governor resides. Mr. Vestal has attended a meeting of the Indiana members of the House at which it was proposed that the support of the Indiana delegation be given entirely to Senator Watson's candidacy for the presidency. The effort to even get consideration for the name of Governor Goodrich met with disaster.

Immediately after this conference was held and word of the result went back to Indiana, letters started to come from Mr. Mote. He first called upon Representative Moores of Indiana to tell what had happened at the conference and very frankly Mr. Moores advised him of how the Indiana Governor had been buried in the protests of the Indiana members. It appeared that it was very difficult for Mr. Mote to believe that such could have been the result and he implied as much in another letter to Mr. Moores and the second letter did not rest very well with the member from the Seventh Congressional district.

The next letter came to Mr. Vestal. In it Mr. Vestal attention was called to the conference and to the fact that the report was that the support of the entire Indiana delegation was to go to Watson. If Mr. Vestal intended to support Senator Watson, Mr. Mote wanted to know about it. For Mr. Vestal's attention, Mr. Mote pointed out that he represented the district in which the Indiana Governor lived and according to some reports, it was stated also that without the support of Mr. Goodrich it might be impossible for Mr. Vestal to return to Congress.

This last letter seems to have had an unhappy effect on Representative Vestal, for up to this time, Mr. Vestal has studiously refrained from offering any further offense to the Indiana Governor. He has remained neutral but with the indication of a slight leaning to the Indiana Governor. And he is the only member of the delegation who has assumed this attitude. The others have very frankly informed the Indiana governor that if they have to seek a choice in the personal fight between Senator Watson and Governor Goodrich, they prefer not to align themselves in any manner with the Goodrich administration in Indiana. They are now informing the entire state they are ready to support "the choice" of Mr. Watson for the presidency, none other than Senator Warren Harding of Ohio.

Goodrich's next move, expected to be heralded by another letter from Mr. Mote, is being watched with much interest by the Indiana members of the house.

The Indiana members who have watched the developments closely are now inclined to believe that perhaps Mr. Mote originated the idea of having Albert J. Beveridge enter the race as a candidate for the Senate in opposition to Senator Watson. But they point out that Mote hardly would have proceeded with this proposal if the Governor had not given his approval and that undoubtedly Goodrich can be charged with the effort to get opposition arranged against Senator Watson.

Little Martha Vaughan, the seven-year old daughter of Ernest Vaughan who resides near Brick Chapel, was struck by a Ford touring car driven by Sherman Duncan, as she started to cross the street in front of Groves & Miller grocery store at near 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Luckily she was not badly hurt. She was staying with her aunt, Miss Emma Vaughn, who lives at the home of Charles Huffman and was going over her aunt to dinner when the accident occurred. Fortunately the Duncan machine was moving slowly and after pushing the little girl down and wrenching her hands and face, the first axle passed over her without the wheels touching her and the machine was brought to a stop with the little girl under the machine. She was taken to Dr. Tucker's office where her wounds were dressed.

Glenn, the seven-year-old son of Thomas Young, who has been seriously ill of pneumonia, is improving slowly.

LUCKY STRIKE CIGARETTE

WHEN you see this famous trade-mark, think a minute! Think of the delicious taste of a slice of fresh toasted bread!

That's the real idea back of the success of Lucky Strike cigarettes. Toasting improves tobacco just as well as bread. And that's a lot.

MOFFETT AND CURTIS INELIGIBLE AT DEPAUW

DePauw basket ball hopes received a rude jolt with the announcement by the university registrar that Moffett and Curtis, star members of the Tiger five, are ineligible for competition in the remainder of the year because of conditions received in examinations the last semester.

Coach Buss declared the loss of these two stars would seriously hamper the DePauw basket ball five for the remainder of its schedule. DePauw fans tonight expressed much regret over the outcome of the Washington game scheduled with DePauw to be played here Thursday night. Local followers had looked for a victory until the announcement from the registrar.

Moffett played back guard on the Tiger five this season and had gained a reputation as one of the leading guards of the state. Curtis worked at the center position on the Tiger machine. Both men received high grades with the exception of one course, which, according to the registrar, makes them ineligible for competition the remainder of the semester.

HOG EATS EAR AND HAND OF A STRICKEN MAN

FRANK SNODGRASS, FARMER, WHO LIVES NEAR FILLMORE, SUFFERS SEVERE INJURIES AFTER HE HAD FALLEN IN HOG LOT OF A STROKE OF APOPLEXY

DIES THIS AFTERNOON

His left hand and left ear eaten off by hogs, after he had fallen from a stroke of apoplexy, in his hog lot, where he had gone to feed his hogs, was the terrible accident which occurred on Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock to Frank Snodgrass, age near 60 years, at his home near Fillmore. Had he not been found by members of the family soon after he had fallen it is probable that he would have been more terribly mangled by the hogs.

The fingers and thumb of the left hand were eaten off by the hogs and his entire ear eaten. Snodgrass was unconscious when found and up to late Sunday night he had not regained consciousness.

The death of Frank Snodgrass, who was seriously injured Sunday afternoon at his home near Fillmore when he suffered a stroke of paralysis and fell in the hog lot while feeding the hogs and his left hand and ear were eaten off before he was found, occurred at near mid-night Sunday night. Mr. Snodgrass never regained consciousness. He is survived by his wife and two sons, Frank and Charlie Snodgrass of Fillmore.

POLITICAL GOSSIP FROM WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—Fear that the efforts to pump life in the presidential boom for Major General Wood in Mississippi cannot be stifled now in time to really put Senator Harding of Ohio over is being expressed by the friends of Senator Watson of Indiana. The suggestions coming from the Watson camp put an entirely new phase on the sudden Wood boom which seemed to sweep over Indianapolis and in part through Indiana.

It is being suggested here now that undoubtedly Watson's closest friends were behind the original Wood boom. Lucius Hamilton of Indianapolis never has been opposed to Watson, according to the best information had in Washington, now and it was Mr. Hamilton who was giving impetus to the Wood campaign in Indianapolis. It is now believed by Watson's friends that Mr. Hamilton would oppose the desires and demands of Watson.

But the Wood boom served its purpose, that of driving from the race Governor James B. Goodrich of Indiana. Once the Wood balloon was thoroughly inflated, Goodrich had no further opportunity for success and the only course he could pursue at that hour was to withdraw. His statement about not wanting the Indiana delegation to support him came shortly after the Wood boom got under way.

Watson, of course, always has been strongly in support of Harding's candidacy. This has been but natural in view of the fact that Harding has been first and last the chosen son of the Old Guard of which Watson has become prominent as a leader. Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania wants Harding nominated and it will follow naturally that Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican National Committee and the voice of Penrose as truly as that can be possible, will be for Harding.

The Watson influence already can be seen in the voice which came from the Indiana delegation in the House. The closest friends Watson has on the House side have been willing to fight first and last for Harding and have expressed this determination at the same time that Watson seemed to be urging that Goodrich be not enraged.

When the time comes, Watson's friends in Indianapolis are not expected to be willing to give even the slightest support to General Wood. The very least that will be desired will be an unqualified delegation to be controlled entirely by Watson. This will be the final play that Wat-

SCIENCE TALKS A celebrated scientist referring to cod-liver oil said that Nature had given the world "almost a ready-made food". SCOTT'S EMULSION is richest Norwegian cod-liver oil, elaborated in a scientific manner, very much as Nature wraps up each globule of butter-fat. Scott's is not unlike cream in consistency, but many assimilate it easier than they do other fats. Scott's Emulsion is concentrated nourishment that helps keep the body strong. Give it a trial.

The exclusive grade of cod-liver oil used in Scott's Emulsion is the famous "S. & B. Process," made in Norway and refined in our own American Laboratories. It is a guarantee of purity and palatability unsurpassed. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

The Velvet tin is twice as big as shown here

There's a World of Solid Comfort In the Rich, Red Tin

YES, sir, we mean that same warm red and gold tin that smiles a welcoming "Howdy" to you in every tobacco store. Know what those colors mean?

The red is for the friendly warmth, the mellow cheeriness, that Velvet puts into your old pipe. And the gold is where the Kentucky sunshine, that ripens good old Velvet, has just sort of soaked through.

Remember what Velvet Joe said about it?

"You've met canned meat and canned music. Ever seen any tinned sunshine? Well, look into any Velvet tin."

And think this over:

We don't have to hide Velvet's taste or smell with a lot of this, that and the other thing. Because Velvet has naturally what pipe smokers want—real simon-pure tobacco taste and fragrance. It's just good, honest Kentucky leaf, made still more friendly and mellow by two years' ageing in wooden hogsheads. Just good tobacco. That's all. But it's mighty near enough for the man who wants a pipeful of tobacco and not a box of bon bons.

The picture of a pipe on the tin needn't keep you from rolling a jim-dandy cigarette with Velvet.

How's the Velvet holding out in your old red tin?

For the Children.

Too much care cannot be exercised in selecting a cough medicine for children. It should be pleasant to take, contain no harmful drug and most effectual in curing their coughs and colds. Long experience has shown that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy meets their conditions. It is a favorite with many mothers.

The last game on the Greencastle basketball schedule with Martinville will probably be the stiffest team the local lads will play this season. The Martinville lads are conceded by many to have a team which will be a runner-up in the state tournament.

CREDIT is the Basis of Our Financial Structure

The amount of actual money that changes hands in the United States is negligible in proportion to the volume of business transacted, and compared with business methods in foreign countries. This, unquestionably, is one thing which has increased the prosperity of this country and brought it to the commanding position it now holds in the world's affairs.

To the young business man or farmer, nothing is more necessary than the establishment of his credit with a strong, progressive bank, which can help him when he needs it. Consistent, systematic saving will do more to establish that credit than any other one thing.

TWO FLAGMAN FOR JACKSON ST. CROSSING

CITY COUNCIL WILL INSIST THAT BETTER SERVICE BE GIVEN BY THE MONON RAILROAD—COUNCIL MEETS TUES. DAY NIGHT

IS A DANGEROUS CROSSING

The Monon railroad will be required to keep a crossing flagman at the Jackson street crossing from 6 o'clock in the morning until late in the evening, if the desire of the city councilmen, as expressed at the regular meeting of the council on Tuesday night, is carried. This crossing is regarded as one of the most dangerous in Greencastle and under the present plan only one flagman is employed by the railroad to watch this crossing. He goes on duty at 6 o'clock in the morning and leaves at 4 in the afternoon.

Many complaints have been made to the council from persons who frequently cross the Monon tracks on Jackson street. They contend that there is more traffic from 4 o'clock in the afternoon until 7 o'clock at night than there is at any other time during the day.

Previously the council, through the late Taad Peck, former city attorney, had taken this matter up with the railroad, but no decision was reached. Now the council is determined, if possible, to require the railroad to use two watchmen at the crossing, so that the crossing may be safeguarded from early in the morning until late in the evening.

City Attorney J. H. Allee has been instructed to take the matter up with the railroad and get an early decision. This was the most important business transacted by the city council at its meeting on Tuesday night. The claim ordinance was passed; John Cook was given a permit to build a sheet iron shed at the rear of his store building; J. I. Cash was granted a permit to install an apparatus in front of his business room on Indiana street and Seminary street improvement was again discussed.

It has been previously announced that the council would receive plans for the improvement of Seminary St. at its meeting Tuesday night, but the plans failed to materialize. The reason is that, although the councilmen had agreed upon a concrete pavement, they now are undecided and may use some other material, recommended by the engineer, which now is in use in Indianapolis, will be investigated by the council members. Two councilmen and two Seminary street residents will go to Indianapolis soon to investigate the paving material recommended.

HOME BREW HOUNDS HIT BY DRY RULE

The federal prohibition law has a "kick" in it that even officials of cities, towns, counties and states dare not "wink."

"Home brewers" are hit by the act, according to the interpretation of the law by Director C. J. Orbison.

It is not permissible to make whiskey, beer or wine in your own home and the mere possession of apparatus for brewing and bottling "home brew" renders the owner liable to federal prosecution.

In a letter sent out by the district representative of the government, it was made very plain that the federal officers are expecting the authorities of Greencastle and Putnam county to do their full duty in upholding the new law.

Judge Orbison states that he anticipates little friction between his force and local officers in handling the matters in this state, and will work in conjunction with local authorities. He made it clear, however, that they must come up to the mark in their efforts to see that the laws in this particular matter be obeyed.

Indiana Law Fixes Limit.

"The federal law," said Judge Orbison, "does not permit the making, selling or giving away of whiskey, beer or wine. It is not even permissible to make beer or wines for your own consumption, and the mere possession of apparatus for this purpose makes you liable. There is no limit to the amount of intoxicating liquor which you may have in your own home if you came by it legally."

under the federal law, but as I understand the Indiana state law, this amount is limited to one gallon. The state law also prohibits the issuance to physicians of permits to write prescriptions for whiskey, and I have therefore issued orders against this, though it is not prohibited by the federal law.

The federal law further makes liable as accessories before and after the fact any official who "winks his eye" at violations, or any druggist who knowingly sells liquor for other than medicinal purposes, and it is up to the druggist to satisfy himself that the liquor sold is for a legitimate purpose.

Lemon extract and other articles containing a high percentage of alcohol must be carefully guarded, also, and the sale of these in large quantities, or the repeated sale to the same individual will be the basis for an investigation and summary action, in event the seller is found guilty. The safety of the nation always depends upon the upholding of the law, and regardless of what you may think of prohibition morally, industrially, or economically, it is now the law, and any one who breaks it is as much a criminal as one who commits burglary.

THREE MILLION IN REAL ESTATE DEALS IN 1919

RECORDS AT COUNTY RECORDER'S OFFICE SHOW THAT $2,987,000 IS AMOUNT OF CONSIDERATION IN LAND DEALS IN PUTNAM COUNTY LAST YEAR

MANY MORTGAGES ARE FILED

Consideration shown in the 1,321 deeds filed with the Putnam county recorder during the past year, show that $2,987,000 worth of real estate changed hands in Putnam county in 1919.

As many deeds showed considerations of only $1., the amount shown is far below the amount really involved in the real estate transactions. It is not necessary that the real estate consideration be shown in a deed, but in many instances the entire amount is shown. In 378 of the 1,321 deeds filed last year with the recorder the amount of consideration in the deal was shown as $1.

If the true consideration had been shown in these 378 deeds, the total amount of consideration would be greatly increased.

During the year 1,321 deeds were recorded, showing a total of $2,987,000. Of these 378 showed considerations of $1 each. The number and kind of mortgages filed during the year and the amounts involved are shown in the following table:

Mortgage	Amount
Farm land, 430	$1,139,541.00
City lots, 266	274,056.00
School Fund, 30	48,230.00
Chattel, 353	121,665.00
Liens, 40	5,721.00

POPULATION CENTER MAY HAVE MOVED EASTWARD

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—The decennial census, now being taken, will reveal United States has moved eastward and not toward the west or the south as commonly predicted, J. A. Hill, statistician of the Census Bureau, predicted tonight in an address at the National Press Club.

The 1910 census showed the center of population to be in Bloomington, Indiana, and in 1900 the center was some fifty miles eastward or near Columbus, of the same state. Preliminary reports thus far received, said Mr. Hill, while revealing the eastward movement, do not contain sufficient figures to make any estimate of the extent of the eastward movement.

After the war movement to the eastern cities together with the wartime growth of the eastern industrial centers, the census statistician said, have more than counteracted the westward movement of population.

The funeral of Mrs. Eliza King, who's death occurred Wednesday morning at the home of her son, Thomas King, north of town, was on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Walte Lear, on North Indiana street. The body of John Saddler, which has been in the vault in Forest Hill cemetery since his funeral was also buried in the old cemetery on Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Saddler was a daughter of Mrs. King.

POLITICAL GOSSIP FROM WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Reports from investigators who have recently traveled through the Southern States are that the various delegations which will go to the Republican National convention have been lined up invariably so that Senator Watson of Indiana will be the second choice for the presidency. In very nearly every instance, the first choice of the delegation is Major General Leonard Wood.

The conditions reported are similar to those which prevailed prior to the 1916 election when the investigations showed that Senator Watson's name was just as familiar to the negroes who make up these delegations as a rule as it is now. Everywhere the second choice of the Republicans of the southern states was Watson.

Announcement which comes from the Indiana delegation in the House that support for Senator Harding of Ohio is growing in the delegation gives just an indication in Washington of how the game is being played. Watson's expressed determination to give Harding every support that he can is pictured in the announcement from Representative Will Wood and otherwise that Harding is the choice of the greater number of the Indiana members of the House.

Though it is admitted that General Wood has gotten a fine start and has been leading in the field, the Old Guard already has its plans for dropping Wood already for action when the precise moment arrives and it can be counted upon that such skilled politicians as Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania and Senator Watson of Indiana will know when the precise moment is at hand. Then Senator Watson, of course, is expected to "deliver" the personal strength he has acquired.

Wood will be driven out of the race already there is an inkling that he is to be given the exit sign in the propaganda coming from the Republican leaders that Wood is losing ground rapidly in the west and that he could not count upon support from the states which were expected to provide an excuse for his entrance into the national convention as a candidate of prominence. For a few weeks this campaign of propaganda will be watched closely and then if successful, will be developed elsewhere and gradually the cornerstone for the Wood candidacy will be nicked and the General will find himself still a General in the Army and nothing else.

Where will the delegates from the southern states go in that event? That is the reason for the demand that Watson be the second choice of the southern delegations. When Watson finds an opportunity to use them the directions will be given and the votes will be cast as he wished them cast. In this way, Watson will become even a greater power in the national convention than it seems on the surface and in this way Senator Harding of Ohio, candidate of the Old Guard will get his great support.

It is an old game in national politics but a good one can be testified to by the results of the convention of 1912 and 1916 but as to the wisdom of such campaign at this time, there is considerable doubt. The progressive Senator or those on the Republican side who wish to style themselves as progressive, already have informed the Old Guard they will not support Harding if he is nominated. They have linked together the names of Harding and Watson and insisted it would be suicidal to the national interest to nominate either. It has even been asserted by them that they would support Penrose for the presidency before they would support either Harding or Watson and the reason is made plain, the people would know what to expect of Penrose and would be on their guard from the moment he took office. From Watson and Harding the people might be led to expect a Chief Executive who would serve the best interest of all the people and therein, the progressive Senators insist, the people would not get what they expect.

BEWARE OF TREE BUTCHERS

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 9.—Frequency of shade tree trimming is urged and the importance of having the work executed by skilled men and avoiding employment of the "tree butchers" is a subject interesting Hoosier citizens generally at this season.

According to the state forester of the Department of Conservation, shade trees should be pruned each year, but never topped. Removal of the bulk of the leaders not only ruins the appearance but often results in early decay and death. Shade trees, like children, need training from childhood up. All dead, dying and interfering branches should be removed. In event the tree is growing too tall or spreading too widely, the ends of the branches can be clipped off. If a tree grows too tall it does so because the branches do not have room to grow laterally. In this case it is better to remove the tree. Large size trees should not be nearer than 30 to 40 feet. However, one often sees them 10 to 20 feet distant, and the result is the proximity destroys the symmetry of the tree and the landscape effect of tree planting.

Shade trees may be pruned any time of the year, but if much of the top is removed it should be done when the tree is leafless. It is advisable to do all pruning when the tree is in a dormant state, or when leafless. In removing branches regardless of size, they should be cut off close to the axis of support. It is not necessary to treat the wounds. Frequently wounds are treated with paint that kill the growing layer of the tree. If the wounds are treated it is best to use a paint made of linseed oil, yellow ochre and colored lamp-black which resembles the color of tree bark. Do not use driers or turpentine in the paint.

A folder on pruning shade trees can be obtained by writing the State Forester, Department of Conservation, Indianapolis, Ind.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Feb. 9.—At the request of Governor Goodrich and the State Conservation Commission, Ele Stansbury, attorney general, has begun condemnation proceedings in the Parke Circuit Court against 119 acres of land adjoining the Turkey Run State Park. The land belongs to the Hoosier Veneer Company of Indianapolis and the additional property is necessary in order to give the park entrance from the public highway and a propagation place for game. Although the timber has been removed from the place, the price asked by the veneer company for the bare land is considered too high by the state.

The members of the Big Type Poinsett and China hog breeders' association met in the County Agent's office Saturday afternoon and elected the officers for the ensuing year. O. M. Thomas of Bainbridge was elected president; Grafton Longdon, Vice-president; O. E. Hammond, secretary; Lowell Dicks of Fillmore, treasurer. An executive committee was then appointed consisting of the four officers and Charles A. Jackson, county agent. The object of the association is to promote breeding and registering of hogs, encourage better trade opportunities and to stimulate closer relations in improved live stock. They also intend to arrange public sales when conditions are favorable and see that all hogs are inspected by a field man before each sale.

A divorce was granted to Elizabeth Darnell by Judge James Hughes in the Putnam County Circuit court from Andrew Darnell on the plea of cruel and inhuman treatment. Mrs. Darnell's maiden name, Elizabeth Mackall was restored.

DEATH COMES TO PHILIP ALBAUGH

[The death of Philip Albaugh, age 87, an old resident of this city and a prominent Putnam County farmer, occurred Saturday night at his home on East Washington street of old age. Mr. Albaugh is survived by his wife and two children, Mrs. Albaugh and Mrs. Frances Groves of Knob Noster, Missouri and Wallace Albaugh of this city.

Mr. Albaugh was born in this county in 1833 and received his common school education in the country school here. At an early age he became a member of the First Baptist church of which he is still a member.

Funeral was held at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning at the home, burial in Forest Hill cemetery.

BATIK SHOW OPENS

Blouses, scarfs, fire screens, wall hangings, bags and negligees were included in the batik show which opened at the H. Lieber galleries Saturday under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Baker. There were also piles of toys made by the pupils at Shortridge High School under the supervision of Miss Marie (Todd), and a number of pieces of hand-made jewelry. A group of articles illustrating the tie-dyed process of decoration also makes an interesting collection. The show which is open to the public will continue all week.

The judges who passed on the articles were Miss Rhoda E. Selleck, Miss Olive Rush and Frank Zimmerer. The articles were divided into three groups, professional, amateur and student work.

Among the exhibitors were Miss Henrietta Coleman, of Rushville, a student in batik work under Peter Mijer of New York; Mrs. Louis Zarling, Greencastle; Mr. and Mrs. Baker, Miss Rush and Miss Selleck, Charles Milholland, Miss Gladys Arbuckle, Mr. Zimmerer, Mrs. Alfred Potts.

An interesting feature of the exhibit is an original Javanese lent by Mrs. V. F. Marsters, of Kansas City, through her sister, Miss Coleman. Two other interesting pieces were sent from Scotland for this exhibit by their owner, Mrs. Jesse M. King.—Indianapolis News.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hartley have returned to Greencastle from Kansas and will make this their future home.

WILLIS E. GILL CANDIDATE FOR REPRESENTATIVE

With the official announcement in the Herald of the candidacy of Willis E. Gill, of Cloverdale, as a Democratic candidate for the nomination for representative of Putnam county, the list of those asking nomination by the Democratic party is assuming a real "campaign shape."

Mr. Gill, a successful farmer and business man, has a large acquaintance in Putnam county. He is a man well fitted to serve the people of the county in the lower house of the Indiana legislature and his nomination would add strength to the county ticket.

With Reese Buis of Marion township, and David J. Skelton of Washington township, seeking the nomination for commissioner from the Second and Third districts, respectively, the Democrats can be assured of splendid candidates for those offices. Each of these men are well qualified and entitled to the support of the voters of the county. So far no candidates have announced in opposition to either Mr. Buis or Mr. Skelton and there is no talk of a second candidate for representative at this time. Other candidates may develop, however, as the primary is yet a long way off.

In the sheriff's race, the condition is much different, there being a number of men seeking this nomination.

The list of candidates for Sheriff contains the names of many well qualified and representative Democrats. Those who have officially announced themselves as candidates in this race are:

Edward H. Eiteljorge, Greencastle, E. S. Wallace, Greencastle, Harklus L. Jackson, Greencastle, Fred Lancaster, Madison township, Jesse M. Hamrick, Greencastle, Will Glidewell, Warren township, Vermandus C. Hurst, Greencastle, Allen Eggers, Jackson township.

The primary election will be held on May 4, which is still three months away. During the three months many more candidates are apt to announce themselves for nominations. As is usual the Republicans are not seeking the Putnam county nominations, that party waiting until the last minute to "draft" their candidates.

Miss Era Bence, who has been spending her semester vacation with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Bence of this city returned to Urbana, Ill., Monday, where she is an instructor in piano at the University of Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Boswer of Indianapolis were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Allen, Jr.

OBITUARY

Richard Harrison Bowen, son of Charles and Mary Ellen Bowen, was born at Greencastle, Indiana, November 24, 1864, and passed away at his home in Putnamville on January 24, 1920, at the age of 55 years, 2 months and 3 days.

He came with his parents to Putnam county, Indiana, at the age of one and one-half years, and settled near Mt. Meridian and has lived continuously in this county with the exception of one and one-half years which was spent in Starke County, Indiana, and has lived at his present home for 54 years. He obtained his education in the grade schools of Jefferson township, and at the age of 19 began teaching in the public schools, and he taught for about 12 years in Putnam and Starke counties.

At the age of 17 he enlisted in Company 1, 55th Regiment Indiana Infantry, and was in the service 3 months and was discharged on account of sickness.

In the spring of 1865, he, with his father-in-law went into the merchandise business in San Pierre, Ind., and continued until the fall of 1866, when they moved to Putnamville, continuing in the same line of business for about 30 years. Then he entered into the lumber business and remained in this business until his health failed about 9 years ago. During this 9 years he had been a constant sufferer.

On March 7, 1865 he was united in marriage with Emily Frances Stoops. To this union was born one daughter, Ida Florence, who died in 1885, at the age of 17 years.

March 16, 1867, he united with the Presbyterian church at this place and remained a faithful worker in the church and Sunday school as long as his health would permit.

He leaves to mourn his loss, his faithful wife, one brother, J. J. Bowen, of Putnamville, and a number of other relatives and a host of friends.

The case of Elmer Bush against Joe Disney, from Cloverdale, for the possession of one dog, was tried before a jury in Esq. Frank's court on Saturday, the jury returned a verdict in a short time after the case was submitted to them, giving Disney the dog. Fay Hamilton represented Bush and James & Allee, represented Disney, the costs and lawyers fees in this case would buy several dogs, but both sides said it was the principal involved that they were lawing over. There were a number of witnesses in the case. The dog was introduced as evidence in the case, as exhibit "A."

Sunday morning at 9:30 members of the student body are asked to attend a meeting to be held in McHarry Hall instead of the regular student Sunday school classes at the Methodist churches which will not meet Sunday. The convention will close Sunday night with a meeting in McHarry Hall.

The DePauw Y. W. C. A. has subscribed $1,000 to build a gymnasium at the Frances DePauw school for Spanish girls at Los Angeles, Cal. The money is to be paid by the organization in four years. Methods of raising the money were discussed at the meeting on Monday. Frances DePauw was the wife of Washington C. DePauw, the great benefactor of the local institution of higher learning.

The first inter-mural track meet of the season will be staged in the Bowman gymnasium next Saturday morning at 10 o'clock between the four classes of DePauw.

The Purdue Glee Club will entertain in the Bowman gymnasium Friday evening, February 20, by the members of the DePauw Club following the concert by the former. Girls will be invited from the sorority houses and the dormitories. Prof. and Mrs. Howard Barnum and Dean and Mrs. R. G. McCutchan will be the chaperons.

The Student Volunteer Convention which was to have been held at Earlham College, Richmond, from February 13 to 16 has been postponed because of the influenza epidemic at that college.

Katherine S. Alvord, dean of women at DePauw, has refused to sanction the new plans for the "open rush" which was recently made by the Pan-Hellenic association because pledging would be allowed in less than a week after registration. Dean Alvord wants the plan to include her plan of a DePauw week.

Chronic Constipation.

There are people who never have a movement of the bowels without it is produced by a cathartic. Most of them have brought that condition on themselves by the use of mineral waters and strong cathartics that take too much water out of the system and aggravate the disease they are meant to relieve. A mild laxative tonic like Chamberlain's Tablets affords a gentle movement of the bowels that you hardly realize has been produced by a medicine, and their use is not so likely to be followed by constipation.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend to our neighbors, friends and relatives our heartfelt thanks for their kindness and assistance during the illness and at the death of our dear beloved mother and grandmother; to the Rev. G. H. S. WINS TOURNAMENT

RUSSELLVILLE EASILY DEFEATED IN FINAL GAME PLAYED ON THE DEPAUW GYMNASIUM FLOOR SATURDAY EVENING—SCORE IS 28 TO 13

FIRST HALF ENDS IN TIE

The Greencastle high school basketball team won the Putnam County basketball championship Saturday night on the Bowman gymnasium floor when the local squad defeated the Russellville team in the finals by a score of 28 to 13. The game was witnessed by approximately two thousand people and each team loyally supported by hundreds of rooters.

The first half ended with a tie, the score being 9 to 9. The Greencastle lads came back with a rush during the last twenty minutes and out-played the visitors in every stage of the game.

Following the game, County Superintendent Frank Wallace presented as trophies a handsome leather banner to the Greencastle squad and the basketball used during the tournament to the Russellville team. A feature of the game on Saturday night was the excellent spirit shown by both losing and winning team.

Coach Wilfred Smith of the G. H. S. lads was greatly delighted with the result of the finals and will now begin work in preparation for the district tournament which will be held in the Bowman gymnasium on March 5 and 6.

The managers of the county tournament and those in attendance were pleased with the manner in which Ross Smith of Indianapolis refereed the tourney and he left Saturday night with many new friends in this city and county. Mr. Smith will be one of the four official referees in the state tournament, to be held at Bloomington on March 10, 11 and 12.

George York of Coach Smith's men started the scoring Saturday night by placing two field goals, then Gooding of Russellville placed a two pointer. While running, York injured an ankle and time was called on Greencastle for five minutes while York's injury was attended by Coach Smith. He resumed the game and although it pained him to run he played his usual fast game. Sewell of Russellville counted two more points and this made a tie score. Greencastle led again when Carl Allen, center, threw a field goal and then Sewell followed Greencastle's 2 point lead by a foul goal. Sewell kept bombarding the Russellville basket and managed to put his team in a three-point lead, the score standing 9 to 6 Allen of Greencastle High school threw a foul and York a field goal and the score stood a tie, 9 to 9. Then the whistle blew for the first half.

Greencastle's center, Carl Allen, and forward, George York, started off the second half with each a field goal and then Sewell of Russellville placed a foul, score then standing 13 to 10. Russellville seemed to lack its whirl-wind playing during the second half and permitted Frank Irwin, who had been substituted a few minutes before the twenty minute whistle for Jacob Hirt, Allen, and George York to run Greencastle's score to 22. Sewell threw a foul and the score stood 22 to 11. Gooding, of Russellville, threw a field and this closed the scoring of Russellville, while York managed to obtain two more fields and Irwin one two-pointer before the final whistle blew. The game ended 28 to 13 in favor of Greencastle.

The lineup and summary for the game is as follows:

Substitutions—Frank Irwin for Jacob Hirt.

NOTES OF THE TOURNEY AND SATURDAY NIGHT'S GAME

The players who brought the Putnam County championship to this city were, George York, Frank Irwin, Harold Taibott, Jacob Hirt, Lewis Hirt, Carl Allen, Robert Stoner and Frank Masten. Although possible one or two players did obtain the majority of the winning points, the whole team deserves the honor for winning the tournament. While some of the players were playing an offensive game the other players were playing their best in the defensive line.

Although only six of the eight players took part in the evening contest, the other two deserve no less praise as they played during the earlier games of the day so as to rest the other players for the night game. The game was not an individual game, it was a team's game and the team did its best.

It was during one of the intense moments of the Greencastle-Russellville game, about the time when the score stood 9 to 6 in favor of Russellville when little Miss Madonna Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thomas of this city, was seen with her head in her hands and eyes closed. On being questioned why she was not yelling for Greencastle this was the reply, "keep still, I'm praying." Perhaps that prayer did have something to do with Greencastle's sensational run-a-way from Russellville during the second half.

Jack Shanderand, Jesse White, were the two yell leaders for Russellville. They did their work well, keeping the south bleacherites yelling during the evening.

These are the words woven into the handsome leather banner given to Greencastle by the County Athletic Board, "Winner Putnam County Basketball Tournament, 1920."

As a curtainraiser for the Greencastle-Russellville game the Cloverdale high school and Roachdale high school contested. The Roachdale five won by a score of 24 to 3. The game was uninteresting as Cloverdale failed to obtain but few shots at the basket.

Financially the tourney was a great success. The treasurer reports over 800 dollars as the receipts of the tournament. This money will be divided among the schools of the county.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON GAMES

The Greencastle team easily swamped the Clinton Center quintet in the first game of the afternoon. Although badly beaten, Clinton Center deserves great credit for putting out a basketball team. There are only 11 boys in the school.

The lineup and summary is as follows:

Greencastle, 71 Clinton Center, 9
York..... ForwardMcGill
J. Hirt..... ForwardClodfelter
Allen..... CenterTerry
Masten..... GuardBurr

Substitutions—J. Stoner for York, Taibott for J. Hirt, Irwin for Masten, McGill for Gibson, Flint for McGill.

Foul Goals—Allen, 5; Clodfelter, 3. Referee—Ross Smith, of Indianapolis.

Russellville, 16; Bainbridge, 14. The second contest of the afternoon proved to be the "thriller" of the tournament. Bainbridge at times pushed Russellville for a win.

The lineup and summary is as follows:

Russellville, 16 Bainbridge, 14

Periodic Bilious Attack.

Persons subject to periodic bilious attacks will observe that their appetite fails them just before an attack. That is, they do not really crave food but eat because it is meal time. If they will eat only a light meal and no meat, then take two of Chamberlain's Tablets the attack may be avoided.

Robert S. Ball of Lebanon, a junior in DePauw, suffered a fracture of his left leg near 4:30 o'clock Monday afternoon when he fell during an inter-fraternity basketball game. Mr. Ball is a son of Dr. J. R. Ball, a well known physician in Lebanon. Dr. A. E. Ayler was called and reduced the fracture.

Dollars and Cents.

Counting it only in dollars and cents, how much did that last cold cost you? A man may not always stop work when he has a cold, but perhaps it would be better if he did. It takes about ten days to get completely rid of a cold under the usual treatment. That time can be much shortened by taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and proper care of your self, in fact, a bottle of this remedy in the house is a mighty good investment during the winter and spring months.

The 20th Infantry now stationed at Ft. Crook, near Omaha, Neb., which is almost entirely made up of men from Indiana, has been ordered to Ft. Harripen, Lieut. William T. Phillips, of the 20th infantry, who is in this city on recruiting service, has been ordered to return to his command at Ft. Crook, and will leave as soon as relieved by another officer. From there he will report at Ft. rison.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomas and two children who reside on Fox Ridge are confined to their home by a severe attack of influenza. Mr. Thomas is employed at the American Zinc Plant and Saturday when he did not arrive at the appointed time, a man was sent for him and found the entire family ill.

George Littell of Borden, Ind., is in this city the guest of his sister, Mrs. H. C. Rudisell and his daughter, Mrs. George Pfahler.

Miss Hazel Kilbourne, organist for the Locust street M. E. church, is confined to her home by illness.
